Editor-in-Chief

JOYCE SMITH
Associate Editor

Without the help of many, many people, we could have never published your 1958 edition of The Windswept Echoes. To the entire STUDENT BODY... they were our subjects; to the FACULTY...they let us interrupt their classes to get that all-important picture; to the BUSINESSMEN of surrounding areas; to MRS. GRAHAM, our advisor and friend who helped us to balance our ideas and our money; and last, but not least, to all the MEMBERS OF THE WINDSWEPT ECHOES STAFF... we extend our sincere appreciation for helping us make the 1958 edition of The Windswept Echoes the best yearbook ever published at Copeland High School.

The kind of friends who cannot be replaced.

"A bundle of charm"

From all her worthy qualities, "T'would be a task to pick her best."

ALITIES

"Life is not so short but that there is always time enough for courtesy."

"Conquer thyself, Until thou has done this, thou art but a slave."

In November the Tri-Hi-Y Club was represented ot the Seventeenth Annual Interstate Tri-Hi-Y Conference at Salisbury by Gay Snow, Mrs. Janes, Fay Danley, Frances Coak, and Clara Green.

Our school won the distinction in 1957 af being the anly schaal in Surry Caunty to place both a girl ond a boy on the annual Journal and Sentinel "All Narthwest" basketball team. Tex Flippin and Foy Danley were the recipients of these awards. In addition, they were chosen ta the "All County" teams. Being named to these mythical teams were indeed an honar to Tex and Fay. The schaol and community were equally proud af their accamplishments.

Just as adequately done, alsa, was the job af keeping aur buildings comfortable and tidy, and of feeding us an appetizing, nourishing lunch each day.

This graup af helpers deserves and gets a big hand from us all.
