Constitution.

1st. This shall be called Salem Baptist Church of Christ.

2. ond Any person may become a member of this church, Who shall give evidence of genuine conversion, and shall be immersed in water upon a profession of this faith, by a legal administration:

3. ird This church shall be an independant body so far as her internal rights are concerned. and shall be subject to no laws save those enacted by our Lord Jesus Christ:

4. th The ordinances of the gospel shall be duly administered in this church, and the discipline strickly executed, Which is laid down in the New Testament.

5. th Every member of this church shall have the rite of franchise, and a majority shall rule in all cases, not involving the fellowship of the church:

6. th This church shall be governed by a proper decorum:

7. th The church shall have a Deacon or Deacons, and a regular Moderator, chosen by the majority of the church.

8 th No member can be granted a letter without a just cause, and also tell to what church they wish to unite with and ols that all letters granted shall be limited.

Articles of Faith of Baptist.

1. St. We believe in one only true and living God. Head. the Father. Son. and Holy ghost. and that the three are one.

2. ond. We believe that the contents of the Old and New Testament. are the words of God. and the only rule of our faith and practice.

3. ird. We believe that Christ died for the sin of the whole world.

4. th. We believe in election by grace.

5. th. We believe that sinners. are justified in the sight of God. only by the Atonement of Christ.

6. th. We believe the Saints persevere in grace and never fall. finally away.

7. th. We believe that Baptism and the Lords Supper are ~~of~~ ordinances belonging to the church and was instituted by Jesus Christ. While on earth and true believers only are subject of these ordinances and we believe the true mode of baptism is immersion.

8 th. We believe. in the resurrection of the dead and a sinners judgement.

9. th We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternally. and the joy of the righteous eternal.

10. th. We believe that no minister have a right to administer the ordinance of the gospel only such. as have been regularly set apart. By the church and comes under the hands of a Presbytery.

We whose names are found on this church book. have given our selves to the Lord.
We agree to give our selves to each other by the will of God: We agree to strive togeather for the faith of the Gospel. We agree to watch over each other for Good, We mutually promise to assist each other in fervance through this world and for that purpose we promise to attend all our church meetings whether stated or called when in our power to do so. We agree to do all we can for the extention of the Redeemers Kingdom and for the spreading of the Gospel according as the Lord has and continues to prosper us.
