Hi Wilma, I am forwarding this message to you. I got some software to hopefully help me get my documents out of the recycle bin. I was in Raleigh all day yesterday at the NC Archives. I had a last minute invitation to go so I went. I will have the journal stuff to you by Friday. I sure hope that I find it - thanks Judy

My grt grandparents lived in Mt. Airy briefly during the early part of the 20th century, roughly sometime between 1905 and 1907. My grt grandfather was probably associated with the lumber or timber industry. His name was Irving B. Clement, his wife was Louese Parkhurst Clement and he had two children, Edith Louese and Raymond Irving.

They left Mt. Airy in either 1907 or early 1908, moving to Alabama.

Are there any city directories, phone books, indexed newspapers, etc., which might justify my visiting Mt. Airy? I'm only a couple of hours, at most, away.

Thank you very much.

The Clement name is familiar to us. There are several Clement families now living in Mount Airy, NC (Surry County) and also Patrick County, VA. We could not find any information that was available on your g-grandfather Irving B. Clement. The only Clement in the Surry 1900 Census was Wm. O. Clement, carpenter, listed in the household of his brother-in-law Joseph F. Booker and wife Anna V. William was born in April 1872. He was 28 and single in 1900. He and his parents were born in VA. (Anna V. Clement married Joseph F. Booker 13 Dec 1891 in Westfield, NC (Surry Co.). She was from Patrick County and dau. of James and Eliza Clement. There are several Clement family histories in the Patrick County Heritage Book. A very early Clement in Surry County was Johnson Clement. His will dated in 1848 is found in Surry Co. (4:312). He could be an ancestor. As to your questions on city directories, phone books, newspapers, etc., we know of no city directories during the 1907 and 1908 period. The closest one we have to that period is 1913-1914 and no Clement was found in the alphabetical listing of residents of Mount Airy. You might find information at the Mount Airy Library or our research room at Surry Community College on microfilm of the local newspaper during that period. They are not indexed. In our genealogical journals we print marriages, deaths, and local interest items from the papers but we're just now doing 1904. We are not aware if the Mount Airy Library has old phone directories. Did the entire family move to Alabama. Did Irving have brothers that stayed in Surry County or Patrick Co.? We would be interested in having information on this family that moved away if you are willing to share. We will look further at our records at our research room the next time we're in Dobson to see if we can find anything on this family. We are sorry that we cannot help you more at this time.
