POT DOESN'T COST MUCH. . .OR DOES IT?

While the debate over marijuana rages, teenagers play a dangerous game of attempting to beat the law by using it.

What if they are caught? Probably on first offense, they'd get a suspended sentence and never serve a day in jail. So what difference does that first offense make?

The Carbon Copy, a college newspaper at Frank Phillips College at Borger, Texas, came up with food for thought for the youngsters who think they're getting away with the first conviction:

A youth was stopped for a traffic violation. The officer recognized the odor in the violator's car. The defendant had a few joints (of marijuana) with him.

He was convicted of possession, a felony, and received a suspended sentence.

Did he lose anything?

"All he lost was the right to vote, the right to own a gun and the right to run for public office.

He lost the opportunity of ever being a licensed doctor, dentist, CPA, engineer, lawyer, architect, realtor, osteopath, physical therapist, private detective, pharmacist, school teacher, barber, funeral director, masseur or stock broker.

He can never get a job where he has to be bonded or licensed.

He can't work for the city, the county or federal government.

He can enlist in the military service, but will not have a choice of service and will possibly be assigned to a labor battalion.

If this happened to you, would you think you had lost anything?" (Dallas, Tex., Morning News)

FEBRUARY

February is the second month of the year and the shortest. Its name, Februarius, came from a Latin word meaning to purify. February had 30 days until the time of Julius Caesar. Caesar took one day off to add to the month named after him, July. The emperor Augustus took another day off to add to August, the month named after him. In addition to being the shortest month, February also has a great number of important events. See how well you know February.

February 2 - Groundhog Day

February 3 - Horace Greely's birthday, Am. publisher

February 8 - Boy Scout Anniversary

February 11 - Thomas A. Edison, born 1847

February 12 - Abe Lincoln, born 1809

February 14 - Valentine's Day

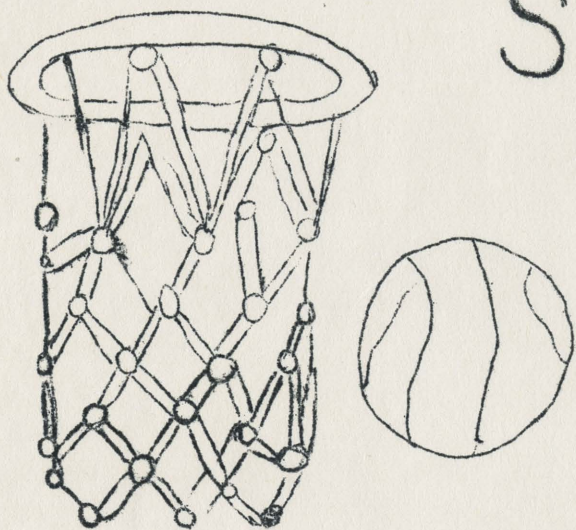

February 22 - George Washington, born 1732

February 23 - Samuel Pepys, born 1633

February 27 - Henry W. Longfellow, born 1807

North Surry students have again proven their ability as salesmen in the recent Krispy-Kreme doughnut sales campaign. Norman's room with 416 dozen, followed by Mrs. K. Smith, 400 dozen, and Mr. Norman, 371 dozen. Several rooms topped the 100 dozen mark. LAUGH-IN

A clerk in a travel agency was trying to convince a nervous woman that air travel is safe. To clinch his argument, he said: "Madam, if it weren't safe, would we be using the fly-now-pay-later plan?"

An American Indian sent the following message to the President: "Be careful with your immigration laws. We weren't with ours."

A rich man looked suspiciously at the youth asking permission to marry his daughter.

"I wonder if you'd be so anxious to marry her if I didn't have a penny," he asked.

"Oh," vowed the young man, "I'd love her twice as much."

"Get out of here," yelled the father, "we've got enough idiots in this family already."

The bride had news for her husband when he returned from work.

"I fell terrible," she sobbed. "I was pressing your suit and burned a hole in the seat of the trousers."

"Don't worry," said the husband. "I have another pair of pants for that suit."

"Yes, I know," said the wife, "and it is lucky you have. I used them to patch the hole."

Officer: "Get ready. Aim. Fire at will."
Rookie: "Which is will?"

Judge: "What do you have to say for yourself?"

Prisoner: "I say I wish I was in a place where there were no traffic cops."

Judge: "Granted thirty days."

"My father can beat up your father!" a little boy threatened his playmate.

"Big deal!" sneered the other boy. "So can my mother!"

"Alaska bigger than Texas?" said the Texan. "Could be, but just wait until it melts."

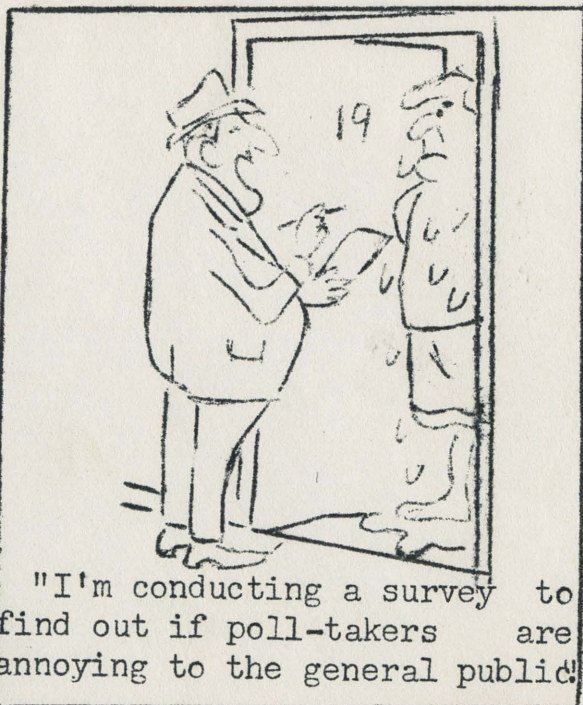

"I don't think I look 30, do you?"

"Not any more, dear."

Wife: I have some good news for you.

Husband: "What?"

Wife: You haven't been paying those auto insurance premiums for nothing."

"I'm conducting a survey to find out if poll-takers are annoying to the general public."

"Seems to me your girl is kind of spoiled!"

"Tain't that at all. It's just the perfume she's wearing."

Dorothy arrived at her grandmother's home wearing a very fashionable and very backless evening gown.

Said Grandmother: "It's shameful. I hate to think what your mother would say if she saw you in that dress."

Said Dorothy: "So do I--because it's hers!"

Two men had just made their exit from the movie theatre, and evidently it had been a very poor picture by the expression on their faces. One turned toward the other and said, "You know Frank, it certainly is wonderful how pictures have advanced these last few years."

N. STOKES DOWNS N. SURRY IN CONFERENCE
TOURNEY

On Feb. 16, the Greyhounds traveled to Forbush to battle North Stokes, in the Hound's first game of tournament play. The Vikings came out on top, 67-65. The Hounds played well early in the game, had as much as a 13-point lead at one time, and seemed assured of another victory over the Vikings. However, in the fourth quarter, the Vikings outscored the Hounds and tied the score. In overtime the Hounds just couldn't shoot and the game ended with a Viking victory.

High-scoring for the Hounds were John McDaniels 20, Sammy Brim 19, and Bernie Young 17.

The Hounds will battle the Falcons of Forbush on next Wednesday in the district tournament at North Stokes.

COMMENTS FROM THE COACH (SEASON)

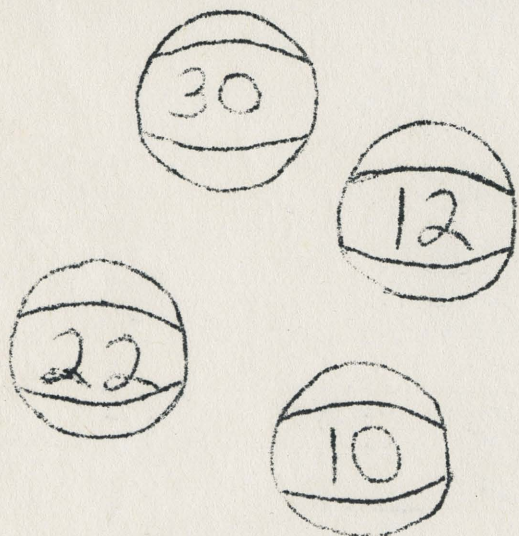

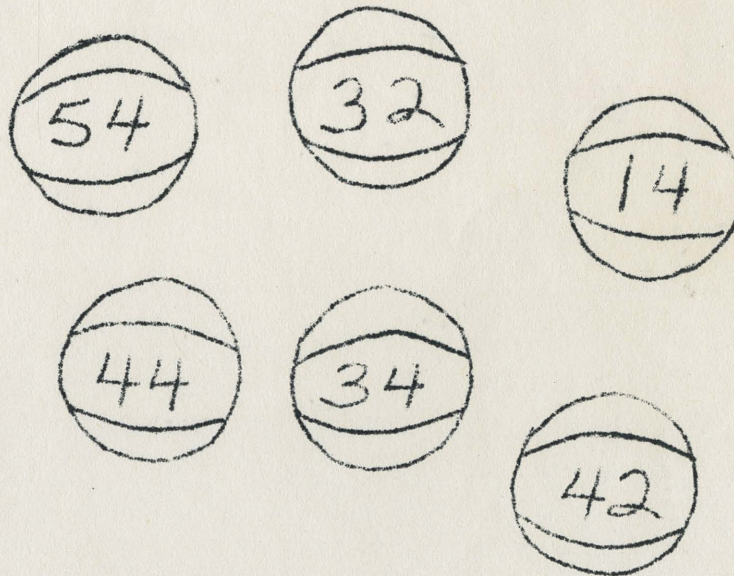

Overall, I thought we had a pretty good season. We had a lot of young boys on our team that are going to help us in the next year or two. We were too inconsistent a lot of times, but we started playing well at the end of the season. We lost a tough game against North Stokes in the conference tournament, but we are looking forward to playing next week in the district tournament.

John McDaniel, junior, received honorable mention.

"What?" said the editor to the artist's face,
 "Can we put in this empty space?"
 "I don't know," was the artist's reply,
 "But I'll think of something in the wink of an eye."
