ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF

PILOT MOUNTAIN HIGH SCHOOL

PILOT MOUNTAIN, NORTH CAROLINA

Volume 6

As we face the unpredictable future, we are aware of the obstacles and pitfalls that await the approach of our unwary steps. In order to face these difficulties and cope with them we realize the value of calling upon the strengthening experiences of our past to give us courage, fortitude, and wisdom. Since our fate and destiny lie so close before us, it is the hope of the staff that we may be able to present in this volume a panorama of events which, when summoned to memory, will serve as a firm foundation for our ensuing efforts. We, the staff of the 1952 "KNOB WHISPERS", wish to present in black and white some of our experiences at Pilot Mountain High School in the hopes of always retaining the true Pilot Mountain spirit, as faithful, brave, and patriotic citizens of America.

DEDICATION

For nine consecutive years Grady R. Motsinger has been with us—welcoming, encouraging, advising. We will not soon forget his friendly greeting with our name as we passed on the walk, the intimate chats that never failed to end on a constructive note. Then there were the dreams, the hopes, the plans. We watched them grow from visions to blueprints of a new high school building. With profound admiration for his resourcefulness, his sense of fair play, and his deep human understanding, the Senior Class of Pilot Mountain High School dedicates the 1952 edition of Knob Whispers to Mr. Motsinger.

The Pilot Mountain Football "Terrors", a group of inexperienced underclassmen, turned in a successful season by being undefeated on their home field. One of the victories was over Cobb Memorial School of Ruffin, North Carolina, the runner-up in the district play-off for the State Championship. With a season record of three wins and four losses, the prospects for next season look bright.

FIRST TEAM

The 1951-52 squad consisted of the previous year's junior varsity. They turned in a remarkable season in that by the latter part of the season the Terrors were considered one of the better ball clubs. Since all of the players will return for at least one more year of basketball, next year should be a winning year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD

FIRST TEAM

A vastly improved team would be the best description for this year's Terrorettes. Toward the latter part of the season they proved themselves capable of winning over their strongest foes. Next year should bring forth one of the best ball clubs in the Northwest, as none of the players will be lost by graduation.
