Now as then we endeavor to learn and in turn and to teach to build a better home and stronger community. Some of our lessons include but are not limited to; gardening, foods, clothing, travel, medications, and home decoration. We often work with other organizations to benefit our community.

Anyone who is interested in these goals is invited to attend our monthly meetings. Meetings are often held at the Mount Airy Library and usually on the second Tuesday. If this is not possible, they are held at the home of the hostess.
