Dr. E.G. Swem,
College of William & Mary,
Williamsburg, Virginia.

Dear Dr. Swem:

I hardly know where to send this letter, but probably had better send it to Washington, D.C. Library of Congress. I have inquired at the Public Library several times for the Virginia Historical Index, both in the Historical Department and the Genealogical Department, but they tell me it has not arrived. Miss Rowell, at the head of the Genealogical Dept. told me, some months ago, that Mr. Monnette had stated that he would order it. I do not understand why it has never been put in the library . The D.A.R. members are interested in it and so are the Colonial Dames, but in Southern California, neither of those organizations have a library or reading room of their own- all depending on the public library. We pay such enormous taxes and assessments for the support of such public institutions, that we have nothing left for ourselves individually .

On page 6 of the article I sent you about the Briggs- West-Gilliam families I gave an abstract of the will of Henry Briggs, which had been sent me by a genealogist. Last week, I obtained from the Virginia State Library, photastat copies of some of these wills; and I am enclosing the complete will of Henry Briggs. You see he does mention his son, George Briggs in this will, though in the abstract it was omitted.

I also have the photastat copy of the will of George Briggs(for which they only charged me thirty cents postpaid) in which he leaves his estate to his two brothers, Henry Briggs and Samuel Briggs. His will was proved in Surry Co. Va. March 7,1698/9.

Hoping that I may soon have the pleasure of examining the Index, I am

Yours very sincerely

Dear Mrs. Pleasants:

I have your letter with enclosed manuscript, all of which is most interesting.

I presume you have heard of the death of President Chandler. I shall devote the October number very largely to a biographical sketch and articles about the work of Dr. Chandler for the College. It is, therefore, not likely that I can print your contribution until the July number of next year.

Thank you very much for sending this to me.

Very sincerely,

EGS/LR

Will of Henry Briggs - Surry Co. Va.

In the name of God Amen, I Henry Briggs being in good health and memory do make this my last will & testament in manner and form following-

Imprs. I give and bequeath my Soul to God who gave it me & my body to the Earth to be decently buried.

Item: I give unto my Sonn, Henry Briggs, one hundred and fifty acres of Land beginning upon the Boyling Spring & continuing down the Otterdam Swampe, the b breadth of one hundred and fifty acres & ye length into the woods according to my bill of sale to him the said Henry Briggs his heirs and assignes forever.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my son Charles Briggs all the land from the hundred & fifty acres before mentioned unto my son-in-law(step-son) Thomas Blunt, his line, to him the said Charles Briggs his heirs & assignes forever.

Item: My will is that the land layed out for my son-in-law, Thomas Blunt, according to his bill of sale by me signed, be acknowledged in court by my Executrix to him the said Thomas Blunt his heirs and assignes forever.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my sons, George Briggs & Samuel Briggs, after ye decease of my wife, Margerie Briggs, all ye rest of my land not before exprest, to be equally divided betwixt them and the half that my plantation I now live on is to be my son George Briggs', to them the said George Briggs & Samuel Briggs their heirs and assignes forever.

Item: I give & bequeath unto my daughter, Marie Briggs, two cows with their increase & one feather bed, bolster and rug and four new pewter dishes & one horse.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my loving wife, Margerie Briggs after my debts are satisfied, all my estate real & personal, except what is in this will before mentioned to her the said Margerie Briggs, her heirs & assignes forever & do constitute my loving wife, Margerie Briggs my whole Executrix-

Signed & sealed the twenty-sixth day of Sept. in the year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred eighty & one — Henry Briggs, sealed with red wax in presence of Henry Batte,

Syl. Jole, B. Longwell, Daniel Sturdivant will was proved by the oaths of Henry Batte, Syl. Jole and Daniel ...nt on July 6, 1686- Will Book 2, page 58. Surry Co. Va.

Elderly people have always told us that in old Virginia days, it was considered a calamity to sell property out of the family connection; and that only kinspeople were asked to serve as Godparents, witnesses, securities, executors, and in other such positions of responsibility or honor.

The will of Henry Randolph(1721-1771) names Executors- Major Peter Poythress, John Gilliam Sr. and John Gilliam Jr.

So many genealogists have expressed a wish to find the maiden name of Jane, widow of Joseph Parsons, who married as her next husband, Major John Stith. The record dated Feb. 1655 in Charles City Co., where Joseph Parsons "surrendereth unto James Parham and his heirs forever all his right and title in a parcell of land at High Peake ", might mean that his wife was a Parham. It seems to indicate some kinship. The Albemarle Parish Register of Surry and Sussex Co. Va., lists the births of several children to "Stith Parham and Eliza, his wife" from 1753 on; and in Brunswick Co., we find Lewis Parham and James Parham of a later generation, acting as security for John Clack, who married Mary Kennon, descended from Major John Stith and his wife, Jane, who had married Thomas Gregory, before she married Joseph Parsons. John Clack had a sister Elizabeth, who married Claiborne Anderson, kin to the Stiths, both through the Claibornes and Andersons. Col. Augustine Claiborne married Mary Bulwer Herbert, who was the daughter of Bulwer Herbert and Mary Stith, who had been maid of honor to Queen Anne. I have an old note handed down in my family, stating that the Hubard, Hubbard, Hobart, Huber and Herbert families are all the same, which may assist someone in tracing their ancestry. Rev. Charles Anderson(b. 1670) had a daughter to marry Lt. Col. John Stith, son of Capt. John Stith and Mary Randolph, and grandson of Major John and Jane Stith. The older brother of John Clack, Sterling Clack, was deputy to Drury Stith, county clerk of Brunswick, and succeeded him in that office. Sterling Clack's wife, Ann Eldridge, was also a kinswoman of the Stith family, through her mother, Judith Kennon. Her brother, Thomas Eldridge Jr., married Martha Bolling, step-grand daughter of Ann Stith, second wife of Col. Robert Bolling.

The will of Francis Maybury, husband of Elizabeth(Gilliam) Maybury was dated March 20, 1711/12 and probated in Surry Co. Va. Office Book 1712-15, page 106. He mentions the same children that his wife names in her will, dated in 1713. He makes his wife Executrix, and the witnesses were- Robert Wynne, Thomas Wynne and Henry Beddington.

Records show that his daughter, Ann, married a Peebles; and his daughter, Mary, married George Fox, of the same family as Henry Fox, who married in 1683, Ann, daughter of Col. John West(1632-89) of New Kent Co. Va., grandson of Sir Thomas West, Lord Delaware.

William & Mary Quarterly Vol. 23, page 178, gives interesting information about Mary Stevens and her husband John Washington.

Quarterly 8-160 gives a list of Surry County Va. Tithables for 1668, and among them, we find Henry Briggs, Richard Briggs, Peter Greene, Thomas Greene, Jarrett(Garrett) Greene, Thomas Stevens, Capt. Thomas Flood, John Cary, Benjamin Harrison, Arthur Jordan. The last mentioned was a brother of Lt. Col. George Jourdayne, and the father of Elizabeth Jordan, who married Richard Washington. In the same vol. of the Quarterly, on page 165, we find George Jordan and George Stevens listed as Justices in Surry Co. in 1652.

It would be interesting to find proof that Henry Briggs of Surry was descended from the famous mathematician, Henry Briggs(1556-1630), who with Napier invented logarithms, and wrote and published many books on the subject.The Henry Briggs, who was an active member of the Court of Virginia Company of London in 1619, is thought to have been the grandfather of Henry Briggs of Surry Co. Va. His father may have been the Henry Briggs, whose letter is still preserved in England, written from Va. in 1623 to his brother, Thomas Briggs in England, and describing the hardships he was undergoing, one being that he was living on a wine-quart of corn a day.

The will of George Briggs was probated in Surry County in 1698, so he outlived his father, Henry Briggs, whose will was probated in the same county in 1686. The records show that George Briggs died unmarried. The will of Richard Stevens was probated in York Co. Va. in 1661 and in Surry Co. in 1662.

American Meeting.

At a meeting of the American Party, held in the County of Rockingham, on Saturday the 21st of March, John M. Reynolds, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Wm. H. Robertson, Esq., appointed Secretary.

The following preamble and resolution were then adopted.

In view of a call which has been made for a Convention to assemble in the town of Winston on the 7th April next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate from the 6th Congressional District, Be it

Resolved, That we do nominate and appoint the following delegates to represent us in said Convention, viz:

Dr. Robt Gallaway, John Moir, John H. Dillard, James G. Rainy, Dr. Wm. M. Johns, Daniel E. Guerrant, Thomas Rouch, Jr. Daniel Jordan, Jones W. Burton, Pryor Reynolds, Jr., Newton Wright, John H. Bullard, M. S. Carter, James C. Mustin, Dr. Patrick, Dr R. R. Robinson, Allen P. Smith, George L. Aiken, Jackson Scales, Thos. Hamlin, Jr., Thos. W. Field, P. Wharton, Charles Hudnull, B. S. Roberts, Robt. Moir, Jr., or any other American who may be there from the county at said meeting.

On motion the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list.

JOHN M. REYNOLDS, Chairman.
WM. H. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

From the Lynchburg Republican.

Railroad Connection between Lynchburg and North Carolina.

No. 1.

EDITORS OF THE REPUBLICAN.—A writer in the "Western Democrat," printed at Charlotte, N. C., in the No. of that paper of the 4th inst., over the signature of "Mecklenburg," advocates with great ability and liberality, a connection by Railroad of Upper North Carolina with Piedmont, Va., in preference to making the roads of this State to tend towards the seacoast in the neighborhood of Beaufort, a country which has justly been called "amphibious."

The writer of "Mecklenburg," in naming Danville as the point of connection with Virginia, throws his line too far South.

A road starting from Charlotte or Salisbury, N. C., and crossing the Big Dan river, at or near the town of Madison, and thence on to Lynchburg, would make nearly a straight line, and fall into, and form a part of the great Piedmont trunk of railway, now completed nearly two thirds of the distance between Alexandria and Lynchburg. The balance of this road between Charlottesville and Lynchburg is now being put out to contract, and will be built with all possible speed.

North Carolina, in connecting with Virginia on this line, will not lose the Eastern markets of Virginia, Norfolk, Petersburg, and Richmond as it is determined to extend the Richmond and Danville railroad up to, and beyond this line in a Western direction; so that such portions of the travel and tonnage coming on from the South, as it may be necessary, will descend to these markets on the Danville railroad from the point of intersection, or may continue on to Lynchburg and the James River and Kanawha canal and South Side Railroad may be used.

The strongest reason why North Carolina should encourage a connection by railroad with Lynchburg, is not that she would have access to the seabord of Virginia. By means of the Lynchburg and Alexandria, and the Fredericksburg and Gordonsville Railroads, the new markets of Fredericksburg, Alexandria and Baltimore would be opened to her for the sale of her wheat, flour, tobacco and all her great mineral products. Lynchburg, by means of agencies established there, is to be the great competing point for the purchase of all the varied productions of the country South and South west of her.

No. 2.

Summary of News.

Mr. Pierce is the first president who has made no change in his cabinet during his term of office.

In the Georgia Lunatic Asylum there are at present 160 patients; 92 males, and 68 females.

The Norfolk, (Va.) Argus says that a Louisiana gentleman is making money fast by purchasing consumptive negroes in Virginia at a nominal price. These he conveys to his sugar plantation, where they partake plentifully of the young shoots of the cane, and are speedily cured. The Argus learns that this planter has a standing order at Norfolk for negroes who have symptons to consumption!

A young man named Stewart, belonging in Greenbrier county, Va., recently recovered the sum of $5,400 from the James River and Kenawha Company, as a compensation for the breaking of his leg, in consequence of a defect in one of the company's bridges, whereby his horse was thrown.

It is said that since the secret marriage of the young lady in New York with her father's coachman, all the Fifth Avenue people are giving their "whips" a ticket of leave, and advertising for ugly fellows in their place, and married at that.

Wealth of the Cabinet.—A New York writer estimates the wealth of Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet as fallows: General Cass, $2,000,000; Howell Cobb, $500,000; Jacob Thompson, $1,000,000; John B. Floyd, $500,000; Toucey, Black, and Brown, $500,000. Total, $4,500,000.

Government Clerks in Washington.—A letter from Washington to the New York Tribune says:

The rule announced by heads of departments to subordinates is that removal will not be made without cause. Heads of bureaus were notified to communicate this determination, to relieve clerks from anxiety.

Mr. Cobb has adhered to the present causes of dismissal that of dealing in lottery tickets and frequenting gaming houses. He has also required the board of examiners sitting on application for clerkships to make their investigations rigid and not nominal.

Secretary Brown has notified the assistant postmasters general that they will be retained: also the chief clerks of [illegible]

Transcription of Bartholomew Marion's pension application
by Wade H. Marion

State of North Carolina
Surry County

On the 13th day of August 1832 personaly appeared in Open Court before William C. Martin R. H. Parks, & Thomas Williams in the Court of Pleas, & Quarter Session now Sitting. Bartholomew Marion a resident of this (Surry) County in the state of North Carolina age seventy seven years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. He was born in Albemarle County in Virginia and at four years old was brought by his parents to Granville County in North Carolina from thence in his youth he was removed to Bute County and thence when he was about eleven years old he came with them to Surry. Where he has lived ever since with the exception of one year when he was in the State of Ohio. The first tour of duty he performed was as a drafted solder from Surry County under Captain James Shepherd, Colonel Locke and was marched from Surry to Savanna River where they lay near Gen'l Lincoln's Camp the Battle of Bryan Creek took place while he was with the Army but he was not in it he being with Gen'l Rutherford. He was then discharged but not in writing. He was five months engaged as a soldier in that tour. The next tour of duty he performed was as a volunteer in the Force under Captain Dyer, Colonel Armstrong's regiment and was marched to Hillsboro where he was present at a attack upon a British picket having engaged in this tour six weeks & was discharged but without writing. Another tour he served under the same Captain Dyer as a volunteer after the battle of Guilford in pursuit of Bryant a commander of the Torey force. went across the forks of the Yadkin by Salisbury & around by the Moravian towns he was in the force four months. He was at another time a volunteer two weeks guarding the prisoners taken at Kings Mountain at the Moravian Town. Colonel Armstrong was there but whether in command he knows not. He served in all about nine months as near as he can recollect he has no record of his age and never had a written discharge. He's pretty generally known in by his general neighborhood & to Joseph Williams & others.

I hereby relinquesh every claim whatever to a pension or warrenty except the present and declare that his name's not on the pensioner roll of the Agency of any State.

From Yadkin Valley News - Thursday, March 30, 1893

There was much excitement in the community of Marshall Chapel over the death of ROBERT BELL. He apparently had died...during services he burst the lid of the doffin and sat up, claimed to have been in heaven and saw many friends. Last night he became sick and clled out, "They are coming for me" and fell back dead. Physuicians claim he was in a trance and awakening in the doffin his mind was wrecked. (Milan, Tennessee - March 20).

To continue with the Briggs saga----I have previously identified Jesse of Stokes Co NC as the son of Thomas Briggs and nephew of Howell Briggs.

This Howell Briggs (there is another) I believe to be the son of Robert Briggs of Brunswick. "1771 Jan 19. Rlobert Brggs of St Andrews Parish to Howell Briggs of same for L15, 100 AC adj Harper and Stth. Wit: Tjomas Briggs, Robert Briggs Jr, Frederick Briggs. No dower release (DB 10-174).

This is a very small token amount of money as was often done when giving land as a gift. This is the same Howell Briggs, died 1774 in Brunswick, still a young man. 1774 Jul 13. Howell Briggs, will proved Aug 22, 1774. All estate to wife for life then to daughter Betsy, but if she dies without heirs, estate to go to nephew Jesse Briggs, son of b rother Thomas Briggs. EX: Bro in law John Quarles. Wit: Hugh Williams, Samuel Briggs, Thomas Briggs. (WB 4-481) Will proved by Samuel Briggs, order for inventory by David Roper, Francis Barnes, Moses Quarles Jr and Henry Grubbs.

This is undoubtedly the land deeded to Howell by his father Rob ert in 1771.

This Robert Briggs was the son of Samuel Briggs c1661-1737 Surry. He was willed one half of land on Waqua Creek in Brunswicwith stock and one negro but lwife to haveuse of negro until Rlobert is 21.

The name of this Robert is Ruth, family name unknown. In addition to Howell and Thomas there was a Robert, Jr. and Samuel. Nothing ,more about them is known to me.

This Samuel, father of Robert is the 2nd generation - Henry who md Mary Flood being the first. If you would like, I can send you the families of both Henry and Samuel.

I have enjoyed your Bonner info. I hate to mention this to you - it's teasing- and I have looked everywhere to no avail, but Moses Bonner was on a list in a NC Gen Soc Journal (I think) as one the English Merchants were after for debts incurred prior to the revolution. I'm sure it said he had departed the country (possibly to GA) well able to pay the debt. I've never paid particular attention to the Bonners, although in Chowan Co. they are related to everyone. I will still try to locate it. Dixie

Subj: Re: Jesse Briggs
To: JudySCard

You are more than welcome and yes I feel sure the Henry Briggs you mention is the same one. This Henry died 1686 in Surry. As I have said, his first wife was Mary Flood. Mary had been wed and widowed 3 times before Henry but he outlived her to marry a second time - another widow Margery Gilliam. All the children were by Mary Flood. The Floods are big, big and through them we are all eligible to become Ancient Planters should we care to. I will get much more complete records to you. I should say my husband, Charles.
Since I see you do not take yourself or family too seriously I will forward this tidbit to you.

"Thomas' son Jesse Briggs ran into trouble with the law. Feb 28, 1778. Examination of Jesse Briggs, et al, for stealing a horse belonging to Col John Flood Edmunds. Jesse Briggs to be jailed and tried at court in Williamsburg. (OB 23-191) There may be some notice of this trial in the VA Gazette. Jesse may or may not have spent time in jail, but he was in Stokes Co NC when he sold his inherited land in 1794. Dixie

Judy: I really meant you appear to have a sense of humor and would not be crushed by the knowledge that one of the Briggs had found himself in a bit of trouble. It may have even been a misunderstanding. I can match you one for one on scoundrels. One who was arrested for hi-jacking at sea and hung.-one of my grfathers, too. The others were just men who lacked character in leaving their families to fend for themselves.

Here are a couple of Bonner and Briggs mgs you probably have, but ----

Charity Bonner - Lemuel Goodwin 23-02-1834 Chowan
Charity Bonner - Benjamin Carroll 27-12-1770 Granville
Jessee Briggs - Esther Miller 7-12-1787 Rutherford
Jesse - Lucinda Flynt 18-03-1837
Jesse Brggs - Nancy Pilkinton 26-05-1835 Dixie

The Jesse - Lucinda and Jesse-Nancy mgs were both in Stokes Co. These are from a CD of Southern marriages I have. There are no Bonners listed in Stokes, but many Banners. Are you convinced that Banner and Bonner are one and the same?

From The Story of Rockford by Lucy H. Hauck (c1975?) Eddie

Thomas Franklin Prather moved to Rockford in 1841 and established a general store in the building that stood in front of the present Baptist Church. Many will remember the site as the home of Mrs. Achsa Burrus and her daughter Caroline Thore and Mrs. Cornelia Nixon and Mr. Nixon. Mr. Prather also operated a tobacco factory, and it is believed that his home was the two-story log house that stood just below the store on the brow of the hill. Some will also remember the ruins of this landmark as it gave way to time and weather and fell to decay. Another house of the same era and architecture stood about half way down the hill, which the writer remembers seeing burn to the ground one night about the year 1905. It was occupied at the time.

A letter from Charity Briggs Prather to Ely and Margaret Prather, dated April 12, 1842, reads in part as follows: "Dear brother and sister, I take this opportunity of writing you a few lines to let you know we are well . . . Franklin is gone to the north to lay in goods. We received your letter just as he was ready to start and he requested me to write you. He has so much business on hand that he says he will write you when he gets back. . Franklin is merchandising largely . . You say you have a fine daughter, I should like to see if it is as pretty as mine. My little Ruth is the most beautiful child you ever saw, William Thomas is a fine boy, Sara Jane is as large as myself, or soon will be . . . You requested me to write something of Brother James. He lives at the same place and is doing well. Proctor Flint and Betsy Reece are married . . . John bought our place on the Hollow Road and has a store there. . . Franklin speaks of moving, but he has so much business on hand that he will not shortly . . . I want you to pray for us . . . and may the Lord bless us all and save us in heaven, where we shall live forever . . . I remain your affectionate sister. Charity Prather."

In 1844 Dr. Milton Young Folger moved from Stokes County (now Forsyth) to Rockford. His wife was Elizabeth Pegram. Young Romulus at that time was about five years old. In his late years Rom told of the memory of seeing his father come from the hotel out to the stage coach to greet his family. He had gone ahead and made preparation for their coming. Their children were Romulus, Rush, Eunice (Todd) and Fanny (Holyfield). Mrs. Folger died on August 15, 1850, and was buried in the then new church graveyard, perhaps the first to be interred there. Afterwards Dr. Folger married Elizabeth Gray, daughter of Joseph and ? Kelly Gray. To this union the following children were born: Joseph Gray, Thomas Wilson, Ida (Riggs), Mary Louise (Molly) (Hamlin), Maude (Freeman), Metta (Townsend), Alice (Hauser), and B. Franklin.

It is not known just when Thomas Crumpler came to Rockford, but he purchased land from Mark York and others, "near the old meeting house," in 1848. His wife died November 16, 1854, and was buried at Rockford. It is believed that Mr. Crumpler was buried there, but his gravestone has been lost. Their son, Thomas, went to Ashe County where he mustered a troop of men

Judy, Good to hear from you! I looked in the Star of Wachovia about Jesse Briggs...the preface is lengthy, but needs to be put in to make sense. There's lots of clues.

"Star of Wachovia" page 28-29

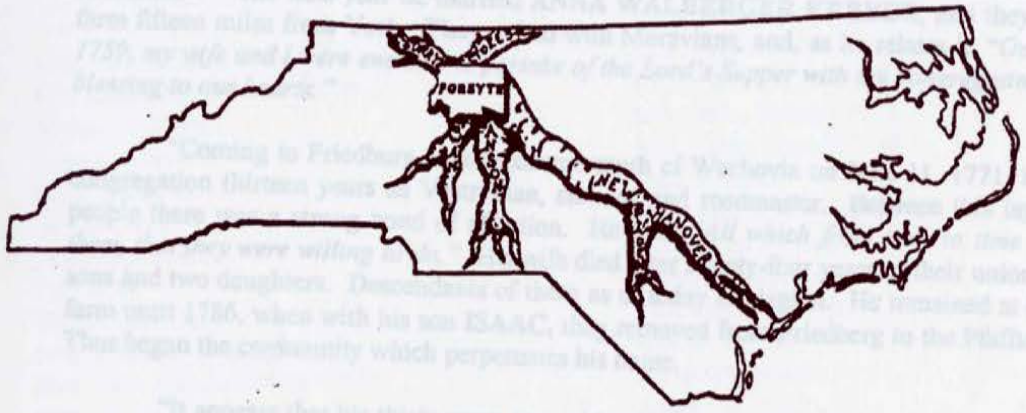

"Published in 'The Christian Friend', Wilson, NC October 1853, was a letter from William Hill of Surry County. He recounted that at the house called War Hill, ten miles southeast of Mt. Airy, on the Mt. Airy-Salem road, 'Elder Chester Bullard on June 11, 1853, planted the first church (of Disciples' faith), ever planed in this part of God's vineyard. Two were baptized and five were received from other communions.' Bullard in a later communication said that upon an earlier visit there he had converted 'fifteen Disciples', whom he had 'very unexpectedly baptized and whose destitute condition is frequently to me a matter of sore distress'. He appealed: "Will no some purdent, pious brother in N.C. visit them. They all live near War Hill." Identifying their personnel to an extent, he named MR. BANNER,"whose excellent wife is a Disciple"; Captain William Hill, "whose daughtershave obeyed the Lord"; and Mr. Davis, Esquire. These he said "will hospitably entertain you brethren." Their postoffice was Toms Creek, one of the 19 postofices in Surry County at that time. Hill, himself resumed the appeal on Nov 14, 1853: "My daughter requests me to say that the little band here--composed mostly of females==is witout a leader."

This isolated group was named Oak Grove. It survived, and had grown appreciably by Sept 1878. Then R.W. Stancill, roving Disciple evangelist reported adding nine members to the flock there, and "the setting in order of a congregation numbering 26 members." Also at the time "he ordained to the work of evangelist, brethren R.T. Sanders and P.T. Lehman, at this, the only church of our faith in Surry County." Lehman was a charter member, Aug 1 1890 of the first (4th st) Christian Church, Winston-Salem; an esteemed elder and teacher there for 34 years. Another recruit to the ministry from this old Oak Grove was JESSE BRIGGS, whom Virgial A. Wilson baptzed there in 1867. At his passing, "Surry County lost one of its brightest stars--a whole-souled Christian," said Stancil.

I hope this helps. Let me know if I can dig for anything else. Good hearing from you!

"STAR IN WACHOVIA"

by Charles Crossfield Ware

"Forsyth has a storied village northwest of the Twin-Cities, on Highway 65, and only four miles from the Wake Forest College Campus. On the western edge of the historic Wachovia, it nestles in the gentle hills fringing the Yadkin Valley. Known first as "Pfaff's Settlement in the Bethania neighborhood," it was founded more than 175 years ago by the PETER PFAFF family. This is PFAFFTOWN of today.

"PETER PFAFF, SR., son of JOSEPH DANIEL PFAFF and ANNA BARBARA HARTUNG PFAFF, was a native Palatine, born at Kaiserlauten. Educated in his native schools he came to America in 1749 locating at York, Pennsylvania. There by his own account he "worked as a blacksmith." The next year he married ANNA WALBERGER KERBER, and they moved to his farm fifteen miles from York. They united with Moravians, and, as he relates it: "On November 4, 1759, my wife and I were enabled to partake of the Lord's Supper with the congregation which was a blessing to our hearts."

"Coming to Friedburg at the extreme south of Wachovia on June 11, 1771, he served that congregation thirteen years as Vestryman, steward and roadmaster. Between this layman and his people there was a strong bond of affection. He said: "All which from time to time I laid before them, that they were willing to do." His wife died after twenty-four years of their union leaving four sons and two daughters. Descendants of these as of today are legion. He remained at his Friedberg farm until 1786, when with his son ISAAC, they removed from Friedberg to the Pfafftown location. Thus began the community which perpetuates his name.

"It appears that his thirty years as a widower was not altogether smooth. His age was forty seven at his wife's passing. By Eighteenth Century Moravian custom his proposed remarriage was subject to administrative counsel of his church. Upon his visits to Salisbury, N.C., a frequented trade center, he found a compulsive attraction. A minute of the Salem board dated April 10, 1778, records:

> Peter Pfaff, of Friedberg, wishes to marry the widow L. __ __ of Salisbury, who is an outsider and not at all religious, and would probably not be a good influence for him or his children. Br. Beck shall be informed that while Pfaff can not be forbidden to marry he shall be told that if he does not give up this idea he had better stay away from Communion for the sake of his conscience until circumstances warrant his re-admittance.

"After 1855 preaching at Pfafftown was in English, prior to that it had been in German. The old-time spelling of certain surnames yielded to changes, as SCHOR to SHORE, SPONHAUER to SPAINHOUR, TRANSEU to TRANSOU, and CHRISTMNN to CHRISTMAN. However, much of the early Wachovian orthography was retained, as PFOHL, PFAFF, CONRAD, HAUSER, and BLUM.

"During Pfafftown's first century, Bethania was its postoffice, listed in 1798, taking its orders from the head office at Philadelphia 538 miles away. In 1835, at Bethania, CHRISTIAN LASH was postmaster; his annual 'compensation,' $26.94. Four years later he was still on the job with a yearly increase in his pay of 72 cents. Communication by U.S. Mail thus only grew slightly in those days. Pfafftown was rewarded with its own postoffice on September 14, 1888, and ELLEN S. TRANSOU, its first postmaster served for the succeeding 23 years. When established it was one of 22 such offices in Forsyth; the rural routes have now reduced these to 10, including Pfafftown which holds to its technical second class. The "mail hack" served in 1896. It then delivered daily except Sunday on N.C. Route, 18306, going 31 miles from Winston to Richmond Hill and servicing intermediate offices in succession at Pfafftown, Vienna, Blakely, Mana, Shore, East Bend and Poindexter. This carrier's annual contract paid him $591.44 which he surely must have supplemented by passengers' fares.

"A count of the lineal descendants of Peter Pfaff, Sr., currently on the living membership roll of the Pfafftown Christian Church is revealing.[1] Involved genealogically in this are three of Pfaff's children, namely: (1) His son ISAAC who married MARGARETHA VOLK, July 31, 1781; (2) his daughter ANNA MARIA who married ABRAHAM TRANSOU, December 15, 1782; and (3) his son PETER PFAFF, JR. Who married ANNA MAGDALENE CONRAD, March 23, 1802.

Virgil Angelo Wilson

"The initial evangelist in the founding of the Pfafftown Christian Church was VIRGIL ANGELO WILSON. His mother HENRIETTA SOPHIA HAUSER WILSON, was a devout Moravian. The following passage appears on page 4151, Volume 8, Record of the Moravians in North Carolina, (Adelaide Fries, editor), as part of "the diary of Bethania, 1834.":

> Dec. 7, Beautiful weather. In the afternoon there was the baptism of the infant son of Dr. Wilson with the name Angelo Virgil at the home of Abr. Conrad. The father was absent, apparently on duty.

"ABRAHAM CONRAD was the child's step-grandfather. His maternal grandmother whose maiden name was PHILIPINA LASH had first married JOHN HENRY HAUSER, JR., then ABRAHAM CONRAD (1822). Philipina was also the maternal grandmother of JAMES BENJAMIN JONES through his mother, JULIA AMELIA CONRAD JONES. Thus the two preachers were cousins. Their dual descent lineally from JACOB LASH, the "Colonial Moravian," (LOESCH) has been traced...

"The life of Virgil's father, Dr. GEORGE FOLLETT WILSON, is an interesting story. A descendant of the Mayflower Pilgrims of 1620, he was born 160 years ago in Berkshire County, Massachusetts. The family migrated to Penn Yan, N.Y. He graduated at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. Moving south on horseback, at the age of 23, he arrived at Bethania, N.C. on May 28, 1828. There he saw a certain "beautiful girl swinging on a gate." He intended to locate in medical practice at Germanton, a neighboring village, but romance of the swinging age determined his residence for the next 25 years in Miss Hauser's village. They married June 21, 1829, and lived at what has been later known as the GEORGE STOLTZ place until 1853, when they removed to Dowelton on the western fringe of rising Yadkinville. VIRGIL, born in Bethania was their second child; the first was HENRY CLINTON WILSON, who became a physician, and long served as Clerk of Court at Yadkinville. The other sons were GEORGE EDWARD, and REUBEN EVERETT; the daughters: LOUISA PHILIPINA (Mrs. Joseph Anthony Bitting), JULIA ELIZABETH (Mrs. John Walter Bitting); and MARY JOSEPHINE, (Mrs. W.A. Joyce) .....

"About fifty years ago[2], EMMA A. LEHMAN, a native of Bethania, reminiscing about the Wilsons who were her close neighbors in her youth, said, as briefed:

I well remember Dr. Wilson's regular horseback and saddlebags practice. He was a stout, gray-haired man. They were a superior family. I almost grew up with them and was much attached to them all. The Doctor often had young medical students reading under him and living in his home. Drugstores were then unknown, so this accommodation with his office was in two small rooms on the north side of his house. To my childish eyes it was almost an enchanted realm.

"Mr. and Mrs. JOHN HENRY HAUSER, JR. also lived in Bethania and their daughter, MARTHA ANN ELIZABETH married Virgil Angelo Wilson on December 27, 1856. She was trained in schools at Dowelton, Jonesville, Bethania and Rockford, and attended "Greensborough Female College" in 1851-52.....Their children: five sons, PAUL CLINTON, GEORGE FOLLETT, BURKE ALEXANDER, WILLIAM THEOPHILUS, and JOSPEH MOYE; two daughters, MARY LILLY who married Dr. JOSEPH HAMILTON WOLFF of the Bethania vicinity, and SUDIE ESTHER, who married JOHN FRANKLIN MEWBORNE of Kinston, N.C.[3]

Other Pfafftown Pioneers

"During the years 1867-'70, there was a goodly number of accessions to the Pfafftown Christian Church. An informal record of these was kept by Evangelist Wilson in a ledger which has been preserved and is currently in the hands of his granddaughter Mrs. MARTHA WILSON MYERS. This extant ledger has enabled Miss SADIE, a sister of Mrs. Myers, to compile valuable facts about this particular pioneering personnel of the late 1860's. Obviously it is of primary religious and sociological value to those concerned where the entries yield detailed information which otherwise might perchance be obscured or remain unknown. Wherefore we edit it as based on Miss Wilson's archival transcription and her knowledgeable interpretation of the data. No entry in the table of vital statistics which follows has been briefed elsewhere by the author.

BITTING, Mrs. Joseph Anthony, (nee LOUISA PHILIPINA WILSON, August 4, 1837-January 6, 1919, sister of VIRGIL ANGELO WILSON.

Thomas Franklin Prather moved to Rockford in 1841 and established a general store in the building that stood in front of the present Baptist Church. Many will remember the site as the home of Mrs. Achsa Burrus and her daughter Caroline Thore and Mrs. Cornelia Nixon and Mr. Nixon. Mr. Prather also operated a tobacco factory, and it is believed that his home was the two-story log house that stood just below the store on the brow of the hill. Some will also remember the ruins of this landmark as it gave way to time and weather and fell to decay. Another house of the same era and architecture stood about half way down the hill, which the writer remembers seeing burn to the ground one night about the year 1905. It was occupied at the time.

A letter from Charity Briggs Prather to Ely and Margaret Prather, dated April 12, 1842, reads in part as follows: "Dear brother and sister, I take this opportunity of writing you a few lines to let you know we are well . . . Franklin is gone to the north to lay in goods. We received your letter just as he was ready to start and he requested me to write you. He has so much business on hand that he says he will write you when he gets back. . Franklin is merchandising largely . . You say you have a fine daughter, I should like to see if it is as pretty as mine. My little Ruth is the most beautiful child you ever saw, William Thomas is a fine boy, Sara Jane is as large as myself, or soon will be . . . You requested me to write something of Brother James. He lives at the same place and is doing well. Proctor Flint and Betsy Reece are married . . . John bought our place on the Hollow Road and has a store there. . . Franklin speaks of moving, but he has so much business on hand that he will not shortly . . . I want you to pray for us . . . and may the Lord bless us all and save us in heaven, where we shall live forever . . . I remain your affectionate sister. Charity Prather."

In 1844 Dr. Milton Young Folger moved from Stokes County (now Forsyth) to Rockford. His wife was Elizabeth Pegram. Young Romulus at that time was about five years old. In his late years Rom told of the memory of seeing his father come from the hotel out to the stage coach to greet his family. He had gone ahead and made preparation for their coming. Their children were Romulus, Rush, Eunice (Todd) and Fanny (Holyfield). Mrs. Folger died on August 15, 1850, and was buried in the then new church graveyard, perhaps the first to be interred there. Afterwards Dr. Folger married Elizabeth Gray, daughter of Joseph and ? Kelly Gray. To this union the following children were born: Joseph Gray, Thomas Wilson, Ida (Riggs), Mary Louise (Molly) (Hamlin), Maude (Freeman), Metta (Townsend), Alice (Hauser), and B. Franklin.

It is not known just when Thomas Crumpler came to Rockford, but he purchased land from Mark York and others, "near the old meeting house," in 1848. His wife died November 16, 1854, and was buried at Rockford. It is believed that Mr. Crumpler was buried there, but his gravestone has been lost. Their son, Thomas, went to Ashe County where he mustered a troop of men

Antioch Methodist

LOCATION: 2.8 miles west of Rural Hall, on west side of C.R. 1635, 0.35 miles south of intersection with C.R. 1636 (Jefferson Church Rd.). N36°14'52"-W80°20'29". USGS Quadrangle(7.5' series): Rural Hall, N.C. Date surveyed: 4 March 1973.
HISTORY: Antioch's history began with the gathering of people for preaching services in a school house in 1831. The first church building was erected at the same site in 1833, and the present building was constructed in 1881. From this church came Rev. Solomon H. Helsabeck who, along with Michael Doub, was probably the most important man in nineteenth century Methodism in Forsyth County (11), (13).

FORSYTH COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM

nesday evenings in the Moravian Chapel have been changed, services being now in the Church.

AN AGENT for Green's indispensable medicines was in town Monday. The ad. "Ask yourselves these questions," speaks for itself.

WINSTON.—S. E. Allen has just returned from the northern cities, where he selected with care, a good stock of Hardware.

A SERIES of meetings under the management of Rev. Mr. Pegram, will begin soon, we hear, at the Methodist P. Church.

Mrs. S. J. PAYSON, of Maine, one of the teachers of the colored district school, arrived Monday. Her assistant Miss Woolsen, came Wednesday.

THE TOWN FATHERS are having the gutters along the several side-walks re-opened and cleansed. A capital idea before the wet season sets in.

Mrs. E. W. KREMER, after a lengthy absence, is again among her many friends. She will make her home permanently in our midst.

TOBACCO.—New tobacco has been sold at one of the warehouses for $32 per hundred. The market is rather dull at present. Waiting for the new crop.

S. E. ALLEN wants the numerous readers of the Press to know that, with the late additions to his stock, he is now prepared to fill your HARDWARE and HOUSE-FURNISHING BILL, and that too CHEAPER than ever before.

PRETTY.—We were shown the other day some prettily designed ornate frames, taper holders, &c., the deft workmanship of Mr. Smith, of Greensboro, son of Rev. Dr. Smith.

FLOUR of Salem Mill manufacture, booked for Raleigh, and also a quantity from R. E. & M. C. Reeves, Siloam, Surry County, bound for Goldsborn, we noticed at the Depot Monday. The Messrs. Fries are also shipping from the steam mill.

FORSYTH COUNTY.—Total valuation in Forsyth County, $3,020,220.

Tax on same property payable to State Treasurer, $8,278.12.

School tax payable to County Treasurer, $4,712.93.

County tax for county purposes, $11,-571.92.

Railroad tax, including polls, $24,-030.40.

Total tax on listed property in the county, for the year 1877, $48,593,37.—Sentinel.

a complete list of articles on exhibition by Salem Female Academy, at the State Fair. Also the names of the young ladies interested. The press throughout the State gives highly favorable notices of this large and fine display. Well may the Academy be proud of their magnificent exhibit.

DUCKS.—Mr. Wm. Shultz has in his yard two beautiful specimens of the white Pecan Ducks. Also a number of the Rouen variety. Both grow to be very large, and lay upwards of a hundred eggs per year. They are exhibits from the State Fair.

THE young clerk who went on a possum hunt the other night, with an "old veteran," does not have much to say about the hunt; but the appearance he makes on the street as he hobbles along with an old slipper on one foot, is somewhat ludicrous.

THE SAME.—Looking over an old Farmer's and Planter's Almanac the other day, for 1860, we were struck with a remarkable feature, the calendar days of the month, &c., being precisely the same as that for 1878, which verifies the old saying, that the calendar is the same every seven years.

DONATIONS.—The Juvenile Missionary Society of Salem Sunday School have appropriated funds sufficient for the purchase of a bell for East Salem Chapel.

A liberal donation by the same organization to the Winston Moravian Sunday School, and also to the African Church for the purchase of lamps, were also made.

BUILDINGS GOING UP.—Work upon the Tobacco Factory of Messrs. Tuck & Co., near the Depot, has commenced.

Mr. Reed, of the Depot Store, is laying the foundation for another stand of business, near his present one.

Mr. R. GRAY is pushing the new store building fronting Merchant's Hotel.

Hotel No. 3 is progressing finely.

ALFRED NAPPER was arrested by constable Pfohl, in Greensboro Monday, charged with theft from the store of Mr. Jacob Tise, in Winston, and lodged in our jail. There is supposed to be a band of these rogues, to which the prisoner belongs. To rid the country of these nuisances will require a strict and vigilant prosecution of the law.

SURRY COUNTY.—From the Watchman we glean the following items.

A small squad of Revenue officers visited Mt. Airy last week.——Successful protracted religious meetings are in progress.——Rev. Jesse Briggs died in his 65th year, recently.——Only ten paupers in the poor house.——No prisoners in jail.

Mr. Rondthaler gave a very graphic and interesting account of the work of the great evangelists, Moody and Sankey, in Philadelphia. The young men were very much interested, and altogether, this informal gathering was very pleasant.

FUN.—A couple of our young men took a trip into the country, the other day, and on the road met a delapidated vehicle, containing a forlorn looking specimen of African descent, and an empty keg. Thinking to have some sport, they agreed to play the Revenue, and accosted the old darkey in terms of the law. The old fellow fussed up and was making due preparation for a hasty exit through the fields, when the joke was made known. A happier "monument of ebony" was never seen, who declared "That if de good Lord did not forsook him, he'd neber be cotch in such a fix agin."

The New Garden Fair.

NEW GARDEN, N. C., Oct. 26.

The New Garden Agricultural Society of Guilford county held its Sixth Annual Fair at the New Garden Fair Grounds, on the Salem railroad, to-day, and, considering the inclement weather, it was a grand success.

There were upwards of 500 entries in the various departments, and over 500 present.

The display of stock, fruit and field crops was excellent, and speak well for the county of Guilford.

All the premiums awarded were paid off, and everybody seemed well pleased. The best of order prevailed during the entire day.—Raleigh Observer.

We have tried Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in our family, and can assert that it is the best remedy for a cough or cold ever introduced. Price 25 cents.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, in this county, by Rev. J. W. Pinnix, assisted by Rev. J. W. Wellons, Mr. J. W. MARSHALL to Miss MARY SUE HAIZLIP.

In High Point, on the 24th ult., by Rev. J. J. James, B. A. PAYNE, Esq., of Missouri, to Miss MARTHA A. WELBORN, of Davidson county, N. C.

Thus it is that Missouri and the good old North State are greeting each other.

COM.

DIED.

At the Moravian Mission, New Spring Place, Cherokee Nation, on the 3rd ult., MATILDA ELIZABETH, infant daughter of Rev. Theodore M. and Hannah W. Rights, aged 10 months and 18 days.

In this place, on the 24th ult., after a lingering illness, Mr. WM. LUMLY, aged 23 years and 24 days.

At his residence, in this county, of pneumonia, MOSES BARROW, Esq., in the 76th year of his age.

BRIGGS

WINSTON-SALEM — Ruby Briggs, 89, died Tuesday, April 21, 1998, at her home. A native of Yancey County, she was a daughter of the late Lester and Margaret Griffith Bailey and the wife of J. Brantley Briggs, who died in 1962. Mrs. Briggs graduated from Bald Creek High School and attended Appalachian State Teacher's College. She taught elementary grades at Clearmont, Horton Creek and Indian Creek schools and served as pianist at Jacks Creek Baptist Church for 40 years. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Briggs moved to Thomasville, N.C. where she worked as a dietician and houseparent at the Baptist Children's Home until her retirement in 1975. She was a member of Wallburg Baptist Church. Surviving are two daughters and sons-in-law, Catherine and Robert Higgins, Jr. of Winston-Salem and Geraldine "Judy" and Billy McCurry of Burnsville; two sisters, Grace Woody and Irene Riddle of Burnsville; a brother, Rotha Bailey of Asheville; five grandchildren, Cathy King, Sherri Carroway and John McCurry, all of Burnsville, Lori Ollis of Charleston, S.C. and Deborah Moser of Winston-Salem; and ten great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Chapel of Holcombe Brothers Funeral Home. The Rev. Max Evington and Dr. Brooks Hunt will officiate. The family will receive friends from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home. A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in Jacks Creek Baptist Church Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Wallburg Baptist Church Longrange Building Fund, P.O. Box 46, Wallburg, N.C. 27373.

Dear Julie:

It is hoped that this finds you and your husband (and your cats) in good health and in good spirits. Are you ready for Christmas yet? I am not, but then I never am even after it has come and gone! This Christmas won't be very special for me, but that is alright. I guess I will be spending Christmas Day over at John and Helen's, which is fine by me.

I have a little Christmas present for you. I have been able to find out a tad bit more about your ancestors. Enclosed is what I have found, and let me explain each item. Item "A" is a page from one of Wallace Kallam's Surry County cemetery books, and I have highlighted two lines in it. I do note a discrepancy in the birth-year of Minerva that what is on her death certificate. This discrepancy needs to be checked out. My suggestion on this is that the next time you are in, if the weather permits perhaps we can travel to Oak Grove and check it out ourselves. Perhaps it is just a typo on Wallace's part.

I also want you to note grave numbered 58. I wonder who that might be? I am wondering if it is Jesse Briggs and his wife? Just a thought, and please don't take any more from it than it is a thought. I do have a good friend of mine--Agnes Wells, in Mount Airy--checking for any possible notations or even an obituary for Jesse in the old Primitive Baptist minutes. She has promised to get back to me on this, and I--of course--will pass that along. I will let you know if she was able to locate anything at all.

The other day I was looking through the microfilmed deeds of Surry County at the Winston-Salem library downtown, with the thoughts that I would find something on Jesse from the deeds. I found two things. First, around 1834 he bought some land, and this is recorded in Deed Book "U", page 429. Then, in 1839 Jesse Briggs "of Surry" bought some land of Joseph Briggs "of Stokes" [Deed Book "Y", page 21]. This "Stokes" mention is important. [Do you want copys of these deeds?]

The above mention of Stokes lead me to their records. I found where Jesse Briggs was married to Elizabeth Flynt per bond of 18 March 1837; bondsman was John F. Sullivan. I then checked the Stokes County wills on microfilm, and was able to find a will of Elzabeth Flynt, writeen 16 May 1837 and probated in March 1843 [Will Book 4, pages 94-5]. A copy of this will as it appears in the book on microfilm and a transcription are enclosed. This gives you the mother of Lucinda, and her siblings' names. When I go back I will try to locate any marriage information on the siblings.

Who is Elizabeth's husband. Unfortunately I cannot answer that at the present. Hopefully if Helen and Judy's plans materialize for another trip to Raleigh I look in the Stokes estates and find something. Enclosed is a 1790 census of Stokes County, with several Flints [sic] mentioned. Anyone of these people could be Elziabeth's husband, I would think.

Who is Jesse Briggs's people, then. A Jesse Briggs did marry Charity Banner at about the correct time-frame, and they could be his parents. (These are the same Banners that Judy is researching.) No one at this time knows the names of this couple's children if they even had any, but it is an angle I am trying to work with. The same friend in Mount Airy [Agnes Wells] says she thinks she has something on Jesse and Charity. We'll see!

I also have a letter out to a researcher who ran a "query" in the Stokes quarterly, in which she mentions Charles Vest and a Briggs. Note that in the enclosed typed deed abstracts from Stokes County Charles Vest witnessed a 1796 deed involving the Briggs family. The Jesse mentioned in this deed I would think is the Jesse who married Charity Banner, so this gives his parents' names as Thomas and Elizabeth.

I think that a copy of Jesse Briggs's 1878 will is valueable, so either on my next trip over to the library or to the courthouse in Dobson I will get a copy, and then transcribe it for you. Is this alright with you? Then, later on, if and when we go to Raleigh I will try to get copys of the originals of both Jesse Briggs and his mother-in-law, Elizabeth Flynt.

I know all of this isn't much but it at least tells us who (and where) Jesse married. All of this took five (5) hours time, which now reduces your time remaining to 13 hours. Hopefully I will have more for you at the next report.

It is sincerely hoped that you and your husband (and the cats!) have an very enjoyable Christmas and safe New Year! I look forward to your visiting in January. Until the next time, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

James E. Cockerham

Dear Julie:

First of all I hope that this finds you and all your loved ones in good health and in good spirits. Also, I want to express to you that I had a most enjoyable time during your visit and I hope you didn't receive an overload with everything we did. Thank you for being so very understanding regarding my medical condition. It is friends such as yourself and Judy that are making this at least bearable and to some degree tolerable.

Your confidence in my research abilities is also most appreciated. Sometimes I feel very depressed and alone, and the genealogy is the one thing that I can retreat into, absorb myself in, and feel that I am contributing something worthwhile and appreciated. In many ways you have restored that feeling of "worth" to me. Thank you from the bottom of my crazy heart!

This Monday I went to the courthouse in Dobson to work on your ancestry and have come up with some interesting information and angles, all of which I will talk about. First of all I looked in the index of births and found that Lisa Michelle Utt was born 29 January 1968, to Alice Belle Towe [no father mentioned]. Why Lisa Michelle has the surname Utt and her mother Towe I cannot say. I also checked Surry County marriages and nothing is listed for Lisa Michelle. This, of course, does not mean she isn't married; just that she didn't get married in Surry County.

In one of your letters to me you stated that you had an aunt "Mallie Terrell." The only Mallie which I could find in the Surry records who married a Terrell was Mallie Belle Johnson (age 19) married to W. W. Terrell (age 26) on 26 February 1922. Is this your aunt Mallie? And if so how does the Johnsons "fit" into the picture?

Enclosed are some Family Group Sheets [FGSes] which I have been able to piece together on your maternal grandmother's ancestors. Each of them is interesting if you note how the familys have grown. Each also have some further explanations which should be given, so let's begin with Turner Harris and Ellen Ford. They are numbers 12 and 13 on the Ancestor Chart which I sent you with my 19 November 1994 report.

On their FGS I have discussed briefly how I came up with their circa dates of birth. Please note that I also have a question mark behind their birth locations, which I list as Rockingham County, NC. This comes from the death certificate of their daughter Eliza Jane Arrington, which is enclosed. This maybe very significant. I plan on utilizing the Rockingham County books on my next visit to the Winston-Salem library to see if this "pans out." You will remember that on different censuses Turner and his wife Ellen are shown as being born in Virginia. This, too, maybe important. Henry County, VA,--the county of origin of the Gilleys--is just across the state-line! Note that I have found a first marriage of your ancestor John Franklin Harris [#6]. This, too, maybe significant. How you ask? William E. Gilley married a Mathis/Matthews, as did John Franklin and his sister Sarah Ellen/Evelyn. I am develpping a theory that perhaps the Matthews/Mathis familys came to Surry via Rockingham from Henry County. The Harrises may also have made this journey. On many of the earlier FGSes you will note that after their childrens' dates of death are numbers in brackets. These are that person's book and page number in Surry County death certificate. While death certificates were located on many of them their ages given on the documents were way off so I have used the censuses ages when nothing more substitive can be located.

Moving on the Poores in your ancestry I was suprised to find a second marriage for your ancestor James Monroe Poore [#14]. I also am unsure if he and Minerva Virginia had just the two children, or more. This can be verified by locating them--the family--on the 1900 census of Surry County. This is also on my list of things to look at on my next visit to the Winston-Salem library.

To continue further on the Poores, and the Mathis/Matthewses, I am waiting on some information from Agnes Wells of Mount Airy. She is also supposed to be forwarding information on the Gilleys from her Henry County books, as well. It is my hope that these will arive soon.

As for the Briggs family I may have figured out an "angle" to uncover who Jesse's parents are. On the 1860 census living in Jesee's home was Michael Briggs, age 23, and shown as a "farm laborer." I looked at the 1850 Surry census and found this in Rockford District, Household 1226:

Briggs,	Nancy	47	f	b. NC	1803
	Michael	15	m laborer	b. NC	1835
	Henry	14	m	b. NC	1836
	Elizabeth	10	f	b. NC	1840
	Andrew	7	m	b. NC	1843

Who are these people? I am thinking that they might be the widow and family of a brother of Jesse. The family does not show up in any subsequent censuses of Surry County except for Michael in Jesse's home and Henry, at age 22, as a "farm laborer" in the home of Lemuel Doss in Mount Airy Township. He--Lemuel Doss-- is living near to Jesse. Lemuel Doss, on the 1850 census, is shown as 60, a farmer, and with him is his wife Sally, age 54. This wife--Sally--I know to have been a Briggs. I have not located a marriage record for Lemuel and Sally in Surry County but I did locate a death certificate of one of their children, John M., which lists her as a Briggs.

If my theory that Nancy Briggs's husband--whoever he maybe--and Sally Briggs Doss are siblings of your Jesse, I might be able to use Stokes County deeds to uncover who their parents were. I hope to be able to use the Winston-Salem library facilities for this also. I have found alot of inforamtion on the Dosses. They are bureid in a rather large family cemetery near White Plains which also has a few rock markers which maybe where Jesse and Lucinda are buried. They may also be buried at Oak Grove.

Speaking of Oak Grove, I have noticed that that cemetery, as well as Holly Springs and Oakdale in Mount Airy, seem to be the resting places of many in your ancestral familys. Turner Harris and his wife are probably buried at Holly Springs. I am going to look at Wallace Kallam's books of cemetery inscriptions in the Winston-Salem library and get copys of all those buried at these three cemeterys. Why? Because we may be able to use them to find other heretofore unknown relatives and ancestors.

Well, Julie, I think that just about does it for this report. All of this research was very painstaking. With what you prepaid for at the last time your time was 29 hours remaining. The research and compilation of the enclosed information was ten hours work, which makes your time remaining 19 hours.

When you were here you requested copys of various information on other of your dad's ancestral familys. To mention a few the Coes, Poindexters, Brays, Kerrs, and others. I have most of it copied, but I am wondering if you would care to forward some money to help defray the costs of copying anfd postage. I have well over three hundred pages of materials to send your way! This also includes some revised and updated FGSes on the Gilleys. Whatever you care to send would be appreciated. Thank you,

As said before my next line of information will be to look at the 1900 Surry County census to see if James Monroe Poore had other children beside Nevada and Taylor. Also, I plan on looking at the Stokes County deeds to see if I can determine a link between Jesse Briggs and Sally Briggs Doss and the husband of the Nancy Briggs in the 1850 Surry County census. Finally, I am going to look at the material on Rockingham County to see if I can find something on the Harris and Ford familys.

It is hoped that this meets with your approval. If not please let me know. Until then, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Jim Cookerahm

Dear Julia:

It is my sincere hope that this finds yourself, Bruce, and all of your animals in the best of health and in excellent spirits. Judy tells me that you of late have been doing nothing but doing alot of shoveling (HA HA). My condolences. Triangle is about all I can handle so I cannot see how you can handle three cats and two--is that number correct?--dogs! I am crazy enough as it is, and that many animals/children would just put me over the edge!

I guess by now Judy has told you of what I did this past Monday evening at the monthly meeting of the SCGA. I just nominated; they elected her to the SCGA Vice Presidency. But I am hoping that this will help her spirits in this trying of times with Alton. I am very concerned about what he has done, what his sentence will be, and how it will effect Judy and her spirits and outlook on things. How could he be so damn stupid!?! But it has happened and all of us concerned--whether it be directly such as with Judy or indirectly through Judy, i.e. you and I, we must, I feel stand by them both. Neither one of them, nor yourself for that matter, have given me any sort of judgemental attitude for what has occured in my life, and for this reason alone I must stand by Alton. He really is a good man; he has just made a horrible mistake. I am praying against hope that they give him probation but I am afraid it will prison time. Of course what that will do to his spirits, considering that they are already at an extreme low, has yet to be seen. This concerns me as equal to anything else in this latest twist in this real-life soap opera.

As for my latest health crisis all seems to be doing well. I am healed very well, and am back in "action," all pun intended thank you very much. In fact for the past five weeks I have been seeing a very special person who is building up my self-esteem and is very good to me. In fact he is so intense at times that it frightens me, and he is so good to me that that scares the hell out of me. But I am trying to convince myself that it is okay, that I deserve him, and to ride it out wherever it may go. Wish me luck in this, please.

Yesterday morning I went to the Dermatology clinic over at Baptist/Bowman Gray for, I thought, to have biopsies taken of these areas on both thunbs. But they went ahead and cut the areas off and have sent them for tests, etc. Yesterday I was hurting so bad, it was a throb and I mean a THROB. But all seems to be better today; at least I am able to hold a pen again and can probably drive again. I couldn't turn the ignition key yesterday without intense PAIN, but I think I can today. AT least I can type!

But enough about everyone this side of the Mountain! As I am sure Judy has told you in one or more of your many conversations, I have been doing some research for you on your lines. Let's use those typed Ancestor Charts which I prepared for you sometime ago so that we can coordinate whom we are talking about. On chart #1, individual #26, or in other words the key is #1-26. Now who am I talking about? I am talking about John Ford. There is an estate file for him at the State Archives in Raleigh in the Surry files. The only thing in it was when Mary came into court in February 1856 and asked for her widow's yearly allowance. What this means is that John was dead before this, unfortunately we still do not have an exact date. There is no will on file for John or Mary so we have no idea if they had more than the two known daughters, Ellen and Nancy. But, on the 1850 census of Surry County, in household 378 in the Hollow Spring District, John and Mary are enumerated with several in their home. In 1850 John was 62 (born circa 1788), and his birthplace is given as Virginia. Mary is 56 (born circa 1794) and her birthplace is likewise given as Virginia. With them are four females: Adeline, age 28 (born circa 1822), Elziabeth, age 26 (born circa 1824), Nancy, age 16 (born circa 1834), and Catharine, age 6 (born circa 1844). While it is not impossible that she is the daughter of John and Mary, my guess is that the six-year-old Catharine is a daughter of either Adeline or Elizabeth and therefore John and Mary's granddaughter. Six houses away, in household 384, Mount Airy District, in the home of Elisha Banner, is living William Ford, age 17 (born circa 1833), and born in Virginia. This is almost certainly a son of John and Mary. William is shown as a laborer. Adeline and Elizabeth, like their parents, were born in Virginia, and if you will recall the 1860 census enumeration for Ellen states she was born in Virginia. Exactly where in Virginia is the $64.00 question.

As we now know John was dead by February 1856. It would seem that Mary was dead by 1860 as she does not appear on the 1860 Surry County census. The daughter Elizabeth does appear at age 32 in Dobson District #458. The enumeration shows her to be farming, born in Virginia, and with real property valued at $80.00 and personal property at $70.00. With her is Kate, age 17, so it seems that Kate was Elizabeth's daughter. There are no surviving marriage records indicating a marriage for Adeline or William so they may have died during the 1850s as did John and Mary. There are several William Brown marriages in Surry but it is nearly impossible to determine if this is the correct William.

Long ago I promised to go to the State Archives and obtain a copy of the will of your Jesse Briggs who died in 1878. A copy is enclosed. I looked without success at the wills and estate of Stokes and Forsyth counties for an estate or will of either Jesse and/or Charity. I may have mentioned to you in either a phone conversation or letter (although in reviewing my copys of my letters to you I cannot find where I did), but on the 1820 census of Surry County there are alot of children in the household of Jesse Briggs. I take this Jesse to be the one who married Charity Banner. According to the Banner book about which Judy is always talking about, only five [5] children are named for Jesse and Charity: Sarah [27 November 1795 - 11 December 1879], Charles [25 November 1797], Joseph [28 April 1800 - 20 August 1801], Thomas [29 July 1801], and another Joseph [6 February 1803]. This is all the information given in the book. Where did William P. Banner get this information? He doesn't sight any sources although it looks like it might be from a Bible, but whose Bible, and who has it now? On the 1820 census in Jesse's household are these inidviduals:

1 male, over 45 year = Jesse Briggs, born before 1775
1 female, 26 to 45 = Charity Banner, born 9 February 1776
1 female, 16 to 26 = Sarah, born 27 November 1795
1 male, 16 to 26 = Charles, born 25 November 1797
1 male, 16 to 18 = Thomas, born 29 July 1801
1 male, 10 to 16 = Joseph, the Younger, born 6 February 1803
1 male, under 10 = ????
1 male, under 10 = ????
1 female, under 10 = ????

I had hoped that there would be a will for the elder Jesse but no, that would be too easy. So the next order of business is to check the land records of Stokes County to see if anything can be found for him giving land, slaves, or whatever to these younger unknown children. As you can see the Jesse who married Lucinda Flynt would fit very nicely into this family.

Looking back at my old letters to you I note that in the 16 December 1994 I told you about the deeds for Jesse which I found in Surry County's records. One deed was in 1839 when Jesse bought land off of Joseph who was "of Stokes." Note that Jesse and Charity's youngest heretofore known son was Joseph, born 6 February 1803. Then in my subsequent letter to you dated 26 February 1995 I discuss the Nancy Briggs who appears on the 1850 Surry County census and Sally, who married Lemuel Doss. According to her tombstone, Sarah ("Sally") [Briggs] Doss died 4 December 1879 at age 85. This is only seven days difference than the date used in the Banner book for the death of Jesse and Charity's daughter Sarah! Also, the tombstone says she was 85, which puts her birth at 1794. That is within the year of Jesse and Charity's daughter Sarah's birth. Interesting and probably significant but not proof enough.

While looking for estates or wills of Jesse and/or Charity I did check three estates of Briggses in Stokes: John (1815), Robert (1802), and Thomas (1790). In John's estate the widow Merry [sic] is listed. In Robert's the widow Ann was shown with three children: John, Nancy, and Robert. The son John is probably the John with estate dated 1815. I wonder if he died in some sort of military service during the War of 1812? The only information I gained out of the Thomas (1790) estate was that his executors were Elizabeth (the widow) and John Briggs, whose relationship was not given. In Stokes Deed Book 2, page 332, Jesse Briggs's purchase of 189 acres from Thomas is recognized by John and Elizabeth and is recorded. To me this is suggestive that Thomas and Elizabeth were the parents of Jesse who married Charity Banner.

Oh, by the way, before I forget, I agree with you that the Charity Briggs [1814-1894] who married Thomas Franklin Prather [1809-1889] is probably a daughter of Jesse and Charity. She would fit very nicely as the unknown daughter on the 1820 census.

But enough about the Briggs family; let's move onto those blasted Harrises. I understand that in one of your numerous conversations with Judy she mentioned Nathan Harris and you didn't know who she was talking about. Take a look at your Ancestor Chart #11 which shows that Ellender Harris's father was Nathaniel. First off let me say that I now know that Ellender's father was not Nathaniel. It was Thomas's father. In Nathaniel's will, which I am enclosing herewith, he names a son Thomas and a daughter Elender [sic]. Therefore I was unsure if it was Thomas or Ellender who was your ancestor. We now know that it was Thomas. In one of the estate papers Elender is identified as the wife of David Mullins. I don't think that your cousin Eddie completely satisfied that Turner's father Thomas is the same man as Nathaniel's son Thomas. Are you? If not let me know and I will do my best to either prove or disprove this, whichever way the records work out.

Nathaniel and Nathan are the same person; the names in the old records are interchangeable. In the pages which I sent you a long time ago, if you notice on page 533 from the Boone genealogy, a Nathan Harris is shown as son of James who died in 1792. I believe this Nathan is Nathaniel who died in Rockingham County, NC.

Now let's move onto the Carters, Pipeses, and Poes. I attempted to check estates in Wilkes County Samuel Carter and came up with nothing. I am still confused about the exact sequence of events here but I did locate the will of Raleigh Poe and his estate settlement, copies of which are enclosed. What is interesting, I think, about Raleigh Poe's will is that it proves the existence of a heretofore unknown daughter. While it does not name her it does mention a son-in-law of Raleigh's by the name of Wilbourn Marshall, as well as grandchildren "Gincy" [sic] and "Rolly" [sic] Marshall. This helps to clarify some information I had had for sometime. Let me explain.

As you may remember one of the many familys which I am researching are the Wilbournes, which are sometimes spelled Welborn, Wilbourn, Welbourn, and others. As a result of this research I have known for years of the existence of Edward Wilbourn Marshall, who was born circa 1806 in Surry County, one of four children of Aaron Marshall (who died in 1823) and his wife Temperance Wilbourne [born circa 1780 in Surry County, NC, and died in 1851]. You may remember that Temperance was married a second time to Aaron Kennedy, who is also one of the your ancestors through the Poores. Up to this point the only marriage of Wilbourn Marshall's which we had proof of was to Mary ("Polly") Osborne per their Surry County marriage bond dated 10 January 1845. But the 1850 census enumeration of this family indicated a previous marriage for Wilbourn. In 1850 this family was in Hotel District, household 894, and Wilbourn is shown as a "waggoner" with $200.00 real property. His wife Mary is 30. In their home were Rosannah (age 12), Mary (age 10), Edward W. (age 7), Moses (age 4), and Abner (2 months). The 1860 census adds and additional son Aaron, born 1853, and Nancy Jane, born 1855. The first three children listed in the 1850 census--Rosannah, Mary Elizabeth, and Edward W., Jr.--were children of the Poe. Of these I can tell you that Rosannah, or "Rosey" as she was known, does not appear on any census after 1860. Mary Elizabeth did not marry but she did have three children: Ellen L. [3 March 1861/4 - 11 May 1942] married 24 December 1888 Andrew Bran(n)ock Harrell, Sarah Anna [1868-1913] married 3 July 1887 to Edward Floyd Cockerham, and Lemuel, born circa 1873. Edward W. Marshall, Jr., known as "Sam," was still living in Bryan Township, Surry County, at the enumeration of the 1910 census. His wife was named Louisa [surname unknown].

The two Marshall grandchildren named in Raleigh Poe's will were not living with their father at the 1850 census. They are "Gincy" and "Rolly". The son Raleigh, or "Rolly," was enumerated in the home of John Roberts and Nancy Cockerham, household 892, Hotel Township, in 1850. He was then 19 and is shown as a laborer. He is not shown on any subsequent censuses. Gincy or Jency is a nickname for Jane, and I cannot locate a Jane Marshall on the 1850 Surry County census. I have not had a chance to look at the 1850 Wilkes County census, but a Jane C. Marshall did marry John B. Phillips in Wilkes County on 21 September 1854. This might explain the John B. Phillips buried in the Lewis Family Cemetery. This John died 15 January 1886, aged 55 years which puts his birth in 1830/1, which is just about right. One source says that the John Phillips buried in the Lewis Cemetery is a son of John Phillips and Mary ("Polly") Luffman.

Julia, I think that covers everything for this report. I hope that all of this meets with your approval, and should it not or you have any questions please do not hesitate in contacting me. The next items which are to be done and/or covered are:

(a) copy of actual will of Elizabeth Flynt from Stokes County [NC Archives]
(b) check of Stokes deeds for some sort of connection between Jesse and Charity and Rev. Jesse, and other possible children. (Could it be possible that Jesse was a Methodist minister instead of Primitive Baptist?)
(c) and, of course, an attempt to unravel the discrepancies within the Carter, Pipes, and Poes, and Southards. This means looking at the will of Isaac Southard in Surry and possibly his estate settlement, as well as John Pipes and Samuel Carter in Surry (we know it is not in Wilkes).
(d) the continued efforts on the Lewises and the identification of those daughters who may have married Henry Richardson, Aaron Wright, and Aaron Kennedy.

(e) Surry estates of Hezekiah Mathis/Matthews [1848 and 1858], who is a pssoible father or connected to James Poore's first wife.

(f) sometime ago you gave me $40.00 cash to look into the deeds and tax lists for early Stanleys in Surry County [pre-1800], and I was able to look at the tax lists. Unfortunately I have done so and was not able to locate anything of consequence. In fact, there were very few Stanleys mentioned on those lists which is strange; some Stanleys did own land in Surry. What needs to be done at this point is to make a study of the Stanley deeds upto and including 1825. (By the way, two hours were used in this endeavor alone.)

(g) Check the vertical files at the Wilkes Library in WIlkesboro for Carter, Pipes, Lewis, Kennedy, and Poe.

As you can see there is still alot to be done. This list I compiled by reading my old letters to you and determining what I had promised to do for you and have yet to do. You will pleae forgive me that I have not done them yet; my mind hasn't been very clear of late with all of this fighting, etc., with the so-called doctors.

What all of this means is that when I began this from the last report you had three hours remaining. You then purchased four more hours with $40.00 cash. That gave us seven hours, minus the two I worked on the tax lists, which leaves five. You then purchased ten more which equals fifteen. All of the enclosed material, research and compilation, took twelve hours, which leaves three hours left. What would you like for me to do next?

Before I close let me say that I am happy to have been at least a minor part in your meeting Eddie. He is a great guy, I think, and has been most generous to me: he gave me a copy of the Ballard book. Now I can join you and Judy as owners.

Judy had mentioned that you were interested in the cookbook which Allen Snow was preparing. I am enclosing a copy of it. If you do want it you need to send a check for $8.95 directly to him (his address is in the back of the book). If not, just return it to me, okay?

Again, thanks for everything Julia, and I hope to hear from you at your earliest convenience. Until then I am,

Sincerely yours,

James E. Cockerham

Dear Mrs. Bolich:

It is my sincere hope that this finds yourself and all of your loved ones in the best of health and enjoying this spring-like weather which we currently are having. Yesterday I spoke with Miss Ruth Minick, of the Surry County Historical Society, and she has suggested that I contact you.

For almost fifteen years I have been researching my ancestral families and recently I began helping a cousin with hers. One of the many families which we are researching is Briggs. Her earliest Briggs was Jesse Briggs, born 25 November 1811 and died in Mount Airy Township 22 October 1877. This Jesse, who was one of the earliest ministers in Surry County in the Disciples of Christ faith, was married in Stokes County on 18 March 1837 to Lucinda Flynt. They had three daughters, the middle one named Charity E. who married Francis M. Belton. It is our belief that this Jesse was a brother to Charity (Briggs) Prather and son of Jesse Briggs who married Charity Banner. Can you shed any light on this matter for us? Are we correct in thinking that Charity (Briggs) Prather is a daughter of Jesse and Charity? Was the younger Jesse a brother of your ancestor Charity?

In his book The Banner Family of North Carolina (copyright 1979), William P. Danner, on pages 135 and 136, only five children are listed for Jesse and Charity. The 1820 census of Surry County indicates a much larger family, hence our belief that in compiling the genealogy of the Banners he overlooked Charity (who married Thomas Franlin Prather), Jesse, and a heretofore unknown brother.

Any assistance you would care to give us in this endeavor would be greatly appreciated. Should you have in your possession any documents which would prove or disprove the above suppositions, I would be happy to reimuburse you for any copying and postal expenses. Hopefully you have some old letters, land records, or even a Bible record, on the Briggs family. In closing let me thank you in advance for any help which you might give us, and assure you that I am,

Sincerely yours,

James E. Cockerham

Dear Mrs. Tilley:

It is my sincere hope that this finds yourself and all of your loved ones in the best of health and in good spirits. Yesterday I spoke with Mrs. Judy Bolich, of Mount Airy, and she has suggested that I contact you.

For almost fifteen years I have been researching my ancestral families and recently I began helping a cousin with her's. One of these many families which we are researching is Briggs. Her earliest proven Briggs ancestor was Jesse Briggs, born 25 November 1811 and died in Mount Airy Township 22 October 1877. This Jesse, who was one of the earliest ministers in Surry County of the Disciples of Christ faith, was married in Stokes County on 18 March 1837 to Lucinda Flynt. They had three daughters: Laura, married Alfred Clinton Hall; Charity E. [1843-1913], married Francis M. Belton; and my cousin's ancestor Minerva Virginia [1852-1903], married James Monroe Poore. This middle daughter named Charity E. has given us a very important clue we think. It is our belief that this Jesse, who married Lucinda Flynt, was a brother of Charity (Briggs) Prather and son of Jesse Briggs who married Charity Banner. Can you shed any light on this matter for us? Are we correct in thinking that Charity (Briggs) Prather is a daughter of Jesse and Charity? Was the younger Jesse a brother to your ancestor Charity?

Flynt

In his book The Banner Family of North Carolina (copyright 1979), William P. Danner, on pages 136 and 136, lists only five children for Jesse Briggs and Charity Banner. The 1820 census of Surry County indicates a larger family, hence our belief that in compiling the genealogy of the Banners he overlooked your Charity, the younger Jesse, and a heretofore unknown brother, probably named Michael.

Any assistance you would care to give us in this endeavor would be immensely appreciated. Should you have in your possession any documents, such as letters, deeds, or even a Bible record, which would prove or disprove our hypothesis either way, we would certainly appreicate receiving copies. I will gladly reimburse you for any copying and postage expenses. In closing let me thank you in advance for your patience and time in this matter, and assure you that I am,

Sincerely yours,

James E. Cockerham

Here's a question in which you may have an interest:

On page 135 of W.P.Banner's book,
Joseph BANNER's daughter, Charity, married Jesse BRIGGS 12 Nov 1795. We have been unable to identify the parents or siblings of Jesse.

On page 136 Joseph BANNER's daughter, Mary, married Joseph V. GRIGGS 17 Dec 1812. However, now look in "The McAnally Family in America", page 32, this fellow's name is shown as Joseph V. BRIGGS ! This makes me wonder if Jesse & Joseph were brothers ? Possibly the Stokes County marriage records could at least verify Joseph's last name.

Jim

Had like three seconds to get mail before I have to get off. Turner stuff is fascinating! [Didn't have time to read "skinny kids" yet.

Would you copy Turner stuff and give to Eddie and Jim.

Also, I wonder if you got the Jesse Briggs mixed up on the FGS. Jesse Jr. removed date died in 1877, not Sr. I think. Also, was Jesse Sr. a reverand?

More later.

FIRST GENERATION

1. Hans Georg[1] Brendel[1]. Born, 18 Apr 1713, in Oberbronn, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France[2]. Died, circa 1783 (?), in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania[3]. Burial in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania[4]. Occupation: Farmer.

In the records recording all these children in the Berks County, Pennsylvania, Historical Society Library (from Moravian Church Records), the birth dates are mostly listed as being "old style" dates.

According to information from Wayne A. Brindle, 3909 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75204, Hans Georg Brendel came to the American English Colonies in 1738 with two brothers Johann Philip Brendel and Johann Heinrick Brendel.

A book entitled "New World Immigrants" [N.C.929.373 N532, Vol. 2 by Tepper] on page 183 MORAVIAN BRETHREN IN HEIDELBERG - 1752, there are some variations in the birthdates in the Moravian records, as follows:

Georg Brendel - April 18, 1713
Anna Maria - born August 1741
Eva Cathrina - Feb. 20, 1745
Johannes Johann - June 22, 1746
Heinrich - March 3, 1748
Elizabeth January 31, 1750

He married[2] Eva Catharina Frey[1], 26 Apr 1735, in Langensoultzbach, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France[5]. Born, 9 Oct 1718, in Langensoultzbach, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France[6]. Died, after 1784 (?), in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania[2]. Occupation: Domestic.

According to the research of James A. Jurney of Bellevue, Washington, the Frei or Frey family history starts with Marti Frey, born about 1521 in Knonau, Canton Zurich, Switzerland. Johann Peter Frei was the immigrant from Wingen, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France. He and his family resided at North Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania before removing at an old age to the Friedberg area in the Forsyth / Davidson County area of North Carolina. Johann Peter Frey was a brother of the above mentioned Johann Heinrich Frey. Children:

\+ 2 i. Anna Maria[2] Brendel.

2. Anna Maria[2] Brendel (Hans Georg[1]). Born, 9 Aug 1739, in Muddy Creek, Berks Co., Pennsylvania[1]. Died, 11 May 1815, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[16]. Baptism: 12 Aug 1739, in Cocallico TWP, Berks Co., Pennsylvania[17]. Burial: 13 May 1815, in Moravian Gvyd., Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Immigration: 1766, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Occupation: Domestic.

From her Moravian Memoir: When she was 10 years old her parents put her "to school" with other Moravian children where they had to stay day and night because of the Indian War. (French allied with Indian tribes trying to drive out the English.) ....Now I wished to obtain permission to join the fellowship of the Brethren which was granted to me in Bethlehem when I was 17 years old. I thought now I was safe, and nothing could happen to me that would disturb my life. But I was very much mistaken in this,.... ....For 12 years I served children and girls. In the year 1766 I traveled with the first group of Sister and girls to Wachau, where in November of the same year I was married in holy matrimony to Brother Jacob Bonn who was then a physician in Bethabara.

On October 31, 1781, her dear husband passed away with whom she had three children, who have also passed away, two daughters when they were small children, and her son Jacob who left a family of grand children of whom 5 she lived to see buried, and 2 are living, to whose welfare she was devoted like a mother. ....During her almost 34 years as a widow our dear Sister served for 10 years as a midwife and often praised emphatically the countless instances of the Saviour's help which she experienced throughtout these years.

She married[16] Jacob Bonn[16], Nov 1766, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C. Born, 5 Apr 1733, in Pennsylvania[18]. Died, 31 Oct 1781, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[16]. Burial: 2 Nov 1781, in Moravian Gvyd., Winston-Salem, Forsyth Co., N.C. Occupation: Medical Doctor.

(Info from Moravian Church records) ....In May 1746 Dr. Bonn became a physician and surgeon. He came to Wachovia as a messenger bringing letters in 1758. In 1759 he came again and served as Moravian Doctor for a year. In July 1766 he returned to Wachovia as Community Dovtor, and in November of that year he married Anna Maria Brendel. They had a son Jacob (and 2 daughters who died in infancy). In 1769 he was made Justice of the Peace in Rowan County. When the county of Surry was broken off in 1771, he had the same office and was presiding Justice of the Court for several years. He had a stroke and died in church. Children:

SECOND GENERATION

15 i. Jacob[3] Bonn Jr.[16]. Born, after 1766, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.[16]. Died, before 1815, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[19].

4. Johannes Georg (George)[2] Brendel (Hans Georg[1])[1]. Born, 12 Aug 1743, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, circa 1784, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania[20]. Baptism: 1743, in Cocallico TWP, Berks Co., Pennsylvania[21]. Burial in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Occupation: Farmer.

He married[1] Elizabeth Unknown[1]. Born, after 1743 (?), in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, after 1784, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

16 i. Fredrich[3] Brendel[1]. Born in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, after 1784. Occupation: Farmer.

6. Johannes Johann (John)[2] Brendel (Hans Georg[1])[1]. Born, 23 Jun 1746, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, after 1790 (?), in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Baptism: 1746, in Muddy Creek, Berks Co., Pennsylvania[22]. Immigration: 16 May 1773, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.[23]. Occupation: Farmer.

Dorothy Brendle Boner of Knob Noster, Missouri, writes that there are 5 sons, but this was guesswork, and NOT proven. John Brendle Sr. had five sons and five daughters in the 1790 census. I tend to support this group, and will pursue the German language records in the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, NC, to see what they say about this family. [G.W.Cook 5/28/92]

Apparently the family left the Moravian Church. There are no further records.] There is a memoir in the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, NC for an Anna Maria Brendel, born August 20, 1739 at Muddy Creek, Pennsylvania, who died May 11, 1815 in Salem, NC. She was the wife of Dr. Jacob Bonn (md. 1766), and she had 3 children. She could be the sister of Johannes Brendel b. 1746. [See her record.]

He married Unknown Brendel, before 1768, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Born in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Children:

THIRD GENERATION

17. John[3] Brindle Jr. (Johannes Johann (John)[2], Hans Georg[1])[24]. Born, 8 Jun 1768, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, 11 Feb 1824, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[25]. Burial in Mt. Pleasant, Tanglewood, Forsyth Co., NC. Occupation: Farmer.

He married[25] Mary Ann Stoehr (Star Starr)[25], 16 Apr 1789, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[26]. Born, 25 May 1771, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania[27]. Died, 10 Feb 1826, in Rowan, now Davie Co., N.C.[28]. Burial in Mt. Pleasant, Tanglewood, Forsyth Co., NC[16]. Occupation: Domestic.

Mary's father's will was made December 19, 1808, and probated February 1814 in Rowan (now Davie) County, Will Book G, page 311. He named wife Catherine, sons John, Casper, and Adam; daughters Peggy (widow of Abram Little), Sarah (widow of Thomas Magotty), Mary (wife of John Brindle), Rachel (wife of Frederick Long), grandchildren by Abraham Douthet who is still living and had married daughter Catherine, sons-in-law Charles Posten, Abraham Douthet, and Lewis Little. Son Casper and beloved friend John Hoehns (son of Philip Hoehns) [Hanes] were named executors, and the witness was Michael Hanes [sic]. Children:

20 i. Rachel Alice[4] Brindle[25]. Born, 15 Dec 1789, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[16]. Died, 16 Jun 1815, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Burial in Mt. Pleasant, Tanglewood, Forsyth Co., NC.

Immigration: 24 Nov 1829, in Waughtown, Stokes Co., now Forsyth, NC[16]. Occupation: Farmer. (From Moravian Church records) Br. Geo. Samuel and Sr. Mary Brendel and their five children have moved from Deep Creek into the neighborhood of Salem. Here after they will belong to this congregation. [December 11, 1812]

He married[24], first, Maria (Mary) Lang[24], 1 Sep 1795, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[16]. Mar License, 25 Aug 1795, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Born, 12 Jun 1773, in Deep Creek, Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[16]. Died, 10 Feb 1819, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[32]. Burial in Moravian Gvyd., Winston-Salem, Forsyth Co., N.C. Occupation: Domestic.

From her Moravian Memoir: After she became an adult, she lived near Salem with her sister, who was married to Brother Joseph Spach, and joined this congregation as an out-of-town member. (Home Moravian Church in Salem, N.C.) She was received into this congregation on December 26, 1793....When they (she and husband) subsequently joined the congregation at Hope she received Holy Comunion on October 8, 1803. They then lived for a time near Friedberg, and again with her parents in Surry County, until she and her family moved to near Salem and maintained contact with the congregation here as out-of-town members, and 2 years ago they moved to a nearby plantation which was located within the town limits. (Salem was a Moravian owned and controlled town at that time.) marriage was blessed with 9 children, 3 of whom preceded her to eternity. Children:

26 i. Sophia[4] Brindle[16]. Born, 18 Aug 1796, in Deep Creek, Surry Co., now Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic. She married[33] Martin Schneider, 26 Dec 1820, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina.

27 ii. Friedrich Brindle[16]. Born, 24 Aug 1798, in Deep Creek, Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Occupation: Farmer. He married[33] Catharina Miller[33], 6 Mar 1920, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina.

28 iii. John Brindle[16]. Born, 18 Jul 1801, in Deep Creek, Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 13 Jun 1851. Occupation: Farmer. He married[33] Anna Seitz[33].

29 iv. Joseph Brindle[16]. Born, 6 May 1804, in Friedberg, Stokes Co., now Forsyth Co., NC. Died, 7 Aug 1805.

30 v. Sarah Brindle[16]. Born, 20 Jul 1806 (?), in Rowan, now Davie Co., N.C. Occupation: Domestic. She married[33] Jacob Leinbach[33], 21 Sep 1824, in Rowan, now Davie Co., N.C.

31 vi. Lydia Brindle[16]. Born, 9 Apr 1809, in Deep Creek, Surry, now

Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 20 Dec 1817, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina.

32 vii. Jacob Brindle[16]. Born, 11 Jul 1811, in Deep Creek, Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 6 Apr 1812, in Deep Creek, Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.

(Moravian Church records) April 12, 1812 by request Br. Reichel went to our friends on Deep Creek and preached today to a number of attentive gathering. Jacob the 9 month old son of Br. Geo. and Mary Brendel who belonged to Hope had fallen asleep on the 6th of this month and has been buried quietly in a neighboring graveyard as had that of another child. The parents wished that some notice might be taken of this and pointed out that near the graveyard there was a place in the woods where there was enought benches to accomodate the crowd. After Br. Reichel had finished speaking a Methodist preacher followed with an evangelical address.

33 viii. James Brindle. Born, 14 Feb 1813, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[16]. Died, 1869, in Knob Noster, Missouri[24]. Occupation: Farmer. He married[33], first, Maria Louisa Schultz[33], 11 Apr 1844, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. He married[24], second, Amanda Mylvania Hauser[24], after 1851, in Salem, Forsyth Co., N. C.

34 ix. Maria Elizabeth Brindle[16]. Born, 21 Jun 1816, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[34].

He married[16], second, Sarah Wendel[16], 30 Jan 1821, in Friedberg, Stokes Co., now Forsyth Co., NC. Born, 17 Sep 1796, in Stokes Co., now Forsyth Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

35 x. Christian E. Brindle[35]. Born in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Died, before 1829 (?), in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina[16].

36 xi. Hennietta Paulina Brindle[35].

37 xii. Henry Francis Brindle[35].

38 xiii. Albert Alexander Brindle[16]. Born in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. He married[33] Paulina Bukle, 29 Mar 1848, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina.

19. Daniel[3] Brindle (Johannes Johann (John)[2], Hans Georg[1])[36]. Born, 8 Jun 1787, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.[24]. Died, 24 Sep 1844, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[37]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Prob of Est: Nov 1844, in Surry County, North Carolina[38]. Occupation: Planter/Farmer.

According to the Daniel Brindle Family write-up in the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE book, by Marvin C. Brindle of Conrad, Iowa, his ancestry is undoubtedly to be traced back to the George Brendel who came to America from Germany with two brothers, John Phillip and John Hendrick or Heinrich in 1738. [The spelling "BRANDLE" was used for the family in the 1850 Surry County Census.]

From the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE: "The 1768 tax lists of Heidleberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, named a John Brendel, but he is absent from a similar tax roll in 1779. Records indicate that a John Brendel came from Berks County, Heidelberg Township, Pennsylvania in 1773 to the area around Salem, [Winston-Salem] North Carolina]. The 1778 Rowan County, North Carolina, tax roll lists a John Brendel/Brindle owning property.

"The 1790 Rowan County, North Carolina census lists a John Brindle and wife living with five sons and five daughters; and a John Brindle, Jr., with his wife and a son. Daniel Brindle is very likely to be a son of John Brindle with five sons and five daughters."

The Salisbury District of Rowan County in the 1790 census appears to take in a larger area than what Rowan County consisted of that year. On the page of the printed census for this district, I recognize people I know lived in Salem, Stokes (now Forsyth) County, Examples:

Christian Fry, Jacob Douthit, Henry Boyer, Christopher Elrod, and Jacob Motzinger, all of whom were from or near Salem in what became Stokes County (Forsyth in 1849) in 1789. It would appear that this John Brendle was living in or near Salem in 1790, and moved to the Deep Creek (Surry/Yadkin) area later. On May 15, 1992 I checked the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, and found that there exists Moravian a memoir for a Mary Brendle wife of George Samuel Brendle, who died in 1819, and is buried in the Moravian Graveyard. She and George, and a daughter of theirs were all from Deep Creek in what is now Yadkin County, North Carolina. Stokes was so new in 1789, that the Federal Government probably let Rowan conduct the census of 1790 for Stokes.

John Brindle and John Brindle Jr. are the only Brindle/Brendel/Brendle family members in all of North Carolina in the 1790 census. The presumption that Daniel Brindle is their son is easy to make. John Sr. had one slave.

Note: Surry County was formed before 1790; also the YADKIN HERITAGE article has Daniel married in 1800; the Hoots Cemetery book has him born in 1787, which would make him 13 when he married. One of the dates is wrong. I changed the marriage date to 1810 pending verification of what is wrong here. Also the tombstone of Susanna shows born in 1791, which means she would have been nine years old when she was married if 1800 is the correct date. His tombstone could read 1784 for the birth date. 4's and 7's are frequently mixed up.

His will called for John and Henry Brendle [sic] to be executors, or if they were dead, William Brendle and William Calloway. Witnesses for the will were James Sheek and John Holcombe.

He married[39], first, Susanna Weatherman[36], 12 Feb 1806 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, 18 Jul 1791, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[40]. Died, 30 May 1836, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[37]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

39 i. William[4] Brindle[41]. Born, circa 1806 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[42]. Died, before 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[43]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Census: 1850, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[44]. Occupation: Farmer. He married[36] Nancy Callaway[45], daughter of Samuel Callaway and Mary Unknown Calloway, circa 1835 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[46].

Vermont Jarvis wrote that William Brendle/Brindle was buried in Yadkin County, out from Yadkinville in Brendle's Cemetery. This probably explains why no one has found where his grave is at Mitchell's Chapel.

40 ii. John Brindle[36]. Born, 5 Mar 1809, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, Sep 1847, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[37]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Farmer. He married[36] Elizabeth Huff[26], daughter of Joshua Huff and Rachel Martin.

Researcher Vermont Jarvis indicates he died of typhoid fever.

41 iii. Henry Brindle[36]. Born, circa 1812, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[41]. Died, after 1860, in Dobson, Surry Co., North Carolina[47]. Occupation: Farmer. He married[48] Leah Vestal[47], 14 Feb 1839, in Surry County, North Carolina[49].

42 iv. Sarah (Sally) Brindle[36]. Born, circa 1815, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[41]. Died, after 1850, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[50]. Occupation: Domestic.

43 v. Anna Barbara Brindle[36]. Born, circa 1817 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[51]. Occupation: Domestic. She married[36] William Callaway[36], son of Samuel Callaway and Mary Unknown Calloway, 20 Jun 1834, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.

44 vi. George Daniel Brindle[36]. Born, circa 1820 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died in Carroll Co., Virginia[52]. Burial in Brindle Cemetery, Carroll Co., Virginia[53]. Occupation: Medical Doctor. He married[36] Mary Pauline (Polly/Paulina) Patterson[36], circa 1842 (?), in Surry County, North Carolina[47].

This family was counted in the Hotel District (township later) of Surry County, North Carolina. Elder Wesley Brindle was not counted, but he is known to be a son.

Researcher Vermont Jarvis lists him as a Doctor.

45 vii. Elizabeth Brindle[36]. Born, circa 1828 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[54]. Died, 11 Feb 1845, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[55]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic.

He married[48], second, Margaret Vestal[36], 15 Sep 1837, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, 10 Sep 1822, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 29 Nov 1900, in Yadkin Co., N.C. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC[37]. Occupation: Domestic.

COOK

Commander Gerald (Jerry) Wilson Cook, 63 United States Navy (Retired), a native of Winston-Salem, N.C., died May 10, 1996 at Forsyth Memorial Hospital. He was born at the old City Hospital in Winston-Salem, October 1, 1932. His parents were Paul Wilson Cook and Edna Catherine Moser Cook both long-time residents of Winston-Salem. Jerry attended grammar school at Old Town School in Forsyth County, and graduated from Reynolds High School in 1950. He won a four-year U.S. Navy scholarship through competitive exams to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill while a senior student at Reynolds High. He was sworn in as a midshipman in September 1950, and earned a regular commission in the U.S. Navy in 1954, and retired as a full Commander in Naples, Italy, in 1977. At Chapel Hill he was elected and served as the Secretary/Treasurer of the UNC student government, worked on the Daily Tarheel newspaper with Rolph Neil and Charles Kuralt, was involved in numerous organizations and activities there, and was inducted as a member of The Order of the Old Well for outstanding scholarship and leadership. He was a member of Sigma Chi social fraternity and Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

DESC.OF DANIEL BRINDLE 1787-1844 -4 GENERATIONS

Prepared by: Commander Gerald (Jerry) Wilson Cook, U. S. Navy (Retired) August 22, 1995
Post Office Box 32, Fancy Gap, VA 24328 (540) 728-3777

FIRST GENERATION

1. Daniel[1] Brindle[1], son of Johannes Johann (John) Brendel and Unknown Brendel. Born, 8 Jun 1787, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.[2]. Died, 24 Sep 1844, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Prob of Est: Nov 1844, in Surry Co., N.C.[4]. Occupation: Planter/Farmer.

According to the Daniel Brindle Family write-up in the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE book, by Marvin C. Brindle of Conrad, Iowa, his ancestry is traced back to the George Brendel who came to America from Germany with two brothers, John Phillip and John Hendrick or Heinrich in 1738. [The spelling "BRANDLE" was used for the family in the 1850 Surry County Census.]

From the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE: "The 1768 tax lists of Heidleberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, named a John Brendel, but he is absent from a similar tax roll in 1779. Records indicate that a John Brendel came from Berks County, Heidelberg Township, Pennsylvania in 1773 to the area around Salem, [Winston-Salem] North Carolina]. The 1778 Rowan County, North Carolina, tax roll lists a John Brendel/Brindle owning property.

"The 1790 Rowan County, North Carolina census lists a John Brindle and wife living with five sons and five daughters; and a John Brindle, Jr., with his wife and a son. Daniel Brindle is very likely to be a son of John Brindle with five sons and five daughters."

The Salisbury District of Rowan County in the 1790 census appears to take in a larger area than what Rowan County consisted of that year. On the page of the printed census for this district, I recognize people I know lived in Salem, Stokes (now Forsyth) County, Examples:

Christian Fry, Jacob Douthit, Henry Boyer, Christopher Elrod, and Jacob Motzinger, all of whom were from or near Salem in what became Stokes County (Forsyth in 1849) in 1789. It would appear that this John Brendle was living in or near Salem in 1790, and moved to the Deep Creek (Surry/Yadkin) area later. On May 15, 1992 I checked the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, and found that there exists Moravian a memoir for a Mary Brendle wife of George Samuel Brendle, who died in 1819, and is buried in the Moravian Graveyard. She and George, and a daughter of theirs were all from Deep Creek in what is now Yadkin County, North Carolina. Stokes was so new in 1789, that the Federal Government probably let Rowan conduct the census of 1790 for Stokes.

John Brindle and John Brindle Jr. are the only Brindle/Brendel/Brendle family members in all of North Carolina in the 1790 census. The presumption that Daniel Brindle is their son is easy to make. John Sr. had one slave.

Note: Surry County was formed before 1790; also the YADKIN HERITAGE article has Daniel married in 1800; the Hoots Cemetery book has him born in 1787, which would make him 13 when he married. One of the dates is wrong. I changed the marriage date to 1810 pending verification of what is wrong here. Also the tombstone of Susanna shows born in 1791, which means she would have been nine years old when she was married if 1800 is the correct date. His tombstone could read 1784 for the birth date. 4's and 7's are frequently mixed up.

His will called for John and Henry Brendle [sic] to be executors, or if they were dead, William Brendle and William Calloway. Witnesses for the will were James Sheek and John Holcombe.

He married[5], first, Susanna Weatherman[1], 12 Feb 1806 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, 18 Jul 1791, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[6]. Died, 30 May 1836, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

+	2	i.	William[2] Brindle.
+	3	ii.	John Brindle.
+	4	iii.	Sarah (Sally) Brindle.
+	5	iv.	Henry Brindle.
+	6	v.	Anna Barbara Brindle.
+	7	vi.	George Daniel Brindle.
	8	vii.	Elizabeth Brindle[1]. Born, circa 1828 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[7]. Died, 11 Feb 1845, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[8]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic.

He married[9], second, Margaret Vestal[1], 15 Sep 1837, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, 10 Sep 1822, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 29 Nov 1900, in Yadkin Co., N.C. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC[3]. Occupation: Domestic.

SECOND GENERATION

2. William[2] Brindle (Daniel, 1)[10]. Born, circa 1803, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[10]. Died, before 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[11]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Census: 1850, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[12]. Occupation: Farmer.

Vermont Jarvis wrote that William Brendle/Brindle was buried in Yadkin County, out from Yadkinville in Brendle's Cemetery. This probably explains why no one has found where his grave is at Mitchell's Chapel.

He married[1] Nancy Callaway[13], daughter of Samuel Callaway and Mary Unknown Calloway, circa 1835 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[14]. Born, 10 Jan 1813, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 29 Aug 1860, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[15]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

	9	i.	Pleasant Henderson[3] Brendle[10]. Born, 20 Aug 1836, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 18 Feb 1865, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[16]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC[3]. Occupation: Farmer. He married[17] Margaret Unknown[17].
+	10	ii.	James Ferree Brendle.
	11	iii.	Sidney E. Brendle[10]. Born, circa 1843, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.
	12	iv.	Sarah J. Brendle[10]. Born, circa 1845, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.
+	13	v.	Mary Ann Brendle.
	14	vi.	Nancy Talley Brendle[18]. Born, circa 1852, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[19]. Occupation: Domestic. She married[18] Raleigh Casstevens[18], 23 Jan 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.

3. John[2] Brindle (Daniel, 1)[1]. Born, 5 Mar 1809, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, Sep 1847, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Farmer.

Researcher Vermont Jarvis indicates he died of typhoid fever.

He married[1] Elizabeth Huff[20], daughter of Joshua Huff and Rachel Martin. Born, 5 Jan 1815, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 19 Nov 1897, in Wilkes Co., N.C.[21]. Burial in Poplar Springs, Baptist, Elkin, N.C. Occupation: Domestic.

In the compiled book of the 1850 Surry County (South Division) Census of 1850, Elizabeth (Elisabeth) is the head of family 633, next to Joshua Huff, 62 and Susannah 44, Margaret 39, and David A. Huff 11 months old. On the other side is the family of John and Mary Cockerham. Elizabeth is listed as an ADAMS, with Daniel, Rachel and Patience also listed as Adams. Bryant was listed with his parents in this census.

Susanna and Joshua are living with Aquilla Spear (Speer) in household 651. Mark is missing. The children by Briant Adams came initially from the article submitted by Marvin Brindle of Conrad, Iowa, to the Yadkin County Heritage book. He didn't know his full name, just the surname. Children:

+	15	i.	Daniel[3] Brindle.
+	16	ii.	Rachel A. Brindle.
+	17	iii.	Susanna Brindle.
	18	iv.	Joshua Brindle[20]. Born, 31 Jan 1840, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.
+	19	v.	Mark Brindle.
+	20	vi.	Patience Brindle.

4. Sarah (Sally)[2] Brindle (Daniel, 1)[1]. Born, circa 1810, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[10]. Died, before 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[11]. Occupation: Housekeeping.

She married[21] Drury Eldridge in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, circa 1793[10]. Died, after 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[11]. Occupation: Farmer. Children:

21 i. Lydia Adeline[3] Eldridge[21]. Born, circa 1821, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[22].

22 ii. John B.(rindle?) Eldridge[21]. Born, 24 Dec 1824, in Surry Co., N.C.[23]. Died, 1878, in Surry Co., N.C. Burial in Eldridge, Wilcoxen Cem., Surry Co., N.C. Occupation: Farmer. He married[21] Mary Ann Cockerham[21], circa 1857 (?), in Surry Co., N.C. John and Mary Ann had six children.

23 iii. Talletha Cuymi Eldridge[10]. Born, 29 Mar 1826, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[22]. Died, 26 Feb 1892, in Yadkin Co., N.C. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC[3]. Occupation: Housekeeping.

24 iv. Jemima Eldridge[10]. Born, circa 1828, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. She married[21] Franklin George[21], 24 Jul 1855, in Yadkin Co., N.C.

26 vi. William Eldridge[10]. Born, circa 1833, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, after 1923, in Hewlet, Virginia[21]. Occupation: Farmer. He married[21] Sarah J. Carendon, 10 Nov 1853, in Yadkin Co., N.C.

27 vii. Isaac F. Eldridge[10]. Born, circa 1835, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Occupation: Farmer. He married[21] Icey T. Whitaker, 2 Aug 1864, in Yadkin Co., N.C.

THIRD GENERATION

10. James Ferree[3] Brendle (William, 2)[40]. Born, 14 Dec 1837, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[41]. Died, 12 Feb 1916, in Elkin, Surry Co., N.C.[42]. Burial in Hollywood Cem., Elkin, Surry Co., N.C. Census: 1850, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[12]. Occupation: Merchant Farmer.

In the 1900 Surry County census, James was a wool grader and listed as born in December 1838. Willie was a carder in a woolen mill, and John was a spinner in a woolen mill. Robert and Hallie were attending school.

Vermont Jarvis has his birth date 1839, and death date 1918. He was a Sgt. in the 28th Regiment, Co. I, North Carolina Troops (infantry); he served near Richmond in the 7 days battle, Bull Run, 1st Fredericksburg battle, and was a prisoner at Hampton Rhodes. He was a freight hauler with a 4-horse wagons on the old plank road from Fayetteville to Winston and points west.

Before the railroad was built, James Brendle hauled freight by a four-horse team wagon over the old plank road from Fayetteville to Winston, Elkin and Wilkes county.

James was involved with a tobacco warehouse in Elkin that was accidentally burned by customers staying overnight in the lower area, as was the custom. He bought out the partners after the fire to become the sole owner.

His son Floyd Arthur had opened a nearby, or attached, produce store in 1918. This did not burn like the warehouse, and was the nucleus of the Brendle Store Chain started after the fire. [Story probably to be revised...this is what I understood from Mattie Brendle Baker May 1992...GWC.]

In some public records he is listed as having come from Wilkes County. He was born in what is now Yadkin County. This info probably comes from the fact that he lived on Preacher Murray's Road in Wilkes before coming to Elkin.

James was in the 28th Regiment, Company I of the North Carolina Troops during the War Between The States 1861-1865. He enlisted at the age of 23 from Yadkin County as a private on 13 August 1961. He was promoted to corporal on 11 June 1862; sergeant March 1863. He was captured by the Yankees in October 1864 at Petersburg, Virginia. In April 2, 1865 he was at Fort Delaware, Delaware, and was released after the termination of the war, and after taking the oath of allegiance on 19 June 1865. This information is from Moore's Roster of N. C. Troops, and more details are on microfilm in the N. C. State Archives in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Vermont Jarvis recorded that after the regiment was formed, it immediately was sent to Wilmington, N. C., under General Joseph R. Anderson, Commander of the Cape Fear District, and they were there until the fall of New Bern. Their job was to protect and guard various bridges on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. After this, they headed north toward Richmond where he was captured.

He married[9] Cynthia (Sintha/Sis) Catherine Tulbert[43], daughter of Levi Edward (Lum/Ely) Tulburt Sr. and Cynthia Colvard (Calvert), 20 Jan 1867, in Surry Co., N. C.[44]. Mar License, 19 Jan 1867, in Surry Co., N. C. Born, 24 Dec 1848, in Wilkes Co., N.C.[45]. Died, 12 Aug 1922, in Elkin, Surry Co., N.C.[40]. Burial in Hollywood Cem., Elkin, Surry Co., N.C. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

\+ 47 iii. Floyd Authur Brendle.
\+ 48 iv. Emma Candace Brendle.
\+ 49 v. Carrie Virginia Brendle.
\+ 50 vi. William (Willie/Billy) Franklin Brendle.
\+ 53 ix. Hallie Mae Brendle.

13. Mary Ann[3] Brendle (William, 2)[10]. Born, 1849, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 1902, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic.

She married[3] William R. Bryant[18], son of Hugh Bryant and Jane Bryant, 10 Feb 1869, in Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, 2 Jan 1845, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 14 Mar 1927, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Census: 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[46]. Occupation: Minister. Children:

54 i. Wilborne[4] Bryant. Born, circa 1872, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[11].
55 ii. James Wesley Bryant[11]. Born, 1876, in Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 1886, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC.

15. Daniel[3] Brindle (John, 3)[21]. Born, 1 Mar 1834, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[28]. Died, Mar 1889, in Bryan TWP, Surry Co., N.C.[47]. Census: 1880, in Surry Co., N.C.[48]. Occupation: Farmer.

Daniel enlisted in the N. C. Troops in Wake County, N. C. 17 August 1862, as a private in Company I of the 18th Regiment of infantry. He was wounded 3 May 1863 in the side and right arm. He was present at Appomattox, Virginia for the surrender of General Robert E. Lee's Army of Northern Virginia.

He married[49] Mahala Southard[20], 9 Feb 1855, in Surry Co., N.C. Born, circa 1825, in Surry Co., N.C.[50]. Died, after 1860, in Surry Co., N.C.[21]. Census: 1860, in Surry Co., N.C.[48]. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

19. Mark[3] Brindle (John, 3)[20]. Born, 31 Jan 1842, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 2 May 1929, in Union, Hardin Co., Iowa. Burial in Chester Cem., Hardin Co., IA. Occupation: Farmer.

Mark lived with Joshua Reece after his father died when he was about nine years old. He lived there until he volunteered in the North Carolina Troops on August 13, 1861.

By Marvin C. Brindle in the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE:

"He didn't know just why he was in the Southern Army, but his neighbors and buddies were going, so when he was called, he went. Early in the conflict he was wounded by a rifle ball through the wrist, and at first they wouldn't admit him into the hospital because he was from the South. As he was about to leave, they asked which Carolina he was from, and when he answered 'North Carolina' he was admitted. Then they wanted to amputate because of the danger of blood poisoning, so he ran away from the hospital and saved his hand by bathing his wrist daily in a flowing spring. They had told him he would die if it were not amputated, but he replied that he had as well be dead as to try to make a living with only one hand.

"He served throughout the war in various capacities in Company I, 28th Regiment [North Carolina Troops] under Robert E. Lee. After being wounded, he used a team, and took wounded to the hospitals. Later his mules were shot by the enemy, Mark was taken prisoner and was imprisoned near Washington where he was very hungry for the short remainder of the war.

"Mark Brindle's Civil War records on microfilm at the National Archives in Raleigh, indicate that he was wounded in the second battle of Manassas, was hospitalized in Richmond, Virginia, was captured at Petersburg, Virginia, and was imprisoned at Hart's Island, New York harbor. He was released June 18, 1865.

"On his return home, the money in the South was worthless and Mark had a hard time, but managed to save enough to have a suit of clothes made, and to buy a ticket to Iowa. On the same train came some of his buddies--Lou Hall, John Carter, and Lou Veach. Also making the trip on the 'covered cars' was Mary Frances Faris, Mark's future bride. Arriving at State Center, Iowa, about 1868, they were met by friends in a wagon, and there not being room for everyone to ride, the young men had to walk along behind the wagon.

"Mark made one return trip to North Carolina with some of his old friends, saw his mother again, and renewed old acquaintances.

"Mark was known for his good humor, fairness of dealing, and his friendly disposition.

He married[54], first, Mary Frances Faris (Fares)[20], 24 Dec 1872, in Steamboat Rock, Iowa. Born, 5 May 1847, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.[57]. Died, 1 Dec 1883, in Union, Hardin Co., Iowa. Burial in Buckner Cem., Eldora, Hardin Co., Iowa. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

From Janice Norman:

"Willie had such a tragic life. We never knew much of Annie. She died so soon. And he died so young. Pleas Hobson & some other men were with him, cutting trees out of a roadway. When a tree fell, all went the right way but Willie. It hit him in the back of the head. My dad said it was a small tree too. Pleas had to tell the family. It always made Grandma Norman sad to talk of it. Willie was Grandma's Bro./ch. of Mark Brindle & wf 2 Sarah Clemons."

20. Patience[3] Brindle (John, 3)[20]. Born, 14 May 1847, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Died, 20 Feb 1936, in Yadkin Co., N.C.[3]. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic.

There is no record in Yadkin County of a marriage for Patience Brindle before Mark Taylor. In 1880 Patience was living with Joshua (age 91) and Susan (age 75) and David Huff (age 30). My best guess is that the children of Patience were born "without the benefit of clergy."

Associated with an unknown man. Children:

James E. Cockerham of Winston-Salem, N.C. writes that in Hester Jackson's SURRY COUNTY SOLDIERS IN THE CIVIL WAR, that James N. Eldridge volunteered at Dobson on 5 June 1861 as a private in Company H, 21st Regiment of N. C. Troops. There is no record of him after June 1862. On 13 June 1901 his wife applied for a pension based on this military service.

His obituary showed that he was an employee of the C. F. & Y.(adkin) V.(alley) Railroad and died at his home in Mt. Airy near the depot. In 1900 Roxie was running a boarding house with four boarders in Elkin.

James states that this couple may be buried in an abandoned cemetery in Poplar Springs Community of Elkin Township called the McMickle-Eldridge Cemetery. James' brother Daniel Eldridge who married Mary Ann McMickle is buried there with several others, but the graves are marked with field stones and have no inscriptions.

He married[62] Judith (Julia) Roxana Tulburt[63], daughter of Levi Edward (Lum/Ely) Tulburt Sr. and Cynthia Colvard (Calvert), 17 Jul 1862, in Wilkes Co., N.C.[64]. "A large warehouse and office building is located in Elkin. Some of the grandchildren of David and Edna Brendle are now working at Brendle's.

"The Brendle family has in 64 years expanded a small supply store serving three counties to 14 stores in North Carolina and three in other states.

"Faithful and dependable employees have been a great help to Brendle's through the years. Harold Weatherman is the one who served the longest."

[This was written about 1982 by Edna Arnold Brendle and Ruby B. Canipe.]

From his obituary in 1937:

"FLOYD A BRENDLE, PROMINENT ELKIN MAN, PASSES AWAY -- Death Comes After Illness of Seven Months -- WIDELY KNOWN CITIZEN -- Stores Here Remain Closed For One Hour During Funeral Service -- FUNERAL HELD MONDAY --

"Mr. Brendle had been engaged in the mercantile business here for 23 years, being the senior member of the firm of F. A. Brendle and Son. He was a member of the First Baptist Church and was a leader in religious activities. For a number of years he had served on the board of deacons of the church and as church treasurer. He was also a member of the Jr. O.U.A.M. and of the Woodmen of the World....

"Mr. Brendle was widely known throughout this section and was esteemed by a host of friends. Of a quiet and unassuming nature, he went quietly about his duties but his opinion was sought and valued in many affairs. As a mark of respect to the passing of a man who had so long been associated with the town, all business houses were closed from two until three o'clock Monday afternoon, during the hour of the funeral service."

From the SURRY COUNTY HERITAGE book, page 72:

"The first Brendle's store opened in Elkin in 1918. Floyd Arthur Brendle opened the S.W.Y. Supply Co. S was for Surry, W was for Wilkes, and Y was for Yadkin.

"The name of the store was changed to F. A. Brendle and Son in 1920 when Floyd Brendle's son James David joined the operation. David left a job as salesman for Brown-Rogers Dixon in Winston-Salem to go into business with his father. [Mattie indicated to me that the supply store was near or attached to a tobacco warehouse that burned down in 1920, causing the concentration on merchandising in that year. - GWC]

"In the early 1930's the store was expanded to four retail grocery outlets. These included the North Elkin Store, the East Elkin Store, the Modern Food Store and the original F. A. Brendle and Son store.

"Floyd A. Brendle's daughter, Mattie, joined her father and brother in the operation of the store. Mattie was very helpful to customers buying groceries or other products. She had energy and a wonderful personality. A Brendle customer could call the store and give Mattie an order for groceries. The groceries would be delivered to the customers kitchen very soon. Mattie Brendle married Luther Baker a Surry County man. 'Baker' was a welcome addition to the store. He remained with the firm as long as his health permitted.

"The three sons of Dave Brendle began working in the store at an early age. Harold started bagging potatoes at the age of twelve and moved to the position of stock and delivery boy while he was in high school.

"Floyd started selling candy and bagging groceries.

"Harold Brendle worked in the meat markets for the Modern Food Store and in F. A. Brendle and Son until 1948. Before going into the buying and sales end of the business, he pulled orders for the wholesale food operation for about five years. He became a full time buyer in 1952 and succeeded his father as president in 1957.

"Floyd Brendle served in Korea for two years. He returned to Brendle's after attending N. C. State University. He worked as store manager for the family operation from 1953 until 1963, when he became executive vice-president.

"After receiving a degree from Bowling Green College in Kentucky, Doug Brendle returned to the Brendle's operation in 1953. He was the main instigator in starting the non-food business. He continued to push for innovations in 1957 when he started the first catalog operation.

"In the spring of 1953 the first non-food operation was begun. This beginning in non-food items involved only the type of merchandise that is sold from a rack in a grocery store.

"The first catalog sales were begun in 1957. These first catalogs were printed on a simple ditto machine.

"In 1961 the grocery part of the business was sold out to Cash and Carry. Brendle s Cash Wholesale was moved to its present location on Standard Street.

"The Brendle's Store in Elkin along with the branches in other towns are headed by the three sons of David and Edna Arnold Brendle.

"Brendle's Stores are located in Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Raleigh, Durham, Charlotte, Asheville, Burlington, Chapel Hill, Concord, Hickory, Wilson, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Kingsport, Tennessee, and Salem, Virginia.

from 5 July 1995 letter to Gerald W. Cook

Ruel Foster Snow [13 April 1853 - 20 August 1931], son of Simpson Westburry Snow and his wife, Matilda Golden Coe. Her death certificate at Dobson [Book 13, page 536] lists her parents as "Jarrell Perkins" and "Catharine Roberts." Is this the clue we need for the tie-in for these Perkins familys? IS Jarrell Perkins also "Judge" Perkins? Your comments, thoughts, suggestions, please!

You said that Isaac Perkins was born 29 May 1811. Where was that? Do you have any dates for his first wife, Nancy Ledbetter? By the way their marriage bond, dated 13 Nov 1832, is in Albemarle County, NC. Can you give me a Group Sheet with whatever you have on their children Fraces D. and Mary Jane? I have John Thomas' family worked out (he married into my Brays), as well as James R.'s family (as supplied by Mr. Simpson out in New Mexico). I do not have any dates for the wife of L. H. Perkins's wife Martha Jane Saunders. Do you have these? They had no children, right?

I did notice that you didn't mention L. H. Perkins's first wife, whom he married in Surry County 23 September 1857: Margaret Jane Sparger, born 5 September 1839 and died 21 June 1880. She is buried at Westfield Friends Church in Surry. According to the 1860, 1870, and 1880 censuses of Surry, their four [4] children were:

(a) Mary F., born circa 1858, married 18 April 1878 John W. Jessop.
(b) Sarah ("Sallie") [29 November 1861-29 August 1912], buried Westfield Friends, married in Surry 25 February 1883 to Alfred M. Inman.
(c) James W., born circa 1866 [in Virginia according to 1880 census], married in Surry County to Julia E. Brinkley on 29 August 1886.
(d) Laura, born circa 1876, married 28 February 1893 in Surry to Joseph Smith.

I do not know for sure but I bet these other children are buried at Westfield. On my next trip to the library I will try to see what Wallace's books have to say on the matter.

Let me go ahead, now, and give you the details on Isaac's second wife, Sarah ("Sallie") Bray, whom he married in Surry County 4 February 1873. She was born (according to the 1900 census) in May 1827, and died circa 1905. She was a daughter of Artha [sic] Bray, Sr., and his wife Mary E. ("Polly") Whitaker. According to stories in the family, she and Isaac are buried in a small two-grave plot on the farm of Charles Perkins near Copeland. in Surry County. This is part of the original Artha Bray farm, and this was her part. Isaac wrote his will 23 May 1883 and it was probated 26 December 1883, and recorded in Surry Will Book 6, pages 188 through 192. I hope that at least some of this is of help to you.

Now let's move onto the Brindles. I have really enjoyed having the print-out you did for me on them, and am looking forward to receiving the updated one (did it ever come back to you?). I have a few suggestions, comments, additions, etc., about some of the members and I will try to keep it a minimum so as to not bore you too much. Let's begin with your #3, John Brindle. From what records are available, his wife's second husband was Briant [sic] Adams, and according to the 1850 Surry County census he was the son of William Adams and wife Sarah. At least he was in their home [#481], and aged 23 years. Through the remaining censuses that he appears in his age varies so much I doubt that he knew his real age! His last census appearance was in 1880, living in Marsh Township of Surry, #83, and farming. As you know from the Mark BRindle genealogy Briant and Elizabeth had (4) children. You have the information on the two daughters who married Whites. Now let me tell you that the son William W. Adams, known as "Billy," was born 29 December 1851 [according to his tombstone] and died 7 December 1917, and is buried at Poplar Springs Baptist Church outside of Elkin. He married 11 January 1877 to Laura Jane Johnson, and she is buried there as well. I have yet to create a FGS for this couple but when I do so I will forward a copy to you, okay?

The most interesting discovery I made yesterday (we stopped off at a few cemeterys on our way to Mountain Park [of course]), is that also buried at Poplar Springs is Elizabeth Adams. Unfortunately her tombstone (which was the tall skinny kind) is broken. The date of birth can be made out but I guess we will have to rely upon Wallace's books for the death date. He lists it as 19 November 1897. By the way, her tombstone gives the date of birth as 5 January 1811, not 1815 as you have in your print-out. I assume that your date of 1815 is from Quaker records? If not from where? This discrepancy of four years in this date of birth is even more interesting if you factor in that in all censuses her son's [William W.] age computes to a birth of circa 1854. But his tombstone is off by three years, showing his birthyear as 1851. What do you think about them apples?

Years ago I was visiting with my aunt, Alma (Hardy) Mounce [daughter of Wesley Hardy/Senia Brendle], and she at that time lived in the Poplar Springs Community outside of Elkin. She told me that up her road [SR# 1131, Fax Welborn Road] in a grove of trees was an "old Brendle cemetery." Knowing that her mother was a Brindle I asked her who they were and if there were any stones. She said something to the effect that all she knew they weren't "her Brindles," and she didn't think there were any markers, only rocks. Well, I never checked it out, that is I didn't until yesterday. She was right, there are no tombstones, just rocks, and seven of them. Now the question is: who are these Brendles. I think I can make a pretty good guess, using the available records.

SR#1131, the Fax Welborn Road, is in Elkin Township, which used to be Hotel Township. Living in that township in 1860 were George D. Brindle [your #7] and Daniel Brindle [your #15]. Considering the fact that Aunt Alma's grandfather John Fletcher Brindle was the son of George D. Brindle I think she would probably have known if it was any of George's people there. The 1870 census shows just George and John in Hotel Township (Daniel has moved on over to Bryan, but let's not rule him out totally). With John was a two year old son, Jesse, who apparently died early as no mention is made of him in other records of the family (see Heritage of Surry County Volume II, page 33). Also, in the 1900 census Lucinda said that she had had 7 children, with 7 living, but she obviously was in error. (I still haven't had a chance to look them up on the 1880 Grayson County census, but I did look in the cemetery book. Jesse, son of Fletcher and Lucinda, is not there, or at least isn't named or has a tombstone.) You do not show a death date for the grandfather George D. What was the last census he was in there? I have a feeling that Jesse is buried on his grandfather's farm.

Now, let's move to Daniel, son of John and Elizabeth. His last census appearances was in 1880, and living in Bryan Township (#208). By his neighbors I would say that he lived around Rocky Ford church and Kapp's Mill. Next door to Daniel is his son John W., aged 22 and a farmer, with his wife Sarah E. (23), and son Allen E. (1). Now remember, Daniel's mother was Elizabeth who married secondly Briant Adams, and by their enumeration on the 1880 census it is obvious they were living near the Mulberry Community in Marsh Township. Mulberry and Poplar Springs are less that four miles apart and Fax Welborn Road--according to my father who grew up in that community--is right dead in the center!

When we start reading the 1900 census of Surry does it get sticky, and I have to ask myself if I have all the John Brendles figured out properly. In Bryan Township (#248), in the home of Chafity Goings, is John W. Brendle, a "boarder" and "farm laborer." He is listed as divorced, and his birth is given as June 1858. He is living seven houses away from his older brother Henry H. Brindle.

Over in Elkin Township (#273), is the family of farmer John Brindle, born November 1862. He has been married (according to the census) for 18 years, and he and his wife had had five children with four then living. His wife is shown as Martha, born November 1862. Let me insert here that buried at Poplar Springs is Martha A. Brendle, born 11 November 1864 and died 28 June 1925. No husband is indicated to be buried beside her; in fact, graves are on both sides of her but they are other people. Long ago I was told by Mrs. Grace (Wilborn) Greenwood, now 97, that those Brendles buried in that cemetery was the family of Walter Brendle. Walter is one of the children named in the census, born October 1885 (he is the oldest). The other three children were: Marley [November 1889), Boyd (June 1893), and Bula [sic] G. (May 1899). Now the clincher: living with this family is Lera, listed as "Mother" and widowed, born October 1819. That is the wife of Henry (your #5).

My previous information that I had on the family Daniel and Mahala, as to who their children married, came from Sue Hickman out in Amboy, WA. As soon as I finish this to you I am going to write to her to let her know of these startling findings. Obviously Daniel and Mahala's son John was just married one time, to Sarah E. Galyean on 6 September 1877. This is his wife on the 1880 census.

The "other" John Brindle, in Elkin Township, in 1900, is obviously a heretofore unknown son of Henry Brindle and Leah Vestal. Going back to what Mrs. Greenwood told me long ago, the son of John and "Patty," Walter, was married in Surry 21 October 1906 to Lillie Welborn. Lillie was born in November 1878, Elkin Township, daughter of Francis Marion Welborn and his wife Frances Golden, whose farm was just "down the road" literally from the Brendle farm. Mrs. Greenwood further stated that soon after marriage they--Walter and Lillie--moved to Washington (she didn't state what town or area), and they had three children: Leona, married Montgomery Collins; Bertha, married an Oliphant, and Alma, married Clyde Jennings. After Walter's death Lillie married a Mr. Shipton. I wonder if the entire family --meaning John and the rest of his children went to Washington as well?

In the 1900 Yadkin County census, Knobs Township #173, is the family of John J. Jenkins, with wife Linder [sic] C., daughter Maude D., and sister-in-law Tenny Brindle. The sister-in-law was shown as born in April 1853, which must be in error. After all she is on the 1850 census with her parents as age 3. Now as to who the "Linder C." is. You show Henry and Leah to have a child L. C., your #31. Surry County marriage records reveal that Leah C. Brindle married John Jackson Jenkins on 8 November 1874. John J. Jenkins and his wife Tina are buried at the Ebenezer Methodist Church near Elkin, and about three miles following the old roadbed of what is today SR#1131. [Over time, for some reason, part of this old road wasn't used, probably due to having to cross two creeks and going up and down alot of hills. Then, during construction of I-77, the road was pretty much sealed as closed off.] Her dates, as reflected on her tombstone, for Tina, are: born 25 January 1854 and died 30 October 1947. I will warn you now that those for her husband are incorrect, or at least I feel that they are incorrect. At present they shown him to be born 7 June 1832 and died 18 June 1933. The death I do not hispute. His death certificate, in Yadkin County [11:31] confirms this death date, as well as this date of birth. But, beginning with the 1850 census and running through all of them except for the 1900 Yadkin County, his age is equivalent to being born in 1841. I even have a transcript of his obituary and it gives his birth as 1832. By the way, he was the son of Hiram Jenkins, Sr., and his wife, Nancy Marsh. For your enjoyment I am also enclosing a copy of this obituary.

According to Hester Jackson's Surry County Soldiers in the Civil War, page 100, John J. Jenkins volunteered 5 June 1861 "at age 19"(!), as a Private in Company "H," 21st Regiment, NC Troops. He was captured 3 or 4 May 1863, near Chancellorsville, VA, and was a POW at the Old Capital Prison in Washington. He was exchanged 23 May 1863, but was again captured at Mount Crawford, VA, 2 October 1864. This time he was a POW at Point Lookout, MD, was paroled there, and send to Bouleware's Wharf on the James River 31 March 1865. That is all of his military record, according to Hester Jackson.

Now, the 1900 census indicated that John and Tina had one daughter, Maude D., born 1 October 1886. No date of death is on her tombstone, which she shares with her husband John Ivory Cockerham [14 November 1887 - 30 August 1953]. He was born in Wilkes County, NC, son of Charlie and Nancy Emaline (Bauguess) Cockerham, and was a barber in Elkin. The records show that they had only one child, Juanita, birthdate unknown (she was born in Yadkin County), but married Robert Carter in Surry 7 January 1934. Interestingly enough, buried within the family plot at Ebenezer (with John, Tina, Ivory, and Maude) is a Elton W. Woodmaney, a Private in the US Army during World War II, with these dates: 28 March 1921 and died 13 June 1989. Who is he, if anyone? Surely he is a part of the family!

So, by my guess, buried in this cemetery are Henry and his wife Leah, their daughter Tennessee, probably their son John with the child that he and "Patty" indicated they had lost by the 1900 census. That accounts for five graves. Who are the other two? Possibly Briant Adams. Possibly someone from the community. We will probably never know.

Well, Jerry, now that you have these ideas and information to play with, I would be interested in knowing your feelings on all this. Also, I would be interested in seeing how you integrate this into your Brendle/Brindle database.

Enclosed you will please find the Swaim letter which I mentioned to you the other day. Thanks for taking this and answering it, and please explain to him that the reason for the delay was the member of the Research Committee for SCGA who had it had moved and just recently discovered it in an un-packed box. That member, the idiot that he is, was none other than your's truly (HA HA).

I look forward to hearing from you at your convenience, and remain,

Sincerely yours,

James E. Cockerham

(1) At the enumeration of the 1850 Surry County, NC, census, Briant Adams was living in the home of his parents in Surry's South Division [#481], which is present-day Yadkin County, NC, which is the birthplaces of he and his wife. He is listed as a "farm laborer." In 1860 he and his family are still in Yadkin County, near Jonesville [#662] and is a farmer. By 1870 he and his family were living in the Rusk Post Office in Marsh Township [#38], and he is farming. His last census appearance is in 1880, residing in Marsh Township in the Mulberry Community [#83], and he is farming. He was still alive in 1885 when his daughter Elizabeth A. was married but was dead by 1890 when Elizabeth wrote to her son Mark Brindle in Iowa. It is thought he may be buried in the Mulberry Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery in an unmarked grave.

(2) Elizabeth ("Bettie") (Huff) Brindle was peviously married to John Brindle [5 March 1809- September 1847], son of Daniel Brindle and Susanna[h] Weatherman. By him she had six [6] children: Daniel, Rachel A., Susanna[h], Joshua, Mark, and Patience. In 1850 she appears on Surry County's South Division [#633] and is shown as "Adams," as are the children then living with her: Daniel, Rachel, and Patience. Her tombstone has the year of 1811 as her birth-year which is inconsistent with all other information. Her tombstone is broken, and the bottom portion is missing.

(3) Martha Caroline Adams and Ashley Columbus ("Lum") Johnson were married in Eagle's Mill Township, Iredell County, NC, at his father's residence. They died in Winston-Salem, Forsyth County, NC, where they are buried.

(4) His tombstone has the year "1851" which is thought to be in error considering that all censuses indicate his birth occuring in 1854 and if he was born in 1851 it would be six months after his older sister's birth. His marriages were as follows:

Laura Jane Johnson = 11 Jan 1877
Celia Jane McKaughan/McCoin = 30 Apr 1905

COMPANY B

This company was from Yadkin County and enlisted at Yadkinville on May 12, 1861. It tendered its service to the state and was ordered to Danville, Virginia, where it was assigned to this regiment as Company B. After it was mustered into the regiment the company functioned as a part of the regiment until it was transferred to the 1st Battalion North Carolina Sharpshooters, April 26-28, 1862, and designated Company A of that battalion.

The following roster of the company covers the period from the date of enlistment to the date of transfer. For the period after April 26, 1862, consult the roster of Company A, 1st Battalion N.C. Sharpshooters. The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for May 12 through October, 1861. No company muster rolls were found for the period after October, 1861. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

MARK BRINDLE

Mark Brindle was born January 21, 1842, to John and Elizabeth (Huff) Brindle, in what was then Surrey County, North Carolina. His father died when Mark was 5 years old—probably in September, 1847—of typhoid fever. His father John was sick with typhoid in grape season, and John liked grapes so well, couldn't refrain from eating more grapes than was good for him, and this is thought to be the reason that he took seriously sick and succumbed to typhoid. When Mark was 8 years old, his mother married again—to an Adams, and when Mark was 9, he went to live with Joshua Reece, (probably his uncle), and it is assumed that other brothers and sisters were placed in other homes as well.

Mark's father, John, lived near Boonville, North Carolina, in the vicinity of Mitchel Chapel. Our late cousin, John Brendle, of Boonville, told us that the cemetery at Mitchel Chapel used to be called the "Brindle Graveyard," and that Mark's father John had given them land for this cemetery. John is buried in the "Brindle row" in this cemetery, and a new marker has been placed at his grave. Mark's grand father Daniel, and grand mother Susannah are also buried in this same row. So is Tandy Brindle, who was a nephew of Mark, and was the father of Rosa (Brindle) Hobson, and Pearl (Brindle) Mustion, whom we know, and another daughter who has visited Iowa.

Mark Brindle was called into the Confederate army when he was about 17 years of age. He didn't know just why he was in the Southern Army, but his neighbors and buddies were going, so when he was called, he went. Early in the conflict he was wounded by a rifle ball through the wrist, and at first wouldn't admit him into the hospital because he was from the South. As he was about to leave, they asked which Carolina he was from, and when he answered "North" Carolina—he was admitted. Then they wanted to amputate because of the danger of blood poisoning, so he ran away from the hospital and saved his hand by bathing his wrist daily in a flowing spring. They had told him he would die if it was not amputated, but he replied that he had as well be dead as to try to make a living with only one hand. He served throughout the war in various capacities in Company 1, 28th Regiment, under General Robert E. Lee. After being wounded, he used a team, and took wounded to the hospitals. Later his mules were shot by the enemy, Mark was taken prisoner, and was imprisoned near Washington where he was very hungry for the short remainder of the war.

On his return home, the money in the South was worthless and Mark had a hard time, but managed to save enough to have a suit of clothes made, and to buy a ticket to Iowa. On the same train came some of his buddies—Lou Hall, John Carter, and Lou Veach. Also making this trip on the "covered cars" was mber 24, 1872. Mark Brindle married Mary Frances Faris, daughter of and Sarah W. (Stone) Faris, of near Steamboat Rock, and they lived eamboat Rock area some and moved about considerably. Some of the were born here—Sadie, John and probably Charles. John told that it racle that he survived at all—he was born during a blizzard, the doctor ık, and the lady who cared for him and his mother was the mother of us or notorious Rainsbarger brothers, although individually she was a d woman. Mark's wife—Mary Frances—died in 1883 and was buried r father Nicholas, in the Buckner cemetery, near Eldora.

185, Mark married Sarah Clemons, and they lived in the Liberty area. dually began to acquire property, Addie, Mabel, and Willie were born they prospered and retired in this community—after an unsuccessful o retire in Union.

ıade one trip back to North Carolina, with some of his old friends—mother again, and renewed old acquaintances. Coming back, while or the train, he stood watch over his friends suitcases while they looked liquor, but the train came before his companions returned, and they left behind. His wife Sarah and little daughter Addie met the train, ding to Addie, her mother cried and cried because Mark and com- idn't arrive as planned.

's mother, Elizabeth (Huff) Brindle Adams, died in the mountains ınce from Hamptonville or Elkin, at the home of a daughter who was o a White. She had two daughters who married Whites. We have mation of the Adams Family, except the names of the children. Addie Caroline, who married a Johnson, and lived in Winston Salem. Addie ioned that Caroline resembled her half-brother Mark, was slight in very nice, also that Caroline had a son, of large rugged build—who Mark's son John P. Other children of Mark's mother by her second were—William, Mary (Adams) White, and Elizabeth (Adams) White, kname was "Sis."

was generally known for his good humor, fairness of dealing, and his isposition—and as a good old friend recently stated—"Mark was a esting fellow to visit with". This friend was Floyd Hickman, age 84, ng at Westwood Nursing Home in Marshalltown, who knew Mark enjoyed many visits with him. Floyd's father was Henry Hickman, Minister at Chester, years ago.

ınd Sarah are buried in the cemetery at Chester. So are Sadie, John, Charles is buried in the Union cemetery.

en, grand-children, and some great grand-children cherish the mem- e family gatherings and wonderful dinners at the home of Grandpa dles, that were a regular occassion, and so well attended by the de- ınd relatives of Mark during his later years. He liked to be proud ily, and their families.

When Elisabeth married John Brindle, she was disowned by Deep Creek MM for marrying out of unity with a non-Quaker. It appears that she still was considered a member of her family, however. She was named in Joshua Huff's will in 1881.

John and Elisabeth lived near Boonville, NC, near Mitchell's Chapel United Methodist Church. Mitchell's Chapel was formerly called Brindle's Graveyard, and tradition has it that the land for it was given to the church by John's father, Daniel Brindle.

They had 6 children:

   D. After 1890 — D. abt. March, 1889 of measles

   (When Mahala died, Elisabeth said Daniel talked of going to waste on her deathbed. He was, in 1890, living by himself. She added that his younger son, who was working "a good way from home" was brought home dead.)

2. Rachel — Md. 12-3-1853 — Joel Brooks
   B.10-9-1836 — B. abt 1830

   (Elisabeth said they had 10 children, and all were living but one in 1890, and that all were married but three.) Mary...5, Sarah...3, and Nancy...1, were listed with them in the 1860 census.

   (Rachel visited her mother in September of 1889, the first time in 20 years that they had seen one another.)

3. Susannah (Susa) Md. 6-14-1857 — G.D.P. (Jorge) Adams
   B. 11-9-1838 — B. 8-2-1835
   D. 5-19-1900 — D. 5-14-1900
   Both Bur. Dp. Ck. Fri. — s/o John Adams & Mary Phillips

   (Jorge was a preacher. Susa and Jorge were living by themselves.) No children were mentioned.

4. Joshua
   B. 1-2-1840

   (Elisabeth said Josh drinks a good deal yet, but not like he used to.)

5. Mark — (Md.-1)12-24-1872 — Mary Francis Faris

Mark and Sarah had 4 children: Mary Jane (died at birth), Addie, Mabel (my grandmother), and William Zenas.

6. Patience (Margaret?) Md. 12-20-1892 ~~Mark Taylor~~
B. 5-14-1847 ~~B. abt 1870~~
D. 2-20-1936 Mitchell's Chapel
s/o Matthew Mark Taylor & Francis (Fannie) Trulove (his 1st wife)

(Elisabeth said Patience wasn't well, the last she'd heard....that Zare had left her, and he was a nice young man, and well-thought of.) Zare was a son of Patience....he had left home at the age of 21.

Patience had 3 children that I know of:

a. Zerr (Zare) Brindle m. 8-6-1893 Vina Hunter d/o Tyre G Hunter & Margaret Glenn
B. Abt. 1869 NC
Zeriah

b. Sarah Brindle Md. 1-10-1897 Thomas F. Taylor
B. abt 1871 NC B. abt 1852
s/o Matthew Mark Taylor & Fannie Trulove

c. Tandy Brindle Md. 2-8-1897 Eliza Tucker (Sarah Elizabeth Bates Tucker)
B. 4-24-1874 NC B. c-1874
D. 7-17-1955 Mitchell's Chapel D. when children were young 1905
A daughter, Rosa, md. Pleas Hobson, s/o Ty Hobson & Millie Norman (d/o David C Norman and Millie Phillips)

In September of 1847, John Brindle died of typhoid fever. He had the disease in grape season, and it has been said that he liked grapes so well, and ate too many, which was a contributing factor in his dying of typhoid. He was just 35 years old, and little Patience was only 4 months old. Life was hard for Elisabeth now.

She appealed to the court for, and was granted, 1/3 of the land John owned (this was about 71 acres for her share). A guardian was appointed for the 6 children...James Sheek. The rest of the land was sold at an auction in the spring of 1850...on credit for one year. John Castevens bought 80 acres (adjoining his land) for $111.00. His security was Mecans Castevens, whose land adjoined this tract also. (John's land was on Mill Creek ____ in 1819, Daniel Brindle, John's father, had bought 240 acres from John Castevens.)

Drury Alridge (Md. in 1819 to Sarah Brindle...parents unknown to me) bought 60 acres for $100.00. His security was Thomas Gough. This tract adjoined Drewry's land.

The $211.00 was to go to the children of John Brindle.

This pg has not been upgraded to show new info.

Elisabeth's land included the dwelling house and necessary out houses. In November of 1847, she was granted one year's provisions out of the estate of her deceased husband. These provisions were:

26 barrels of corn for head of hogs in pen
__?__ in sows & pigs
2 cows (& possibly a calf)
4 head of sheep
8 bu. wheat
75 doz. oats
100 bundles fodder and shuck
52 lb coffee 20 lb sugar 2 lb spice
2 lb pepper to 1 bu. salt and some she has on hand
1 pot, 1 skillet, 1 oven, 1 table, 6 chairs, 1 bed & (furniture or furnishings), 1 water pail and bucket
1 wheel and 1 pair of cards & the flax

$21.00 cash, to pay for above articles that are to be got.
(A couple of items could not be deciphered.)

Sometime between 1847 and 1850, Elisabeth married Bryant ? Adams. In the 1850 census, Daniel (16), Rachel (14), and little Patience (3), lived with Elisabeth Adams....no mention of her husband. Susanna (12) and Joshua(10) lived with Aquilla and Caroline (Bohanan) Speer. Aquilla was Elisabeth's 2nd cousin. Mark (8) lived with Elisabeth's aunt, Mary (Martin) and Joshua Reece (her 2nd cousin)*, by choice, perhaps. He remained with them until grown. (In 1860, Patience was living with her sister, Rachel and Joel Brooks. In 1880, she and her 3 children lived with her grandfather, Joshua Huff and his 2nd wife, Susan.)

Elisabeth and Bryant ? Adams had 4 children that I know of:

1. William (Billy) Md. __?__

(Elisabeth told Mark in her letter that Billy had 5 children... 3 boys and 2 girls. The baby was 9 months old and unnamed. One girl was dead.)

2. Caroline Md. Lum Johnson

(They lived at Winston in 1890.)

(Pres.) John White Sr b. 1770's

3. Mary Jane Md. Romulus Sanford White (Sanders / Sant) 1858-1943 farmer s/o Albert White + 2nd wf: Mary Polly Wilmoth

(Elizabeth said they'd all been having the mumps, and Sanford was like to die with them.)

#665 Surry Bk 2 d: Rebecca, Emma, Ann, Dennis, + Emory. Buried Pilson + Mulberry Church Surry Co.

4. Elizabeth (Sis) Md. Bob White

(One of their little boys had burned to death....it happened in the morning, and he died that evening.)

* Elisabeth's 2nd cousin Mark was said to have lived his Uncle Joshua + Aunt Mary Reece's very much.

BRYANT ADAMS - James E COCKERHAM 1995

For many years I thought Elisabeth had done a cold-hearted thing in remarrying and then giving her children to others to raise. I didn't realize how hard life was for a young widow with young children to raise. It must have been a very sad thing for her to have let her children go to others. I wonder if she was able to be near them as they were growing up?

A few years ago, I discovered the letter Elisabeth had written to Mark and Sarah in 1890. My grandmother, Mabel (Brindle) Norman (Lewis Allie), ~~had put it in some things that were given to me.~~ You can imagine my great surprise and excitement in finding it! When I read this letter, I felt that Elisabeth had cared a great deal for her children. She was living at State Road, Surry, NC at this time.

the letter was given to my Uncle Walt, then Dad, & Mom gave it to me.

Mark Brindle entered the Civil War in 1861 at age 18. He was captured and kept prisoner at Hart's Island, NY Harbor, and was released 6-18-1865. We know from his war record that he was 5'7", and had dark hair and eyes and a light complexion. He had a hard time making a living upon his return home, but saved enough to have a suit of clothes made. He left on a train bound for the West with his friends, Lou Hall, John Carter, and Lou Veach. His future wife and her family were also on that train. They arrived in Iowa in about 1868.

When Mark and Sarah received Elisabeth's letter, (in reply to one from them), they were probably living on the farm located SE of New Providence or SW of Union, Iowa. (I was raised on that farm and my brother Stan, Pam and his family live there now.)

Mark made one trip back to North Carolina in August of 1891. He was in the company of 2 friends, John Carter and Isaac Gibbs, and saw his mother and old friends while there. They were gone about 4 weeks.

Elisabeth Huff-Brindle-Adams died in the mountains some miles from Hamptonville or Elkin, at the home of a daughter married to a White.... either Mary or Elizabeth.

We would like to hear from anyone who can tell us which Adams she married, and anything about her children and their families, and when and where she is buried. Copies of pictures of Elisabeth (& John Brindle, if possible) and her children would be appreciated also. I would also welcome any corrections and additions..

Dear Mr. Cockerham,

I have been told that you have information on the White family. I am hoping you may be able to tell me who might have info. on my great-great grandmother, Elizabeth Huff Brindle Adams.

Elizabeth was a daughter of Joshua (John) Huff (1788-1881 Deep Ck. Fri, Yadkin Co, NC) and Rachel Martin (1787-1845 Dp Ck Fri) She was B. 1815 and md. 1835 to John Brindle (1809-1847 Mitchell's Chapel near Boonville, NC)

They had 6 Children:

① Daniel (md. Mahala Gentry)
② Rachel (md Joel Brooks)
③ Susanna (md GDP Adams)
④ Joshua (md?)
G.Gpa → ⑤ Mark md-1 Mary Chris / md-2, my great Gma, Sarah Clemons
⑥ Patience (md. Matthew Mark Taylor)

After John Brindle died, Elizabeth md. a/n Adams & had:

① Wm (Billy) He had 5 Ch by 1890, 3 boys + 2 girls (1 girl died)
② Caroline (md. Sum Johnson)
③ Mary Jane (md. Sam White)
④ Elizabeth ("Sis") md Bob White
One of these sons burned to death (around 1890 probably)

I spoke with Phillip White recently (s/o Paul + Irene White). It would seem that Sam White was Romulus White & his brother was Robert (Bob) White, & they were sons of Albert + Mary White.

I'm wanting to learn of my great-great grandmother, Elizabeth. I don't know when she died, or where she's buried. She was said to have been buried in the mountains near the home of a daughter who m'd. a White.

I'd also like to find a picture of her.

I've never been sure of ~~who~~ (which) Adams she married, but I think it may have been Bryant. Someone thought it was Bangle.

If you know of anyone with info that would help, could you let me know?

I'm also researching my Norman family. My line is:

William Norman m'd(?) Sarah (??)
B. 1760/70 Parents Unknown — B. ca 1772 Parents Unknown
D. 1840-50 — D. After 1860

David Chandler Norman m'd 1833 Nancy Phillips
1806 – 1893 — Bur. Norman Cem near E. Bend, NC — 1813 – 1894 D/o Wm Phillips + Susanna Doss

Lewis Norman m'd 1872 Margaret Louzanna Hutchens
1848 – 1934 — Bur. Zion Hill Fri near E. Bend — 1856 – 1918

Lewis Ollie Norman m⁰ Mabel Norman
D/o Mark Brindle + Sarah Clemons
Carl Lewis Norman m⁰ Audrey Jones
Jaina Norman m⁰ Glenn Morland

My question is:
I'm trying to find the parents of Wm Norman + his wife, Sarah, & I've looked closely at the names of their children: (not in order)

Peter
Henry (Harry)
Thomas
John Henry
Martha Suzanna

and my great-great grandpa,
David Chandler Norman

I'm not of a David Chandler Cockerham, & have wondered if maybe someone in William or *Sarah's family was connected to the Cockerhams? Would you know of any Cockerhams who married Normans? (before 1770 or earlier?)

Thank you for any help you can give.

Sincerely,
Mrs Glenn Morland

* I suppose Sarah might have been a Chandler.

Mark Brindle was born January 21, 1842, to John and Elizabeth (Huff) Brindle, in what was then Surrey County, North Carolina. His father died when Mark was 5 years old—probably in September, 1847—of typhoid fever. His father John was sick with typhoid in grape season, and John liked grapes so well, couldn't refrain from eating more grapes than was good for him, and this is thought to be the reason that he took seriously sick and succumbed to typhoid. When Mark was 8 years old, his mother married again—to an Adams, and when Mark was 9, he went to live with Joshua Reece, (probably his uncle), and it is assumed that other brothers and sisters were placed in other homes as well.

Mark's father, John, lived near Boonville, North Carolina, in the vicinity of Mitchel Chapel. Our late cousin, John Brendle, of Boonville, told us that the cemetery at Mitchel Chapel used to be called the "Brindle Graveyard," and that Mark's father John had given them land for this cemetery. John is buried in the "Brindle row" in this cemetery, and a new marker has been placed at his grave. Mark's grand father Daniel, and grand mother Susannah are also buried in this same row. So is Tandy Brindle, who was a nephew of Mark, and was the father of Rosa (Brindle) Hobson, and Pearl (Brindle) Mustion, whom we know, and another daughter who has visited Iowa. Tandy was Patience Brindle's son — She was Mark's sister.

Mark Brindle was called into the Confederate army when he was about 17 years of age. He didn't know just why he was in the Southern Army, but his neighbors and buddies were going, so when he was called, he went. Early in the conflict he was wounded by a rifle ball through the wrist, and at first wouldn't admit him into the hospital because he was from the South. As he was about to leave, they asked which Carolina he was from, and when he answered "North" Carolina—he was admitted. Then they wanted to amputate because of the danger of blood poisoning, so he ran away from the hospital and saved his hand by bathing his wrist daily in a flowing spring. They had told him he would die if it was not amputated, but he replied that he had as well be dead as to try to make a living with only one hand. He served throughout the war in various capacities in Company 1, 28th Regiment, under General Robert E. Lee. After being wounded, he used a team, and took wounded to the hospitals. Later his mules were shot by the enemy, Mark was taken prisoner, and was imprisoned near Washington where he was very hungry for the short remainder of the war.

On his return home, the money in the South was worthless and Mark had a hard time, but managed to save enough to have a suit of clothes made, and to buy a ticket to Iowa. On the same train came some of his buddies—Lou Hall, John Carter, and Lou Veach. Also making this trip on the "covered cars" was Mary came w/ Nicholas Faris, herded, + his 2nd wife, Millicent Holder. Luther Brindle wrote this.

Mary Frances Faris, Mark's future bride. Arriving at State Center (about 1868), they were met by friends in a wagon, and there not being room for everyone to ride, the young men walked along behind the wagon. His first job in Iowa was working for the Hockett's.

December 24, 1872. Mark Brindle married Mary Frances Faris, daughter of Nicholas and Sarah W. (Stone) Faris, of near Steamboat Rock, and they lived in the Steamboat Rock area some and moved about considerably. Some of the children were born here—Sadie, John and probably Charles. John told that it was a miracle that he survived at all—he was born during a blizzard, the doctor was drunk, and the lady who cared for him and his mother was the mother of the famous or notorious Rainsbarger brothers, although individually she was a very good woman. Mark's wife—Mary Frances—died in 1883 and was buried beside her father Nicholas, in the Buckner cemetery, near Eldora. She was pregnant, riding a binder, hit a skunk, + she got sick + died that evening. Allergic?

In 1885, Mark married Sarah Clemons, and they lived in the Liberty area. They gradually began to acquire property, Addie, Mabel, and Willie were born here, and they prospered and retired in this community—after an unsuccessful attempt to retire in Union.

* 1891 AUG. JOHN CARTER + DEACON GIBBS

He made one trip back to North Carolina, with some of his old friends—saw his mother again, and renewed old acquaintances. Coming back, while waiting for the train, he stood watch over his friends suitcases while they looked for some liquor, but the train came before his companions returned, and they were all left behind. His wife Sarah and little daughter Addie met the train, and according to Addie, her mother cried and cried because Mark and companions didn't arrive as planned. (ADDIE WOULD BE 2.)

Mark's mother, Elizabeth (Huff) Brindle Adams, died in the mountains some distance from Hamptonville or Elkin, at the home of a daughter who was married to a White. She had two daughters who married Whites. We have little information of the Adams Family, except the names of the children. Addie has met Caroline, who married a Johnson, and lived in Winston Salem. Addie also mentioned that Caroline resembled her half-brother Mark, was slight in size, and very nice, also that Caroline had a son, of large rugged build—who resembled Mark's son John P. Other children of Mark's mother by her second marriage were—William, Mary (Adams) White, and Elizabeth (Adams) White, whose nickname was "Sis."

Mark was generally known for his good humor, fairness of dealing, and his friendly disposition—and as a good old friend recently stated—"Mark was a very interesting fellow to visit with". This friend was Floyd Hickman, age 84, now residing at Westwood Nursing Home in Marshalltown, who knew Mark well, and enjoyed many visits with him. Floyd's father was Henry Hickman, a Friends Minister at Chester, years ago.

Mark and Sarah are buried in the cemetery at Chester. So are Sadie, John, and Willie. Charles is buried in the Union cemetery.

Children, grand-children, and some great grand-children cherish the memories of the family gatherings and wonderful dinners at the home of Grandpa Mark Brindles, that were a regular occassion, and so well attended by the descendants and relatives of Mark during his later years. He liked to be proud of his family, and their families.

Mary Faris Brindle died on 12-1-1883, and is buried in a beautiful little cemetery east and north of Eldora, Iowa called Buckner Cemetery, beside the grave of her father, Nicholas Faris.

Mark Brindle married-2 on 12-24-1885 at Clemons Grove, Marshall Co., Iowa to Sarah Francis Clemons, a daughter of Perlonzo Clemons and Mary Ellen Smith. Sarah was born 5-22-1858 in Decatur County, Indiana and came by covered wagon with her parents to Marshall County, Iowa. Her uncle, William Clemons, had founded the little town of Clemons, Iowa, and her family settled in a brick house located a few miles north and east of Clemons. Sarah died on December 30, 1931 of a stroke, and is buried at Chester Friends Cemetery beside Mark.

The first house that Mark and Sarah lived in burned down, and many family pictures and momentoes were lost. It happened when my father was young. Mark and Sarah rebuilt, and that house is still standing, occupied by my brother, Stan, and his family.

Sarah was a good cook, and it was a special treat to have leftover apple pie for breakfast...and Mark and Sarah were never cross with their grandchildren, or with each other...a memory of Raymond Norman, one of her grandchildren.

   Grandpa was the son of Lewis Norman and Margaret Hutchens...his brother, David, married Grandma's 1/2-sister, Sarah. They lived in the Brindle house after Mark and Sarah moved into a house in Union, Iowa. My family moved into that house when I was 4, and now my brother & his wife, Stan & Pam Norman, live with their family in the house.

   I never knew Mark and Sarah...they died before I was born. But I sure enjoyed all of my grandparents. I was very close to Grandpa Norman, and could talk with him about anything. All of the grandchildren enjoyed him. I was 10 when he died.

   Grandma was a sweet-natured, good woman. She always had cookies and pop on hand for us. I would visit John and Effie Brindle as a young girl along with Grandma. She also liked to walk around and look at her flowers.

Buried at Chester Friends. Her father came to Iowa for her funeral.

Annie was a daughter of Charles Hall and his first wife, N. E. (Bettie) Reece of Yadkin County, NC. I don't know how they met, but the day that Annie was to leave on the train for Union, Iowa to be married to Willie, there was a fire in the fields, and the family had to fight it, so she missed her train and had to take a later one. She had spent the winter in a warmer place...it may have been Florida, but I don't know for sure, as her heart was weak, and she was doing her best to avoid getting a cold. She arrived in Union with no one to greet her, as they didn't know when she would arrive. She stayed with some relatives until Willie could pick her up, and one of the children there had the measles. Just two weeks after her wedding, Annie came down with the measles, and it developed into pneumonia, and with her weak heart, she died. She was a very pretty girl and so very nice, and Willie was just heartbroken.

He married on May 4, 1918 to Blanche Gabard, born in Yadkin Co., NC , and a first cousin to Annie Hall. Willie and Blanche had no children.

On March 13, 1924, Willie and some neighbors were clearing out some small trees from a fence line. The men were ready to go home, but Willie wanted to cut down just one more. So they sawed it, and ran for safety as it started to fall, except that Willie ran the wrong way, and was struck behind his head. The men said he must have become confused for some reason. He died shortly after. Mark and Sarah were returning on the train that day, cutting short a vacation to Florida, as she had had the feeling that they should return early. It was a sad day for everyone. He was much loved.

Blanche married 2nd to Clarence Reid and moved to Salinas, California, where she died in 1979.

When Elisabeth Huff married John Brindle on June 16, 1835, she was disowned by Deep Creek MM for marrying with a non-Quaker. She was still considered a member of her family, however, as she was named in Joshua Huff's will written on 1-29-1881....she was given $1.

John and Elisabeth lived near Mitchell's Chapel United Methodist Church, near Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Mitchell's Chapel was formerly called Brindle's Graveyard, and tradition has it that the land for it was given to the church by John's father, Daniel Brindle.

In September of 1847, John Brindle died of typhoid fever. He had the disease in the grape season, and it has been said that he liked grapes so well, and may just have eaten too many of them, which might have been a contributing factor in his dying of typhoid. He was only 35 years old, and little Patience was just 4 months old. Life was hard for Elisabeth now.

John owned 165 A. on Mill Creek in Yadkin County, adjoining the lands of Drury Alridge, and a tract of 50 A. on Mill Creek adjoining Drury Alridge & Others.
(Note: Drury Alridge married in 1819 to Sarah Brindle (parents unknown to me).)

Elisabeth appealed to the court for, and was granted, 1/3 of the land that John owned (about 71 acres for her share). In the spring of 1847, a guardian was appointed for their 6 children: James Sheek (married to Martitia Mackie). Her land included the dwelling house and necessary out houses. In November of 1847, she was granted one year's provisions out of the estate of her deceased husband. Those provisions were:

_____ in cows & pigs
2 cows (& possible a calf)
4 head of sheep
26 barrels of corn for head of hogs in pen
8 Bu. wheat
75 doz. oats
100 bundles fodder & shuck
52 lb. coffee, 20 lb. sugar, 2 lb. spice, 2 lb. pepper to 1 bu salt & some she has on hand
1 pot, 1 skillet, 1 oven, 1 table, 6 chairs, 1 bed & furniture or furnishings, 1 water pail & bucket, 1 wheel & 1 pair of cards & the flax $21. cash to pay for the above articles that are to be got.
(I could not tell what a couple of the items were.)

80 acres on the waters of Mill Creek was to go to John Brindle's children. It adjoined the lands of John Castevens, Mecan Castevens, and Others. About 60 A adjoined the lands of Drury Alredge, James H. Goff/Gough & Others on the waters of Cranberry Creek. The records said that improvements on both tracts were of small value, and that both were comparatively poor and that John had left but a small personal estate. It was decided that a sale of the lands would be to the interest of the heirs for the reason that the lands were poor, but little improved, and would rent for only some $12. or $15. a year, but if sold on a reasonable credit, would bring their value. They were to be sold on a credit of 12 months.

In 1850 James Sheek settled with the county of Surry (NC). $80.45 were in the guardian's hands. It was signed by James Sheek, John Holcomb, William Davis, & Eli Smith (married to Fathia Martin).

The rest of the land was sold at an auction in the spring of 1850, on a credit of one year. John Castevens, the highest bidder, bought 80 acres that adjoined his land for $111. His security was Mecans Castevens, whose land adjoined this tract also. (In 1819, Daniel Brindle, John's father, had bought 240 acres on Mill Creek from John Castevens for $270.)

Drury Alridge, the highest bidder for the other tract of land, bought 60 acres for $100. His security was Thomas Gough.

The $211. from the land sales was to go to the children of John Brindle.

Sometime between 1847 and 1850, Elisabeth married Bryant Adams. He was the son of William and Sophia Adams.. His brother was Moses Adams, who was married to Gracie Wagoner. Moses is buried at Mitchell's Chapel.

In the 1850 census, Elisabeth (Huff-Brindle) Adams lived beside her grandfather, Joshua Huff. Bryant Adams was not listed, but living with her were 3 of her children: Daniel (16), Rachel (14), and little Patience (3). Susanna (12) and Joshua (10) lived with Aquilla & Caroline (Bohanan) Speer. (Aquilla was Elisabeth's 2nd cousin.) Mark (8) lived with Elisabeth's aunt, Mary (Martin) and Joshua Reece (Joshua was Elisabeth's 2nd cousin). (It was said that Mark preferred to live with them rather than with his new step-father, and that he cared for his Uncle Joshua & Aunt Mary Reece very much. He remained with them until he was grown)

John and Elisabeth Brindle had 6 known children:
(I have included information about her family that was included in a letter written to her son, Mark Brindle, written on May 31, 1890. Her address was at State Road, Surry Co., NC. This letter almost disappeared. I was not aware that my grandmother had it in all of the years that I knew her. After she died, the letter was given to my uncle. He didn't know who Elisabeth Adams was, and he gave it to my father. Dad didn't know who she was either, and put it on a shelf in the garage. My mother saw it, and knowing I was collecting family data, saved it for me. You can imagine my reaction upon seeing it! I was extremely excited! When I read this letter, I felt that Elisabeth had cared a great deal for all of her children. Please refer to the enclosed copy of the letter. I am so grateful that Grandma Norman, my uncle, my dad, and my mother saved that very precious letter.)

Both buried Deep Creek Friends S/o John Adams & Mary Phillips
Yadkin Co., NC

In 1850 she lived with Aquilla & Caroline Speer.

Jorge Adams was a Baptist preacher. J. P. Adams was a pastor at Fall Creek Baptist Church from 1-26-1876 to 3-24-1888 (Yadkin Co. Heritage Book).

(Susa and Jorge were living by themselves in 1890. Elisabeth said that Susa sees a heap of satisfaction. 1890 letter)

Children listed with them in the 1870 Yadkin Co., NC Census were:

1. William M. md. ?
B. 10-14-1860 D. 12-14-1925 Deep Ck. Fri., Yad. Co., NC
2. Mary J.
B. Abt. 1863
3. Nathan md. Etta J. Collins
B. 1865 B. 1878
D. 1942 D. 1944
Both Bur. Deep Ck. Fri., Yad. Co., NC

4. Motin B. 1868

Thomas H. Adams is listed between G.D.P. and Susan Adams in CEMETERIES OF YADKIN CO. by Carl Hoots, in the Deep Creek Friends Cemetery. He might have been their son, but I don't know for sure.

4. Joshua B. 1-2-1840 D. Date and location Unknown

I know very little about Joshua. I don't know if he was married or had children, or where he lived, or what he did to make a living. And I don't know when he died or where he was buried. I wish I knew more about him, and would appreciate any information concerning him.

(Elisabeth said that Josh drank a good deal yet, but not like he used to. At least I think it was Josh that she referred to. It's hard to tell from the writing in the letter. If it was him, then he was alive in 1890 and she was in contact with him.)

After his father died, and his mother married Bryant Adams, Mark went to the home of Joshua & Mary Reece to live. Joshua was his mother's 2nd cousin, and Mary was his mother's aunt. He is listed as living with them in 1850 (listed under the name of Mark Brown) & 1860 (It says Mary Brindle, 18, in the 1860 census record that I have, but this is incorrect, as it should have said Mark Brindle, 18.)

Mark entered the Civil War as a Confederate soldier on August 13, 1861 at the age of 18. He would say later in his life that he hadn't understood completely what the war was about at the time, but his best friends were joining the fight, and he wanted to go with them.

We know from his war record that he was 5'7", had dark hair & eyes, and a light complexion. He was shot through the wrist in one battle, and taken to a hospital. When asked which Carolina he was from, he said "North", and was then accepted as a patient. They decided to amputate his hand or arm, and he said that he might as well be dead if they did that, as he'd not be able to make a living. He escaped from the place and found a running stream of fresh, cool water. He laid his sore wrist in it, staying there for several days. It cleansed his wound of all infection, and it healed, leaving an indentation where the wound had occurred.

Mark was severely wounded August 29, 1862 at the 2nd battle of Manassas, having his left radius forearm bone, fractured at the middle. Records show that he was admitted to the General Hospital #12 at Richmond, Virginia. He was vaccinated on Oct. 11 and furloughed on Oct. 14, 1862. His name appears on a Roll of Honor of I Co., 28th Reg., NC as a result of this wound. Perhaps this was the wrist wound described earlier.

Mark returned to service on March 6, 1863, but it was indicated that he was unfit for active duty. On April 30, 1863, he was admitted to the General Hospital at Camp Winder with a disease listed as Endocarditis, and was transferred May 8 to Division 3, being detailed by General Lee as an ambulance driver. Mark's name also appears on a Roll as being on extra duty with Lane's Brigade in June of 1864 as an ambulance driver.

There was one reference to the payment of wages, a receipt for $108. for a period of 6 months.

Mark served in the war until his capture at Petersburg on April 2, 1865. He was put into a prison at Hart's Island in the New York Harbor, where he was very hungry most of the time. He was received there from City Point, and was received from Capt. Jackson of the 68th Pa. Reg. The war ended one week later, and he was released on June 18, 1865, after giving the Oath of Allegiance to the United States.

`He was a Private in the I Co., 28th Reg., N. C. Infantry, under General Lee.

(Note: This account of Mark Brindle's military history was shared with me by Marvin Brindle of Conrad, Ia. I want to thank him for his good help in gathering Huff and Brindle family information...he has been generous in sharing his research gathered on these families. Gerald Cook of Va also contributed some Huff and Brindle information, which I greatly appreciate.)

Mark returned to his home, but he had a hard time making a living, and began to look into opportunities out West. He saved enough to buy a suit of clothes and a train ticket, and left with a group of friends and neighbors for Iowa. Some of those friends were Lou Hall, John Carter, & Lou Veach. His future wife, Mary Faris, and members of her family were also on that train. They arrived at State Center, Iowa in about 1868. Friends met them with a wagon, but only the ladies sat in it, as it was a small wagon. The men walked beside it.

They apparently settled in the Steamboat Rock area. Mark's first job was working for the Hocketts.

On December 24, 1872, Mark Brindle married Mary Francis Faris. They lived in the Steamboat Rock area, and moved around a lot. Sarah Elisabeth and John Preston were born here. John was born during a blizzard. The doctor was drunk, and a neighbor lady named Mrs. George Rainsbarger helped care for him. The Rainsbargers lived a few miles NE of the Steamboat Rock area near the Iowa River. From 1876 to 1881, Mark owned what was called The Buckner 40. This land was a little south and a little west of the old Hopedale School site in Hardin County, and is only a mile or so north of the farm Mark eventually bought and settled on in the very NW corner of Marshall County. Charles Lafayette was born on The Buckner 40 in October of 1876.

In December of 1883, Mary was expecting their 4th child. It has been said that she had gone into the field to help Mark, and that they ran over a skunk, which gave off it's odor. She became very ill, and died that evening. Mary had many allergies as well, that may have contributed to her becoming so sick. A relative has told me, however, that she died of scrofula. In any case, their little family was bereft, and missed her greatly.

Mark owned the Buckner 40 from 1876 to 1881, and then sold it. In 1880, Mark purchased a farm in the NW corner of Marshall County, Iowa, and settled there. It must have been on this land where they were living when Mary died. Mark bought more land here in 1882 and 1890.

Mark was lonely without Mary, and knew he needed help in raising his family. A friend of Mark told him of a young unmarried woman with a sweet disposition, who would make a good wife and mother for his children. Her name was Sarah Francis Clemons, born on May 22, 1858 in Decatur County, Indiana, and living NE of Clemons, Iowa. He arranged to meet her, and on December 24, 1885, they were married at Clemons Grove, Iowa. (Clemons was founded by Sarah's uncle, William Clemons.)

They had a good marriage, and had 4 children together:

Mary Jane (died as an infant), Nora Addie Myrtle (Norman), Mabel Ethel (Norman)(my grandmother), and William (Willy) Zenas.

There will be more on the children of Mark & Mary and Mark & Sarah later.

6. Patience — Md. 12-20-1892 — Matthew Mark Taylor
B. 5-14-1847 Surry (now Yadkin) Co., NC — (his 1st wife was Fannie Trulove)
D. 2-20-1936 Mitchell's Chapel, Yadkin Co., NC — 1827-1900

She lived in 1860 with Joel & Rachel Brooks, her sister.

Patience and Mark Taylor had no children.

Elisabeth said that Patience wasn't well, and that Zare had left her, and he was a nice young man and well-thought of. 1890 Letter

Zare was the first-born son of Patience, and he had left home at the age of 21. Evidently Patience was having a hard time adjusting to it.

Patience had 3 children (that I know of), apparently out-of-wedlock. They all lived with her Grandfather Huff & his family in 1880. Her children were:

1. Zeriah/Zerr — Md. 8-6-1893 — Vina Hunter
   B. ca May 1868 NC — D/o Tyre Hunter &
   Bond for unwed mothers dated 5-28-1868 — Margaret Glenn
   (Zerr is listed as a Huff on his marr. bond)
2. Sarah — Md. 1-10-1897 — Thomas F. Taylor
   B. ca 1871 NC Yad. Co., NC — B. ca 1852
   S/o Matthew & Fannie Taylor
3. Tandy Brindle — Md 2-8-1897 — Sarah Elizabeth Bates Tucker
   B. 4-24-1874 — B. 1874
   D. 7-17-1955 — D. 1905 Giving birth to their 4th Child. The baby died also.

Eliza was the daughter of Elizabeth Bates. She Md-1 to Davis J Tucker on 6-10-1893 in Yadkin County. (Information on this family came from members of the Hobson and Tandy Brindle family in NC, IA, and FLA)

Tandy and Eliza had 3 daughters:
Susie (Ed Wilkins), Rosa Della (Pleas Ellis Hobson), and Pearl (Mustion). Susie remained in Yadkin County, NC but Rosa and Pearl moved to Iowa. Rosa lived near Pleas in Yadkin County, but didn't know him until she came to Iowa to help Mark and Sarah Brindle with the housework. Pleas was helping my grandparents with the farm work on the Brindle farm. They met, fell in love, and established a family, and bought their own farm. Rosa is still living.

Patience helped her son, Tandy, raise his daughters after Elliza died. She was good to them, and was very thrifty.

After the girls were grown, Tandy felt lonely, and married-2 to Kate Jackson. Her family lived by the Brushy Mountains. She had TB when they married, but had not told this to Tandy. She died from it as a young woman. They had a daughter, Mary Belle Brindle. Patience was feeling the weariness of her years by now, and felt that she could not raise another child, so soon after Kate died, her sister came and took Mary Belle away. The family never saw her again. She died of TB as well when she was a teenager. (I do not know exactly where her aunt lived, her birthdate, or her date of death.)

This is all of the children that John and Elisabeth Brindle had.

Elisabeth married-2 sometime between 1847 & 1850 to Bryant Adams.

In 1850, Elisabeth lived next to her father with 3 of her children. Bryant, 23, was living with his parents & siblings. He was the son of William and Sophia Adams. Bryant was born about 1827 in Yadkin Co., NC and died abt 1885-1890. He is probably buried in the Mulberry Primitive Bapt. Cem. in an unmarked grave in Marsh Twp., Surry Co., NC. In 1860, Bryant & Elisabeth were still in Yadkin County, living near Jonesville. He was a farmer. By 1870 he and his family were living in the Rusk Post Office in Marsh Twp. in Surry Co., NC & he was farming. He last appeared in the 1880 Census in Marsh Township in the Mulberry Community. They lived near where I-77 goes through Surry Co., half-way between Elkin & Dobson. All of their children were gone except for Elizabeth/Betty and her son, George W., age 1. Bryant was alive in 1885 when his daughter, Elizabeth A. was married to Robert H. White, but was apparently dead by 1890 when Elisabeth wrote to her son, Mark Brindle in Iowa.

Elisabeth and Bryant Adams had 4 children:

1. Martha Caroline Md 1-19-1873 Ashley Columbus Johnson (Lum)
   B. 7-15-1851 Yadkin Co., NC D. 1914
   D. Age 80, in 1937 Woodland Cem., Winston Salem, NC (Lum is bur. here also.)

   They lived at Winston in 1890. 1890 Letter.
   They were married in Eagle's Mill Twp., Iredell Co., NC at his father's residence.
   She was a member of the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church in Winston-Salem.

   3 children are listed in her obituary as surviving her:
   Mrs. P.O. Boggs, Miss Tishie Johnson, & S.F. Johnson, all of Winston-Salem.
   Also mentioned were her 2 sisters: Mrs. Mary White of Wilkes Co., NC & Mrs. Robert White of High Point, Surry Co., NC.

   Caroline resembled Mark. She was slight in size, and was a very nice lady. Her son was of a rugged build, a bit like John P. Brindle, Mark's son. Green Brindle Book.

2. William W. (Billy) Md. 1-11-1877 Laura Jane Johnson
   B. 12-29-1854 Yad. Co., NC B. 5-15-1860
   D. 12-7-1917 D. 9-24-1901
   Both are buried at Poplar Springs Bapt. Cem. outside of Elkin, Surry Co., NC

   Billy had 5 children in 1890, 3 boys and 2 girls. The baby was 9 months old and unnamed. One girl was dead. Billy was a farmer, and had had a carbuncle, but he was now able to plow. All had had the mumps. 1890 Letter.

In the 1900 Surry Co. Census, Elkin Twp., NC: Wm. Adams & Laura had been married 23 years. Their children were: Millard, Richard Harrison, Joseph S., Mark M., and Samantha L. There may have been other children.

3. Elizabeth A (Bettie/Sis) Md. 6-21-1885 Robert Henderson White (Hen/Bob)
B. 11-5-1857 Yad. Co., NC B. ca 1852 Surry Co., NC
D. 8-30-1942 Fairview Bapt. Church Cem. D. ca 1895 Little Richmond Bapt.
S/o Albert White & Mary Polly Wilmoth

Robert had married-1 to Letitia Elizabeth Bray, 1851-1884, D/o Henry & Martha Bray. Their children were: Ambrose Houston, Robert Lee, Wm Sanford, & Solomon Sanders. Letitia is buried at Little Richmond Bapt.

In 1900, Sis was living in Elkin Twp., Surry Co., NC. Her children with Bob were born in Marsh Twp of Surry Co.:

Joseph Roscoe (1886-1954 Pop. Spr. Bapt) Md. Carrie Culler
Lettie (1890-) Md 1905 George T Ball
James Henderson (1891-1976 Shola Branch Bapt) Md Ella McCann
Elmer Irvin (1895-1942 Center Meth Cem) Md Myrtle Rachel ____

They also raised her son, George Washington White, B. 6-11-1879, D. 5-13-1963 Poplar Spr. Bapt. He md. 1908 to Maude E Bauguess.

One of Sis' little boys had burned to death, but the rest of the family was well in 1890. 1890 Letter.

4. Mary Jane Delaine Md. 2-27-1876 Romulus Sanders White (Sant)

Mark Brindle made one trip back to North Carolina in August of 1891. (There may have been more trips to NC that I am not aware of.) He travelled with two friends, John Carter and Isaac Gibbs, and saw his mother and old friends while there. They were gone about 4 weeks. (The Union Star Newspaper, 8-21-1891)

It has been said that in coming back to Iowa, while waiting for the train, Mark stood watch over the suitcases while John and Isaac looked for something to drink while they rode on the train, but they were delayed, and all of them missed the train, and had to wait for a later one. Sarah, Mark's wife, was not aware of this, however, and she and little Addie went to Union, Iowa to meet the train. When Mark and his friends did not arrive as planned, Addie said that her mother cried and cried. Sarah had missed Mark very much. All was well when he arrived on the next train.

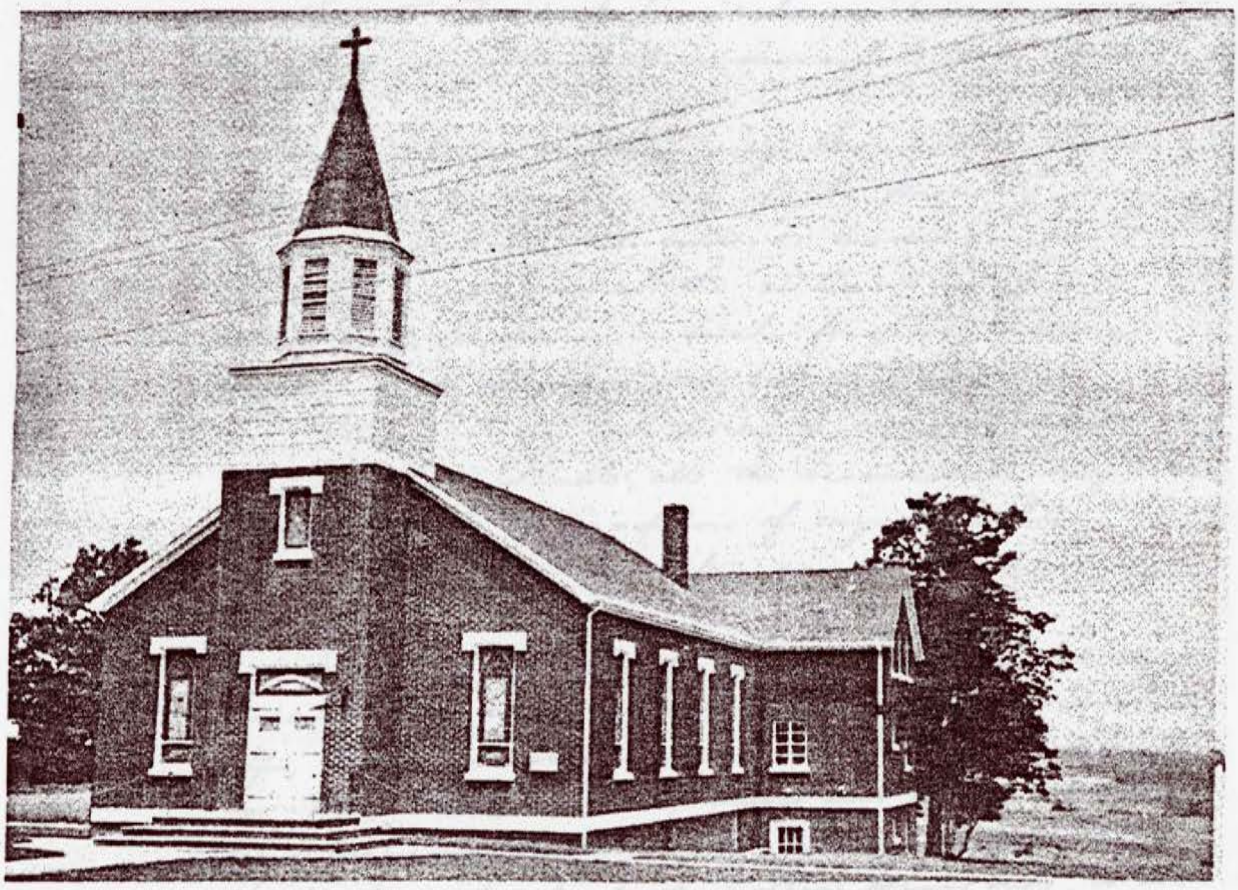

Mark and Sarah loved all of their family, and they gathered often for dinners. The grandchildren called them "Pawzie and Mawzie".

Mark and Sarah gave some land south of their farm to be used for the original Liberty Friends Church. This church later burned down, and the congregation eventually settled into a church a few miles north of Clemons, Iowa.

Mark died 5 days after suffering a stroke, at the age of 87. (5-2-1929)

Elisabeth died in the mountains some miles from Elkin at the home of a daughter married to a White...Mary or Elizabeth. (11-19-1897)

I want to thank James E. Cockerham of NC for his help in learning more about Bryant Adams and the family of Bryant and Elisabeth Adams. We had wondered which Adams Elisabeth had married, and what had happened to her children, and where she had lived and was buried. Mr. Cockerham helped us discover the answers to these intriguing questions.

Mitchell's Chapel United Methodist Church, established about 1867, was known as Brindle's Graveyard until 1885.

Daniel Brindle's last Will.

I, Daniel Brindle, of the County of Surry and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament: I commit my body to the dust from whence it came, and commend my soul to a merciful God who gave it.

My desire is, that my Executors, herein after named, should, out of the property, pay all my just debts; all suits, or damage suits that may arise against the estate to be paid out of my property — such property as my Executors think the widow can best do without.

Item 1. I give and devise to my well beloved wife Margaret Brindle, all the balance of my property, with the exception of my daughter Elizabeth's property, hereinafter named, and all my book accounts.

Item 2. I give to my daughter Elizabeth her cow and calf, and her bed well furnished off, her wheel and cards, chest and Cupboard, her pot, skillet, and oven; knives and forks, and her other Cupboard utensils. My desire is that she should have her part at eighteen years old, or at my death.

Item 3. My desire is that, and I devise that all the money on hand, all the money notes, and all the office receipts, should be collected and be equally divided between my seven children, to wit: William, Sally, John, Henry,

Anna, George, Elizabeth; excepting the Executors' fees proving the will, and paying for the coffin. It is my wish and desire that my daughter Elizabeth should have her part at eighteen years old; or at my death, and I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friends John Brindle and Henry Brindle, and in case of death or removal my trusty friends William Brindle and William Galloway to execute this my last will and testament to all intents and purposes, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby declaring and making void all other wills and testaments heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Daniel Brindle do hereunto set my hand and seal, the 1st day of June, A.D. 1843.

Signed, Sealed, and published, and declared in the presence of us by the said Daniel Brindle to be his last will and testament, and in his presence subscribed our names as witnesses:

The Petition of Elizabeth Brindle versus
Daniel Brindle, Joshua Brindle,
Rachel Brindle, Susan Brindle,
Mark Brindle, and Margaret Brindle.

Humbly complaining,
your Petitioner Elizabeth Brindle, sheweth unto your Worships, that John Brindle late of the County of Surry departed this life some time since intestate, leaving your petitioner — his widow and relict unprovided for; — That the said John Brindle died seized and possessed of the following tracts of land, situate and lying in the County aforesaid, to which your Petitioner is entitled to her Dower and thirds — to wit: is to say in one tract of land of 165 acres, on Mill Creek, adjoining the lands of Drury Allredge; and another tract of fifty acres, more or less, on Mill Creek, adjoining Drury Allredge and others.

Your Petitioner further sheweth unto your Worships that the above named defendants are the children and heirs at law of the said John Brindle, deceased, and that they are all infants and minors under the age of twenty-one years. Your Petitioner prays your worships to appoint some discreet person as Guardian to defend the rights of the said infant heirs in this suit, and that a writ of Dower may issue the Sheriff of said County, commanding him to summon twelve freeholders, unconnected with the parties by consanguinity or affinity, and entirely disinterested; who, upon oath shall set off and allot to your Petitioner one third part of the lands, &c in said County, of which her said Husband died seized and possessed as above set forth, and put her in possession of the same to enure to her for her natural life, including the dwelling house together with the necessary outhouses, and, that your Worships will, from time to time, be pleased to make such other and further orders and decrees as may vest her rights and answer the ends of justice.

And your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pr

JENKINS, John Jackson Mt. Airy News/June 22, 1933

Elkin, June 19-
John Jackson Jenkins, 100 year old veteran of the Civil war died Sunday morning at his home, the final summons coming just 11 days after his centennial anniversay. He had been confined to his room since Feb. when he was stricken with paralysis.

His death removes one of the most valiant veterans the state of NC ever sent out to battle in the trying period of the 60s, and one of the most courteous and kindly "gentlemen of the old school" Surry Co. ever produced.

The dec'd was born near Rockford, in the year 1833 and came to Elkin with his family to resdide about 40 yrs ago. For a number of years he served as keeper of the famous old covered toll bridge which spanned the Yadkin River here and which has been replaced long years ago by a more substantial structure of concrete and steel. No person who ever opened the great gates to the traveling public was ever quite so courteous or obliging, or so entertaining a conversationalist to the traveler passing his way way as "Uncle John."

Going out with Co. 11, 21st NC Regt. in the early days of the memorable conflict, Mr. Jenkins took part in 52 battles without receiving a solitary wound. In the eventide of life he has never tired of relating to the younger generation the thrilling experiences through which his regt. passed in the terrible war, of the suffering and pain endured by his comrades, many of whom froze to death for lack of adequate clothing. The hunger and anguish endured in those days were vivid in his memory as long as his mental faculties were active.

To the Methodist church with which he united in early life, the dec'd was as loyal as he was to his country in the time of conflict and strife, and while suffiently strong to leave his hom, he was ever present at the regular services.

Surviving the snowy-haired veteran are his companion and helpmeet of 60 years, Mrs. Plutina Brendle Jenkins, and only daughter, Mrs. J. T. Cockerham, and 2 half brothers, Avery Jenkins of Winston-Salem and Felix of East Bend.

The funeral rites were conducted from the home Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock by Rev. G.R. Stafford, pastor of the Jonesville Meth. church.

The dec'd was a member of a long lived family. A brother lived to the age of 105.

Jenkins, Mr. Lewis Alfred Mt. Airy, NC-News - Wed. Aug-14, 1991

JENKINS

Mr. Lewis Alfred Jenkins, 63, of 469 Imogene Church Road, Mount Airy, a retired car salesman, died late Monday afternoon in the Emergency Room of Northern Hospital of Surry County in Mount Airy after suffering a heart attack. Born April 20, 1928 in Surry County, he was the son of Moses and Essie Akers Jenkins, and a member of the Gospel Time Baptist Church. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary Tate Jenkins of the home; four daughters, Mrs. Jeannie Golding of Elkin, Miss Maude Jenkins of the home, Mrs. Mary Francis Gentry of Madison and Mrs. Rita Fay Gregory of Grafton, Va.; six sons, Mitchell Jenkins of Lawsonville, Lewis Jenkins Jr., Larry Clyde Jenkins, Gary Lee Jenkins and Timmy Grey Jenkins, all of Mount Airy, and Jamie Jenkins of the home; 19 grandchildren; one stepdaughter ton Jenkins, both of Mount Airy. Mr. Jenkins was preceded in death by a daughter, Nelta Joy Marshall, and a son, Terry Wayne Jenkins. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in Gospel Time Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. Calvin Riddle and the Rev. Jack Anderson, with burial in the Tate Family Cemetery. The body will be taken from Moody Funeral Home to the Gospel Time Baptist Church at 5 p.m. Wednesday, April 20. (G. Helf. Conf.) Wages of the Single Sisters shall be as follows.—For working in the garden, and for washing, 2 sh. per day; other household work 1 sh. 6d. By the week, 7 sh. The Sisters shall pay 3 sh. per week for dinner in their Choir House, but shall have breakfast and supper in the families where they work. If a Sister is to work in a family for a long time she shall receive £7: per year, and shall have all her meals with the family.

(Aelt. Conf.) As both Johann Schaub and Hanna Leinbach have accepted the suggestion, they shall be betrothed this afternoon at four o'clock in Salem; this shall be announced to the Congregation in Salem today, in Bethabara tomorrow, and the third publication can be in Bethania; and then on Sunday afternoon the wedding can be in Bethabara. There is no time for delay, on account of Br. Graff's approaching departure.

It has been decided that the Brn. Graff and Lorenz shall leave for Pennsylvania on May 5th. Johann and Heinrich Hauser, of Bethania, will go as drivers; Bethania and Friedberg shall each furnish one horse, and Bethabara the third horse and a light wagon.[1] Joseph Leinbach will travel in their company.

May 3. (Aelt. Conf.) We badly need a leather-dresser, a tanner, and a shoe-maker; also a weaver for the Single Sisters. Br. Graff shall let our wish be known in Bethlehem and Lititz, and try to secure them.

May 15. (Aelt. Conf.) Br. Lung arrived today with the Brethren from Yorktown.

May 16. (G. Helf. Conf.) Br. Bonn asks permission to have his brother-in-law, Brendel, in his house for a few days. Brendel has moved hither from Pennsylvania, and is waiting for his family. Agreed that Br. Bonn may have him as guest for several days.

May 18. (Auf. Col.) There was discussion concerning the building of a powder-house in the upper corner of the Skin House lot, on the road to God's Acre. Br. Bagge urged the necessity for at once planning for the building of a new Skin House, and especially for the building of a new Store and dwelling house.

(Aelt. Conf.) Br. Matthaeus has received from the Unity's Elders Conference approval of the plan to print a small Hymn Book for the use of the Country Congregations of Brethren in North America. It is to contain a selection of hymns from the shorter Hymn Book, and

[1] This arrangement is interesting in view of the fact that after their return Johann Hauser was to be pastor of Bethabara, and Heinrich Graff was to settle on the farms of Bethania and Friedberg.

Salem Diary, 1807.

[A few extracts translated.]

Jan. 1. Br. Benzien held the service for the children. In the evening the boarding and day pupils in our School gave a German and English dialogue, in the presence of the visitors from the U. E. C., the Aeltesten Conferenz, and their parents.

In Friedland Br. Philip Köhn was elected the new Steward; and following this there was a lovefeast for the congregation and Society, during which the Memorabilia of the Wachovia congregations was read.

Jan. 4. After an address by Br. Reichel there was the the wedding of Br. Christian Heinrich Rüde to the single Sr. Maria Elisabeth Seiler.

Jan. 6. Our visitors and the members of the Helfer Conferenz fürs Ganze conferred with Br. and Sr. Rüde over their service in Friedberg; and Sr. Rüde was received as an Akoluthe.

Jan. 8. Br. and Sr. Rüde moved today from Salem to Friedberg.

Jan. 12. Br. Reichel held the English service for the children, and told them and the boarding pupils in our School of our congregations and missions among the heathen, and of the nations out of which they have been gathered, and gave them the number of Brethren and Sisters serving there.

Jan. 13. In the evening there was the meeting for the change of members in the Hourly Intercession. Br. Forestier made an earnest address, and gave them affectionate encouragement to faithfulness in prayer and supplication, especially for our congregations in Germany, who are doubtless in great distress and trouble because of the war which has broken out between France and Prussia.

Jan. 20. This morning the Fahrenheit thermometer was 2° below zero.

Feb. 1. The Choir of Widows had a happy lovefeast. . . . It was remarked that even the oldest members of this Choir generally enjoy good health, and suffer little from the distresses of old age. There were still three Sisters who remembered vividly the visit of the now departed Ordinarius in the year 1741, and his conversations with them.[1]

Feb. 7. Our children had their first Unity day in this year. Yesterday and today it has been piercingly cold.

[1] Sr. Ernst was born in 1726 and saw Count Zinzendorf at various times at her father's house during the Count's visit to Pennsylvania in 1741. The other two were doubtless Maria Juliana Hege, maiden name Frey, born in Pennsylvania in 1785, and Anna Maria Bonn, maiden name Brendle, born in Pennsylvania in 1789, though both of these must have been remembering what they had been told, rather than possessing actual memories of the Count.

Must Be Love

After 73 years of marriage, couple are still sweethearts

By Janice Gaston
JOURNAL REPORTER

'TO ETERNITY': Elsie and Carl Martin ran away to get married in 1923; she was almost 15 and he was almost 17.

Their life together began with a clandestine journey in the dead of night, while their families slept. Elsie Brendle, a couple of weeks shy of her 15th birthday, and Carl L. Martin, on the brink of 17, were in love. The year was 1923.

Accompanied by older relatives, they climbed into a Model-T Ford and set out to get married. Traveling in the dark on unpaved roads, they headed for York, S.C., where they could be married without needing their birth certificates.

"We lost our way, and we wound up in Lancaster," Elsie Martin said. They arrived before dawn and sat in the car and waited until daylight to go to the courthouse, where the ceremony was performed. She wore a two-piece dress, she remembers, and proper footwear.

"Because I was married in July, I wore white shoes," she said. "He had on a pretty suit."

Although the beginning of their married life was nerve-racking, she said, "I wasn't scared," she said. "I would have followed him to eternity."

She still would.

On July 21, the Martins celebrated 73 years of marriage. The couple, who raised six children and buried two babies, still act like sweethearts. She, round and ebullient, sits close to her slight husband on the couch in the house where they have lived for 52 years. She laughs, then rests her head on his shoulder as she talks about their courtship.

He sits quiet, letting her tell the tale. Once in a while, he offers a pithy comment.

He has always been a man of few words, said his daughter, Dot M. Raker. "They were sweet though," Elsie Martin said. "There is nothing foolish about him. He really means it when he says it."

So she knew he was serious when he proposed, although the question came as a surprise. The couple had been keeping company for about a year after first getting together at her 14th birthday party.

She remembers how he acted the day of her party. "He was afraid to look either way; he was so shy." He came back to visit the next Sunday, she said, "to take another look at me, I guess.

"I didn't fall right in love with him. He did me."

Her husband agreed. "I said, 'That's going to be my wife!' "

She wasn't sure of her feelings, she said, until he walked by her house with another girl. "I didn't realize I was in love till I saw him with somebody else," she said. "I knew I had to have him."

Even so, she said, "When he asked me to marry him, I like to fell out of the car."

He proceeded properly, asking first her mother, then her father for her hand. Her father would have approved the match, she said, but her mother was dead-set against allowing her daughter to marry so young.

"So we run away."

For a little while after the marriage, they stayed with relatives, while her mother mourned. "I

Herb's healing power sparks idea for store for health food

By William Horton Jr.
JOURNAL REPORTER

Doug Brendle had a fever of 102 degrees and a nagging cough during the Christmas holidays a couple of years ago.

After taking prescribed medication for almost three weeks, his fever didn't get any better and his cough got worse.

At the suggestion of a teacher at Salem College, Brendle's daughter gave him three different types of herbs as medication, and he quit taking his prescribed medicine.

"I was using three prescriptions that didn't seem to work at all," Brendle said. "I did start taking the herbs, and my health seemed to improve over the next three weeks. I really got better around the first of March."

Brendle then started taking an herb called hyssop, which he says helps clean out your system. "Over the next couple of months, I got to feeling the best I've felt in over 20 years," said Brendle. "And have been ever since then." But Brendle doesn't suggest that anyone stop taking their medication without consulting a physician first.

After the herbs and vitamins helped him recover from his illnesses, Brendle decided that he wanted to help other people improve their health. With the help of Bill Grady and after thorough research on the health-food industry, they opened Doug Brendle's Natural Health Superstore in Winston-Salem. Brendle is the former chairman and chief executive of Brendle's discount retail stores.

Grady, who is president of the new health-food store, said he and Brendle wanted to come up with a different idea for this store, as opposed to the traditional health-food store.

"The main thing is our concept, which is bringing all the different parts associated with natural health together under one roof," Grady said. "In this particular area, you really don't have any stores that have a full line of grocery, full line of produce and a full line of supplements."

Located at Stratford Com-

biggest health-food stores in the area. Rob Seeman, an employee at the store, says that the selection of products is what makes this store unique.

"There is really a wide variety, including the deli and juice bar, and the organic produce section," Seeman said. "We offer natural foods, dairy-substitute products, low-fat foods, meat substitutes, and vegetarian food items."

Grady, a former employee of Brendle's, said that all of the produce is organically grown. "When you walk through the front door of this store, there are no chemicals in any of the food products," Grady said. "There are no chemical fertilizers or bug sprays used on them (produce). Water sprayed on the produce has been filtered."

The 8,000-square-foot store also has a diet and weight-gain section, health and beauty aides, vitamins and supplements, all types of grains and cereals, frozen products, and books on healthy lifestyles. They also offer sulfite-free wines and beers.

Brendle said he didn't open the store to make a bundle of money. "I'm here to help people," Brendle said. "If that (making profits) comes along with it, that's fine."

The health-food business is hot. In a study by the Economic Research Service of the Department of Agriculture, the sale of organic foods increased from $812 million in 1988 to more than $2.5 billion in 1994.

Grady says that the health-food industry is growing and that there is a movement going on to eat healthier. "More people, baby boomers in particular as they turn 50, and the youngest generation, just don't want to live longer. They want to live healthier and better."

Jean Swinder, who was shopping in the store recently, said she thinks that the store is long overdue. "It's a neat store and everybody's nice," she said. "Winston needs something like this."

Suzy Cooper, who oversees the vitamin and supplement section, said she hopes that this store will have a positive effect on other health-food stores in the area.

"My hope is that we can all help each other," Cooper said. "There are so many people who have never set foot in a health-food store before, and a large store like this may bring in a lot of new people for the first time where they would have never gone to a smaller store to begin with."

Lizzie Smith, the owner of Lizzie's Herb Shop in Kernersville, doesn't think the superstore will have any effect on her business. "I'm a herb, vitamin, and mineral shop, and his (Brendle's) is a natural-food store," she said. "We educate people to eat properly and the importa of organic foods. As a matte of fact, we refer customers o there for the natural foods."

Phyllis Turner of Phyllis' V tamins, said that the new he food store won't affect her c entele much. "I don't think i affect my customers or any- body else's," Turner said. "I a loyal following because I'v been in business for the pas years. There is enough room for everybody."

Brendle and Grady plan to open more stores around the in the near future. "We are looking at several cities in N Carolina — which include Greensboro and Charlotte," Grady said.

Dear Mrs. Jackson,

I believe that I have some records tha the Brintle family came from Surry t Caswell County in the 1850s. My grand mother's name was Nancy Jane Brintle her father was James Brintle and her mother was Alice Page Brintle. They lived in Caswell County near Reidsville and are buried at Wolf Island Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery. I could not find out who James Brintle's parents were. I have Alice Page Brintle's Bible giving the dates of birth and death. I would like information on the Surry County Brintle family.

The other names we are interested in are: John Harris Rice and George Richard Rice; also, Samuel Page and Nancy Childress. Some East Bend names we would like to know about are: L.S. Benbow, Dr. Evan Benbow, Ann Mendenhall, John Benbow, Joseph Talmadge Prevette, Nellie Grant Benbow Prevette.

Sincerely,
Jim and Jo Anne Hethcock

Memorial services were held Sunday at 4 p.m. at Temple Hill United Methodist Church by the Rev. Hugh Goforth and Dr. John Deason.

Mr. Wells was born in Surry County March 2, 1946, to George W. and Emily Adams Wells. He was a member of Temple Hill United Methodist Church where he served as a member of the Board of Trustees. He was Fire Chief of Buck Shoals Fire Department for seven years.

Mr. Wells was preceded in death by one sister, Jean Wells, of Hopkins.

Survivors include his wife, Marilyn Combs Wells; one daughter, Krista Jo Wells of the home; two sons, Stuart W. Wells and Luke C. Wells, both of the home; his mother, Emily Adams Wells of Hamptonville; one sister, Barbara Wells Thompson of Lewisville; and two brothers, Paul B. Wells of Hamptonville and Jimmy A. Wells of Boone.

The family requests no flowers. Memorials may be made to Temple Hill United Methodist Church, Church Building Fund, Rt. 2, Ronda, N.C. 28670.

Reins-Sturdivant Funeral Home in North Wilkesboro was in charge of arrangements.

ATKINS

DOBSON — Mrs. Alma Lewis Atkins, 79, widow of the late Merlin Atkins, of 709 East Atkins St., Dobson, died at her home Thursday, Sept. 21, 1995. Mrs. Atkins was born in Surry County Dec. 15, 1915, the daughter of the late John Samuel and Ivory Marion Lewis. Mrs. Atkins was a homemaker and a member of Piney Grove Baptist Church. Surviving are five daughters and sons-in-law, Jessie and James Vance Stewart of Dobson, Effie and Jim Marion of Mount Airy, Lessie and J.B. Brindle of Dobson, Carol and Harold Bledsoe of Dobson, and Kathy Woodruff of Dobson; one son and daughter-in-law, Wayne and Glenda Atkins of Dobson; 18 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Emma Slawter and Ivagene Cave of Dobson; four brothers, Howard Lewis, Reuben Lewis and Delmer Lewis, all of Mount Airy, and Victor Lewis of Dobson. In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by a son, Jimmy Atkins. Funeral services will be held Saturday, Sept. 23, 1995 at 2 p.m. at Piney Grove Baptist Church with services conducted by Rev. Kermit Gray and Rev. Darrell Tate with burial to follow in the church cemetery. The family will receive friends Friday night from 7-9 p.m. at Moody Funeral Home, Mount Airy, where her body will remain until time to be taken to the church to lie in state 30 minutes prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Piney Grove Baptist Church, 278 Piney Grove Church Road, Mount Airy, N.C. 27030; or to Northern Hospice, P.O. Box 1605, Mount Airy, N.C. 27030.

MARTIN

Mrs. Elsie Brendle Martin, 89, of Winston-Salem, was carried by God's angels to be with Him on Saturday, May 30, 1998. Mrs. Martin was born in Forsyth County, August 11, 1908, to Mr. Robert B. and Lillie Shelton Brendle. She spent her life in the Waughtown area where she raised six children of her own and a host of other children for relatives and friends. She was a member of Southminster Presbyterian Church where she taught Sunday School for over 50 years and until she physically could no longer attend. She had worked at the Waughtown Baptist Church Daycare and later she retired from the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System as a cafeteria staff member. Mrs. Martin is survived by her husband of 74 years, Carl Lewellyn Martin, Sr.; one son, Carl L. Martin, Jr. of Winston-Salem; five daughters, Mrs. Virginia Carter of Kernersville, Mrs. Dot Raker and husband, Lamar, Mrs. Betty Coleman and husband, Wilford, Mrs. Mary Frances Coleman and husband, Emory, and Mrs. Pattie Dowell and husband, Gerald, all of Winston-Salem; one brother, Don Brendle and wife, Faye of Winston-Salem; 14 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; and 10 great-great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at Hayworth-Miller Chapel 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 2, 1998, with the Rev. Roger Kimball, Rev. Danny Smith and Rev. Mark Harris officiating. Burial will follow in the Waughtown Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7-9 p.m. Monday at the funeral home. We are so sad, but we also rejoice as we cling to the promises of our Saviour and Lord and know that she sings with the heavenly choir and is tending the gardens of heaven where there is no sadness and nothing ever dies again.

PRUITT

Mrs. Myrtle Brendle Vestal Pruitt, 96, formerly of 937 North Bridge St., Elkin, passed away at 2:10 p.m. Saturday at Guardian Care in Elkin after an extended illness. Mrs. Pruitt was born Sept. 15, 1897 in Surry County to Floyd Arthur Brendle and Flora Belle Cambell Brendle. She was a homemaker and the oldest member of Elkin Valley Baptist Church. She was first married to Clifford Wheeler Vestal, who died in Dec. 1973, and later married Manley Pruitt, who died Dec. 1992. Also preceding her in death were three daughters, Virginia Vestal Miller, Annie Lee Vestal Gregory and Ruth Vestal; a son, Joseph David Vestal; a brother, David Brendle; two grandchildren and a great grandchild. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Frances Vestal Darnell of Elkin, Mrs. Louise Vestal Hauser of East Bend and Mrs. Flora Jean Vestal Stoker of Elkin; a son, Buddy James Vestal of Elkin; 16 grandchildren; 22 great grandchildren; four great great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Mattie Brendle Baker of Elkin. Funeral services will be held 11 a.m. Monday at Elkin Valley Baptist Church by the Rev. Charles Lethcoe and Rev. L.E. Myers. The body will be placed in the church at 10:30 to lie-in-state, with burial in Hollywood Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7-9 p.m. Sunday at Johnson Funeral Home in Elkin and other times the family will receive at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frances Darnell, 112 Northeast Circle Ct., Elkin. Flowers will be accepted or memorials to Elkin Valley Baptist Church, 118 North Elkin Dr., Elkin, N.C. 28621.

Will Book 8 Pg 37

North Carolina, Surry County.

I, C. J. Rose, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament.

FIRST, My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

SECOND. I give and devise to my son, J. M. Brinkley, and his heirs in fee simple, all of my tract of land, provided that he pays Ada Banner's, my daughter's children, five in number, the sum of fifty dollars apiece.

THIRD, My will and desire is that the remainder of my estate, including my household and kitchen furniture, be divided with each other as they may agree among themselves.

FOURTH, I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friends and sons, J. M. Brinkley and F. W. Brinkley, my lawful executors, to all intent and meaning thereof, to execute this my last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, revoking and declaring utterly void all other Wills and Testaments heretofore made by me.

In witness whereof I, the said C. J. Rose do hereunto set my hand and seal this March 23rd, 1915.

her
C. J. X Rose, (Seal).

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said C. J. Rose to be her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as written thereto.

Logan Beamer,
U. G. Badgett.

North Carolina, Guilford County.

U. G. Badgett, being duly sworn, says: That the paper writing attached to this affidavit is the last Will and Testament of C. J. Rose and that he was present when the said C. J. Rose signed her same by making her mark and that the signature is the signature of C. J. Rose. That said Will was signed in the presence of C. J. Rose and in the presence of Logan Beamer and in the presence of each other and affiant attached his signature to the said Will and the signature appearing on the paper writing hereunto attached is the signature of affiant and was signed by him in the presence of C. J. Rose, Logan Beamer and affiant and in the presence of each other.

U. G. Badgett.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 1st day of Dec., 1917.

M. C. Crowson, N. P.

(Notarial Seal)

State of North Carolina, Surry County. } ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of C. J. Rose, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by F. W. Brinkley, one of the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said C. J. Rose is proven by the oath and examination of Logan Beamer and U. G. Badgett, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of C. J. Rose; that the said C. J. Rose, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is k shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 23rd day of March, 1915.

And this deponent further saith, That the said C. J. Rose, the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said C. J. Rose was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed this 26th day of August, 1916, before me. } Logan Beamer.

Surry County.)

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writin and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of C. J. Rose, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed. J. M. Brinkley, having taken the oath prescribed by law for executors, is duly qualified as executor thereto. This 4th day of March, 1918.

J. A. Jackson,
Clerk Superior Court.

(Will of E. K. Wolfe.)

North Carolina, Surry County.

I, E. K. Wolfe, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

FIRST. In the event of my death before my beloved wife, Rachel Wolfe, I give, devise and bequeath to her her full possession and control of all my property, both real and personal, as long as she lives, with a right to sell enough property to pay all my debts.

SECOND. To my daughters, Margie Draughn, Verlie Wolfe and Dulcie Wolfe, and my sons, Grady Wolfe and Bynum Wolfe, I give and devise, in equal shares, all my real estate, including my one-half interest in the mill and mill tract of land, and all other lands I own, in fee simple, subject only to the life estate granted to my wife, Rachel Wolfe, in item 1 of this Will.

THIRD. To my daughter, Dora Norman, I give and bequeath the sum of five dollars to be paid by my executor out of the first funds that come into his hands.

FOURTH. I give and bequeath to my wife, Rachel Wolfe, all my personal property to be disposed of at her death as she pleases.

FIFTH. All the residue of my estate if any, after taking out the above devises and legacies I give, devise and bequeath to my daughters, Margie Draughn, Verlie Wolfe and Dulcie Wolfe, to be divided equally.

In witness whereof I, the said E. K. Wolfe, do hereunto set my hand and seal, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made. This the 7th day of September, 1917.

E. K. Wolfe, (Seal).

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said E. K. Wolfe to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Surry County.)

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of E. K. Wolfe, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by A. H. Wolfe, one of the subscribing witnesses therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said E. K. Wolfe is proven by the oath and examination of A. H. Wolfe and J. G. Isaacs, Jr., the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of E. K. Wolfe; that the said E. K. Wolfe, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 7th day of September, 1917.

And This Deponent Further Saith, That the said E. K. Wolfe, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said E. K. Wolfe was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Thank you for the opportunity to post the following Surry Co., NC surname(s) query:

BRINKLEY, JOHNSON - Search focus: Lucinda J. Johnson and Jacob Ely Brinkley in Surry Co., NC, Carroll Co., VA, Grayson Co., VA, Wythe Co., VA, and Pulaski Co., VA. Searching for leads to information about Jacob Ely Brinkley, b. 29 Jan 1849 in Surry Co., NC and his first wife, Lucinda J. Johnson, b. circa 1846 in Carroll Co., VA. Undocumented sources indicate Jacob Brinkley and Lucinda J. Johnson were married in Carroll Co., VA on 2 Oct 1870. Parents of each are Thomas C. Brinkley and Phoebe Draughn of Surry Co., NC, and Wm. Johnson and Nancy Hawks of Carroll/Grayson Co., VA. Undocumented sources indicate Lucinda J. Johnson-Brinkley died in Wythe Co., VA or surrounds circa 1872 after birth of daughter, Mary Lucinda Brinkley. Will gratefully appreciate any leads that help provide place/date/witness evidence of Lucinda J. Johnson-Brinkley's birth/marriage/death, and Jacob Ely Brinkley's Surry Co residence and/or NC ancestry.
