Revolutionary War Privates Reuben and Samuel RIGGS

of Morris County, New Jersey and Tennessee

Compiled by Bobby G. Carwile and C. Hammett, 2001
for TNGenWeb (TNGenNet) and the Combs &c. Research Group

Brothers Samuel and Reuben Riggs are believed to have been sons of Edward Riggs (1720-1820, married Jane Buckley), who, with three brothers, Samuel, Reuben and Timothy, removed to the Yadkin River, Rowan County, North Carolina (that part that later became Surry County) from Morris County, New Jersey about 1765. By 1776-7, Edward RIGGS had moved overmountain, initially to Indian Creek in the Powell River Valley (later Hawkins County, Tennessee), and in the Spring of 1778, due to Indian attacks on the settlement, to North Fork of the Holston River, somewhere in the neighborhood of Fort Shelby, Beaver Creek, Squabble State.

REUBEN RIGGS was born circa 1748 (1) in Morris County, New Jersey. His family removed to then-Rowan (later Surry) County, North Carolina about 1760 (or 1765?), and in 1768, a Samuel RIGGS appears on the Rowan County tax list of Gideon Wright. Reuben himself is first found in the records of Surry in 1772 when Samuel RIGGS, David RIGGS and Reuben RIGGS are among those appointed to a road jury. Four years later, in June 1778, Reuben was residing in Surry when he first entered the Revolutionary War, serving for three months under a Capt. SAUNDERS in Col. Benjamin CLEVELAND's regiment. He served a second three months in 1779, both tours of duty having been expeditions against Indians committing depredations around the head of the Yadkin River. By Dec 1780, Reuben had removed to then-Washington County, North Carolina (later Tennessee), where he joined Capt. PRUITT'S company and fought in the Battle of Boyd Creek under Col. John Sevier (an expedition against the Cherokees). In 1783, he was on a Greene County tax list, but by 1786, owned land in Washington County, and in 1787 appeared on the Washington County tax list. He later removed to Grainger County, Tennessee (formed in 1795 from Hawkins and Knox counties) where he resided until 1808.

Sometime in 1808 or 1809, Reuben removed to what would become Giles County, Tennessee in 1809, but in the southwestern part of the county, that portion still in the hands of the Chickasaws. The earliest record of Reuben in the Giles county area is on 29 May 1809 when he appears on an list of intruders (illegal settlers) removed by federal soldiers from Chickasaw indian lands. Later Giles County land records indicate that Reuben's land was on Buck Creek, a fork of Little Shoals Creek of the Elk River (Giles County Land Entries), where he apparently remained until his death almost thirty years later.

The following is a chronology of the records of Ruben's life, as well as other (select) Riggs records:

1832 Revolutionary War Pension Application of Private Reuben Riggs

Giles County

Set on this 20th day of August 1832

Personally appeared in open court, before the justice holding the court of Pleas & Quarter Session for the county & state of service, at this August term of said court Reuben RIGGS of said county of Giles, resident therein aged eighty five years, who being first duly sworn according to law does on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the Act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832. The said Reuben RIGGS saith and declares that he first entered the service under one Col. [Benjamin] CLEVELAND in Surry County, North Carolina, one SAUNDERS being his Captain, the day not recollected but most probably in the month of June in the second year after the declaration of Independence and during that year served a tour of three months and also served a similar tour under the same officers during the year following. These tours were against the Indians committing deprivations about the head of the Yadkin river. The declarant then moved into Washington County in North Carolina but now in East Tennessee where in the month of December 1780 he volunteered under Col. [John] SEVIER in an expedition against the Cherokee Indians. They mustered at Stockdon's Mill & proceeded on the expedition until Col. CLARK & Col. [Arthur] CAMPBELL of Virginia overtook & joined Sevier. RIGGS was in Captain PREVITS [PRUETT] company until its close, the declarant was present at several skirmishes between the whites & Indians, on Boyd's Creek of French & Broad river & at Echols _____ Telleco & _____ what time that campaign closed he does not now remember, but supposes that some history or other record testimony in the public office of his county will show. He has no documentary evidence, having long since lost his discharge and that he knows of no person now alive who can testify to his services, the last man who could have done so to his knowledge, died during the last year, one Jesse RIGGS of Lincoln County, Tennessee. The said Reuben RIGGS duly relinquishes any claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on any pension roll of any state or territory whatsoever. Sworn and subscribed this day and year aforesaid.

STATE OF TENNESSEE
COUNTY OF HAWKINS
1st Judicial District - April Term 1834

On this 4th day of April 1834, personally appeared in open court before the Judge of the Circuit Court of Hawkins County now sitting, Samuel RIGGS, a resident citizen in the County of Hawkins and State of Tennessee, aged seventy four years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That the Declarant Samuel RIGGS was born in Morris County, in the State of New Jersey, on the 4th day of April 1860 [1760]. He has no record of his age himself; but here is a record of his age in the Bible left by his father at his death, now in the possession of his oldest sister, Elizabeth RIGGS of Jefferson County, Tennessee. When the declarant was five years of age, his father moved to Surry County, North Carolina, on the Yadkin River. There he lived 12 years. In his seventeenth year Declarant moved with his father to Powell's Valley on Indian Creek, now Hawkins County, East Tennessee, where he lived nearly a year - thence to the North Fork of Holson [Holston], where he remained until the spring of 1778. When he moved to the North Fork of Holson [Holston] from Indian Creek; it was on account of an attack by the Indians upon that settlement, in which they had killed the next neighbor of Declarants father, one William PARKS. Shortly after his removing to the North Fork of Holson [Holston], Declarant volunteered under Captain Isaac SHELBY in the summer of 1778, in the month of July, day not recollected, for the purpose of protecting the frontiers against the Indian incursions and of garrisoning a fort on Beaver Creek.

There were about thirty men under Captain Isaac SHELBY. Lieutenants and ensign not recollected. The company were for the greater part of the time engaged in keeping the Fort. This Fort was capable of containing five hundred people. Repeated attacks were made by the Indians upon the settlements, and the people compelled to take shelter in the Fort, until the company had driven off the Indians, and the people thus cultivated their land under the protection of Captain SHELBY'S company. Captain SHELBY'S company were constantly in service, in doing the duty of Sentries, or in scouting parties, and in all such service as was necessary for the protection of the families of that frontier settlement.

While the Declarant was in service under Captain SHELBY at this Fort, General CHRISTY, in the fall of 1778 in October, day not recollected, came by the Fort with his troops on his expedition against the Cherokee Indians, and it being thought that the people would not need

Captain SHELBY went on with General CRISTY. The Declarant was anxious to go on this expedition but, his health being bad, he was not permitted to do so. The Declarant's father received a written discharge from Captain Isaac SHELBY for the Declarant's service, setting forth that the Declarant had served a tour of three months under him garrisoning the Fort on Beaver Creek. Whether his Father ever received anything for Declarant's Services or not, Declarant does not know. Declarant did not receive anything, nor does he know what has become of the Discharge obtained by his father.

In the month of December 1778, day not recollected, Declarant volunteered under Captain Isaac BLETCHER, Major Anthony BLETCHER [BLEDSOE?] commandant. Lt. George HART was the Lieutenant of the company - other officers not recollected. Captain BLECHER'S was one of the three companies raised for the purpose of garrisoning a large Fort on the North side of the Holson [Holston] River, opposite to the Long Island. This Fort was on the remotest part of the frontiers. These three companies - under Major BLETCHER were constantly engaged on duty, in keeping the Fort or in Scouting parties protecting the settlers and ascertaining the approaches of the Indians. This garrison was regularly detailed for guard duty and for the duty of Scouts and was regularly paraded night and morning and were every Sabbath Day taught the manual exercise.

In the month of April 1779, day not recollected, this Declarant was discharged after a service of four months by Captain BLETCHER on the application of Declarant's father, who was then about to move back to North Carolina. Whether Declarant's father received anything for his services or not, Declarant does not know. Declarant himself received nothing. Declarant moved back to Surry County, North Carolina with his father and there remained until the fall of 1780 when he again moved with his father to Green County, North Carolina, now East Tennessee.

Early in the month of December 1780, Declarant volunteered under Captain William PRUETT, (John HOWARD, Lieutenant, no Ensign) to go under Colonel John SEVIER against the Cherokee Indians. We were mounted riflemen. Col. SEVIER commanded the men from Washington and Greene Counties - Major TIPTON, Captain HAWKINS and Captain Langdon CARTER were officers under Col. SEVIER. There were four companies under Col. SEVIER, about 200 men.

The company of Captain PRUETT started after Col. SEVIER had started. The first night we encamped on Lick Creek; the second night we overtook Col. Sevier on Long Creek in what is now Jefferson County; the third day we started two hours before day and crossed French Broad River at Buckingham's Island and encamped on the other side of the river. The fourth day we marched for Chota Town. We started early in the morning, and after marching two miles we came to where the Indians had encamped the night before on their way to attack the whites. The Indians had fallen back to waylay us.

Our spies having gone on and met the advancing spies of the Indians, made us acquainted encamped. Col. SEVIER was leading one division and Major TIPTON the other. Suddenly a gun was fired about fifty yards off from the midst of a field of tall grass before us at Col. SEVIER - Major WALTON, a volunteer being next to Col. SEVIER, jumped from his horse and fired at the Indian, who had discharged his gun at Col. SEVIER, and broke his the Indian's leg. The Indians immediately jumped up and fired - our men jumped from their horses at the fire of the first gun (except Col. SEVIER) and commenced firing - and immediately drove the Indians, completely routing them. We killed sixteen of them. None of our men were killed; on of our men was slightly wounded in the hand and one of our horses was killed and one of our men was injured by being thrown from his horse. We pursued them to a cane break, in which they took refuge, and we were ordered to halt. We got a good many guns and knapsacks, which were thrown down by the Indians. The same day we returned to Buckingham's Island, and there remained encamped for eight days, waiting for reinforcements from Virginia.†

A considerable body of men, about 500 came on commanded by Colonel Archibald [Arthur] CAMPBELL. Other Virginia officers are not recollected. Col. CAMPBELL took the command of the united forces, and the whole body, the day after the junction, marched towards the Indian Towns. After leaving Buckingham's Island, we crossed Little River and arrived the second night at the Indian Town on the Tennessee River. Here we found provisions, deer skins, horses, cattle and a swinel (?). After burning this town, we marched up the river, on to Chota several miles above the mouth of the Tellico River. We remained sometime in Chota - finding here corn that had been concealed - an Indian was killed at this town.

After burning Chota we marched back down the Tennessee River to the mouth of Tellico River to Tellico Towns. Here we remained for some time, when the army divided. The larger part, of which Declarant was one, marched under Cols. CAMPBELL and SEVIER to the Hiwassee Old Town; the remainder being left at the Tellico Towns. We arrived at the Hiwassee Old Town the second day - burnt it and immediately returned to Tellico, where we again remained for several days. At our entrance into Tellico Towns, Captain ELLIT (?) of Virginia was killed by an Indian. There were some Indians getting corn in Tellico on our arrival. Captain ELLIT? was in front. One of his men wounded an Indian. The Indian having falled (followed?) Captain ELLIT rode up to him, and as he approached, the Indian rose up and shot him dead through the head. ELLIT fell so near the Indian, that the Indian got ELLIT'S gun and fired it at one of the men before he was killed, which was immediately done.

We found several negroes in the towns. After burning Tellico, we marched back together until we came to Long Creek, in what is now Jefferson County, when we separated, Col. SEVIER returning with his men through Greene County, and Col. CAMPBELL to Virginia through Hawkins County. The men who were engaged in this tour were informed that they would receive certificates for a three months tour at Jonesborough from a committee of the North Carolina Legislature, and those who applied did receive certificates for a three months tour - though this Declarant never did, and never received any other than the verbal discharge of his Captain on his return into Greene County. The Declarant was engaged in this expedition from November 1780, day not recollected, until February 1781, day not recollected, a period of three

After the year 1783 Declarant served three tours against the Cherokees under Col. SEVIER - his Captains were Wm. LEA, Stephen COPELAND and JOHNSON, and one tour against the same Indians under Cols. [Alexander] OUTLAW and COCKE, his Captain Wm. LEA. Declarant was detailed as a guard for the first settlement at Knoxville for two months - He was detailed as a Lieutenant with six men to guard a frontier settlement on Flat Creek one of the branches of the Holson for two months. Declarant served two tours as a spy - for all which services he has never received one cent.

In the year 1780 Declarant moved to the head of Lick Creek in Greene County, North Carolina now East Tennessee, where he lived five years, when he removed to the waters of French Broad River in what is now Jefferson County, East Tennessee, where he lived two years, then to the waters of Holson [Holston] River in Jefferson County where he lived three years, then to Fall Creek, waters of Holson [Holston], in Hawkins County, where he has lived for forty four years and where he now lives.

Declarant makes no claim for the services which he performed after 1783. Tho' he has never received one cent for them, he served in the year 1778 three months under Captain Isaac SHELBY in garrisoning Fort Shelby - in the year 1779 he served four months under Captain BLETCHER [BLEDSOE?] - in garrisoning the Long Island Fort. In the year 1780 he served a tour of three months in Captain William PRUITT'S company under Col. SEVIER in an expedition against the Cherokee Indians. These he served in all during the revolution, ten months as a volunteer as above stated. In the year 1782 he served two tours as an Indian spy - making five weeks service.

Declarant has no documentary evidence in regard to his service having never gotten the discharges which his father received for his two first tours, Declarant being then under age. His Father lost them, where or when Declarant knows not. Declarant never got a discharge for his last tour, never applying for one. Declarant knows of no living witnesses, by whom he could prove his services. Declarant hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension except the present, and declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of the Agency of any State.

I had this book on my Book shelf and decided to see if I could find RIGGS in it, this is what I found, however the Introduction pages give much data about the burning and reconstruction of these pages and also there is another volumn with the Births, Marriages and Deaths which I do not have. I hope this will help someone out there!

END NOTES

1 Reuben's birth year of "circa 1748" is based on his statements in his 20 Aug 1832 Revolutionary War Pension affidavit that he was both 85 years of age (born about 1747), and born in 1749.

2 No more information is available re Richard RIGGS and no other record of an elderly Richard RIGGS has been located in Tennessee. It is possible that the file of Reuben RIGGS was initially opened erroneously with the given name Richard.

CHAPTER I, SECTION B, PART 4

RIGGS FAMILIES OF NEW ENGLAND

(Most recent Riggs' researchers rely on Riggs' story in Genealogy of the Riggs Family, edited by John H. Wallace of New York, author and columnist, published 1901. When diverting from his discourse, I shall add notes citing sources of information.)

Edward Riggs, born about 1590 in southern England, perhaps Somerset County, landed in Boston early in the summer of 1633 with wife, Elizabeth, two sons and four daughters. They settled on a 40-acre farm in Roxbury, Massachusetts (now a slum of Boston, once the home of the upper class). Within a short time, like many other of the earliest colonists, Edward lost four family members, perhaps due to the rigorous climate and course food.

- 1) Daughter Lydia died August 1633, first recorded death in Roxbury.
- 2) Daughter (unnamed in records) died May 1634.
- 3) Son John died October 1634.
- 4) Wife and mother Elizabeth died in August 1635.

Edward Sr. married a second wife, Elizabeth Rooke, 1636 of whom there was no offspring.

In 1634 Edward was made a freeman, meaning he was a member of a Puritan church and land holder, thereby granted suffrage. It is interesting to note his pastor was the famous John Eliot. "Roxbury was filled with laborious people whom the Lord rewarded with fruitful fields and gardens with fruit and grain." An ancient transcript on a loose sheet dated 1638-40 listed the inhabitants of Roxbury. Edward is recorded with four family members. We presume this included himself, second wife, and two daughters. The daughters became by marriage, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Twitchell.

From Edward's will of 2 September 1670, he was survived by three lines of descent. All children were deceased except 1) Mrs. Twitchell, principal legatee; daughter, Mrs. Allen, who was survived by a daughter, Elizabeth, and son, Joseph Allen; 2) Edward II, (deceased) had a wife and four children, namely Edward III, Samuel, Joseph, and Mary. As an elderly christian man of 81 to 82 years, our original ancestor, Edward Riggs died near the close of 1672, the progenitor of thousands of Americans.

Second Generation: Edward Riggs, Jr. or "Sergeant Riggs"

Edward Riggs, Jr., born in England about 1614, arrived in Boston with his parents, brother and sisters in 1633, only thirteen years after the founding of Plymouth colony. April 5 1635, he married Elizabeth Roosa of Boston. She, too, was born in England.

During the Pequot War, Edward earned the sobriquet of "Sergeant." Afterwards he went by this title, bestowed for rescuing comrades ambushed by Indians.

By 1644 Edward was a resident and land owner in Milford, Connecticut. In 1653 in company with others, they purchased from the Indians a tract of land about ten or twelve miles from Milford, known as Paugusset. Here they founded the settlement of Derby where Edward built a home on Rocky Hill surround by a palisade. This property came to his son, Samuel, who constructed a new home, which stood the test for over two hundred years. Samuel is the progenitor of the numerous and famous Riggs of Connecticut. In 1661 during the time Michael Tompkins was moving, Sergeant Edward Riggs gave refuge to two renegades, Whaley and Golf. For the next two years these renegades were secured in Tompkins' home while King Charles II sought them. They were members of the Parliament who condemned and executed King Charles I.

When the Crown gave Governor of Connecticut powers over several settlements, the Dissenters feeling their liberty deprived, sought to relocate. Under leadership of Robert Treat, they secured a grant in 1664 on the Passaic River, an area now known as Newark, New Jersey. I shall digress for a few paragraphs from Wallace's story to tell more of the colonization of Newark. Source taken from:

- 1) History of City of Newark, New Jersey, embracing two and one-half centuries, 1661-1913, Vol. I, II, III. New York, published by Levvi's Historical Publishing Co., 1913.
- 2) Newark, New Jersey, by Historical Society, editor John T. Cunningham, 1766.
- 3) History of Newark, N.J., by Joseph Atkinson.

A committee of eleven men under Robert Trent, including Edward Riggs and wife, Elizabeth, spent the summer of 1655 selecting the best possible location on Passaic River for a village site. Elizabeth Riggs was first white female resident of Newark.

Articles of Faith for the colony provided for purity of religion as professed in the Congregational Church which was to control both spiritual and civil privileges permitted in Newark (24 May 1666). Among the signatures on Covenant 27 January 1667, we find the names of Michael Tompkins, John Brim, Sr., Sergeant Edward Riggs, John Baldwin, Jr. and Sr., Jona Tompkins, and George Day, persons who have been closely associated with the Riggs genealogy. Only five of the group of signers used the "X" signature, denoting people of education. Many were skilled artisans; Edward Riggs was a carpenter and John Baldwin was a weaver.

The design of Newark village was laid out similarly to the village of New Haven, Connecticut, with wide streets, lots of six acres each, a site for Meeting House, and a village commons. Respecting the rights of the Indian tribe, Lenni Lenapi, they paid in barter many useful articles for their land. The contract is in existence showing the names of the Indian who signed 11 July 1667.

Selection of lots was assigned by a drawing. Edward Riggs drew lot #18. It was agreed that each should pay taxes according to the value of the land in order to have funds to support the church. In an open air meeting 16 September 1668, it was decided to build a meeting house. A committee of five, including Sergeant Edward Riggs and Michael Tompkins, was appointed to construct the building, price seventeen pounds. Building proceeded slowly due to a shortage of nails. Rev. Pierson, pastor, watched the construction in view of maintaining simple design according to Puritan principles. His annual salary was 80 pounds. By 1668, substantial homes one and one-half stories high, about thirty feet long, with sloping roofs (to prevent accumulation of ice and snow) were occupied. The style was usually either salt box or Cape Cod. One of these stood until 1913. The original group of settlers numbered over 375 souls of all ages from villages of Milford, New Haven, Guilford, and Branford, Connecticut. Sergeant Edward Riggs played a very active roll in the formation of Newark. Besides aiding in construction of the church, he was a Selectman and Warner, laid out roads, surveyed lots, viewed fences, oversaw the building of the pound, and drained swamps.

Edward's sons, Edward III, and Joseph, moved to Newark later than their parents. As younger men, they were allowed to draw lots. Edward III received lot #37 and Joseph drew #53.

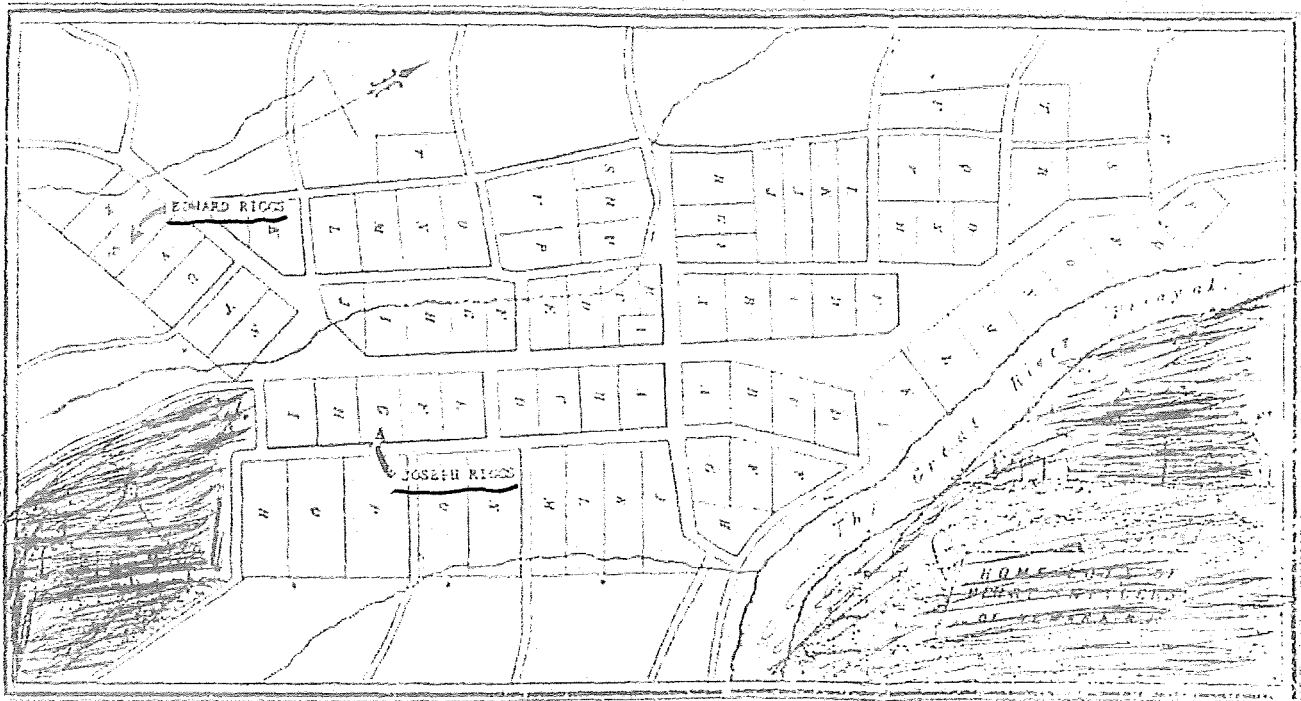

* Sergeant Edward Riggs died in 1688 at age 54 years, survived by his father, Edward, Sr. of Roxbury, Massachusetts, his wife (nee Elizabeth Roosa) and four children, named as follows:

- 1) Edward III, born about 1636, Roxbury, Massachusetts, wife Mary.
- 2) Samuel, born about 1640 in Milford, Connecticut. Married Sarah Baldwin, daughter of Richard Baldwin, remained in Connecticut.

* see my notes from "The Town Records of Roxbury, Massachusetts 1649-1730" MAP

- 3) Joseph, born about 1642, in Milford, Connecticut. Was an active citizen in Newark, New Jersey.
- 4) Mary, was wife of George Day of Newark, New Jersey.

It is said that Sergeant Edward Riggs' widow married Calet Carrwithe. Previous to this marriage, she gave son, Joseph, one-half interest in Edward II's lot #18. In addition to his grant of six acres, she gave him a one acre plot. This was his reward for spending the first summer on the Passaic in 1665.

Third Generation: Edward Riggs III

Edward Riggs III was born in Roxbury, Massachusetts before his parents, Edward Riggs II and Elizabeth Roosa, moved to Connecticut. He married Mary, maiden name and place of marriage unknown. He did not join his parents in Newark until about 1673, and was allowed to draw a lot, #37. It is said he wasn't as well educated as his brothers, Samuel and Joseph, but had a great ability to acquire land titles. Therefore, he was referred to as Edward, the Planter. On 1 June 1677, he was appointed to a committee regarding the fences. In 1679 he was appointed Watchman (necessary to arouse the colony if attacked by Indians). On 9 January 1688, he signed agreement to pay full tax to support preaching of the Word. Author Wallace said he was not known after 1670, but the above offices have been reported from various sources. Descendants Mr. Samuel Conger and Earle Henry Riggs in their Riggs' histories said Edward III sold his lot in Newark 8 April 1691, to John Brown and moved father into the interior.

Mr. Samuel Conger gave names and ages of Edward III and Mary's children as follows:

- 1) Anna, born about 1662, married J. Gage.
- 2) James, born about 1664, married, left issue.
- 3) Mary, born about 1668, married Joseph Lindsley.
- 4) Edward, born about 1669, married Frances Colburn.
- 5) Joseph, born about 1675, married, left a large family. Died Orange County, New Jersey.
- 6) Martha, born about 1667, married S. Freeman.
- 7) Elizabeth, born about 1678, married John Lyon.
- 8) Samuel, born about 1681, married, left issue. (Our ancestor.)
- 9) Charity, born about 1685, married John Bowers.

Fourth Generation: Samuel Riggs of Morris County, New Jersey

Samuel Riggs, son of Edward Riggs III and Mary Riggs came with parents to area of Whipponomy River (now called Whippany River).

We are told John Ford set up a forge on Whippany to use power for a foundry. In 1708 Ford and others (iron foundrymen) bought a tract from Indians on which they formed a settlement called West Hanover. In 1740 the name was changed to Morristown in honor of Governor Morris.

The story of the first church known as Hanover at Whippany has been recorded by Rev. James Green. He related that in about 1710 families of Newark and Elizabeth Town, New Jersey, settled on the west side of a tributary of Passaic River below the Old Iron Works. The first pastor was Rev. Hubble sent from New York Presbytery. From thence, our Riggs branch changed their membership from Congregational to Presbyterian Church, being similar in tenets of doctrine.

By 1746 Rev. Jacob Green constructed a new church and began a permanent church register.

Membership list included Timothy Riggs, joined 12 August 1750. We find the names of Baldwin, Tompkins, Brown, and Day families on the membership record.

Marriages performed by Rev. Jacob Green, Page 10 of Marriage Book:

- 5 January 1749, Samuel Riggs married Elizabeth Tompkins (our ancestor).
- 16 August 1750, Reuben Riggs (brother of our Samuel) married Mary Carter.

6 December 1759, Reuben Riggs

These were all brothers. The strays lists records occurred only a few years before the departure of Samuel Riggs' sons for North Carolina.

Many Riggs remained in New England and New Jersey for generations, rendering valuable service in Civic and religious life. Our particular ancestors, sons of Samuel Riggs I of Morristown, moved to North Carolina and their descendants migrated south and westward.

Our Fifth Generation: Riggs of North Carolina

About 1761-1765 the Riggs brothers Edward, Timothy, Samuel II, and Reuben, sons of Samuel I of Morris County, New Jersey, wended their way southward accompanied by their wives and children. No doubt they traveled the Great Road leading from the Potomac River to Salisbury, North Carolina. This migration we can date from Rowan County, North Carolina, tithable lists and deposition for Revolutionary War pensions made under oath of Samuel Riggs, Jr., Hawkins County, Tennessee, 1834. Samuel, Jr., testified he was born in Morris County, New Jersey, 11 April 1760, and came with his father to Yadkin River about age five.

Rowan County court files: Edward Riggs, doctor and overseer of Roads, April 1761.

Marriage bond Rowan County, 2 March 1769, Reuben Riggs married to Mary Crawford, bondsmen Edward Riggs. Witnesses Gideon Wright and David Crawford. This no doubt was Reuben Riggs, Jr., as certified by deposition for Revolutionary pension made from Giles County, Tennessee.

Land north of Yadkin River, embracing all northwest North Carolina was taken from Rowan County and formed into Surry Co, 1771. The county seat at Rockford was situated on Gideon Wright's plantation. David Riggs, son of Timothy Riggs, married Gideon Wright's daughter, Miriam. One of first duties designated by the Crown to the Riggs: February 1772, Samuel Riggs I, Reuben Riggs, David Riggs, and nine others were appointed to lay off road from Thomas Jones' estate on Roaring River to David Lee's, signed by Jesse Benton C.C.

Samuel Riggs staked out 400 acres on the Mitchell River, Grant #1119. David Riggs filed claim for 300 acres, Grant #1120, adjacent to Richard Murphy grant on the north. The price was 15 shillings for each 100 acres. Although the grants were on tax lists of Surry Court 1774, the claims were not certified by the New State Legislature until 29 December 1778, after North Carolina enacted a State Constitution.

In court files Surry County five suits were filed in name of Reuben Riggs from 1772-1775.

Tithable List Surry County 1774.

List of Dr. Brown: Samuel Riggs, sons, Silas, and Zadock--three polls.
List of William Anthony: Edward Riggs, son Jesse--two polls.
District of Capt. Hudspeth: David Riggs--one poll. (Timothy's son.)

So we see from tithable lists that the Riggs brothers' sons were coming of age.

At a Field Return and General Muster of Militia #34, 20 June 1774, Edward Riggs was appointed captain under Martin Armstrong and Major Gideon Wright. After 1814 we can find no more record of Edward Riggs. The Revolutionary soldier, Jesse, killed, cannot be proven son of Edward, as there was also a Jesse who was a son of Lott Riggs of Surry. We would like to know what became of brother, Dr. Edward Riggs.

Tithable List 1775 only 3/4 complete as North Carolina had declared her independence in 1776, so no tithe was taken during the Constitutional Convention. Surry County Tax List 1777. No longer were taxes called tithable to support the English Church, so from henceforth called tax list to support the Colonial Government only.

Reuben Riggs--one poll.

David Riggs--one poll.

Samuel Riggs--one poll, which showed Samuel's sons, Silas and Zadock had left father's home to form their own residences.

A commission was appointed by General Assembly to establish the boundary line between Surry County, Rowan County, and Wilkes County 1778 (filed in the three county courts). Three of twelve commissioners appointed were Samuel Riggs, David Riggs, and John Scott (son-in-law of Samuel Riggs).

Due to repetition of christian names: Reuben, Samuel, Timothy, Edward, Silas, Zadock, David, Joel, Jesse, etc. in each family and succeeding generations, it is hard to follow the lineage of the Riggs family. As far as I can determine, brother Timothy Riggs did not purchase land in Surry County, but resided in Rutherford County, North Carolina. He was Justice of the Peace and there are records of marriages solemnized by him. Here he apparently died intestate about 1795, but there is an inventory on file. He gave testimony in House of Delegates after Revolution for losses suffered by raiders.

In Samuel Riggs, Jr.'s deposition for pension, Hawkins County, Tennessee, 1834, he asserted that his father, Reuben, moved to Clinch Valley about 1779. Settlers there were harassed and massacred by Indians. His father joined Captain Evan Shelby in their pursuit. The Reuben Riggs family returned to the Yadkin River, residing there about five years before moving to Green Co., North Carolina, now a part of Tennessee. From there they moved to Giles County, Tennessee, where his father remained until death. Samuel Riggs, Jr.'s deposition is filed in the National Archives. It is pertinent to family history showing part played involving the Indian harassment. So of the four Riggs brothers, only Samuel lived and died in Surry County. His nephew, David Riggs, moved to Tennessee about 1814.

Our ancestor, Samuel, built appurtenances on his grant, constructed a mill site, planted an orchard and perhaps built a forge. Here he seemed to have lived happily and prosperously in the quiet amphitheater-like valley of Mitchell River, bounded on the west by towering Brushy Mountains. Legend suggests that he attended a Presbyterian church a few miles north at Mountain View.

The tranquility of this pastoral scene was broken by Tory raiders hiding in the mountains pillaging and stealing supplies for the King's army. Neighbors allegiance was divided between the patriot and loyalist causes. Adjacent neighbor, Richard Murphy, had joined the king's cause. He was the step-father-in-law of Samuel Riggs' son, Zadock, and daughter Chloe Scott. Nephew David Riggs' father-in-law, Gideon Wright, was colonel in Loyalist army. What a hornet's nest Samuel Riggs' family was in! Regardless of such conditions, Samuel contributed supplies and clothing to the Patriot Army as shown by vouchers for reimbursement after the war. Vouchers #4732, #903, #994, are found in

They were accepted for payment in cash, used for tax payment for land purchases. For these patriotic contributions, I have placed his name on the D.A.R. Honor Roll.

New York was the seat of the Federal government. Vouchers were sent there for accounting of NC's debt during the war. Vouchers were arranged alphabetically by surname for whole state. Riggs is listed for the Salisbury District.

Samuel added two more grants to his original tract of 400 acres. On 20 December 1791, he acquired 100 acres, £10 per 100 acres on north side of original tract. (Book 1, page 16 in 16th year of Independence.) Grant #1327, 50 acres for £10 per 100 acres on south side of Mitchell River called Red Bank Springs, located east side of original plantation. Son Zadock received a grant, #1479, of 100 acres on 5 December 1791. Also, he acquired 35 acres variant lands lying between his father's, Samuel Riggs, land and plantation of Richard Murphy. (Deed Book 1, page 24.) Samuel Riggs' nephew, Bethuel Riggs, from Morris County, New Jersey, acquired grants #1137 and #1197 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Reuben Riggs made entry to survey 100 acres on south side of Yadkin River commonly known as "David Riggs' Old Place" in name of William Terrel.

There are numerous records of land transactions, jury lists, court orders, and various data in Surry, Wilkes, and other counties of North Carolina, but I have given enough to show life style of the Riggs family--farmers, civic participants, and soldiers.

By 1794, Samuel Riggs was growing old, so began to reduce the size of his land holding. He sold to son-in-law, John Scott, 10 October 1794, 58 acres on Mitchell River, part of 400 acre grant, in Southwest Corner of County for £10. (Deed Book F, page 132.) On 2 August 1785, Samuel sold to son, Zadock, 100 acres on creek at head of mill site at corner of Richard Murphy. (Deed Book C, page 240.) Samuel sold three tracts to neighbor, Ephram Wilcher, 10 November 1794, 22 acres for £400. (Book T, page 136) In 1795 he sold 60 acres for £60. (Deed Book H, page 114.)

Samuel Riggs' will was brought to Surry County Court in August 1800 with son-in-law, Ezekial Wilmouth, executor. Only one son with heirs, Lott, remained in Surry County, so Lott was given home site with mill for care for his mother, Elizabeth.

By the inventory of Samuel's estate, we see he had been frugal enough to acquire assets to bestow cash to each of his daughters and to make loans to several others.

(Copy of Will of Samuel Riggs)

State of North Carolina, Surry County August Session AD 1800 Stephen Potter and Ephraim Witcher two of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing Last Will and Testament of Samuel Riggs made Oath that they saw the said Riggs sign, publish and declare the same to be his Last Will and Testament that he was off sound disposing mind and memory and that at the same time they saw John Personett sign, the same as a witness there to which was ordered to be recorded.

Recorded according by Jo Williams.

It is said he and his wife, Elizabeth, were buried in a family cemetery, but no trace of cemetery has been found. Elizabeth was still alive in 1810, we know by correspondence of son, Silas Riggs, with a nephew, James Scott, of Washington County, Kentucky, in which Silas reported mother did not feel able to cross mountains and streams to visit her children living in Kentucky.

The will of Lott Riggs, Samuel's son (naming wife, Peggy, and children) was brought to Surry County Court and ordered to be recorded May, 1813. His heirs sold the land with mill site to Mr. Nixon who in turn sold to Mr. Kapps.

I went to Surry County, North Carolina, in July 1986 to research our paternal lineage of Riggs and Scott. When I asked about the Riggs' mill, no one knew of whom I inquired. When I gave description, I was told it is known as Kapps' mill. To reach the area, we took Haystack Road from Dobson county seat to Mitchell River to area lying almost on Wilkes County line. It was a pleasure to gaze at the rushing water over the mill race, perhaps as voluminous as it did in the 1770s, to smell the refreshing vapor of the water, to behold the verdant grass of the amphitheater-like valley, to see the mill in authentic design of Revolutionary period, reconstructed in 1843, to see two large residences standing perhaps on the original Riggs' home site. I placed my hand on the ledge of Brushy Mountains on spot I knew that Samuel sold to our ancestor, John Scott.

Our guide, Mrs. Hester Jackson, said, "Look to the north. Just over the crest of the mountain flows the Elkin River of Allegheny County." Elkin River valley was the home of my Atwood and Royall families of 1850. She continued, "Look toward the southwest and just over the mountains is Roaring Gap." This was home site of other members of the Royall family."

We traveled northeast toward Fisher River, the area where Lott Riggs' family (Gillespie and Laffen) resided. Here was the old historic pioneer Fisher River Baptist Church. It has collapsed with the hand blown glass shattered about, much sought after as souvenirs. Beside the church was the cemetery among the saw briars, but still a burying ground. In the stillness of this forest area, I seemed to hear the songs of Zion, lined out by the sonorous voice of a by-gone minister--the likes of which Grandmother Royall related. These churches were pastored by rural preachers who walked miles to preach to audiences of women in calico and men in linsey-woolsey trousers who likewise had walked miles to attend.

Can it be that the thirst of God's word has died within us as we sit in automatically heated and air-conditioned churches, driving to church in modern cars? We wipe away our tears in gratitude to these our ancestors who fought for our independence and left us with a heritage of honest values and industrious livelihood and reverence of Almighty God.

Note: "Lining out a song" means the song leader (often the minister) repeated a score and then the phrase was sung by the audience. This he continued through the length of the song. Singing schools were held where shaped notes were taught for sight reading. Very few instruments were used. Only a few song books were owned by members, but part singing was melodious (key given by a pitch pipe).

Samuel Riggs and Elizabeth Tompkins married 5 January 1749. With several children, they migrated to area of Mitchell River, North Carolina, where children were reared and all but Silas married. He operated a water mill and blacksmith shop. Samuel wrote his will 10 October 1798 which was inventoried 13 May 1800. Elizabeth survived him to at least 1812. The children according to his will:

1. Lott, born about 1750, in Morris County, New Jersey. He died in Surry County in 1813 with will naming wife, Peggy, and children. He was buried in Devotion, North Carolina. Peggy died about 1835. John, Joel, Jesse, Daniel, Elizabeth (married Larkin Canady), Mahalia (married Elkanah Lewis), Mary (married Tyre P. Gillespie), Sarah (married Mathew Laffron), Abigail (married Isaac), Norma, and Silas.
2. Silas, born Morris County, New Jersey, and perhaps died a bachelor in Surry County, North Carolina, making brother Lott's family his heirs.
3. Zadock, born 4 January 1754, in Morris County, New Jersey. He married Sarah Scott about 1775 in Surry County, North Carolina. He died in Boone County, Missouri, 23 October 1846. His children were: Scott, born 1779 (married Hannah Berry), died in Scott County, Illinois; Hannah, (married Benjamin Givens of Lincoln County, Kentucky); Mary, born 20 November 1781 (married N. McWarren of Lincoln County, Kentucky), died 17 April 1850, Boone County; Samuel, born 28 March 1788 (married Deborah Comless, Lincoln County, Kentucky), died 17 April 1850, Boone County; Zadock, Jr., born 25 October 1790 (married Mary Moore, Lincoln County, Kentucky), died 23 July 1875, Boone County, Missouri; Silas, born 6 July 1797, married Sarah Hicks, Boone County, Missouri, died 8 October 1814, Tennessee; Daughter--nothing known.

4. Chloe--see Scott lineage Section B, Part 3. Our ancestor.
5. Eunice, married John Laswell who resided near Mitchell River--not traced.
6. Iram, born in New Jersey, probably moved to Rockcastle County, Kentucky.
7. Mary, born 1764, married Ezekial Wilmouth, residing near Mitchell River. Descendant still in area. Offspring: Sarah, born 1784; Nancy, born 1786; Elizabeth, born 1789; Stephen, born 1793; Chloe, born 1795; Lott, born 1797; William, born 1799; and Tempy, born 1802.
8. Elizabeth, married Mr. Snow residing near Mitchell River--not traced.
9. Abigail, married a Mr. Snow residing near Mitchell River--not traced.

These above Snow families may have migrated.

CHAPTER I, SECTION B, PART 5

TOMPKINS FAMILY

As related previously in the Riggs-Tompkins history of New England and New Jersey, we know the Riggs and Tompkins families were intimate friends with some intermarriage since the days at Milford, Connecticut. At Derby, Connecticut, Edward Riggs and Micajah Tompkins were instrumental in hiding refugees from King Charles II. We reported that Edward Riggs II and Micajah Tompkins were founders of Newark, New Jersey.

When Edward III and son, Samuel Riggs, moved to Morris County, New Jersey, we find both Riggs and Tompkins were members of the Presbyterian Church at Whippany. There Samuel Riggs, Jr. and Elizabeth Tompkins were married in 1749 by Rev. James Green. Reuben Riggs married there in 1750.

It was not many years after Samuel and Elizabeth Riggs moved to Surry County, North Carolina, that several Tompkins families took up land on rivers of the adjacent county, Wilkes County.

I have not had access to enough records to trace our Riggs-Tompkins lineage accurately, but hope as more records are available, some descendant will establish this honorable line. Tompkins and Riggs families were closely allied and intermarried in Derby, CT, Newark, and Morris County, NJ.

So with the death of Samuel Riggs' wife, Elizabeth, nee Tompkins, our Tompkins line ceased or rather, let us say, merged with the Riggs family into the Scott family, and to the Wright line.

Annie Riggs celebrates 104th birthday

Annie Riggs turned 104 Sunday, Sept. 30. She was married to the late Roy Riggs. She celebrated her birthday at Sarah's Beauty Salon on Thursday Sept. 27 with her friends.

Annie Riggs hugging her good friend Sarah Simpson.

There were no shortage of friends at Annie's birthday party as she is seen here enjoying the occasion with her friend Norma Johnson.

Everyone wore a smile for the birthday girl as seen here with Bonnie Hawkins and Annie Riggs.

Riggs is 102 and counting

Staff report

If she could change one thing, Annie Riggs would have learned to drive. A Mount Airy native, Riggs celebrated her 102nd birthday on Sept. 30. The resident of Twelve Oaks, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Mount Airy, Annie Riggs said her secret to longevity is to "live by the Lord!" Her advice to younger generations is to do the right thing, be kind and help others.

"I wouldn't change how or when I grew up for anything," said Riggs. "It may have been harder, but I feel blessed to have had that opportunity."

Riggs worked at Spencer Textiles. She married Roy Riggs in 1940. The couple had one daughter, Carol Anne, who passed away at birth and were married 56 years before Roy passed away in 1996.

Riggs was honored with a proclamation from the Mount Airy mayor's office on her 100th birthday. Her hobbies include knitting, crocheting, sewing and embroidery. She received gifts, cards and a bouquet of flowers as part of her 102nd birthday celebration.

The Surry families of Riggs, Thompson, Jarvis and Wilmoth came to Surry Co. in the early days of the county. The Riggs ancestor, Edward Riggs, was in Mass. in the early 1630s. One of his great-grandsons, Samuel Riggs, was one of the first white settlers in Devotion in Surry. He built the original mill where Kapp's Mill now stands. (Per Hester Jackson in "Simple Pleasures" Oct-Nov 1991)

Obituary of Deacon Wiley Riggs printed in SCGA Journal October 1994, page 13.

Wiley Riggs, 7-28-1833--4-25-1904, making his stay on earth 70 yrs, 8 mo., 27 days. H/o Miss Julie Haymore, 7 child., 5 sons, 2 daus. He joined Prim. Bp. Faith at Fisher's River meetinghouse. Ord. 10-1891. He was a fine citizen. (Obit. in Kallam Cem. Book 4, page 174)

In 1870 he was in the home of Daniel and Debby Riggs on Fisher River. His occupation was given as school teacher. He is not listed in the 1880 census. It is believed he moved to Richmond. (Simple Pleasures - June-July 1993)

David Riggs married Miriam Wright ca. 1770 probably in Surry Co. This Riggs family moved to TN ca. 1810 and had two sons named Hezekiah Wright Riggs and Gideon Wright Riggs. (info in ltr from A. M. Blackman to Betty Camin 6-92)

David Riggs was married to Miriam Wright Riggs who died ca 1814. (Query in 1991 SCGA Journal)

Abner Riggs was b. 1770 NC and went to VA in 1810. Reuben Riggs b. 1810 moved with wife Thursey to Camden Co., MO in 1840. (info from Mary Bonsal, E-mail query) meetings, I came across an error; I am not sure if you are able to correct it in the interests of accuracy. I have seen the error perpetuated in many places. In the Pioneer Families of Surry County Section on Samuel Riggs:

"Samuel's brother, Reuben Riggs' marriage record there shows he m. Mary Carter 16 Aug 1750. He m. (2) at Rowan 1769 Mary Crawford. Also on this record is their brother, Timothy Riggs' church membership. He joined 12 Aug 1750."

Reuben Riggs was married to Sarah Carter. There is no Mary Carter in the marriage records. Reuben died in 1776 in New York; he never came to North Carolina. The Reuben Riggs who married Mary Crawford was his nephew.

Thank you,

Evan Thompson

Enclosed is a check for $1.00 for a copy of the will of John Poindexter (Pendexter). The will is dated 23 Oct. 1772. What book number is the original will located? Also, I need the date of probate, book and page number. Was there an estate settlement? John Poindexter is a relative I have searched for for three years. THANK YOU!!

Still looking for the will of Gilbert Strayhorn. I checked again, please try the date 4 Sept 1802. Spelling may be Streyhorn or Strain. According to the N. C. Wills book Gilbert does have a will in Orange County.

Thank you so much for all your help!

Sincerely,

Judy S. Cardwell
