

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION JANUARY MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association held their January meeting on January 8, 2001 at the North Main Church of Christ building with the president Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Mary Dove Johnson, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. Edie Cogar also attended and joined the club.

Barbara Peele gave the devotion after which members gave the pledge to the flag. Roll was called with each member telling a New Year's resolution. Dues were collected of $10.00. The treasurer's report was given by Gloria Puckett. She reported that the club has $749.29.

The county council will have a learner's training on January 31 at 10:30 in Dobson. Sue Chandler and Marie Williams volunteered to attend. In global issues, the club decided to prepare two shoe boxes of personal things for a boy and a girl, ages 3-5. These will be due in April. The Spring District Day will be held on March 20 at the Dixie Classic Fair Ground in Winston Salem. Members signed up to provide refreshments for the meetings for the coming year. Members voted by secret ballot for the best lesson of the past year. It was suggested that the club have secret pals for the coming year. Since all members were not present, it was decided to wait until the next meeting to begin. Sue asked everyone to be thinking about possible trips that the club could participate in the coming year. One suggestion was to tour the winery in Dobson.

For the global issues program, each member was asked to bring something from a foreign country to show and to share a few facts about that country. Countries represented were as follows: China, France, Korea, Germany, England, Taiwan, Indonesia, New Zealand, Africa, and Mexico.

The next meeting will be at Marie William's home.

The meeting was ended with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION FEBRUARY MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association held their February meeting on February 19, 2001, at the home of Marie Williams with the president Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Edie Cogar, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams.

Members joined hands and said the Lord's prayer for the devotion, after which the pledge to the flag was given. Roll was called with each member responding with a wish from the heart.

Sue reminded members to be saving their medicine bottles and pull off tabs from cans to be sent to the Ronald McDonald's House. The County Council Meeting will be held on March 6 at 7:00 p.m.. If anyone has items to enter for cultural arts, they should be there by 6:15 for judging. Spring District Day will be held on March 20 at the Dixie Classic Fair Grounds. The Achievement Program is scheduled for March 27 at 6:30 p.m. at the Piney Grove Baptist Church. Barbara Peele and Becky Hill will be models representing the club in the fashion show.

Sue Chandler gave a very informative program on menopause and hormone replacement. She also gave out two handouts, "A Doctor Talks About Menopause" and "Hormone Replacement Therapy" to the members.

Gloria Puckett was crowned the club's Sweetheart after which valentines were exchanged and refreshments served by Edie Cogar.

The next meeting will be on March 12 at 1:00 at the North Main Church of Christ.

The meeting was ended with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION MARCH MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Club held their March meeting on March 12, 2001, at the North Main Church of Christ building, with the president Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Edie Cogar, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Barbara Peele, and Gloria Puckett. One visitor, Helen Foley, was also in attendance. Gloria Puckett gave the devotion after which the pledge to the flag was given. Refreshments were served by Kathy Hallford.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll was called. Barbara Peele, Issues Chairman, reported that at the County Council, clubs were asked to consider adopting and decorating a room at the Surry Women's Shelter. After discussion, the club decided to adopt a room. Members will go to the shelter to pick out a room to decorate.

Gloria Puckett, Special Projects Chairman, reminded members of on going projects that the club is participating in, such as cutting fish shapes from greeting card fronts for students to cover eye during an eye test, collecting tabs from cans, medicine bottles, Ingles grocery receipts, used postage stamps, Campbell's soup labels, and fronts of greeting cards.

Sue reminded members of the Spring District Day on March 20 and of Achievement Day on March 27. She also recognized Barbara Peele and Gloria Puckett for winning ribbons in the county cultural arts. Their entrys will also be judged in the district meeting.

Sue announced that the shoe boxes for the Good Samaritan Ministry will be due on November 1. Secretaries Day will be on May 4 and each club has been asked to make desserts for the extension office for that day. Sue also announced that Buffy Scot would be having back surgery on April 6. Yokefellow has a shortage of ketchup, mayonnaise, and mustard. Those who would like to contribute, should get these items to Sue or Gloria.

Barbara Peele and Edie Cogar gave an informative program on skin care over 50 discussing the importance of moisturizers and sunscreens, the different types of skin cancer, and also discussing some products that can be used to protect the skin.

The meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
MAY MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Club held their May meeting on May 14, 2001, at the North Main Church of Christ, with the president Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. One visitor, Marian Lee, Kathy Hallford's mother was also present. The pledge to the flag was given, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

Gloria Puckett reported on the walker packs which the club is making for the Twelve Oaks Rest Home. A workday is needed to cut and sew the packs. Gloria also reported that the club made $80.45 on the yard sale and that there is enough things left over to have another sale.

Marie Williams gave the treasurer's report. The club has $631.49.

Sue read an invitation from the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Office to a Cultural Awareness for extension volunteers to be held May 22 at 6:30 at the Farm Bureau Building. Sue also told members of workshops to be held-soap making on Wednesday, May 16 and how & whys of herb gardening on May 23.

Mary Dove Johnson was to get information about a possible Flag Day program from the American Legion VFW.

Elaine Whitaker, extension agent, gave a very informative slide presentation on "Food in History". A discussion followed and recipes were given to the club members.

The meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION JUNE MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Club held their June meeting on June 11, 2001, at the North Main Church of Christ, with the vice president, Gloria Puckett, presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Edie Cogar, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. The pledge to the flag was given.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Marie Williams gave the treasurer's report. The club has $621.98.

Marie presented the program on long term care. A discussion followed and Marie provided members with much helpful information on this subject.

Various projects that the club is participating in were discussed. These projects include helping 4-H to make bookmarks on June 20, yard sale, birthday party for residents of Colonial Nursing Home, and fixing shoe boxes for Good Samaritan Ministry. Possible trips for the club were discussed. Some suggestions were Blue Ridge Parkway and Bob Timberlake in Lexington.

Imogene Moore provided delicious refreshments after which members worked on eye patches for local schools. The meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION JULY MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Club held their July meeting on July 9, 2001, at the North main Church of Christ, with the president, Sue Chandler, presiding. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. The pledge to the flag was given, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

Marie Williams gave the treasurer's report. The club has $621.98.

Various activities for the club were discussed. A copy of Scholastic Children's Thesaurus has been donated to the public library. Walker packs have been finished and will be given out to residents of Twelve Oaks Rest Home on July 18 from 2:00 to 4:00. On July 16, the club will provide refreshments and serve them at the Colonial Rest Home. On Wednesday, July 11, members will meet at 9:30, to take a trip across the Blue Ridge Parkway to Mabry Mill and visit the candy factory. The annual picnic will be held at Mary Dove Johnson's house on August 13 at 12:00. Members signed up to bring various things to the picnic. A yard sale will be held at Felts Flea Market on August 14.

Kathy Hallford presented an informative program on canning and bottling fruit juice. She showed the members a juicer/steamer which she had ordered from Finland. Members sampled blackberry cordial and blackberry syrup which Kathy had made from blackberry juice.

The meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
AUGUST MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Club held their August meeting on Monday, August 13, at the home of Mary Dove Johnson. The club held their annual picnic. A meal of hot dog and trimmings was enjoyed by the members and their guests. Gloria Puckett led the group in some "cotton picking" games.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATE
SEPTEMBER 2001

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Associate Club met on September 10, 2001, at the North Main Church of Christ building, with the president, Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. A new member, Lynn Nordin, was welcomed to the club. Kathy Hallford led the devotion. The members then did the pledge to the flag and the Lord's prayer.

The minutes were read and approved. Marie Williams gave the treasurer's report. The club has $686.63. Gloria Puckett read a newspaper article on the Save the Dog Program and reported that the club had donated $50.00 to this cause. Members brought articles to fill two shoe boxes for the Good Samaritan Ministries. Members signed up to work at the Surry County Fair. The club planned a trip to the Shelton's Vineyard in Dobson.

Becky Hill was in charge of the program. Each member was asked to bring to the meeting a hand crafted Christmas ornament or decoration. Each member shared their ornament or decoration by showing and telling about it.

After the program, members cut out used postage stamps to send to disabled veterans. Gloria Puckett served refreshments and the meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATE OCTOBER 2001

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Associate Club met on Monday, October 8, 2001, at the North Main Church of Christ building, with the president, Sue Chandler, presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Lynn Nordin, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. Gloria Puckett gave the devotion which was followed by the pledge to the flag.

Sue thanked everyone for their help and participation in the Surry County fair. Gloria reported on special projects including the following: eye patches, cutting stamps for veterans, dog program, and shoe boxes for the Good Samaritan Ministries. The club has collected enough materials to fill three shoe boxes. Marie Williams gave the treasurer's report. We have $696.63 in the bank.

Kathy Hallford showed the members a name pin which she would be willing to make for the members of the club. Price of the pin would be $1.50.

Sue gave information about several upcoming county workshops and trips. She will also check on the Christmas meal for December.

The members worked on cutting out stamps for the veterans after which the meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATE
NOVEMBER 2001

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Associate Club met on Monday, November 12, at 1:00 at the North Main Church of Christ building, with the president, Sue Chandler, presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Gloria Puckett, Marie Williams, and Lynn Nordin.

During the meeting, the members dressed dolls with outfits made by members of the club. These dolls will be displayed in a storefront window downtown and then be given to the Salvation Army to be given out at Christmas.

Members were reminded of the Christmas meeting to be held at Gaunce's Cafeteria on December 10 at 12:00. Husbands are invited and each person should bring a $5.00 gift to play "Snatch It".

Refreshments were served and the meeting ended with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATE
DECEMBER 2001

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Associate Club met on December 10, at 12:00, at the Gaunce's Cafeteria for their Christmas meal and fellowship. Sue Chandler, president, presided.

Members, husbands, and guests enjoyed their meal after which everyone enjoyed playing "Snatch It".

Gifts of appreciation were given to the officers of the club for their work during the past year.