WB 6, p 376 WILL OF T R SETLIFF. 7 Oct 1893. After my death, my body is to be decently buried. All my personal property in the mill of Setliff, Layne & Sons outside of my household property is to be sold and proceeds to be applied to the payment of my debts. My beloved daughter Lovie Sabrilla Setliff is to have all of what is left both real and personal. She is to have a support and education out of the rents and profits of my land as she needs it. If my daughter Lovie dies leaving no heirs, my father and mother (names not given) and their heirs are to have what is left both real and personal to be equally divided (after the death of Father and Mother) with all their children. Executor: My beloved friend and brother-in-law Joseph S Layne. Also, he is to be the guardian of my only daughter L S Setliff. My daughter is to remain with her grandmother and grandfather during their lifetime or until she becomes of age. Witnesses: P C Layne and J J Setliff. Proved by P C Layne and J J Setliff. Probate 9 Dec 1893.
