Obituary

Renna Phipps Parsons, born February 21, 1957 in Bridle Creek, Va. She was the daughter of Crocket Phipps Jr. II and Evangelist Ella Rinda Phipps who precedes her in death. Also preceding her in death is her sister, Inez Davis. She was united in marriage for 38 years to a loving and devoted husband Phillip Michael Parsons. Together they loved and cherished two daughters Rinda Hurt and Rennittia Brown.

Since a young age she was a member of Gospel Temple Church where she demonstrated her love for the Lord. She was a hard worker and an excellent cook. Nobody could fry chicken or cook sweet potatoes and cabbage or share the "FACTS OF LIFE" like she could. Thrift stores and yard sales were things that she loved. If you needed it, she would find it. She loved her family and her grandchildren were the apples of her eyes.

To cherish her memory she leaves her husband, Phillip Michael Parsons of Independence, Va; Two daughters, Rinda and Elder Todd Hurt of Independence, Va. and Rennittia and Ronald Brown of Mt. Airy, NC and one step-daughter Philia Strickland of Mt. Airy, NC, two brothers: Randolph Crocket Phipps Jr.III and Pauline Phipps of Independence, Va., Micky Alton Phipps of Alto, Ga., three sisters Lawand Phipps of Independence, Va., Nathillia Phipps of Independence, Va., Lucinda and Duncan Brown of Alto, Ga., one grand-daughter, three grandsons, one great grand-daughter, three great grand sons and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will greatly miss her presence and wisdom.

I Never Saw Your Wings

How is it that I never saw your wings
when you were here with me?
When you closed your eyes and soared to the Heavens I could hear the faint flutter of your wings as you left.

Your body no longer on this side
your spirit here eternally I see your halo shine.

I close my eyes and see the multicolored wings
surround me in my saddest moments and my happiest times.

Mother my angel God has given you your assignment always my mother forever my angel.

You fly into my dreams and when I am asleep
I feel your wings brush against my face wiping away
the tears I shed since I can no longer hold you in my arms but in my heart.

You earned those wings dear mother and you will always be my angel eternal
