Gentlemen:

I would like to become a member of the Surry County Genealogical Association. Would you kindly send me information regarding subscription rates, application forms, etc.? Also, I have included two 3 x 5 index cards concerning the two families in Surry County that I am presently researching. If you are aware of other persons doing research on these families please advise me of their names and addresses. I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Dear Mr. Greenwood,

Please forgive the delay in answering your letter. It was given to me just as I was going on vacation and I am slow in catching up on my mail.

Your index cards are filed in the Genealogical section of the library and probably will be used as a query in the next journal in which space is available. Perhaps you will get a good response from this.

I am enclosing a membership application and some flyers on books available in Surry Co. for researchers. If you have not already joined, we would welcome your membership and any materials you care to send for our files. Perhaps someone would see it in the library and write to you.

Do you have THE HERITAGE OF SURRY COUNTY, NC" published in 1983? There is a story on your family in this by James E. Cockerham.

I will include a list of researchers you asked for in this letter.

I maintain an obit. and history file at home and if you send family group sheets to the association, send them to me and I will check my files for data before filing at the library to see if I have anything of interest to you. This way your letter will not escape my notice.

Thank you for your inquiry and good luck in your research,

I am working on the genealogy for my family and have come to an ancestor that was recorded as being married in Surry County. I have names, a marriage date and two of their eight children were also born there.

I would appreciate any information on them that you might have. If possible I would like to know where they originated from, birthdays and who their parents were.

I have listed below all the information I have gathered so far.

George Washington Greenwood married Elizabeth Reece in 1840 in Surry County, N.C. The two children born in Surry County were Sarah Greenwood - 1840 and Nancy Greenwood - 1842. The other six were born in Yadkin County N.C.

Anything you can send would be greatly appreciated. I have enclosed a self addressed envelope.

Sincerely,

Lisa Anderson

Dear Ms Anderson,

Your letter to the Mt. Airy Historical Society was forwarded to the Surry County Genealogical Association and given to me to answer.

You requested data on George Washington Greenwood and his wife Elizabeth Reece. There is information on the Greenwood name in this county but I have recently corresponded with a Mr. Thomas Greenwood whom I believe is working on your line and I think it would be to your advantage to correspond with him and then if there is anything you think we could help you with you could write to us again. His address: Thomas C. Greenwood III, 2313 Navajo Ave., Placentia, CA 92670. You might want to tell him that Agnes Wells referred you to him.

You may send queries to the association to be published in our journal. There is no charge for this. I will make a surname card for our files for you and place a copy of your letter in the vertical file. Perhaps someone will see this and write to you. We would appreciate any data you care to send for our family files. Address of association is on the flyer enclosed.

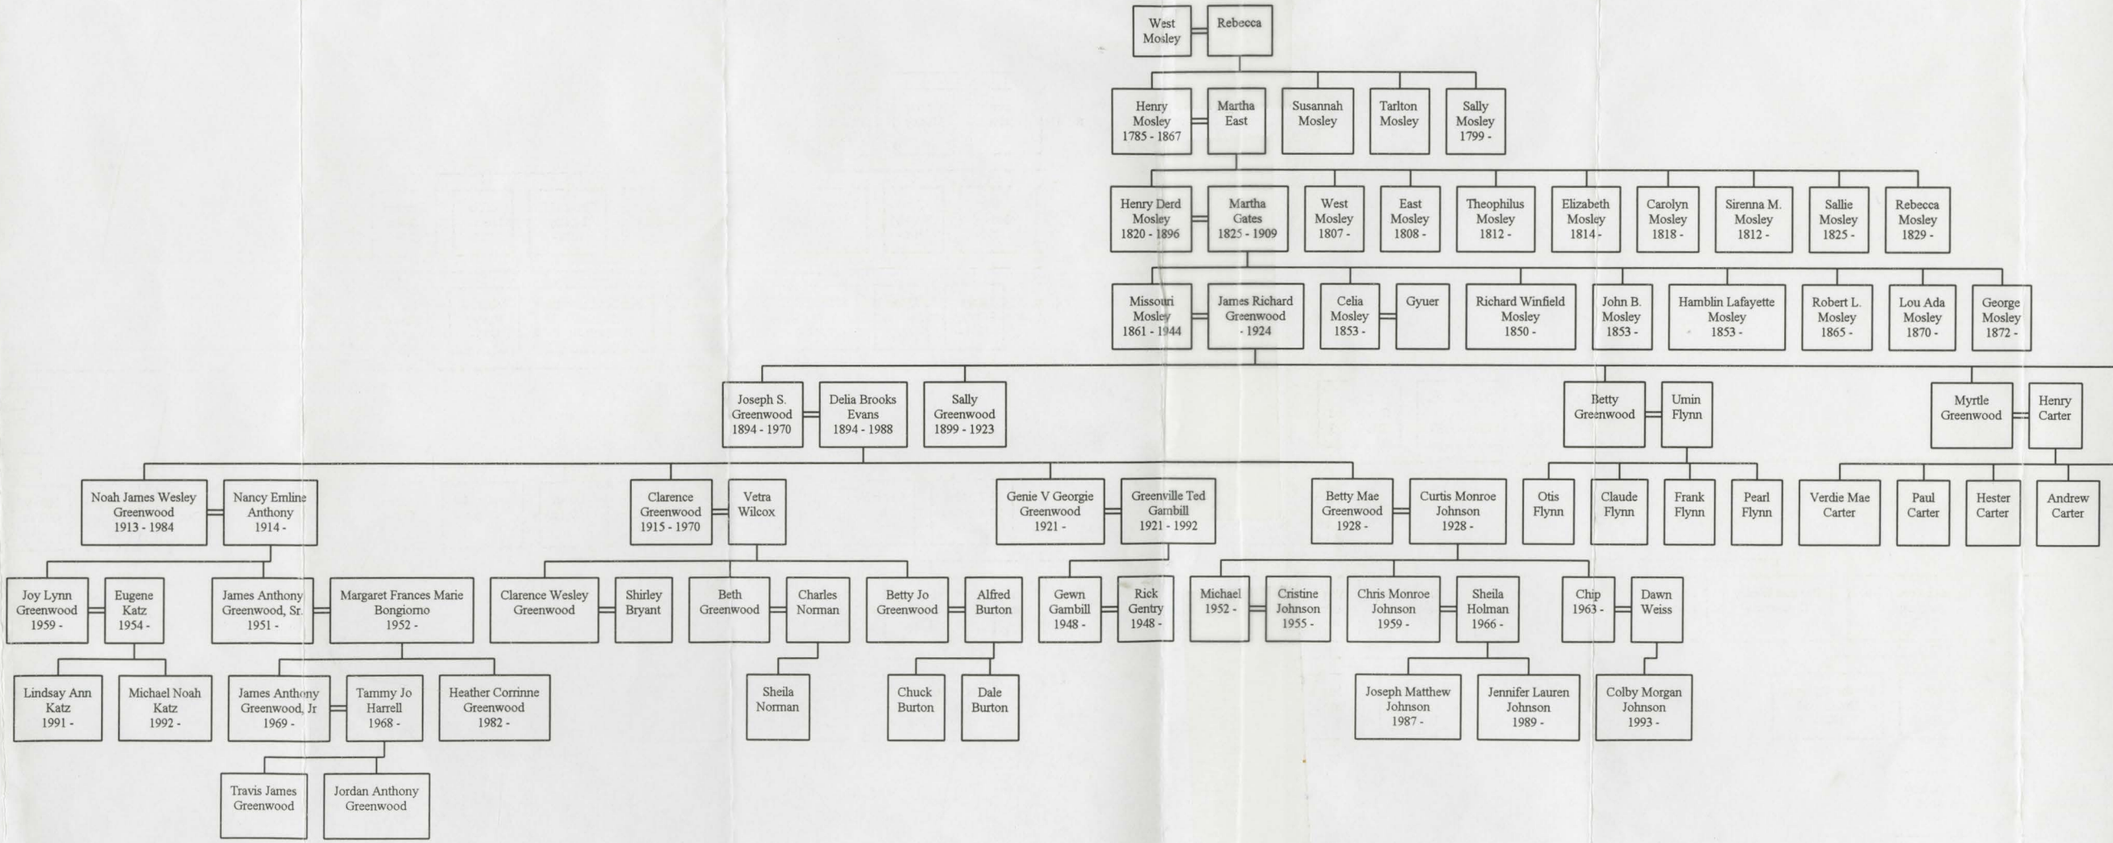

I am sending some flyers of Surry County books that have been published that may be of interest to you. There are Greenwood and Reece stories in the" Heritage of Surry County" book.

Good luck in your research,

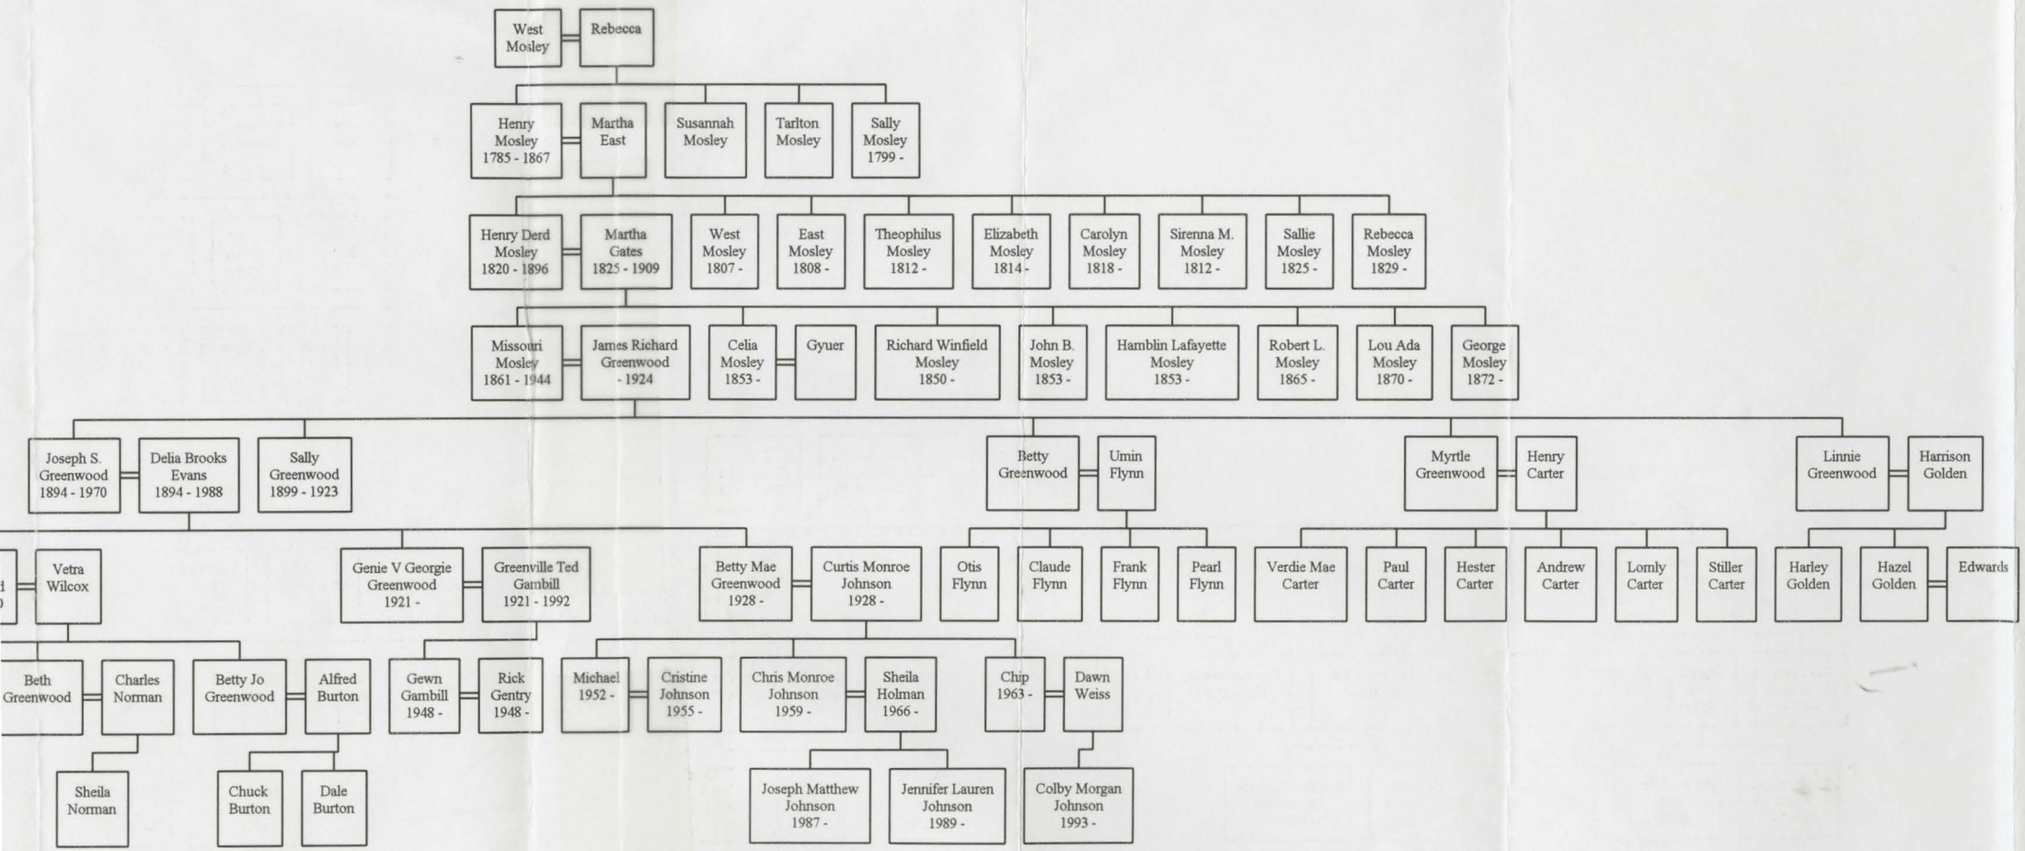

Mrs. Agnes M. Wells (member Surry Co. Genealogical Assoc'n)

We have always been interested in History and especially places in N.C. and the South that we should treasure. I have collected clippings for many years, and as I love to read many books (at home) of (places in N.C.) that I put away (clippings) on people and events. I am (83 yrs old Nov. 11) born 1894 (Grace) We were born in Surry Co. lived here on farm all our lives, near Elkin. I was a club girl, in 1915-16, when Mrs Jane Mc Kinney drove a horse & buggy to organize (Tomato club girls) before any 4-H started, she visited our home and schools in Surry Co. driving from Raleigh. We like most people at that time lived out in the country, went to one room, only 7 grade schools. My Father was a teacher, but died young man. He and a brother, he waited on (some sick) with (diphtheria) leaving mother with (3 little children). I enjoyed our home, my mother always worked at gardens and kept us busy helping at chores as she kept a good cow, hogs, chickens all had to

Their were 3 children, a brother between 2 sisters. I learned to work young and enjoyed our family. Her parents came from Va. during Civil War her father in Army. James about 1843; Caroline, born about 1845; Sophia, born about 1847; John, born about 1849; Martha Ann, born about 1854; And Sarah J. born about 1855. Records indicate that Jeanette was hospitalized with a mental condition and that she and John were divorced.

John chose Sarah Money for his second wife. She was born April 29, 1827 and is believed to be the daughter of William and Catherine Money. John and Sarah were the parents of sour children. Mari Naomi, born July 21, 1866, married Calvin Triplett. Susannah, born Sept. 15, 1867, married Michael Columbus Williams in 1882. Margaret, born Jan. 29, 1870, married Joel Triplett in 1886. Thomas Jackson, born Jan. 19, 1872, married Martha Jane Williams.

John owned a considerable amount of land in Wilkes, Surry and Yadkin Counties. He was concerned with the education opportunities available and hired a private tutor to ensure his children would receive a good education. His last years were spent in the home of his daughter in Wilkes County.

On Dec. 30, 1895, John Greenwood died. His wife, Sarah died on April 25, 1904. They are buried in the Williams Family Cemetery in Goshen.

The ancestor of these Greenwoods in believed to have come to America from London in 1635. There were two boys, John 16 years of age, and followed nine months later by Thomas, 15 years of age. It is thought they were descendants of John Greenwood, graduate of Cambridge University and a minister. This John, along with William Barrow, was hanged at Tyburn Prison in London in 1593 for his nonconformity to the teachings to the Church of England. This is substantiated by history in that these boys were examined on this before sailing to Jamestown. The family here in North Carolina may have descended from John, the older one.

Samuel Greenwood came to Surry County from Middlesex Co., Virginia. He fought in the Revolutionary War. He sold his property in Virginia in Nov. 1783 and came to Surry in 1784. He was married to Sebell Street, who was the daughter of Henry and Catherine Carlton Street of Essex County, Virginia. There marriage date is not known but they were married prior to the death of father in 1784. This death date has been used as a marriage date, by mistake, in some accounts.

Samuel was probably born before 1755 and died about 1809. Sebell is believed to have been born about 1750 to 1755 and died about 1832.

The following children were legatees when Samuel died: Bartlett who may have married Nancy Cody in 1806. Thomas who married Lydia Moore in 1806. John, born about 1784, married Polly Hurst. This family moved to Buncombe County. Mary, who married Ayres Hudspeth. Catherine, born about 1780 and married Robert B. Atkins in 1808, later married John York. Elizabeth (Betsy) married William Mickle in 1813. Anna married James Kid in 1816. James, born about 1780-90, married Sally Spencer in 1811. Patsy, born about 1792 married Jesse Johnson. Sebell born about 1790-1800 married Thomas Johnson in 1813. They moved to Warren County, Tennessee. Leah born about 1796, married Thomas Reece in 1818. Nancy born about 1798 married Joel Reece.

The descendants of Samuel were farmers, bankers, stock brokers, business and medical people. Dr. Bart Greenwood, a son of John, was on the staff of John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

THE GREENWOOD FAMILY

The Greenwoods came to America from London in 1635. There were two boys, John 16 years of age, and followed nine months later by Thomas, 15 years of age. We believe they were descendants of John Greenwood, graduate of Cambridge University and a minister. This John, along with William Barrow, was hanged at Tyburn Prison in London in 1593 for his nonconformity to the teachings to the Church of England. This is substantiated by history in that these two boys were examined on this before sailing to Jamestown. The family here in North Carolina descended from John, the older one.

The first Greenwood in North Carolina was Samuel. He had been living in Middlesex County, Virginia. He fought in the Revolutionary War with Washington at Valley Forge, and supplied goods and services to Army forces during that difficult winter.

Samuel came into Surry County February 1784, having sold his Virginia property in November 1783. He brought his second wife, Sebell Street, children by his first wife, and some slaves. It is believed they came in wagons, by way of Philadelphia where they joined others, and came over "The Great Wagon Road" from there into North Carolina. Samuel bought farm land on the South Yadkin River and lived there until his death before 1810.

John, son of Samuel and Sebell Street, and first child born in North Carolina, came to Buncombe County in 1809. He bought property on North Fork at the mouth of Martin's Creek, near Barnardsville. John had married Mary Polly Hurst in Surry County and they built a two-story log house here on North Fork. He raised his family here, consisting of three sons and two daughters. Our ancestor is Washington Greenwood and his children were James Hix, Charles Chiefus, Robert and Elizabeth.

The family were middle class and John brought some slaves from Surry County. One young female was buried in the Greenwood Cemetery and an inscription put on a nearby tree. They were always interested in education and Washington employed tutors to come to the home periodically to teach his children. Public schools in that area were not well established. The descendants of this John were farmers, bankers, stock brokers, business people, lumbermen, and one, Dr. Bart Greenwood was outstanding in medicine and on the staff of John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

See addtl's Co. Courthouse records

James Hix Greenwood was a lumberman and farmer and was referred to at this death by the newspapers as the "most outstanding farmer in Western North Carolina" for his work in restoring worn out land. He was called "the first scientific farmer" and was the first to use tile in low-lying land for drainage. He had traveled extensively and used the knowledge he acquired. About 1872 he made a two-year trip all over the West, and said many times he would not swap five acres near Asheville for all he had seen. Don't we wish he had kept a diary?

About 1890 James Hix operated several sawmills in Haywood County. He met and married Laura Grigsby of Del Rio, Tennessee. She was from a good family, her brother being the only doctor in that area. This marriage ended in divorce. He later married in 1898 Luella Ray of Buncombe County. Her father descended from one of five brothers from Ireland. Her mother was Jane Whittemore, daughter of George Whittemore, a well-to-do farmer. George Whittemore and his four brothers joined the Confederate Army at Hendersonville in 1863 when Lincoln sent out his call for 75,000 more volunteers for the Union army. These brothers were all at Gettysburg, and only three of them returned.

From this marriage there were three boys and three girls. The oldest son, Robert, died at six weeks. Each child except one was born in a house their father had built. He was progressive in everything and I guess you could say "ahead of his time."

Education was always emphasized and Gordon was the one who expresses this most. He attended State College at Raleigh for one term, and then to University of Illinois in depression years, receiving his degree and graduating with honors. He took advantage of the University of London when World War II ended taking some work there. Some of the awards given to him are as follows:

Kappa Tau Alpha, U. of Ill.; Member N.C. House, 16 years; Chairman Board of Commissioners, Buncombe County, 4 years; Voted outstanding N.C. Commissioner 1971-1972; Black Mountain Town Council 3 years; President Black Mountain Lions; Chairman Black Mountain Chamber of Commerce; Chairman N.C. House Appropriations Committee; Chairman N.C. House Higher Education; Appointed by Gov. Robert Scott. Member of Governmental Reorganizing Committee; 1980 Received Distinguished Service Award U. of N.C. at Asheville; 1980 Received Distinguished Alumni Award U. of N.C. at Asheville; Voted Outstanding Layman in Western N.C. by Phi Delta Kappa 1981; 1970 Black Mountain Evaluation Center named cottage for him; Vice Chairman N.C. Board of Higher Education, 5 years; 1971 Received N.C. 4-H Alumni Recognition Award.

The Greenwood men served their country in the Revolution, War of 1812, Civil War, World War I and II, and at Viet Nam. The families are civic minded and the women contributed in their own way to the good of communities in which they lived.

THE C.G. WILLIAMS FAMILY 1094

Columbus Glenn Williams was the youngest child of Michael Columbus and Susanna Greenwood Williams. He was born May 21, 1900. He attended a private school in North Wilkesboro. When he was only 16 years old his father died. He keenly felt the responsibility for the care of his mother. He remained on the farm and helped with this operation.

The farm was in a beautiful valley on the Yadkin River with large river bottoms that grew some of the best corn found anywhere. There was also good pasture land for cattle and horses to graze. This area is covered with water from the Kerr Scott Reservoir now. Large patches of watermelons were also grown. They were the sweetest, best melons you can possibly imagine.

Glenn grew to be a handsome, young man with wavy, brown hair and was a much sought after young man. His choice was Frances Agnes Jones, the daughter of Robert and Mollie Jones. They were married on April 5, 1923 by the Reverend Milton McNeil.

They built a home on the farm in Goshen and here they reared their two daughters:

Mary Susanna was born July 14, 1928. She attended W.C.U.N.C. and upon graduation married Louis Brown Dula, Jr. They live on a farm on the James River in Amherst Co., Va. They have three children: Louis Brown Dula III who now lives in California; Susanne, who is married to Bo Saunders and lives in Washington, DC; and Michael Williams Dula who graduated from Dartmouth College and is presently getting his Doctor's Degree at the Univ. of Va.

The other daughter, Nancy Ruth is written up in the J.Arnold Simpson family story.

Glenn enjoyed hunting in his younger years. Later, he found fishing to be an enjoyable sport. He especially enjoyed the cattle he grew on his farm.

C. Glenn Williams.

Frankie Jones Williams.

He was a very kind and generous man to all who knew him. He adored his grandchildren and visited them almost every day. One of his favorite gifts for them was a pony complete with cart. He was an honest man and trusted others.

It pained him deeply to see his beautiful farm flooded with water and on June 5, 1962 he died from a heart attack.

Frankie grew up in the Mt. Pleasant and Lewis Fork Communities. She attended Mt. View Institute and later Lenoir Rhyne College. She has been an outstanding teacher in Wilkes County. She started her teaching career in 1922 and taught every year but one until she retired in 1969. She probably has the longest teaching career of anyone in Wilkes County with her 46 years of teaching. She was a most dedicated person to her profession. During this career she taught the first through the fifth grades in a one teacher school at Goshen. She also has taught at Denny, Ferguson and North Wilkesboro.

Her other interest include playing the piano. At one time she was the organist in her church. She also taught Sunday School. She loves flowers and seems to have a green thumb as they respond to her touch.

She has a warm personality and is very devoted to her family. Many friends will attest how faithful she is in visiting and caring for those who are ill or in need.

She presently lives in her home in the Goshen Community.

JOHN BIDWELL WILLIAMS 1095

John Bidwell Williams, son of William Vance and Mary Ann Dula Williams was born in Iredell County 1892 and died 1959. Bid came to Wilkes County as a young man to work in the post office. Later he became conductor on the Watauga and Yadkin Railroad.

In 1919 he became secretary-treasurer of the North Wilkesboro Building and Loan Association. During that period he was also engaged in the insurance business and was a member of the Insurance Service and Credit Corporation.

Bid was associated with many organizations and civic groups. He helped organize The Wilkes Chamber of Commerce and was the first president.

He was a charter member and first secretary of the North Wilkesboro Kiwanis Club and later served as president. He was a Mason, member of Junior Order Knights of Pyhias, Dokies Club and First Baptist Church. He was a member for 24 years of North Wilkesboro School Board. He was also a leader in securing the 100-bed Wilkes General Hospital.

He married Susie E. Hutchens from Georgia. They had one daughter, Mary Margaret, who died at an early age. His wife, Susie, and three sisters, Nellie Powell, Jetta Dykstra and Della Holt are still living.

THE M.C. WILLIAMS FAMILY 1096

Michael Columbus Williams was born June 23, 1852 to Michael and Anne E. Boggs Williams. The family moved from Randolph Co. when Lum (as he was called) was about two years old in 1854. The farm they purchased on the Yadkin River is now covered by water from the Kerr Scott Reservoir.

Lum was not a large man in build. He was probably about 5'10" in height. In later years he had a moustache.

He married a beautiful young girl, Susanna Greenwood on Jan. 24, 1882. She was the daughter of John and Sarah Money Greenwood.

Susanna and Lum were the parents of six children. Walter J. was born April 5, 1883 and died when two years old on Aug. 25, 1885.

Ida Lily was born Nov. 10, 1884. She married Walter Blume Carlton Nov. 6, 1901. Their two daughters were named Sue and Agnes. Most of their married life was lived in Winston-Salem. Ida died Aug. 19, 1955.

Mary Anna (Mamie) was born Aug. 15, 1886. She married Dr. Frank H. Gilreath on Nov. 5, 1902. They had one son, Esmarch, who was head of the Chemistry Dept. of Washington and Lee University. Mamie died on Feb. 10, 1975.

Louis Michael was born Sept. 5, 1889. He remained unmarried and died Dec. 8, 1947.

Nannie Naomi was born Aug. 24, 1893. She graduated from the Univ. of NC in Greensboro (present name), taught school at Goshen and cared for her mother in her later years. She married Andy Roberts. She died Nov. 29, 1975 and was a much loved person by her nieces.

Columbus Glenn was born May 21, 1900. On April 5, 1923, he married Frances Agnes (Frankie) Jones. Glenn died June 5, 1962. They had two daughters, Mary Sue and Nancy.

Michael Columbus was adored by the grandchildren who knew him. Sue and Agnes Carlton remember visiting him on his farm each summer. He allowed them to pick their choice of his calves. When the calf was sold, the money was theirs to enjoy. He loved children and must have enjoyed this tradition as much as they did.

He had a good sense of humor and it was hard to get the best of him with a joke. He was an honest, honorable man, well thought of and respected in his community. He and his family belonged to the Methodist Church.

His wife, Susanna, was fairly tall and quite slender. She was rather quiet and a very gently and genteel lady. She was both considerate and thoughtful of others. Her daughter-in-law, who lived next door, is highly complimentary of her. She was very patient and even-tempered and was never heard to raise her voice.

Mr. and Mrs. M.C. Williams.

As M.C. died on Oct. 28, 1916, Susanna had quite a responsibility in looking after the large farm they owned. She was an excellent manager.

Esmarch Gilreath, her grandson who spent his life among highly educated and brilliant college professors, paid her a high compliment. When asked to describe her he replied, "She was the most intelligent woman that I have ever known."

As a grandchild who lived next door and only knowing her as a child would know her, I had seen her as a grandmother who enjoyed reading nursery rhymes and stories to my sister and me. She was truly a remarkable and courageous woman with a quiet, unassuming but dignified manner.

She died March 19, 1945 and both she and my grandfather are buried in the Williams Family Cemetery in the Goshen Community.

MICHAEL WILLIAMS FAMILY 1097

Michael Williams was born April 7, 1800 in Randolph County. He was the son of Daniel and Nancy E. Cole Williams and the grandson of William and Mary Williams and Stephen and Sarah Cole of Randolph County.

He married his first wife, Martha Miller in 1823. They had one son Jesse A. (1829-1879) before Martha's death.

On Oct. 12, 1842, Michael married again. He chose Evanna (Anna E.) Boggs as his second wife. She was born Nov. 15, 1814, the daughter of John and Martha Mendenhall Boggs. She was named Evanna for her grandmother, Evanna Springer (daughter of Uriah and Margaret Springer) who married John Boggs, Sr.

Michael and Evanna lived on the Uwarie River. Their first six children were born in Randolph and the last two were born in Wilkes. They moved to Wilkes in 1854. The farm they purchased in the Goshen area must have reminded them of the one they had left. They had moved due to an out break of malaria and thought Wilkes would be healthier for their family.

Their children were Nancy Emily (July 24, 1843 — June 30, 1905); Benjamin Franklin (Oct. 28, 1844 — April 19, 1921) married Mary Ann Barlow; Sarah Mahaley (Aug. 28, 1846 — Feb. 8, 1913); Martha Jane (Aug. 14, 1848 — Mar. 3, 1924) married Thomas Greenwood; Daniel Whitson married Mary Powell; Michael Columbus (June 23, 1852 — Oct. 28, 1916) married Susanna Greenwood; Mary Elizabeth (1854) married first Jones Roberson, second Robert Shuping; Susan married Callaway Parlier.

Michael died at the age of 74 on Nov. 9, 1874. Anna died at the age of 79 on Jan. 8, 1894. Both are buried in the Williams Family Cemetery at Goshen.

Family photograph
