

Sept. 8, 1998

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met in the home of Mary Lou Bartley, Tuesday, September 8, 1998, at 2:30 in the afternoon with thirteen members present.

Our hostess served "hummingbird" cake ~~and~~ ~~along with~~ along with tea, coffee, or water.

Claire Merritt, president, introduced the remaining officers for 1998-99, including Sarah Howerton, vice president; Sarah Lee McGee, secretary and treasurer, and Bruce Malmo, program chairperson.

During the business session programs and meeting places were finalized. A motion was made to increase dues from $4.00 to $5.00 and will be voted on at the next meeting.

Dues were collected from the thirteen members present amounting to $65.00.

Barbara Yates' name was submitted for membership into the Guild. She will be invited to the next meeting and voted on at the appropriate time.

With no further business, the meeting adjourned to meet with Caroline Springs at "Something Special" on September 22nd.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Lee McGee,
secretary

Absent:

Sis Hennis
Pat Miller

September 22, 1998.

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts
Guild met on September 22, 1998, ^{at 2:30 P.M.} at "Something Special"—a new arts and crafts store in Mount Airy. ~~at 2:30 P.M.~~ Caroline Springs, ~~was~~ hostess, served cheese cake and coffee. Twelve members were present.

Claire Merritt, president, conducted a business session. Minutes were read and approved and names drawn for the Christmas party.

Dawn Hallman — gave a brief history of the new store and its establishment and following her remarks, the guild went downstairs to explore the wide array of crafts by North Carolina craftsmen.

The next meeting will be held on October 6, in the home of Claire Merritt with Jay Snow presenting the program.

Absent:

Mary Lou Bartley

Chris Beamer

Mary Lynn Haynes

Wilma Travis

Respectfully submitted
Sarah LeMcKee, secretary

Treas. $$15.00$
 ~~$$20.40$~~
 $+ 20.40$ from ^{last yr.}
100.40

October 6, 1998

Claire Merritt was hostess to the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild on October 6, 1998. She served delicious ^{lemon} pie made from one of her mother's ^{treasured} recipes.

Joy Snow brought supplies and instructed the members in making popsicle stick boys and girls. Beads were provided for names (of our grandchildren) which were attached to the boy or girl. Mine turned out very well; and I gave it to Zachary to hang on his ^{Christmas} tree or door.

The meeting adjourned to be held on November 17, at Sarah Hemerton's.

Respectfully submitted
Sarah Lee McHee
Secretary / Treasurer

The Mt. Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met at Wilma Travis' home on October 20, 1998.

Pat Miller was hostess and served delicious pumpkin ^{pie} cake.

A short business meeting followed.

A discussion about the trip to Bristol was held. The following people plan to meet at the Moravian Church at 8:00 a.m. on October 27: Chris Beames, Bruce Malone, Mary Rowe, and Wilma Travis. They will meet Joy Snow ~~on the mountain~~ at "Montaldo's on the mountain" and travel from there to Bristol in Joy's van.

after the business session, we adjourned to Wilma's basement where Wilma provided patterns and materials for each person to make plastic butterflies using milk bottle plastic, Elmer's glue, glitter, wire, and heads. Everyone had fun.

Eleven people were present. Those absent included: Mae Turpin, Sarah Lee McGee, and Sis Hennis.

A bill for ~~materials~~ ^{books} was later paid to Wilma for $15.00.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Lee McGee, secretary

Trip to Nov. 3
Bristol

On November 3, five members of the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild traveled to Bristol, Va. They reported an enjoyable trip. The next regular meeting will be held on November 17, at the home of Sarah Howerton.

Respectfully,
Sarah Lee McKee,
secretary

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met on November 17, at the home of Sarah Horvontons. with thirteen members present. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

A change in the meeting on January 12, was made. ~~The~~ The Jan. 12th meeting will be held at the home of Leeland Hennis. On January 26, Mary Lynn will be hostess and Sis Hennis will have the program.

A get-well card was signed by all present for Mary Lou Bartley.

It was announced that the Arts Council will have a workshop in ^{December} on Gingerbread houses if anyone is interested.

Following the business, everyone made string angels instructed by Wilma Travis.

The meeting adjourned. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Wilma Travis on December 1.

Barbara Yates
paid initiation fee.
$2.00

Absent:
Pat Miller
Mae Turpin

Respectfully,
Sarah Lee McFee,
secretary

Mailed Wilma Travis money for ~~supplies~~ yearbooks
$15

The Arts and Crafts Guild met on Tuesday, December 1, 1998 in the home of Wilma Travis. Delicious cheesecake was served with coffee.

The following members met to plan for the Christmas party: Chris Beamer, Lealan Hennis, Sarah Howerton, Bruce Malmo, Claire Merritt, and Sarah Lee McGee.

The remainder of the group used patterns and materials which Claire Merritt provided to make poinsettia napkin rings.

The meeting adjourned to meet at Bruce Malmo's on December 15, for the annual Christmas party.

Respectfully submitted
Sarah Lee McGee
Secretary / Treasurer

Disbursements for Christmas Party: Jan. 12th '99.

Bruce Malmo	$2.00	hors d'oeuvres
Sarah Howerton	-
Claire Merritt	$5.00	green beans - corn
Sarah Lee McGee	$20.00	meat - cranberry relish rice - casserole punch -
Chris Beamer	-	rolls - reg. tray

Wilma Travis for ~~supplies~~ yearbooks $15.00

The Christmas Party for the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild was a festive and most enjoyable affair. Bruce Malmo's home was beautifully decorated, and thirteen members were present. (December 15, 1999)

Hostesses providing the meal were Chris Beamer, Leelan Hennis, Sarah Howerton, Bruce Malmo, Claire Merritt, and Sarah Lee McGee.

The meal consisted of chicken and yellow rice casserole, cranberry relish, asparagus congealed salad, green beans with mushrooms, dessert tray, coffee and tea, ~~and rolls' beginning~~ Before lunch was served, hors d'oeuvres were served which consisted of punch, wine, cheese delights, vegetable tray, and dip.

After lunch ~~everyone~~ ^{we} gathered in the living room to exchange gifts. ~~Everyone~~ ^{All were} ~~was~~ delighted with ~~their~~ ^{this} gifts and thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas celebration.

Absent:

Bis Hennis
Mary Lynn Haynes

Respectfully submitted
Sarah Lee McGee
Secretary / Treasurer

On January 12, 1999, the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met with Lealand Henning with fourteen members present. This meeting was for business and "Show and Tell".

The hostess served delicious pecan pie, homemade mints, nuts, and coffee.

Plans were made to send all former members a valentine, and it was announced that Sarah Lee McGee would be in the hospital on January 14-15 for shoulder surgery.

Several members brought items they had made or received at Christmas to show to the group. These included picture calendars, tube socks made with rice to be used as heat pads, hangars with knitted covers, and other items.

The next meeting ^{on Feb. 23,} is to be a trip to the yarn stores on the mountain.

Absent:
Mae Targim.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Lee McGee, Sec.

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met on January 26, 1999, in the home of Mary Lynn Haynes. Thirteen members were present. Mary Lynn served delicious cheesecake, nuts, and coffee. A short business meeting was held bringing members up-to-date on the meetings for February 9, and February 23.

Sis Hennis was in charge of the program. She introduced Bennie Burton who distributed materials and instructions for making pin and needle booklets using crossstitch ^{on} ~~and~~ perforated paper.

Sis Hennis made one for Sarah Lee who had shoulder surgery on January 14. Thank-you, Sis! It is practical and very useful.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Lee McGee, Sec.

Absent:
Sarah Lee
Mae

On February 9, 1999, all members of the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild were present. The hostess, Mary Rowe served delicious raspberry tarts with chocolate sauce and coffee.

Valentines were sent to former members of the guild including the following:

Mary Lou Bartley	Lib Moires
Louise Hill	Sue Mason
Lib Griswald	Dot Hale
Laura Harms	Sandra Miller

Rocelle Hart Hillie Nisewind
Jay Snow spent $10.40, to be paid by treas.

Mary Rowe provided materials and instructed the members in making Valentine band boxes which were very pretty. We were to pay Mary $1.00 for materials.

The next meeting will be a trip to yarn and craft shops on the mountain. Those planning to go are to meet at the Moravian Church at 11:30 a.m. ^{on February 23.} They are to bring a sandwich and will eat at Jay Snow's where dessert will be provided by Jay.

Respectfully submitted
Sarah Lee McIsaac, Sec

On February 23, the trip to the yarn and crafts shops on the mountain was cancelled due to the weather. (Snow)

On March 9, since Maynard Bearer was in the hospital, Caroline Springs was to have the ^{at 8} MARCH, but due to snowy weather the meeting was cancelled. The March 23rd meeting is to be held in the home of Sarah Lee McGe with Leelan Hennis in charge of the program.

Respectfully,
Sarah Lee McGe, Sec.

Mar. 23 - Sarah Lee's

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met on March 23, 1999, in the home of Sarah Lee McGee with ~~thirteen~~^{eleven} members present. Refreshments consisted of pineapple-coconut pie served with coffee. A short business meeting was conducted by Claire Merritt, president.

Mary Rowe was in charge of the program. Materials were brought by Mary for each person to make a small ~~nest~~^{container} from half a walnut shell nesting a baby. A small hanger made from ribbon was attached so that it could be used as an ornament. Everyone enjoyed the project.

The meeting on April 6, will be held with Mae Turpin.

Respectfully,
Sarah Lee McGee, Sec.

Absent:

Mae

Wilma

Barbara

Chris

~~4 up~~

On April 6, the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met ~~in~~ with Mae Turpin with thirteen members present. Joy Snow assisted Mae in serving "dirt cake" in crystal flower pots along with tea and water.

The program was presented by Maud Randolph and was a demonstration of making a dome shade of crystal beads for a crystal lamp.

~~The~~ four people who are in line for officers are Pat Miller, Caroline Spriggs, Joy Snow, and Mary Rowe. They will decide among themselves as to which office each will hold.

The meeting on April 27, will be in the home of Sis Hennis.

Respectfully,
Sarah Lee McGee, secretary

Absent:

Wilma Travers
Chris Beamer

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met with Sis Hennis as planned on April 27.

A suggestion was made to draw names at ~~the~~ ^{the next} meeting, so members would have the summer to plan their gifts.

Another suggestion was ^{made} that at the picnic at Jory Snow's home on May 4, everyone bring a small potted plant to exchange.

Sis served delicious cheese cake and introduced Benny Burton who instructed members in making small needlepoint needle holders.

Respectfully,
Sarah Lee McFee, Sec.

Absent:
Sarah Lee McFee
Mae Turpin

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild held their annual picnic at Snow's Fancy on the mountain on May 4, 1999.

Members brought quite an array of foods that were enjoyed by everyone present.

Names were drawn for Christmas.

Joy had as her guest, her neighbor,

Everyone enjoyed the food and fellowship immensely.

Officers for next year are as follows: President, Caroline Springs, Mary Rowe, vice-president, Joy Snow, secretary-treas.

Respectfully,

Sarah Lee McGee, Sec.

Crafts Guild

1998-1999

Mary Lou Bartley	(resigned Oct. 6.	Dues pd)
Chris Beamer	Sept	Oct
Mary Lynn Haynes	Nov	Dec
Lealand Henries	Jan	Feb
Sis Henries	Mar.	April
Sarah Howerton	May
Bruce Malmo
Claire Merritt
Sarah Lee McKee
Pat Miller
Mary Reeve
Joy Snow
Caroline Springs
Wilma Traives
Mae Turpin
Barbara Yates

Treasurer's Report, 1998-99.

In the treasury at the beginning of the year:

$ 20.40

Dues collected: 16 x 5.00 $ 80.00

Initiation fee (Barbara Yates) $ 2.00

Total in treasury: $ 102.40

Disbursements:

16 sets of programs — $15.00 pd. to Milma

Valentines for former members plus postage: $10.40 (to Joy Snow)

Christmas party

Sarah Lee McGehee — $25.00

meat/rice

casserole cranberry relish, punch

Bruce Malmo — $2.00

Claire Merritt — $5.00

Sarah Horvath

Chris Beam

Memoial for
Mary Lou Bartley — $30.00

Total disbursements: $87.40

102.40

87.40

Balance $15.00

brought forward