Shelton-Badgett North Carolina Center for Viticulture and Enology

Surry Community College is proud to be the home of the Shelton-Badgett North Carolina Center For Viticulture and Enology. The Center serves the grape and wine industry, not only in North Carolina, but the entire Southeast providing workforce training and industry support. The complex was funded through NC General Assembly appropriations, NC Community College System grants, NC State bonds, and private donations.

Charlie &
Ed Shelton

Both brothers have a keen interest in fine wine. This, coupled with the area's ideal climate of mild winters and moderate summers, led the two to consider developing a vineyard as a personal hobby. After much study and consultation, the Sheltons' hobby quickly became a full-fledged business operation. "We saw the impact this vineyard, and others in the area, could have 20 to 30 years down the road," says Charlie Shelton. "With tobacco farming on the decline, we saw it as a great way to diversify the farming industry and open doors to new possibilities in the area, such as agriculture. People love to taste vineyards, taste the wine and hear the story of winemaking." Shelton-Badgett North Carolina Center For Viticulture and Enology is named in memory of Charlie and Ed's parents.

Grand Hall

Bobby and Sylvia Harold encompassed all that is the blueprint of successful lives. Born in Ashe County, NC, Mrs. Horton, devoted her life to service, graduating from nursing school and serving her country as an U.S. Army Nurse at home in Africa and in the European Theater as World War II. She worked for 19 years following her military service as a nurse manager for Roman County Senior Services, all while raising a wonderful and loving family. J.L., also a native of Ashe County, served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. After serving his country, Mr. Horton spent his creative career with the Roman County School System. It is their family, daughter Patricia and sons Donald and Ronald who name this cottage, honoring the life's work of their parents. With this cottage comes the spirit of Hilda R. J.L.
