THE INDIAN

DEDICATION

For her twenty-seven years of teaching and leadership in the community, for her guidance through the years, and for her love for all mankind ----- in appreciation for a staunch devotion that eclipses the binding reigns of duty, we humbly dedicate this, our nineteen hundred and fifty-nine INDIANS to Miss Laura S. Johnson, seventh grade teacher.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"I love you for what you are, but I love you yet more for what you are going to be.

I love you not so much for your realities as for your ideas. I pray for your desires that they may be great, rather than for your satisfaction, which may be so hazardously little.

A satisfied flower is one whose petals are about to fall. The most beautiful rose is one hardly more than a bud wherein the pangs and ecstasies of desire are working for larger and finer growth.

Not always shall you be what you are now.

You are going forward toward something great. I am on the way with you and therefore I love you."

SNAPSHOTS

A collage of black and white photographs showing various scenes of students and faculty. The photos include portraits, group shots, and candid moments. Notable images include a student in a military-style uniform, a student in a white lab coat, a student in a dark dress, and a student in a white shirt and shorts. The photos are arranged in a collage style with overlapping edges.
