GRACE MORAVIAN MISSION STATEMENT

Our purpose is to serve God by providing an atmosphere where people are encouraged to build an enduring, dynamic relationship:

WITH JESUS CHRIST as Lord and Savior,

WITH ONE ANOTHER through mutual care and support, and

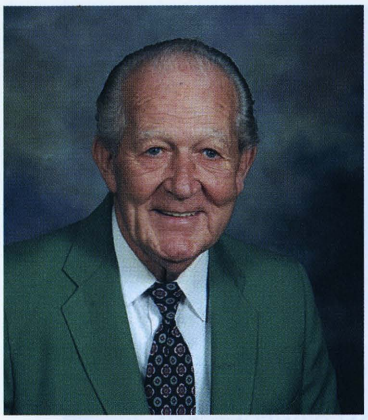

WITH THE WORLD by responding to total human needs.

On March 15, 1925, Bishop Edward Rondthaler came to Mt. Airy to lead a worship service, during which time ninety-six charter members of Grace Moravian Church were received into membership. For over a year, Rev. Charles Crouch had been preaching in a variety of locations around town, until finally a store building was rented in January of 1925, providing a more appropriate place for worship and the opportunity to add a Sunday School program.

The cornerstone for the congregation's own building on North Main Street was laid in September of that same year, and by April of 1926, although the building was not complete, the first service was held there; not long after, the land for God's Acre was donated. The parsonage on Grace Street was constructed during Rev. Ed Mickey's ministry (1933-44), with him doing much of the work himself. An eight-room Christian Education wing was completed in 1955, but by 1966 more space was needed, prompting ground to be broken for an even larger addition to include a fellowship hall and bigger kitchen. Finally in 1979, the church approved plans to construct a scout hut/storage building.

The dedicated ministers who have been called by God to serve this congregation are: Charles Crouch (1925-29), John Sprinkle (1929-31), supply pastors from 1931 to 1933, Edward Mickey (1933-44), Herbert Johnson (1944-54), Robert Iobst (1954-58), Raymond Troutman (1959-66), Joe Gray (1966-68), Harold Cole (1969-74), Charles Fishel (1974-84), Stuart Zimmerman (1985-93), and Neil Routh (1994-present).

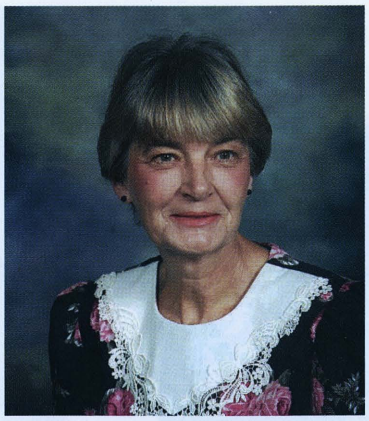

With members of this church family giving generously of their time, talent, and finances as they have for so many years, and with Jesus as the Chief Elder, this congregation will continue to grow, carrying out its purpose of spreading the Gospel by word and deed.
