Report on Foreign Missions

During the past year there has been a slight change in the personell of the leaders of the Foreign Mission Board. Secretaries chosen out of the ranks of the missionaries have been appointed in each field. They can better keep in contact and understand the needs of the missionaries. In Europe where we have 15 missionaries Dr. E. Gill is secretary. In Africa where we have 35 missionaries Dr. George Green is secretary. In Latin America where we have 132 missionaries Mr. W. C. Taylor is the secretary, while Mr. M. T. Rankin is secretary of the Orient where we have 229 missionaries.

Our hearts become sad when we see the list of retired missionaries growing. Because of sickness and old age that list now is 52. Many are old in age but not in ability to work and are working hard, winning souls wherever they are.

Glimpses in different Fields

Time and space will only permit brief snatches into a few instances out of the army of 463 valiant soldiers in the front firing line.

In Africa in one church twenty stand saying they will be tithers. A group of women we find in that country giving up one meal each day that the cost may be given as a gift to their Lord. Out of their meager amount they would not lose the joy of giving.

In Brazil, we find dear old Dr. and Mrs. Nelson upon the Amazon in a launch spreading the gospel along the banks from tribe to tribe. Daring to go where no white man goes, that those dark souls might have the light of Christ in their hearts.

In Europe we hang our heads in shame as we look at our Italian work where we sold our shurch buildings and school and used the amount to reduce the debt on Foreign Missions. People ready to meet, but no meeting house, souls ready to be baptised, but no Baptistry because we are retracing there.

In China we still find the Revival fires burning brightly after five years. Sins confessed, wrongs righted, debts paid and the spiritual lives of Christians deepened and many more saved as a result of the Revival.

In South China Mr. Woodward reports 10,000 gospels sold, 60 baptized and more awaiting baptism. In Interior China Miss Addie Estelle Cox preaches, teaches, sleeps and cooks in a dark, mud floor room which is crowded from dawn till dark. She leaves this place and by bicycle goes to next village and under the same circumstances, witnesses for Christ. 165 received for Christ last year and more on the waiting list.

As we share these valient soldiers burdens through much prayer, love and gifts we will at last claim with them some of the glorious crowns they will wear. Dare we stand idly by and wait? No! We too must heed His command "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature

Report on Home Missions

The Home Missions Board with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. has had a glorious history. Since it was set up in 1845 by the Southern Baptist Convention it has had an ever increasing responsibility in our homeland. Its field of service is the entire bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention among all churches, all classes and races. In the field of Missions, God only knows how many have been influenced to Christ through its efforts. Missionaries are sent out to work among the Indians, the Negroes, and the Foreigners in our southland. It has also been a power among the soldiers, seamen, and a guiding light in Christian education in the south.

The work of the Home Mission Board has been crippled by overhanging indebtedness, and the lack of funds. The indebtedness is gradually being wiped out, and we look forward to the day when the Boards hands will be loosed of debt and become an even greater power in bringing about our Father's Kingdom.

Report on State Missions

Our special endeavors in the fields of State Missions indicate that a renewed force and enthusiasm are at work. The past year has witnessed not only an enlargement of those objects which we had during the prior year, but also the addition of new and vastly worthy projects, the good and wisdom of which cannot be overestimated. For purposes of convenience and clarity the special work in State Missions will be detailed under ten heads.

1. GENERAL MISSIONARIES. Three able and well-appointed men devoted their time largely to evangelistic and stewardship revival meetings throughout the state, lending to these gatherings the training and talents which they so abundantly possess. These were Mr. M. O. Alexander, Mr. J. C. Pipes, and Mr. Charles H. Dickey, the last named having assisted in matters of publicity for the Denomination in addition to the special meeting mentioned.

2. MISSIONARY PASTORAL ASSISTANCE. Sixty-three pastors are designated and assigned to this work, and during the year delivered more than 8,500 sermons and addresses in furtherance of our work. It is expected that the report for the coming year will show an increase in the number of pastors assigned to this work since only forty were devoting their time to it a few years ago.

3. CHURCH BUILDING AID. The Board is not able to lend as much assistance toward the construction of new churches and the repair of old ones as it would like to, because of lack of funds. It was estimated at the State Convention last year that about 25 churches would in varying degrees be assisted in this manner during the current year.

4. INDIAN WORK. Our Home Board, which was assisted by the General Board during a year or so of the depression, has not reassumed supervision and support of the work among the Indians of Robeson and Swain Counties. Engaged in this work are Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Lunsford and Rev. W. H. Fitzgerald.

5. WORK AMONG THE NEGROES. W. C. Sommerville has been carrying on the work of the State Board for the past year in very fine fashion. His work and leadership have shown not only enthusiasm, but what is more important, intelligent vision. His work has been designed largely to lift the level of the race in education and thinking as well as in purely religious matters.

6. THE OTEEN MISSION. This work consists of service and help which is made available to the eight hundred odd men and women who are confined in the government hospital at Oteen, seeking to conquer the ravages of tuberculosis contracted during the war. Mr. Wayne W. Williams has had charge of the work there for several years, and has done a great work in carrying cheer and hope to the inmates.

7. AID TO THE DEAF. Mr. W. R. Hackney of Charlotte and Mr. G. C. Wilder of Asheville have devoted much of their effort to the deaf during the past year in spite of a very limited appropriation which the State Board was forced to make for them. It is estimated that there are 3,000 deaf in the state, many of whom are Baptist or have Baptist inclinations and who would appreciate an opportunity of participating in our services.

8. SANITORIUM AND SAMARCAND. Rev. E. M. Harris, pastor at Aberdeen has carried on this phase of our work, and they are grouped here simply because the same pastor has done the work at both places, and not simply because the work or the needs are alike. At Sanitorium are 500 tubercular patients, and at Samarcand are 170 girls sent there by the Courts of the State as public wards. A recent appropriation for Mr. Harris will enable him to devote more time to these fields.

9. PASTOR'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY. This group of worthwhile and up-to-date books is kept circulated to the pastors of the state requesting them. It enlarges the library facilities of the average pastor far beyond the realm which he could provide for himself. In this way they are enabled to keep up with the finest thought of present day religious writers.

10. PASTOR'S SCHOOLS AND CONFERENCE. Threesuch schools were held during the past year, at Meredith, Chowan, and Mars Hill Colleges. At each, leaders of our Denomination, both in and out of the state, served as members of the faculties, and great numbers of our pastors attended. It is hoped that during the coming year larger numbers will avail themselves of the opportunities afforded by these Schools.

The foregoing report will serve to give some idea of the nature and scope of our State Missions. Necessarily, it has not been complete, but an effort has been made to give some broad outlines of our work which are ever important and useful.

Report on Baptist Hospital

Our Baptist Hospital located in Winston Salem is owned and controlled by the denomination and is state wide in service. Since the Hospital was opened in May, 1923, fourteen years ago, 36,911 patients have entered for treatment. We have had about 4,000 patients this year, about one-half of this number will be part pay and free patients. A good percent of number was from Surry County.

Outside of the little more than $14,218 contributed last year by the Duke Foundation, the Hospital is dependent entirely on Free Will Offerings of the Baptist Churches of our State to provide for this large number. Almost 45% can pay little or nothing. The importance of our churches making our mothers day offering as large as we can. This is the only offering given the Hospital in the whole year.

To be Christ like we must give to this worthy cause and help to relieve suffering humanity as Christ did.

Report on Baptist Orphanage

The Baptist Orphanage of North Carolina opened its doors to the first small member of its vast family on November 11, 1885—nearly fifty two years ago. Since that time the Orphanage has, under wise management accumulated assets worth more than a million dollars, and has made life secure and happy for over 4,000 needy children.

The convention of 1928 changed the name from THE THOMASVILLE ORPHANAGE to THE MILLS HOME, in honor of its founder John H. Mills. At the convention in 1934 however the name was changed to THE BAPTIST ORPHANAGE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Orphanage operates two homes—The Mills Home at Thomasville, and the Kennedy Home at Kinston. These two with the Mother's Aid Department scattered over the state constitute the system. The Orphanage receives children between the ages of two and twelve. Unlike many other institutions it does not dismiss their children at any given age. Rather, they are allowed to leave only when the Orphanage feels that they are able to face the world on their own.

From practically the founding of the institution, its main support has come from the once a month offering from our Sunday Schools. In more recent years the Thanksgiving offerings have proved helpful means by which the work has been greatly extended.

While we are proud of our Orphanage, and thankful that we are privileged to play a part in its existence, we must stop to realize that there are many worthwhile applicants for worthy consideration. Yet there is no room for them.

According to the annual report of 1936, 611 children were cared for at both homes, with a cost of $22.42 for maintenance for each child. The expenses average $392.37 per day. Four bushel of meal per day, a whole beef, one barrel of flour, six bushel of sweet potatoes, four of Irish—all per day, not to mention other necessities.

Growing, healthy children must eat. They need clothing and shelter, physical, educational, and spiritual guidance. This means that we must never cease to give of our very best to them. And best means sacrificial giving.

Surely no sight on earth can cause the milk of human kindness to flow more quickly and abundantly, than that of little children in need.

Report on Religious Literature

For many years, it might be said, since the days of Thomas Meredith, the Baptist of North Carolina have looked to the Biblical Recorder for light, encouragement and a knowledge of the work of the denomination. In the early history of the Baptist in this state they had many difficulties and obstacles to overcome. Educational advantages were in their infancy, means of transportation were very meagre.

Under these and many other difficulties the cause progressed slowly for awhile. During these days of hardship the Recorder was a beacon light to those grasping for information in the work of the Master.

Charity and Children, the unique little paper of our Orphanage has born its part in the progress and development of the Baptist Cause. North Carolina Baptist can never fail to honor the name of J. H. Mills, the founder of our great Orphanage, and this paper being an outgrowth of the institution. The gems of literature and the information concerning our Orphanage should endear this paper to the heart of every Baptist in North Carolina. Both of these papers should be in the home of every Baptist. An aged Minister once said to me, "the coming of the Recorder was like being away and getting a letter from home, he could read and see what the brethern were doing."

At this age of enlightenment and progress, with the Rural Carriers delivering mail at home, the people will read some kind of literature. How important it is in the interest of morality, the advancement of the cause of Christianity and the well being of the youth that the right kind of literature be placed in the home. The world at this time, is full of spurious literature, which poisons and corrupts the mind and should never be read by any person whether he be a church member or not.

Too many of the names of the youths appear on the State Docket in the courts of our country. They need better literature. May God speed the day when the Biblical Recorder and Charity and Children will be in the home of every Baptist in North Carolina.

Sunday School Report

Second only to preaching service, should we place the importance the possibilities, and may I say the necessity for Sunday School training, especially for our younger people and our boys and girls. Important because a trained and an informed Christian is certainly a greater asset to their Church than an uninformed one. Among the Sunday School's possibilities I would emphasize the large percent of the additions that come into the church that are supplied from its membership. Explaining the necessity of a good Sunday School in every Church, I would say that the future progress of our great Denomination will be determined in a great part, by the efforts that you and I put forth as individual Christians to see that the influence of our Sunday Schools reaches the greatest possible number of our possibilities, or perhaps we should say our responsibilities.

Even tho we have two standard Sunday Schools in this Association, and at least one standard class, based on the six point record system, yet we are losing ground both in enrollment and average attendance. I hope and trust that when the reports are tabulated for this meeting, that we will show an increase rather than a decrease for this important branch of work. But from the only statistics that are available, namely, the reports to the Association held at the First Baptist Church in Mount Airy in August, 1935, and the one held last year with the Friendship Church near Elkin we get these totals.

In 1935, we reported a total enrollment of 5941 and an average attendance of 3061, with New Bethel, Rocky Ford, Little Mountain and Siloam omitted. In 1936, we reported a total enrollment of 5319 and an average attendance of 2343 with Little Richmond, Mt. Zion, New Bethel and Siloam omitted, from the report, representing a decrease in enrollment of 622 and an average attendance loss of 685.

Pastors, Fellow Sunday School Superintendents and Church Officials, in these figures lies our greatest challenge, what are we going to do about it?

B. T. U. Report

As we study the story of the Baptist life, we find it consists of three things: (1) a belief in the New Testament Principles; (2) A desire for the New Testament Spirit and (3) a proper zeal for the great purpose to which this Spirit naturally and surely leads. As a denomination we have tried to reproduce a New Testament Christianity. We cannot do this unless we have B. T. U's. to train the people.

We must be a Bible-knowing people. The Bible is of no value unless it is understood, and there is no better way to understand it than to have a B. T. U. where the people may do their Daily Bible Reading and study it. We should avail ourselves of every opportunity in the B. T. U. to make ourselves acquainted with the Bible and especially to train our people for church attendance.

We made some progress last year but not as much as we should. Some of the progress was organizing the Westfield Church. A great help to our Association and B. T. U. work was Mr. Mashburn coming to the First Baptist Church in Mount Airy. A little Foretaste of Heaven was at our District B. T. U. meeting which was held at the First Baptist Church in Mt. Airy.

The B. T. U. stands knocking at your church door, will you let it in?

Memorials

Whereas since the last session of the Surry Baptist Association, 35 from the various churches have died and gone to their reward. In memory of them and the service they rendered the cause of the Master during their lives we extend to their families and the members of the various churches of which they were members our most sincere and heart felt sympathy. While we miss their faces in our work we feel they have joined that innumerable host who are basking in the sunlight of God's eternal glory.

Report on Christian Education

Education is an important element for success in any vocation of life, but education of the mind without that of the heart is a serious defect, hence we have the term Christian Education which not only prepares the individual for efficient service to his fellow man but that of his God. Baptists are heartily engaged in educational work. They believe that efficiency comes through training, that man is saved to serve. North Carolina Baptists have invested largely in Christian Education. They are not willing for the youth to stop at High School training. They have now three Colleges for men and women, Wake Forest, Meredith and Chowan, with other secondary schools. The world is looking to America for light and the Christian religion, that we may do our best a Christian education is of the greatest importance. Educated minds rule in this world. The bee does his work perfectly and by instinct; he makes no progress, but moves on as he did thousands of years ago. Man has a mind and thinks and reasons about his work, with the result that from time to time he strikes upon better plans of accomplishing his work.

The goal of education is character, developed and tempered in noble things and noble efforts to help humanity to go on in perfection, to usher in the Kingdom of God. To the list of schools above mentioned should be added our Theological Seminary and the Womans Missionary Training School at Louisville, Ky., the former for ministers, the latter principally for training of women who are preparing for mission work, but open also to any women who wish to take the course of instruction offered there. May our people think more seriously of the importance of Christian Education.

Report on Old Ministers Relief

As we look back through the years of our Baptist work in our Association and State, we think of our old Ministers doing God's work, preaching the Gospel, visiting the sick, burying the dead. We think of the hardships they endured and the advantages they labored under laying the foundation for us to work on.

We take the opportunity to pay our tribute of respect to them. Some of them have gone to reap their reward. We are grateful to our denomination for providing for them in their old age. May we who have taken up where they left off never turn a deaf ear to any appeal that may come from them for material aid.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. That we believe in one only true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead: The Father; The Son; The Holy Ghost.
2. That we believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the words of God, and the only rule of faith and order.
3. That we believe that salvation is by Grace, through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.
4. That we believe baptism and the Lord's supper are ordinances instituted by Jesus Christ, to be practiced only by believers in their scriptural order.
5. That we believe baptism is the immersion of a believer. And only those who are thus baptized are in fellowship with the church of Christ, in faith and doctrine, and they only should take the Lord's Supper.
6. That we believe in the final perseverance of the saints.
7. That we believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.
8. That we believe the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joy and happiness of the righteous will be eternal.
9. That we believe no minister has the right to administer the ordinance of baptism only such as have been called and set apart by the imposition of hands by the presbytery.
10. That we believe in the doctrine of growth in grace and sanctification as set forth in the New Testament. But we do not believe that sinless perfection is attained by anyone in this life.
