ARE WEEK-END TRIPS WRECKING YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE?

Isn't it wonderful when one lives near enough to the old home place to just "take off" over the weekend and go home? What a joy it is to see our loved ones. It is convenient also to be near the mountains and the sea coast. Yet, there is a great danger in it, too. We can let weekend trips whether home or just a trip, wreck our spiritual lives if we do not guard this precious privilege. This is especially so in the summer months.
The one thing that adds to this tragedy is that it wrecks your church and its program also.

Stop! Look! Pray! Don't let temptations like these wreck your own spiritual life and the program of your church. Where are the priorities of your life?

Pastor To People

VBS BEGINS MONDAY: The primary task upon us at this hour is to see that our children get to Vacation Bible School. I know of no more important place they should be than at First Baptist for the days of June 12 through 16. Do you realize that these 15 hours of study will be the equivalent of four months in Sunday School? There is so much that can be done, but only if you see to it that your children get here. I would also remind you that VBS is always open for all of the children of our community. You should take it upon yourself to invite them. Let's have a meaningful school this year.

FAMILY NIGHT THIS SUNDAY: Occasionally this summer we will be having a Sunday evening family night to get our church family together for some special event. This Sunday we want you and your whole family to enjoy the motion picture in color, "World's Fair Encounter". You will see some of the many pavilions at that fair and feel like you are really there in person. This is an outstanding Billy Graham production and lasts approximately one hour. We want you to invite your neighbors to come with you because this will be an open affair to the public. Be sure and tell them that a nursery is provided for children through 3 years. Hope to see you Sunday night, 7:30, in the church sanctuary.

Have you noticed the progress on our building this week? IS YOUR CHURCH PLEDGE UP TO DATE?

Welcome, New Member
