THE STRIPES 1965

Martin Memorial School of Nursing

Steps To Success

DEDICATION

We the students of M. M. S. N. proudly dedicate this 1965 edition of The Stripes to Mrs. Eloise Neal, R.N.

Early in our training she helped us lay a foundation upon which we could build our profession. Through her unceasing devotion to our school, she has been a source of inspiration to all those with whom she has come in contact.

As we advance up our steps of success, we will always have a great respect for such a devoted person.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of Martin Memorial School of Nursing, in this year of 1965, being in questionable good health and of doubtfully sound mind and realizing the uncertainty of grades do hereby write, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. Lockhart, the instructors, and staff we leave our most grateful thanks for all of their kindness, help and patience which they have bestowed unto us.

We the Senior Class of 1965 leave to you, Class of 1966, our personal hints for a successful Senior Year.

I, Mamie Jo Beasley leave Barbara Jordan my bottle of Librium to carry her through the annual editorship. Darnell Cockram leaves her inability to learn to Elaine Shuler. The most communicable Senior of 1965, Brenda Hall leaves her ability to communicate to Gale Payne. Carolyn Lambe leaves her ability to hook a husband to Linda Cash. Treasurer of 1965, Jewel Lowry leaves her stinginess and money collection to Maxine Sanders. When she starts housekeeping, Anne Roberts leaves Bonnie Young her specific techniques in cleaning. The speed speaker, Lena Thomas leaves Loretta Stanley the time to catch up. Mary Watts leaves her race driving skills to Dorothy Peterson. Mamie Jo Beasley leaves her tattered uniforms to Margaret Hudson for repair. To Reba Wood, I, Jewel Lowry leave my waiting patience for a letter, call, or visit. And to Carolyn Gwyn, I, Mary Watts leave to you anything I possess that you desire.

The Entire Senior Class leaves to the housemothers and Shirley no more short uniforms to be lengthened.

WHAT IS A STUDENT NURSE?

Between the innocence of an entrance exam and R.N. comes a lovable creature called a Student Nurse.

They come in assorted sizes, heights and shapes but they have the same creed: "To enjoy every second of every hour of every day off duty, and protest with griping, (their only weapon), when their forty hour week is over, and their supervisors are in the snack bar."

Student Nurses are found everywhere: underneath, jumping from, swimming to and running through.

Patients love them, R.N.'s boss them, orderlies ignore them, Doctors tolerate them, and Heaven protects them.

A Student Nurse is truth with blood on her uniform, beauty with gloves on her hands, wisdom with penicillin in her hair, and the future with a new born baby in her hands.

To Doctors a Student Nurse is an inconsiderate, questioning, and intruding bundle of noise. When you want her to make a good impression, she becomes a giggling creature, bent on wasting as much time as possible, and sleeping through class.

A student has the appetite of a horse, the digestion of a disposal unit, the energy of a soap suds enema, the lungs of a switchboard operator, the imagination of a Vanderbilt Graduate, the enthusiasm of central supply, the sharpness of a scapel, and when she gives pills, she has five thumbs on each hand.

She likes food, vacation, Christmas, money from home, love stories, water in its natural habitus, Doctors, working elevators and days off.

She is not much for: Books without pictures, operating room dresses, hair nets, study hours, metric systems, and case studies, not to mention ward classes.

Nobody is so late to bed and so early to rise, nobody gets so much out of medical conferences, and lectures. No one can cram into one day, five enemas, twelve complete bed baths, five subjects, three trips to a pharmacy, two trips to the nursing office, fifty aspirins, set up a uniform, polish her shoes, stay out till twelve o'clock and still get along with her classmates.

A Student Nurse is a magical creature--You can campus her, but you can't keep her out of trouble. You can put her on study hours, but you can't make her study. She is your aide, your maid, your porter, and your friend.

She is a freckled face, pint size, fun loving bundle of noise, but when she gets off duty with her tired feet, and her aching back she has a funny way of dropping into bed and saying "good night", but not without those famous last words, "check on me in the A.M."
