HUSBAND NOTES: Godfrey L. ISAACKS (20)

General<sup>1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8</sup>: I have never seen Godfrey's middle name spelled out or even a suggestion of what it might be. I'm wondering if it could be "Larkin" after his grandfather?

On the 1850-80, 1900-10 census of Surry, (in 1910 was in household of his son Charles). Godfrey was the 7th generation Isaacks in America. His military records are in the National Archives, Wash.DC. He enlisted in Sept. 1862 in Col. Donigan's 74th Reg, NC Militia but was "found incompetent of performing the duties of a soldier because of chronic rheumatism", signed by D. A. Vogt, Asst. Surgeon C. S. A. and approved by Major Peter Mallett. As the plight of the South worsened, Godfrey enlisted Nov 1, 1864 at Dobson, Surry County seat, was accepted and served in the 28 Regt. NC Troops, Co A, as a private. The "Roster of N.C. Troops, 1861-1865", Vol. III says he was wounded at Petersburg and was at Appomattox for the surrender at the end of the Civil War. He had a Parolled Prisoner's Pass and was allowed to return home. We have the original pass and the Oath of Allegiance he swore to the United States. Copies of his military papers have been donated to the National Park Service Museum at Appomattox Courthouse National Park Battlefield Site in VA. Under the Laws of 1901..."for the relief of certain Confederate Soldiers...." Godfrey was eligible to apply for a pension from the State of NC and did so on the 22 of June 1904, when he swore under oath neither he nor his wife owned property assessed at more than $500.00. He said he was "trubled vary mutch with rheumatism contracted by laying out on the ground, also smothering around the heart and choaking spells. A good deal of my time my arms & knees is so sore that I can't do anything like work...cannot work one fourth of my time" Dr J. M. Reece agreed that Godfrey was not able to do any work and the application is marked "Approved" although no amount is noted. The County Pension Board was composed of J. G. Burrus, W. G. Foy and C. W. Bunker. The Justice of the Peace who took his deposition was I. A. "Ike" Eldridge who married John and Emmie Bryant Nov 20, 1904. Emmie was Godfrey's granddaughter.

We have a picture of his grave marker. The cemetery is small, family owned (1994) and still maintained (in 1994) by the Ray family. Also buried here are W. Tryon Ray and his 2nd wife Millie Caroline Walker, parents of Ellen Ray and Charles Wesley Ray, who were married to Godfrey and Pherabe's children Adolphus and Margaret.

Godfrey's wife and his sister Nancy's husband were siblings, children of Christly Willey and Margaret Snow. Both Godfrey and Nancy were first cousins to their spouses.

Godfrey and his brother Nathan Jackson Isaacks were in the same military unit during the Civil War.

Other papers among Godfrey's effects are tax receipts, redeemed notes, and a "Tax in Kind" receipt given by the Confederate government for grain requisitioned for the Army.

Inscription on gravemarker: "He was faithful to every duty".

WIFE NOTES: Pharabe (Elizabeth?) WILLEY (21)

General<sup>9,10,11,12</sup>: 1850-80, 1900 census of Surry. We have a picture of her grave marker in the Ray family plot at Poplar Springs and the receipt for purchase of the stones.

We have a family picture of Godfrey and Pherabe and their four children, taken probably when the children were in their late teens.

Pharabe's brother J. Wesley Willey married Godfrey Isaacks' sister Nancy Palma Isaacks.

Inscription on gravemarker: "Gone But Not Forgotten"

CHILD NOTES: W. Adolphus "Dolph" ISAACKS (10)

General<sup>13,14,15,16</sup>: Wm. H. Wolfe, J.P. officiated a the marriage of Dolph and Ellen at the home of Ellen's father, W. Tryon Ray. Witnesses were A. H. Isaacks, Dolph's brother; G. W. Ray, Ellen's brother and a third person whose signature on the copy is illegible.

We have Dolph and Ellen's wedding picture.

When Dolph and Ellen were married, they built a log cabin in Surry Co near Zephyr, which until about 1990 was still owned by the Isaacs family, although added to and modernized. The cabin had a large, no mortar, rock chimney which in 1994 was still standing straight and strong as was the cabin hidden behind additions and siding. Dolph had hesitated to buy land when they were first married, but did so finally at Ellen's insistence. He said, "I might not be around to help you pay for it". "Then I'll work and pay for it myself if I have to", was her reply. Unfortunately, Dolph was right and died only ten years after they were married. Ellen managed to keep the land and before she re-married in 1908, she legally divided the land among her children.

Adolphus "Dolph" and his only brother , Allen, died during a typhoid epidemic. They were the 8th generation of Isaacks in America. Dolph was known to be exceedingly strong, he could carry a 100 lb. sack of grain under each arm.

We have two samples of Dolph's handwriting, a full signature as a witness on a promissory note, dated May 30, 1879, and another note, dated Sep 20, 1880, signed W. A. Isaacks.

Dolph is on the 1860-80 census in the household of his father

Dolph's death date of May 1893 on his and Ellen's gravemarker (erected in 1950 when Ellen died) is obviously wrong, as there is her petition for widow's year's support dated March 1893 in the Surry Co courthouse. The date should probably be 1892.

Dolph's sister, Margaret, married Charles Ray, brother of Ellen.

Samuel Isaacs
S. 5800
BA-J/AWF

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Samuel Isaacs of North Carolina, who you state was made a Colonel in 1782, was taken prisoner and sent to England, later exchanged and died in South Carolina, that he had a son, Samuel, who served under his father in the Revolutionary War.

The Revolutionary War records of this office have been searched and no claim for pension found based upon the service of a Colonel Samuel Isaacs.

The record of a Samuel Isaacs has been found, who served in Colonel Isaacs' North Carolina regiment, and he stated that this Colonel Isaacs was his father.

The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in pension claim, S. 5800, based upon the service of Samuel Isaacs in the Revolutionary War.

Samuel Isaacs (the name is also shown Isaaks) was born in the year 1759 in Frederick County, Virginia. The given name of his father was not shown, and there is no reference to his mother.

Samuel Isaacs moved from Virginia to the District of Ninety-Six, South Carolina, and while residing in said District, he enlisted sometime in September, 1776, and served as a private in Captain Wade's company and in Colonel Henderson's Sixth South Carolina regiment, and continued in the service nine months. He served in 1778, four months in Captain Killgore's company, Colonel McCreery's South Carolina regiment, and was in the Expedition to Florida. He enlisted in the summer of 1780, served three months in Captain Chew's company, Colonel Jones' regiment, was in several skirmishes with the Tories, and in an engagement on Pacolet River.

The soldier, Samuel Isaacs, moved to Wilkes County, North Carolina, and served three months in Captain John Beverly's company of cavalry in Colonel Isaacs' North Carolina regiment, he stated that he could not recollect the year in which this service was performed. He served three months in Captain Parsons' company, ranging through the country in pursuit of Tories, had several engagements and took some prisoners.

He moved to Pendleton County, South Carolina, and volunteered in the fall of 1787, served two years as spy in Captain John Norwood's company, under General Anderson; and served six months as spy in Captain Welbourne's company.

He was living in 1788 in Franklin County, Georgia, and in 1807, moved to Lincoln County, Tennessee. He was allowed pension on his application executed October 23, 1833, then living in Lincoln County, Tennessee.

Samuel Isaacs married during the War of the Revolution, about 1777, and he stated that his home in Franklin County, Georgia, in 1788 was destroyed by the Indians, but his wife and her children made their escape; names of wife and children were not stated and there are no details as to his marriage.

Samuel Isaacs' father, the Colonel Isaacs under whom he served, had been taken prisoner prior to this service and carried to England and later exchanged.

The papers on file in this claim contain no further data in regard to his father.

Very truly yours

A. D. HILLER

THE ISAACS IN AMERICA

In 1618 a George Isacke (Isaac) reprieved at Middlesex Sessions, to be transported to Virginia B.P.A. Also, a Timothy Howse was apprenticed to a John Isaacs in Virginia for 5 years. This is from BOOKS OF EMIGRANTS 1661-1699. So from this information, we know that an Isaacs was already in America.

In 1718, a land grant to a Roger Mason for 214 acres in New Corrituck on the North Side of Pamlico Sound and the East side of Isaacs Bay in North Carolina. So it is likely that there were Isaacs settled in the Coastal area of North Carolina already, hence, "Isaacs Bay." Many times the area was named after the settlers living there.

According to the VIRGINIA REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORDS by Gavis Marcus Brumbaugh, Land Warrants were issued to a Benjamin Isaacs, John Isaacs and Col. Elijah Isaacks for their service in the war. This would be in the 1780's. Col. Elijah Isaacks received an invalid's pension for serving in the Militia, Salisbury District, during the Revolutionary War. Note: The different spelling of Isaacs, Isaacks, etc. Later, many families with the name Isaacks changed the spelling to Isaacs and tracing these through records can be confusing.

After tracing Col. Isaacks history and finding information in the Wilkes Co. Genealogy Society Magazine and The Wilkes County Heritage Book, Art. 370, it seems this is the most likely possibility for our Isaacs lineage.

This Isaacs story begins in Fredericks County, Virginia. The will of Samuel Isaacks dated Dec. 4, 1749. He named two sons, Samuel, Jr. and Elisha and daughters Margaret Isaacks Sueter and Mary Isaacks Hill. His land was located on the North side and South side of the Great Road near Ashbey's Ferry. Samuel, Jr., died in 1759 or early 1760. His children were:

1. Godfrey
2. Elijah sold his land and headed south to North Carolina.
3. Jane
4. Rebecca
5. Mary
6. Eliazbeth

Elijah Isaacks moved to Wilkes County, North Carolina and settled in the Yadkin River area near the Mulberry Fields. Elijah's name appears on the Committee for Safety for Surry County, N. C. He took the oath as Justice of the Peace in what is now Wilkes County on March 2, 1778. He served in the North Carolina Militia as a Colonel during the Revolutionary War. He was wounded and taken prisoner at Camden on Aug. 16, 1780 and held until July of 1781 before he was exchanged. As a result of his service he was granted land and settled along the Yadkin River.

During the years following the Revolutionary War, Col. Isaacks, was involved in many land transactions, either as the selling party or witnessing purchases between other parties.

Oct. 1786 Elijah Isaacks, Esq. of Franklin County, GA, to William Lenoir 20 pounds 400 acres. S side of Yadkin River adj. Wm. Guest & Tate's old place & McCorkle, Barton. Land Grant said Isaacks by State, N.C. Nov. 9, 1784 wits/James Fletcher, Richard Allen. s/Elijah Isaacks

Jan 25, 1785 Between John Barton, Esq. & William Lenoir 40 pounds 70 ac. S. side Yadkin N. Corners Lenoirs Fort Place Tract Bartons back line cond. line with Elijah Isaacks, Esq.

Feb. 27, 1784 Between Elijah Isaacks and Thomas Harbin 500 pounds 400 ac. S. side Yadkin River & both sides Beaver Creek. Granted Elijah Isaacks by State Oct. 23, 1782 s/Elijah Isaacks & Sarah Isaacks

Another sale of land to Gen. Wm. Lenoir read: Oct. 5, 1785 Between Elijah Isaacks & Wm. Lenoir 200 pounds 150 acres N. side Yadkin River Demans line s/Elijah Isaacks

On Oct. 6, 1785 Between John Dier (Dyer) & Benjamin Coffey 300 pounds for 200 acres both sides of Yadkin River bounded by James Coffey, Michael Israel, Thomas Coffey & James Dier (Dyer) being land John Dier bought off James Dier & Col. Elijah Isaacks s/John Dier

We also see that Samuel Isaacks, son of Elijah sold land. Nov. 18, 1783 Samuel Isaacks to Frances Bishop 125 pounds for 70 acres N. side Yadkin River and S. side Buffalow Creek adj John Brown, Wm. Lewis (land gr. Sam'l Isaacks from Lawrence Ross March 14) s/Samuel Isaacks w/Elijah Isaacks, w/Wm. Lenoir, George Hume

Col. Isaacks started selling off his land about 1783 and 1784. some he sold to William Lenoir.

From a land grant recorded Nov. 9, 1784 in the same area where Col. Elijah and his son Samuel Isaacks owned land, we see a William Isaacs also owned land. (Different spelling?)

After the war Elijah sold his North Carolina property and moved to Franklin Georgia where he purchased land in 1785. In 1790 he is listed on the South Carolina Census in Pendelton County. He lived there until his death in 1799. His son Samuel was the executor of his will.

Samuel Isaacks, was born in Frederick County, Virginia, in 1759. His father was Colonel Elijah Isaacks of Wilkes County North Carolina. He lived in N.C., S.C. and GA. He first joined the American Army in Sept. 1776. The year before he married and had twin sons born Feb. 11, 1775. He named the sons Elijah and Elisha. He states that he served for two years as a spy for the Americans against the Indians. He served under his father at least one term. He was discharged by Gen. McDowell at Quacker Meadows in Burke County, N.C. He also told that in 1788 he lived in Franklin County, GA.

At least four of Samuel's, children were identified, but there are believed to be more:

1. Elisha and Elijah b 2-11-1775 (one account 1770?)
2. Mary
3. George
4. Believed to be another set of twins (girls)

Elijah m Ester Donaho and moved to Pike Co. Miss. then 1-10-1822 to Texas. They lived near the Neches River. They had 10 children. Elijah died Nov. 1, 1859 after a fall.

Elisha m a Sarah from Virginia. Elisha chose to live in Surry County, North Carolina. He settled on the Reedy Branch of Mitchell River. He appears on the tax list of 1815 and others. Note: The descendants of Elisha Isaacks are some of the families that changed the spelling of their name to Isaacs.

From Article 372 Wilkes County Heritage; He had the following children:

1. Joseph b 1787 d 1860 m Frances Norman
2. Rachel b 1794 d ? m Andrew Willey
3. Elizabeth b 1802 d ?
4. Samuel b 1805 d 1883 m Nancy Snow
5. Agga b 1807 d 1850 m William Norman
6. Nancy b 1809 d. ?
7. Jessie b ? d ? m Polly Smith in 1822
8. Ashley b 1816 d. ?

Elisha's estate was settled in 1840. Sources, Isaacks Wills, Frederick Co. VA Rev. Roster of North Carolina Soldiers, Draper Collection at UNC, Wilkes Co. N.C. Deeds 1779-1926. State of Tenn. Lincoln County, Pleas & Quarter Ct. Recorder. N.C. State Archives. Given by Roberta C. Isaacs to Surry County Heritage Article 370.

Considering the time, location and other circumstances, it would be most reasonable to look for our direct lineage from this family. With Samuel b 1759 or William b ? and possibly the son of Col. Elijah Isaacks, as the probable father of Richard Isaacs, the father of James, Richard and Solomon of Cove Creek.

The Jersey Settlement Church, a colony of Baptists, moved from New Jersey and settled in Rowan County, (now Davidson) N.C. sometime around 1747 to 1755. It was near the Yadkin River opposite Salisbury, according to A HISTORY OF WATAUGA COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA, pg.87.

The Isaacks families were Baptists and perhaps Elijah Isaacs heard of this settlement in North Carolina and that is why he chose to move there. He son Samuel was born in Frederick County, Virginia in 1759 but we know they were in North Carolina by the 1770's. The land office in the Yadkin area was opened in 1771.

AVERY COUNTY HERITAGE, VOL.II states that Richard Isaacs came from the Salisbury area up to Morganton then to the Cove Creek area where he settled. So we can speculate that ties to this family would be strong in time, location, religion, etc. More research is needed to link these families. We are still looking for the connection for the first Richard and Emsley Isaacs, Sr.

In 1790, the first Federal Census was taken and we have a Richard Isaacs in Watauga County, North Carolina at that time. This is the Richard Isaacs listed in AVERY COUNTY HERITAGE VOL. II as the most likely direct line for our family in North Carolina. The 1800 North Carolina Census shows an Elisha Isaacs, the son of Col. Elijah Isaacks in Surry County, a John Isaacs in Rowan County, and a Richard Isaacs in Ashe County, the latter being most likely our Richard Isaacs. Ashe, Watauga, Avery, and Wilkes Counties were divided from Surry and Rowan originally and you should consider times and county divisions when researching these families. In 1809, a Caleb Isaacs sold property to a Benjamin Dugger in Bushy Fork in the Yadkin Elk Area. The first four settlers with land grants in the Watauga County area were, Vanderpools, Isaacs, Dyers, and Duggers.

 5. Richard b. Aug., 15, 1847

Later, we have a Noah Eggers, son of Joel Eggers and Sarah Wilson, (Grandson of Landrine,) m. Lillie Ann Isaacs dau. of Richard Isaacs and Lily Swift. Noah and Lilly Ann's children:

1. Patterson Young b. 6-29-1869
2. Emsley Robert b. 12-31-1870 d. 11-14-1925
 (First time we note an Emsley in these families, even though it is in the Eggers it is probably significant because of the relationship to Richard and Lillianna.)
3. Suzy Jan b. 4-7-1868 d. 1869

After Noah's death, the widow and sons returned to Watauga Co. where Emsley married Lucinda Johnson Nov. 7, 1889.

From the WATAUGA COUNTY CENSUS of 1850, we have Richard Isaacs, Jr. age 56 farmer owns 300 acres. His wife Lillianna Swift Isaacs age 50. There was an Anna Smith age 19 living with them. Mary was 22, ? 19, Richard Jr.. 18, James 16, Noah 14, Lilly Ann 12, Jane 10.

We know that Emsley Isaacs, Sr. married Jane Aldridge who was born in 1824. It could be possible that Emsley was already out of this household by the time they took this census, or that number 2 which was illegible on the film age 19, was possibly Emsley. Of course, we're still assuming that Emsley was the son of Richard.

For the same census, we also have Solomon and Sarah Isaacs he was 53 and she was 42, his second wife, with a farm of 230 acres. Son Hugh was 11, ? 8, Martha 6, Solomon, Jr. 5 and Richard 3.

There was also a John Isaacs, age 36 b. 1814 and his wife Sarah age 22, and their children Elizabeth b. 1846, Rachel b. 1848, and Richard b. 1845. This is most likely the son of James Isaacs b. 1791 and his wife Rachel Reese Isaacs. Another note of interest here was a will published in THE ASHE COUNTY BOOK 1799-1910. James Isaacs, March 13, 1847 names his wife Rachel sons James, Jr., John and Richard, daughters, Rachel, Sarah and Rebecca Norris.

Emsley Isaacs, Sr., our direct lineage, was probably born around 1820 and he married Jane Aldridge b. 1824, daughter of James Aldridge and Betsy Calloway.

Emsley Isaacs, Sr. and Jane Aldridge Isaacs were married on August 9, 1841. Jane was born 1824 and died July 4, 1903. Emsley must have died pretty young because after his death, Jane married Perrin Daniels, Sr., whose wife had also died. Then after Perrin died, she married Johnny Shell and later after his death she married John Calhoun. No Children were born by Shell or Calhoun. (Note the naming of Emsley and Jane Isaacs' children especially Richard and Lilly Ann, which are probably named after Emsley's father and mother.) Their children:

1. Elizabeth (Betsy) Isaacs b. 8-10-1842 d. 1-6-1932
m. Byard Benfield II b. 1-22-1837 d. 8-13-1909
d. 8-13-1909
2. Richard Isaacs b. 8-15-1844 d. 2-13-1918 m. Jane Johnson
3. Lilly Ann b. 1845 d. 1935 m. John Vance
4. Emsley Isaacs, Jr. b. 5-5-1848 d. 7-16-1920 m. Lydia Carpenter
b. 2-25-1845 d. 1-27-1940

Rev. Emsley Isaacs, Jr. and Lydia Carpenter Isaacs are our direct lineage. Lydia (Liddie), was a sister to Jacob Carpenter (Uncle Jake) of Three Mile. Her parents were William Carpenter and Betsy Wilson. The Rev. Emsley Isaacs, Jr., and Lydia were separated toward the end of their marriage. Lydia is buried in the Daniels Cemetery in Avery County. Emsley or Emms was buried in the Buck Mountain Cemetery (Buck Mt. Road, Carter County, Tennessee).

Rev. Emsley Isaacs, Jr., and Lydia Isaacs children:

1. Charlie E. b. 1-8-1870 d. 1-10-1879
2. Cordelia H. b. 12-12-1871 d. 1-11-1879

10. Julie Ann b. 9-22-1887 d. 12-20-1888

Of the ten children, Emsley and Lydia raised only four, the others succumbing to childhood diseases. Aaron Westley Isaacs is our direct lineage and he married Martha Alice Ashley, daughter of Larkin and Sarah Osborn Ashley. They lived in Glenwood, Avery County, N.C., just outside of Marion, N.C.

Aaron and Martha (Mattie) Ashley Isaacs had 10 children:

1. Charlie McCoy (Coy) b. 6-24-1898 m. Mary Turbyfill
2. Martin Brown b. 2-27-1900 d. 6-21-1987 m. Myrtle Arnett

Good Morning ladies:

I have picture! More pictures. These pictures were sent to me by Dianne (Amburn) Holder. Enjoy!

The second picture is of (Lacy) Alexander Simmons and wife, Celia Jane Mays (Mayes?) and children, Sarah Ellen, John Wesley, and William Henry Sampson. Dianne has the last names spelled MAYS. This picture along with the third picture will appear in the January '08 newsletter. The third picture is of Celia and her 8 living children at the time. They had 9 children. One died at age 1. There are more. This is enough to put in one e-mail. As soon as I can edit the others and identify all the people in them, I will send.

Dear Emily,

Thank you, thank you for writing to me. I had just mentioned to my husband that I hadn't received a single reply from my query in the "Virginia Gen" and the next day your letter came.

I'm thrilled to death with the picture of Godfrey and Ferebee altho I don't know where he fits in. A cuz'n I'm sure. I had the information on him with all his children, and he had a passle of them. I will copy the picture and share with some of my other cuz'ns I have found thru research.

I was visiting my sister and brother in southwest Va. where I was raised and my brother from Ohio came down and we drove down to N.C. My ggg Fielding Isaacs was born in Wilkes in 1780 and I have everybody in line except his father and possible one other grandpa. At that time Elijah b 1730's, Godfrey his brother also born 1730's in Frederick Cty. Va. and Elijahs son Samuel all lived there. I have an Elijah who got married in Wilkes in 1780 and most of the info I have received says it was Elijah Sr. but I have some marriage records I got while down there and it shows Elijah, Jur. m Ann Robbins 18 Jan 1780. If I could get hold of his children he could be the one. If he is Jr. then Elijah had 2 sons but I couldn't find any info at the court house. They did not have tax records in Wilkes so we drove up to Dobson on the 3rd. day to research there. They had a copy of the "History of Surry Cty" and too much to copy so I had them send me a book. I still haven't finished reading the whole thing, but did glean some information from it on the Isaacs. Do wish I had been able to spend more time there in Surry.

Wilkes had a nice geneology library in the basement of the main library and we spent about six hours there. I met a woman at the old Wilkes jail who is related to the Sizemores so I have to send her the small amount of information I have on them.

Would loved to have gone thru the cemeteries in both counties and hopefully will get to do that some day. I'm planning on going to Raleigh in April hoping to find something in the archives that I couldn't find there.

I find on my marriage list that Levi Southerd m Sarah Isaacs 2 Sept 1851 by David R. Cockerham JP. My Isaacs also m into the Cockerham family.

I have subscribed to the Surry Gen. Soc. but have not received any copies yet. What is this "Simple Pleasure" you and another cuz'n have mentioned. I heard from a cuz'n in W. Va on my Kilgore and Porter families and she also read it in "Simple Pleasure. I have about all I need on them and on the Porters am back on one side to ~~xxx~~ 1100 in Ireland-Scotland.

Do you have a Mormon library near you? I spend a lot of time at the one over in Hemet and really love the computers. If you don't have one and have some names you want me to check just send me the list. Lots of people list their research material with the library in Salt Lake. I can take copies off the computer for 5¢ a copy which is cheap but if you copy from a book it is 25¢. I don't mind paying them because of all the info I get for free.

It sure is a small world when it comes to geneology. Some of my gen. friends say they hate me because I find so much stuff. I was up at the National Archives last year and struck up a conversation with an elderly lady and her daughter. The mother lived in Long Beach and the daughter in Colorado. When we went up to lunch I called them over to sit with us and we got to talking family names and we have the same 8th and 9th grandparents. This is on my Elam side. So it really is a small world. My husband says I can walk down any street in the country and meet a cuz'n. ha

Also, thanks for the deed or will. Poor thing. I'm glad she was dec'd before everything had to be sold. Widows were sure left in a bind weren't they? Gen. has sure opened my eyes to the way they had to live and work and what they did for us to make our country what it is today.

In the Surry county book re: the Isaacs, I sent for the addresses of the contributors of the Isaacs information. I got all of them except an Everett Mayes and he contributed most of the information on the Isaacs. A Patricia Isaacs Freeman also wrote on the Isaacs and I intend to write to her. There is a discrepancy somewhere as all the info I have says that Elijah and Elisha were b about 1775 to Samuel who was b 1754 in Va. He married either in S.C. or Georgia and his children were born there, not in Va. I don't think Elisha could have been a father at age 12. There are so many unanswered questions.

I have about 150 pages of Isaacs that was done by several Isaacs cousins that I have corresponded with since I began my research. I paid 20.00 for the list and it has been invaluable.

I'm planning on going to Raleigh in the spring to do some research at the archives there. My husband may go with me. I must write the Chamber of Commerce to find out what hotels are near and some golf courses for my spouse. He is not at all interested in my research so I may even go by my self. repeated myself here.

Well I guess I have carried on long enough. Again I want to thank you and I am enclosing a stamp to repay you. Stamps really go fast and they aren't cheap. Will be happy to pay for any copies you have that you think I may be able to use plus the postage and let me know if you need any Isaacs info. ~~Not~~ Another Isaacs cousin is researching a Nathan who went to Mo. or Ill. I wonder if Samuels Nathan could be the one? Will send her the information. I haven't checked my maps yet to see how far Raleigh is from Surry but will do so. With the holidays coming up I'm not going to get much research done. Even tho retired I still send out 100 Christmas cards and have to write in most of them.

My line in a nutshell

Samuel possible the immigrant

Samuel b 1700

Elijah or Godfrey?????????

The next one could be the son of either one or it could be one of them as they did marry more than once and had children at an older age.

Fielding Ashby b 1780	N.C.	m Sarah Harris
John Henry b 1807	Va.	M Eliz. Rebecca Johnson
Fielding Ashby b 1835	Va.	m Malvina Long-she died at age 102 in 1935
George Grant Isaacs b 1869	Va.	m Minnie Elam
Nannie Isaacs b 1893	Va	m Charles Harrison Bush
Helen L. Fritz b 1926	Va.	m Peter J. Fritz

Dear Hester

Thank you loads for the addresses of the contributors of "Isaacs" in the "Heritage of Surry County".

There was no listing for Everett Meyer who wrote several histories and wondered if he possibly passed away?

I'm in the process of writing to each of the ones listed - Fortunately I've learned to write one letter and address each person separately

I would like to join the association. Enclosed is my membership dues of 15.00 (Paid)

Are there cemetery records available?

In the book I find a lot of them listed but unfortunately I did not know this while there. There are also a lot of Isaacs in Ky.

Hopefully next year I will be able to go to Raleigh to the archives

Again thanks.

ISAACS

Mr. Thomas Alexander (T.A.) Isaacs, 69, of 102 Stonemoore Dr., Winston-Salem went peacefully home to be with the Lord Saturday, Feb. 17, 1996 at Baptist Hospital. He was born Sept. 6, 1926 in Surry County to Columbus Washington Isaacs and Rosa Mae Loflin Isaacs. T.A. graduated from Griffith High School, Florida Christian College in Tampa, Fla., and Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas. He served in the United States Navy from 1944 to 1946. During the majority of his adult life, he served the Lord by preaching for Churches of Christ in North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, Georgia and Texas. T.A. ministered and counseled individuals from various walks of life in the church as well as in the community. The Lord also directed him to an indigent movement in Spain through a contact made at the 1964-1965 New York World's Fair. He was instrumental in the conversion of many souls through this contact which eventually led to several mission trips to Spain. He ended his ministry at Linville Forest Church of Christ in Kernersville. A Praise Service will be held Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1996 at 2 p.m. at Linville Forest Church of Christ in Kernersville by Mr. A.W. Chism, Mr. Robert Darnall and Timothy C. Isaacs. Special music will be provided by Drew McKinnon and James Kisner will conduct choral and congregational singing. Interment will follow in Warner's

Chapel Church of Christ Cemetery in Clemmons. Surviving are his wife of 47 years, Helen Harper Isaacs of the home; a son, Timothy C. Additional Locals:

Uncle Pleas Kennedy, an old and highly respected citizen of North Dillon, who, of late has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. C. J. Light, of Light P.O. died at that place Wednesday at 9 p.m. and was buried at the Macedonia cemetery, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Kennedy leaves two sons, C. C. Kennedy of Meramec and W. P. Kennedy of Newburg, ex-commissioner of Phelps county and Mrs. C. J. Light to mourn his loss. The Home News extends sincere sympathy.

Teachers Institute                      News Clipping 1894

At the close of this session of the Teachers' Institute of Phelps county the following resolutions were passed:

Be it Resolved, That we tender to the School Board of the city of Rolla our thanks for the use of the public school building, who thereby show the interest they have in raising the standard of the public school teachers of our county.

Resolved, That we express our sympathy for Commissioner Kennedy in his late bereavement, the death of his mother.

etc.

Professor Kennedy is now employed by Kitchell and Scanlan. The Professor makes a good clerk and is always ready to wait on a customer.

Ms. Johnson: Even after proofreading my message before sending it to you, I made a major mistake. In paragraph three, the individual identified as William Norman ("Doc") should read George Emmette ("Emmette"). Emmette and his wife, Rosa, were living with my g. grandparents in 1910, and they stayed at the homeplace after Lish died in 1916.

I have been at this too long.

Ms. Johnson:

Shelby Puckett gave me your name as a possible resource for helping me find my g. grandmother. If you can help, I will be very grateful because I am fast running out of places to look and people to badger. If not, I will understand. Having said that, I will give you a summary of what I know about her and what I have done over the past 12+ months of my search.

Elizabeth Caroline ("Caroline") Calloway was born in Surry County on 10 June 1836 to the Rev. Samuel Ferree and Elizabeth Weathermon Calloway. She married Elisha Henry ("Lish") Isaacs (spelled "Isaacks" until the 1880 Surry census) on 12 March 1858 in Surry. She and Lish had eight children, all born in Surry. I have accounted for the date of birth, marriages, approx. times of death, and, with one exception, places of burial for all the children. I also have a limited amount of information about Lish and Caroline's grandchildren and g. grandchildren. My grandfather, Henry, was one of their children.

Lish and Caroline owned a grist mill located in Surry, and Lish is buried near there in a family plot off Blevins Store Road. The mill (in good condition) and their home place (still standing but in need of repair) are now owned by Gray and Paige Flippin (or Flippen). I have visited the mill, house, and cemetery. Lish and Caroline had one of their children, William Norman ("Doc"), and his wife, Rosamond ("Rosa") Gentry, and their four children living with them in the 1910 census. Lish died 30 November 1916, and Doc and his family are shown in the 1920 census as living in the homeplace. (I have verified that through family and non-family members.) It seemed logical to me that Caroline would have been with them after Lish's death, but she was not. Nor have I found her with any of the other children whose names I have found in the census for Surry, Allegheny, and Wilkes, NC. I have also looked in Grayson County, VA, (more about that later) where my grandfather was living after 1901. I have come to appreciate that the census is not always complete or accurate. For example, I know that my grandfather was in Grayson County, but he does not appear in any of the published census.

Saturday, September 20, 2003      America Online: Wjhiatt

Please be patient, because I am nearing the end. I would rather tell you what I know and let you be the judge of what, if anything, is important.

I have talked, corresponded with, and met Roberta Cobble Isaacs. As you perhaps know, she has a great deal of information about the Isaacs clan, as does a South Dakota relative. Roberta had heard that Caroline might have been living with a daughter, Etta, who married James Ambrose Oakley, near Galax, VA at the time of Caroline's death circa 1940. (Her mother lived to 97, and her father was into his 90s, so I think it is plausible that she lived that long.) The Commonwealth of Virginia has no record of her death under Isaacs and Isaacks, and the funeral home in Galax only has records back to 1960.

Roberta had also heard that Caroline was buried in a field near Galax, and one of her g. granddaughters told me that she heard her mother talk about that. However, this lady has looked in that field without finding any evidence of a grave.

I recently talked with a Weathermon researcher, who lives in Texas, and she has Caroline in her data base as having died in 1930; however, she has no source for this.

I was at Surry CC last week, and I looked at the Killam cemetery books, but there was no Caroline. Marion Venable, director of the college's foundation, said that there are some death records that she will check for me.

I have also done some research on the Calloway side, thinking that she might have lived with one of her direct line relatives. No one, including Howard Woltz (one of Caroline's daughters married Dr. John Raines Pickens Woltz, who practiced in Dobson), knows anything about what happened to Caroline.

I know that I have gone on and on, but I don't want to leave any stone unturned, including hiring a researcher, unless and until I finally decide that I am not going to find my g. grandmother. Any information and/or guidance as to what I should now do will be greatly appreciated.

You may contact me at the above email address, at 331 Grapevine Trail, Greeneville, TN 37745, or at 423-639-5692.

Dear Mr. Isaacs:

Recently your name and address was given to me by Annie Lee Gentry, of State Road, NC, as someone researching the Isaacs family of Surry County, NC. From her I understand that you are a descendant of Pleasant Monroe Isaacks who married Martha Ellen Bray, daughter of Oliver and Mary ("Polly") (Butcher) Bray. I am also a descendant of Oliver and "Polly" through their daughter Cornelia who married Hamilton Lafayette Mosley.

My interest in the Isaacs family stopped at Pleasant M. Isaacks. At least it did until recently. On another totaling different family line than the Brays, I discovered that I descend from one Joseph Gentry, who wrote his will in Surry 17 Nov 1804, and it was probated May 1813, recorded in Surry Will Book 3, page 107. In it he names wife Agnes and daughters Nancy Ann (who married John Ridings and they were my ancestors) and Sarah. Elisha Isaacks signed for Sarah's part. Therefore, Sarah (wife of Elisha Isaacks) must have been a Gentry prior to her marriage.

From my understanding I gather that P. M. Isaacks was the son of Ashby Isaacks and his wife. Was she a Mayes, possibly a daughter of Jesse Mayes? If this is the case I feel that Agnes (wife of Jesse Mayes) was also a Gentry, daughter of Shelton Gentry and his wife Elizabeth. Shelton was the son of Joseph Gentry and his wife Agnes Shelton, daughter of Thomas Shelton. Do you know of any other children of Jesse and Agnes Mayes? Also, do you know of anyone else researching either the Isaacs or Mayes familys?

I hope that I have given you some new information. I also have quite abit of material on the Brays, Butchers, and Whitakers, if you're interested. I sincerely hope to hear from you in the near future. Until we speak again, I shall remain,

Sincerely yours,

James E. Cockerham

Dear Mr. Isaacs:

Thank you so much for answering my letter of inquiry of 18 July 1993. I have yours of 23 July, and I really appreciate your kind thoughts regarding the Isaacs and Mayes familys, as well as the notes regarding the Brays.

I truly believe that your Ganes. Katherine Mayes was indeed the daughter of Jesse Mayes and Agnes Gentry. According to the 1820, 1830, and 1840 censuses they had two daughters born between 1810 and 1820 they have never been identified. One of these must be your "Katy". Jesse, according to the available censues, was born circa 1786 and married Agnes Gentry, also born circa 1786. She died sometime in the 1860s, while he was dead by 1875 when a granddaughter who had lived with him in the 1870 census was married in her step-grandmother's home, i.e, it used to be Jesse's. The censuses reveal at least eleven children for Jesse and Agnes, but there were probably more, as at least a six year gap exists from 1820 to 1826. Previously, and afterward, Jesse and Agnes seemed to have children like clockwork, every 1½ to 2 years. The known ones are Mary, Harding, Shelton, Nancy, your "Katy", Sally, George, Susan and John (twins), and Joel R. Joel R. Mayes was the father of John Jackson Mayes: are you familiar with his story? My uncle is a grandson of John Jack's.

I do not know how deeply you want to delve into the Mayes, Gentry, Bray, and Thompson familys, all of which you apparently descend from. Have you been in contact with Richard and Joy Neal, of Route 4, Box 31, Walnut Cove, NC 27052. Joy also descends from Pleasant Monroe Isaacs through Gertrude who married Robert Settle Guyer. They have alot of information, and we are always writing and sharing.

If you haven't already, please do not make a copy of the P. M. Isaacks Bible, as Annie Lee did so for me. I really appreciate it as it supplied some dates for me I did not have. And, I appreciate your offer to do so.

Do you have a copy of Heritage of Surry County? I am asking because if you do I won't send you any Bray information, as I have really not made any progress since its publication. If you don't I will be happy to make copys of what I have on the Brays, Butchers, as well as the Gentrys. Recently a history of the Whitaker family was published by Mrs. Hester Jackson, of P. O. Box 707, Dobson, NC 27017, and sells for $17.00. It is well worth it as it takes the Whitakers back to circa 1670 in London. Oliver Bray's mother was Mary ("Polly") Whitaker, and Oliver married Mary ("Polly") Butcher. If you weren't aware of it that is how these two familys tie-in.

Let me know what you need on these familys and I will be happy to make copys for you.

Roberta Ann Cobbler Isaacs May 13, 2007

Mrs. Roberta Ann Cobbler Isaacs, 63, of 496 Belton Road, Mount Airy, passed away Sunday May 13, 2007, at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem. Mrs. Isaacs was born October 4, 1943, in Surry County, to the late Roby Ray and Annie Irwin Cobbler. Mrs. Isaacs retired from Surry County Schools after 33 years of teaching. She taught at White Plains Elementary School for 28 years and later taught at Mount Airy Junior High School and Pilot Mountain Middle School. She was a lifelong member of Oak Grove United Methodist Church and a member of the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter 18 in Mount Airy. Roberta was very proud of her Scottish heritage and was a member of several genealogical societies in Surry County. As a result of her love of history, she researched countless hours for Civil War soldiers from Surry County so their names could be listed on the War Memorial in Mount Airy. She is survived by her husband of 44 years, Leonard Grady Isaacs of the home; two daughters and sons-in-law, Theresa and Tim Minter of Germantown, MD, and Rachel and Patrick Mayes of Mount Airy; three grandchildren, Brian Minter and Susanna Minter, both of Germantown, MD, and Maggie Mayes of Mount Airy; a sister and brother-in-law, Jane and Emerson Zapotosky of Las Vegas, NV; a brother and sister-in-law, James and Cinnie Cobbler of Mount Airy; and five brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Nancy and Ronnie Sparks and Ray and Birdie Isaacs, all of Mount Airy, Loyd and Jan Isaacs of Magnolia, KY, John and Becky Isaacs of Woodstock, GA, and Roger and Deloris Isaacs of Kernersville. In addition to her parents, Mrs. Isaacs was preceded in death by two grandsons, Nicholas Mayes and Christopher Mayes. The funeral service will be held Wednesday, May 16, 2007, at 2:00 PM at Oak Grove United Methodist Church. The service will be conducted by the Rev. William "Bill" Randolph, and burial will follow in the Oak Grove United Methodist Church Cemetery, with Eastern Star rites conducted by the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter 18. Unknown heirs of Joseph Isaacks, Esq. deceased
& Ashly Isaacks, de.

The petition of L.

J. Norman Admin. shows -

- I. That about the <sup>1875</sup> day of _____ he was duly appointed administrator of the estate of Sarah Isaacs who had died intestate some years before in the County of Gentry.
- II. That there are some few small debts due & outstanding against said estate - the amount of which has not been ascertained.
- III. There are some _____ heirs the defendants above named who after payment of debts are entitled to the benefit of a distribution.
- IV. The said Sarah Isaacs did seize & possess of a small tract of land in said County on the waters of Fish river containing about 60- acres.
- V. The heirs at law of Sarah Isaacs are her children and grand children to wit, Samuel Isaacks et al.

Vt That such is the condition of the said land that it will be necessary to sell the same for the purposes of paying off debts and distribution among the above named heirs,

SECTION V

THE ISAACS INTERNATIONAL REGISTRY

The Isaacs International Registry has been developed to determine where Isaacs families have migrated and where they live throughout the world today. Using a highly sophisticated network of computer sources in Europe, North America, and Australasia, over 150 million name and address records have been searched to locate Isaacs family members. As many Isaacs householders as possible have been recorded and included in the following Isaacs International Registry. Thousands of dollars and months of effort were required in order to provide you with this valuable information.

In Great Britain, including England, Scotland, and Wales, researchers were required to search through more than 19 million households representing more than 55 million people living in the 88 politically-administered counties. In Northern Ireland, approximately 400,000 households representing 1.5 million people in 6 counties had to be researched. In Canada, over 8 million households representing approximately 25 million people in 10 provinces and two territories had to be researched. In Australia, researchers were required to search through over 5 million households representing more than 16 million people in six states and two territories; and in New Zealand, over 800,000 households representing over 3 million people. Unbelievably, in the United States, 82 million households representing more than 241 million Americans in 50 states, three territories, and the District of Columbia were carefully reviewed to find as many Isaacs families as possible. The result of this research as related to Isaacs single and family households is summarized in the following chart.

Newly Developed Statistical Information About The Isaacs Population in The United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Great Britain, and Northern Ireland

How You Can Use the Isaacs 1989 International Registry to Aid You In Tracing Your Family Tree, Or In Locating Lost Family Members

The following registry can provide you with an invaluable genealogical research aid. You might begin by writing to Isaacs individuals in the county, state, province, or territory where your own family heritage research leads you. Frequently you'll learn a great deal from the responses you'll receive. The Isaacs International Registry should get you started pursuing which of the 6,877 Isaacs individuals could be related to you in the countries searched.

Certain surnames have no families or individuals listed in one or more of the six countries searched. This may be surprising to you; however, this information is quite valuable since it tells you that your search needn't be pursued in that country. These searches often take months and years, only to end in frustration when one finds that there are no persons sharing a common surname.

This current International Registry for households bearing your surname may be useful when traveling to another region or foreign country. For instance, you may want to vary your itinerary to include an area where you know there are Isaacs families living so that you can telephone or personally contact them. Oftentimes this type of contact leads to invaluable information; such as, what to do and where to go in the area, an introduction to another Isaacs who has done extensive family historical research, or a missing clue in the unending pursuit of information regarding your forebears and descendants. This type of effort can be a key in finding the missing pieces in the family heritage puzzle. It may even lead you to discover a missing or lost family member.

If you would like to have additional Isaacs population information related to another country which is not a part of the International Registry, our staff is dedicated to help you. Simply return the enclosed card entitled Additional Research Order Card. We'll respond immediately if we can help and send the cost estimate for the search you require. Upon receiving your approval, our staff will begin their search and your report will be sent to you as soon as the work is completed.

We're pleased that we can provide you with the following Isaacs International Registry and hope that you find it informative, useful, and entertaining. When you wish to find a specific household in the 1989 Isaacs International Registry, you'll want to look in postal or zip code sequence, as the registry is formatted by postal area.

Please Note: The international name and address records are updated yearly in order to maintain the most current information. However, 1 out of every 10 householders moves to a new address each year. In rare instances, family members who should have been listed in the directory are missing, because of spelling mistakes and typing mistakes of the original data. When we send out a mailing, we are notified of address changes and householder additions by either the Post Office, or a customer. You will find an addendum of householders who have recently moved to a new address, or have been added, following the last page of each directory. If you relocated sometime in the past 18 months, please consult this page. You may even find that you are listed at both your old address and at your current residence.

The Cockerham House in Devotion, North Carolina

J. L. "Pate" Cockerham writes a letter to his niece "Emma."

His brother H. B. "Beck" Cockerham had moved his family (wife Sara Jane Woodruff Cockerham and 10 children) from Devotion, NC to McMinnville, Oregon about 1900. Emma was last of the siblings, and these two letters were found in her belongings. Norman Cockerham (a former SCGA member) sent a copy to Emily Southard for our journal.

Three brothers, "Pate," "Pickney," and "Beck" lived in this home. The house still stands today.

Emma lives in Oregon

Mt. Airy, North Carolina
July 14, 1932

Dear Emma:

I was so glad to get your letter. I remember you. I think you were three or four years old when I was out there. I don't remember for sure just how long it has been. I think about 27 years ago. I hardly guess you remember me. I think by your picture you favor Etta. Of course if I could see you all now I might change my mind.

I wrote Daisy mostly about my family. I will write you about the others. Your Uncle Pink B. Cockerham lives on Mitchell River at the farm where father gave Beck--where Beck and your mother started housekeeping when they were first married. It is a dandy good farm. I guess Alice and Etta remember the place. His health is fine, and he is 72 years old.

Rose Emma, your aunt, lives in Virginia. She married Boyden Cox, and has two children. One girl married; one boy single and a school teacher. They are both smart as tacks. Emma's health is not so good, and her husband is dead. So two uncles and one aunt of your father's are all that are living. Your mother just has one sister living--Bettie Woodruff of State Road. She is well as far as I know.

*girl Detta (m)
Boy Joseph Boyden*

I suppose you heard of Sarah's brother's death some years ago.

In regard to your grandparents. Did you know the people sent your grandfather Cockerham (Captain Joseph Cockerham) to the State Legislature and he couldn't write his name; he just made his cross mark; and just before the close of the Civil War between the states he was one of the wealthiest men in Surry County. He had forty negroes freed--worth from $1000 to $1500 a piece, and he was married twice: four children by his first wife and five by his last wife. He had a good farm to give each one.* Your mother's mother (Elizabeth Carter Woodruff) was a Carter, sister of Tom Carter who at one time was the wealthiest man in Grason County, Virginia; but his mind went bad; he lived to be very old and lost most of it through litigations, lawsuits and guardians. So his folks didn't receive very much of it. He was an old bachelor. So you see you ought to be proud of your blood. *( Aaron Cockerham of your state was one by his first wife.)

Emma, excuse pencil and this sorry writing. I used to write a fair hand, but you see I am a little over 58 years old. Give all my folks my best regards and write me again.

Very respectfully,

P. S. Your head is level: J. L. COCKERHAM
Hurrah for Roosevelt and Garner our next presidents.

Dead

Aug. 24, 1932.

J.A. Cockerham dies after short illness:

" The death of Mr. Joseph L. Cockerham which took place at his home on Orchard street in this City at 6:15 P.M. Wednesday came as a shock to many of his friends who had not heard of his short illness which followed a heart attack suffered about 3 O'clock Monday afternoon when he became chilled when he waded out into the old swimming hole near Kapp's mill where he had spent many a happy hour during his boyhood and early youth.

The Cockerham family had gone back to their old home in the Mountain Park section Sunday to visit among relatives and Mr. Cockerham remained when the family returned to this city. Monday afternoon he went with others to the old swimming hole several miles from Kapp's mill and according to reports tried the water carefully, wading out to about waist depth. Mountain waters have a chill even in the hottest weather and the chill caused a heart attack and he fell into the water. Those who assisted in the rescue say the air in his lungs kept him afloat but that breathing was restored with difficulty after he was brought to the shore. He was brought home in the ambulance Tuesday and at first it was hoped his condition would improve, but pneumonia developed and he fauled rapidly.

Mr. Cockerham was a son of Joseph, and <sup>M. JULIA ANN</sup> Thompson Cockerham and was born and reared near Kapp's mill. For a number of years he has been engaged in business in this city, his store being known as the Cockerham Grocery. He was 58 years of age. He is survived by his wife ~~now~~ formerly Miss Emma Woodruff, of Boonville, and three daughters Mrs. <sup>MATHEW</sup> C.W. Thomas of York, Pa., Mrs. Nelson O. Lilly of Elkridge, Md., and Mrs. J. Sanford Chilton of this city, and three sons Joseph and Reeves who were associated with their father in the Grocery business and Vance who is now attending summer school at the University of North Carolina preparatory to teaching this winter. One brother Pinkney Cockerham of Kapp's mill and one sister Mrs. Rose Emma Phipps also survive. Mr and Mrs Lily and Mr and Mrs Thomas are here for the funeral. The funeral will be conducted from the home Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock with his pastor, Dr. I.T. Jacobs officiating, assisted by Rev. D. Vance Price, and interment made at Oakdale Cemetery.

Emma died 1964
