Virginia Lee Burton

Foreword

We have chosen "Roadways" for our theme because roads are symbolic of the many choices we have in life. This book is a record of some of the roads we have followed this year. We hope our choices have been good ones, because we believe that

. . . "To every man there openeth
A High way and a Low
And every man decideth
The Way his soul shall go."

Dedication

With love and appreciation, the Senior Class dedicates this, the last volume of Franklin High School RETROSPECT to you,

Members of the Faculty, who

...Have always shown kindly understanding of us as individuals;

...Have given of your time and wisdom to help us in our growth toward maturity;

...Have taught us the fundamentals of knowledge so that we will be better prepared to live in this world of varied activities;

...And most of all, by the example of your own lives, have inspired us to search for the deeper, more permanent values in in life.

Administration

One of the most beloved figures on the school campus for many years is Mr. "Jimmie" Hiatt. His capable direction of our school, his sincerity, and his calm, optimistic attitude create in us a desire to become good men and women. On the various roads that take us through high school, we are thankful to have such an excellent guide.

AN ATHLETE'S PRAYER

Our God, our one Head Coach divine,
Guide us through life's playing time.
Teach us how to play the game
Only in a sporting vein.
Endow us with the will to win,
With a spirit striving from within.
And Coach, teach us as we live and learn
To expect only what we rightly earn.
Quitting never; though discouraged, be
Ever true to self, to team, to Thee.
Keep us clean in speech and thought,
In doing, and in living as we ought.
Of hate and envy keep us free,
For more deserving man than we.
Prepare us now in friendly strife
On the playing field of life.
And someday, Master, Coach Supreme,
Let us play on your great team.

As we finish this year, Franklin High School graduates its last class. The high school, organized in 1927, has served its community faithfully and well through the depression years, through two wars, when several hundreds of its sons answered the call of their country, and into a most prosperous era. We are proud of Franklin's record, and yet we are humble, because we know that it is only through serving that an institution grows great.

Now we raise our sights to a bigger school that we believe will be better able to prepare our boys and girls for life. There is sadness in leaving, but there is also anticipation of what the future holds. Let us look forward to years of growth in education, leadership, and in moral strength so that this community may always be a good place to live.

IN APPRECIATION

Our thanks go to the many business firms who have so generously supported us by buying advertising space in this Yearbook.

To our readers: "Patronize those who patronize us."
