A Message To You From The Miss America Pageant Atlantic City, N.J.

"Keeping America Beautiful . . . Our Way" is more than the title of a Miss America Pageant production . . . it's 200,000 civic-minded men and women conducting this non-profit program who care about the future of America as they annually stage some

3,000 Local Pageants in which

70,000 talented and lovely young women participate for

50 State titles and over

it's the year

1945 when Bess Myerson was awarded the 1st Miss America scholarship of $5,000 . . .

it's the year

1972 when Terry Anne Meeuwsen was named Miss America – and . . .

it's the year when the total scholarships awarded at the Local, State and National Miss America Pageants exceeded

Furthering the education of youth is how the Miss America Pageant family works toward . . .

"Keeping America Beautiful . . . Our Way!"

The 1972 Miss America Pageant Scholarship Foundation, funded by three outstanding American business firms, is held in trust and administered by the national Pageant.

The Week Begins

Those State Representatives arriving in Atlantic City prior to Labor Day have an opportunity to relax, become acquainted, and visit the beach and ocean. On Saturday evening a quiet pre-Pageant dinner and tour of interesting landmarks is the choice of some of the early arrivals and their State Pageant people. It's a lovely way to precede a bustling week of Pageant activity.

Enjoying pre-Pageant activities are:

1. Miss Virginia, Dona Marie Pillow and Miss Georgia, Lisa Lawalin.
2. From top: Miss Kansas, Cindy Lee Sikes; Miss Minnesota, Linda Louise Hagan; Miss Nevada, Helen Marie Bennett; Miss West Virginia, Lynnette Anne Koper; Miss Maryland, Kathleen Louise Neff and Miss Tennessee, Debby Cathey.
4. Miss Arkansas, Debbye Hazelwood; Miss Colorado, Sally Jo Anderson and Miss Wisconsin, Terry Anne Meeuwsen.
5. Miss California, Dianne Wagner; Miss Rhode Island, Michele Passarelli and Miss Arkansas, Debbye Hazelwood.

And the Cameras Click

Providing a permanent photo record of the excitement and fun of Pageant Week are the ever-present and hard working Press Photographers who take considerable pride in their work and pride in the 50 State Pageant Representatives.

While the contestants soon learn the camera lens is an integral part of Pageant activities, they just as quickly realize the talented men and women who operate those cameras are friends . . . friends who hold mutual respect and admiration for them and their accomplishments.

A Time to Learn

A new production format was to make its debut at the 1972 National Finals and its success would depend not only on the production staff but on the efficiency of the Hostess Committee and the understanding cooperation of the 50 State Representatives.

Their intelligent grasp of the new plans outlined at this preliminary production meeting was evident on Saturday night when split second timing on live TV was essential to the climax of the week's activities.

1. With Pageant Producer George Cavalier are Miss Texas, Mae Beth Cormany; Miss Oklahoma, Debbie Giannopoulos; Miss Ohio, Karen Sue Sparka; Miss Alabama, Freita Fuller and Miss California, Dianne Wagner.

2. Miss West Virginia, Lynette Koper; Miss Tennessee, Debby Cathey and Miss New York, Judith Ann Keithley lunch together.

3. Miss Hawaii, Marlene Kalahiki; Miss Alaska, Linda Ann Hogue; Miss Wyoming, Annette Klipstein and Miss Florida, Suzanne Charles, receive a chef's word of advice.

A Time to Give

Giving of themselves is a characteristic of Miss America contestants as their backgrounds show a warmth of spirit and a deep concern for others less fortunate than they. Teaching and working with handicapped children is the ambition voiced by numerous contestants and the work so many alumnae of Mu Alpha Sigma (the Miss America Sorority) do today. It is, then, always an occasion to treasure when the State Representatives can take time to bring happiness to others . . . be it a birthday celebration or a visit to a home for afflicted children.

1. Visiting the home are Miss New Mexico, Wren Prather; Miss New Hampshire, Jane Badler; Miss Mississippi, Glenda Meadows; Miss Louisiana, Debby Robert; Miss Arkansas, Debbye Hazelwood; Miss Connecticut, Linda Kapral and Miss Missouri, Anita Colombo.

2. Miss Mississippi, Glenda Meadows and Miss Connecticut, Linda Kapral were captivated by this little fellow.

3. A surprise birthday party for Miss North Carolina, Constance Anne Dorn, is enjoyed by Miss Montana, Debra Jo DeBiase; Miss Kansas, Cindy Lee Sikes; Miss Georgia, Lisa Lawalin; Miss Idaho, Vicki Hawkins; Miss New York, Judith Ann Keithley; Miss Wisconsin, Terry Anne Meeuwsen and Miss Delaware, Catherine Lawton.

The Boardwalk Parade

A carnival-like excitement invades the seashore resort on the Tuesday after Labor Day in anticipation of the illuminated night Parade. Bleachers, rolling chairs, beach chairs, the grandstand, line the Parade route . . . the TV cameras are made ready . . . thousands of residents and visitors have early dinner to be there on time as the Grand Marshal leads this first public appearance of the Miss America Pageant contestants.

There is nothing like a Parade and these past two years all the glamour, music and beauty of the Miss America Pageant Parade has thrilled not only those thousands of spectators on the Boardwalk but millions more who viewed the colorcast of this spectacular event, as Vonda Kay Van Dyke, Miss America 1965, provided the television commentary.

1. Popular Joe Garagiola served as Grand Marshal in 1972.
2. Miss South Dakota, Janet Kay Hunter, greets Boardwalk audience.
3. The 1972 Grand Sweepstakes Float . . . a drifting Oriental garden.
4. Miss Wisconsin, Terry Anne Meeuwsen, waves to spectators.

Brenda Whitaker

My Year 1972-73

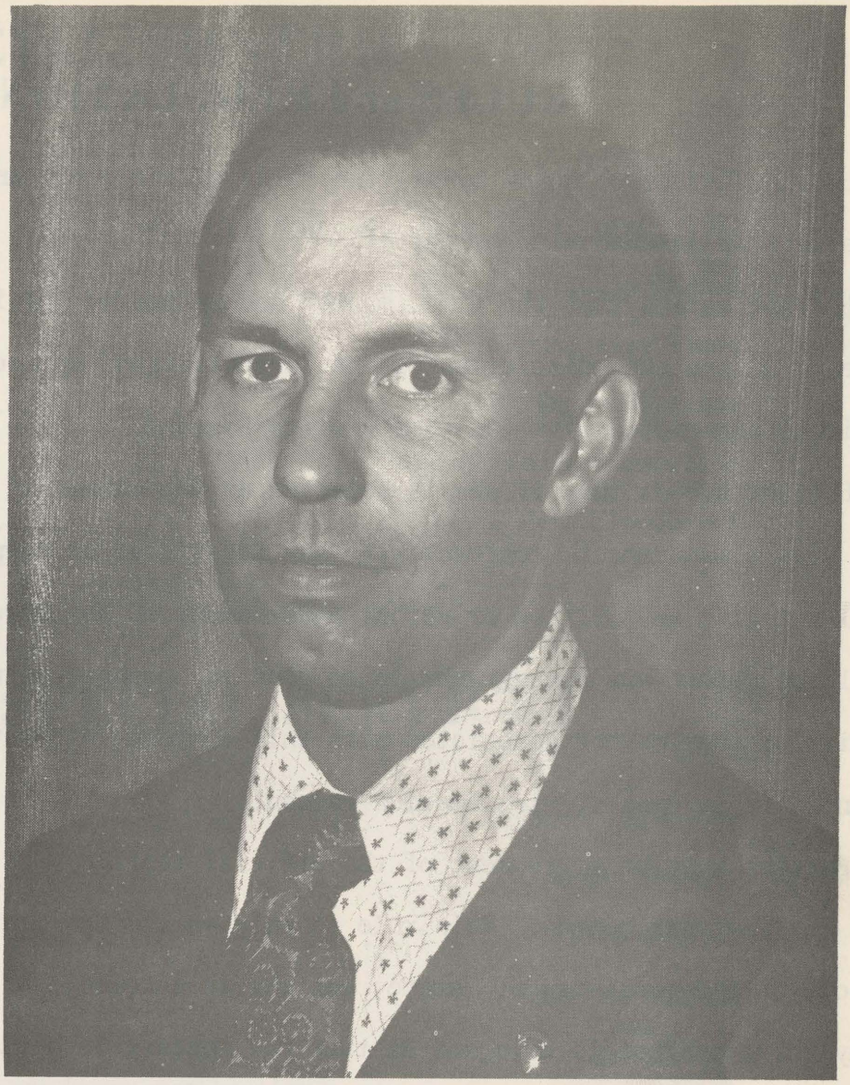

During my reign as Miss Mount Airy, I have appeared in many pageants including Mocksville, Forsyth County and the Miss Winston-Salem Pageant where I met Miss America. I danced in Winston, Stuart, Franklin and always happy to see people smiling or laughing. I love parades and being able to wave from the other side was alot of fun! Of course, the people in Winston-Salem wondered about the girl who rode barefoot in freezing temperatures. ---I can explain although it would take too long here. The highlight of this year was the Miss North Carolina Pageant. Working with 61 girls, winning or losing, we shared many laughs waiting backstage before we "did our thing" and many tears when we left the pageant Saturday night. Having children ask for my autograph and smile so sweetly when I smiled at them, and hearing the cheers whenever I danced, and working with the Jaycees and Jaycettes has created a truly beautiful experience that I'll love telling my grandchildren.

Brenda Whitaker

Comment From The President

The Miss Mount Airy Pageant is a community function. Many merchants and individuals contribute time and money to make our pageant the best in the state.

Miss Mount Airy is a goal that many young ladies seek but only a few obtain but the fact that a girl sets a goal and strives for it is a great personal improvement program so there are really no loosers.

The Jaycees and Jaycettes join with all the wonderful people that have contributed to the pageant in wishing "Miss Mount Airy 1973" the best of luck.

M. J. Jackson
President, Mount Airy Jaycees

BUD and MARGUERITE KALLENBACK

The Kallenbacks are Northern transplants from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, but are now true Southerners residing at 616 Knollwood Drive. Both are very active in civic affairs and community programs; in fact, The Mount Airy Chamber of Commerce in 1968 presented them the "Citizen of the Year Award".

Bud graduated from Temple University with a Teacher's Degree and an Engineering degree. While attending Temple, he had special training in Pageantry.

He is employed by Quality Mills, Inc. His civic activities include the Rotary Club, Mount Airy Chamber of Commerce, and the Autumn Leaves Festival. Painting and associating with people are only a part of his noted talents, which earned him the fame of being a notorious joke teller.

Marguerite earned an English Degree from Cornell. She devotes a great deal of her time to organizations interested in community improvement, such as the Mount Airy Women's Club, The Red Cross, The Hospital Auxiliary, and the Surry Arts Council.

Besides their other activities, Bud and Marguerite have been associated with the Miss Mount Airy Pageant in directing and consulting roles for thirteen years. During this period they have affectionally gained the alias of "Ma and Pa" Kallenback. For their faithful and unselfish service, they were made Honorary Members of the Mount Airy Jaycees in 1968.

THE PENNY STORE
BY ROBERTA NASH

More often than not, in a store's newspaper advertising, the emphasis is on the price of merchandise, for this is the news that the readers want to know.

But the Penney people want to be sure you understand that this emphasis on price in advertising does not represent the thinking within the Penney organization. The thing that makes Penney wheels go round is value, or what you get for that low price.

"We have to keep one eye on quality and the other on price," one of our buyers said to me. "Every sale we make today is designed to bring the customer back tomorrow."

Nine Talent Scholarships

The Miss America Pageant believes that the recognition of talent is so important — not only at the National Finals, but at each Local and State Pageant.

In having an opportunity to present their talent on stage, those young women who participate in the Pageant program give all America a better understanding of the true character of today's youth, for certainly no other endeavor so forcefully indicates the character of a person who devotes many years to the training, study and self-discipline required in perfecting any given talent.

Therefore, the Miss America Pageant and its affiliated Local and State Pageants are proud and happy to provide a dignified showcase for our contestants to perform their outstanding talents before a live audience on stages across America.

1. The nine State Representatives receiving their $1,000 Talent Scholarship Grants are Miss Utah, Sally Peterson; Miss Ohio, Karen Sue Sparka; Miss Maine, Marilyn E. Lash; Miss New Jersey, Linda Carol Gialanella; Miss Nevada, Helen Marie Bennett; Miss Michigan, Terri Ann Cousino; Miss Arizona, Linda Gail Sirrine; Miss Massachusetts, Marie June Semas and Miss Oregon, Sandra Herring.

2. Miss Louisiana, Debby Robert, captured the Friday Preliminary Talent Trophy.

3. Thursday night of Pageant Week the Judges awarded talent honors to Miss Wisconsin, Terry Anne Meeuwsen.

4. Miss Delaware, Catherine Lawton, won the nod of the Judges with her talent presentation on Wednesday night.

In the Spotlight

Miss Utah, Sally Peterson, could not have been more surprised or more pleased when her fellow State Representatives cast their votes and named her Miss Congeniality. This honor also brought Sally a $1,000 Scholarship Grant.

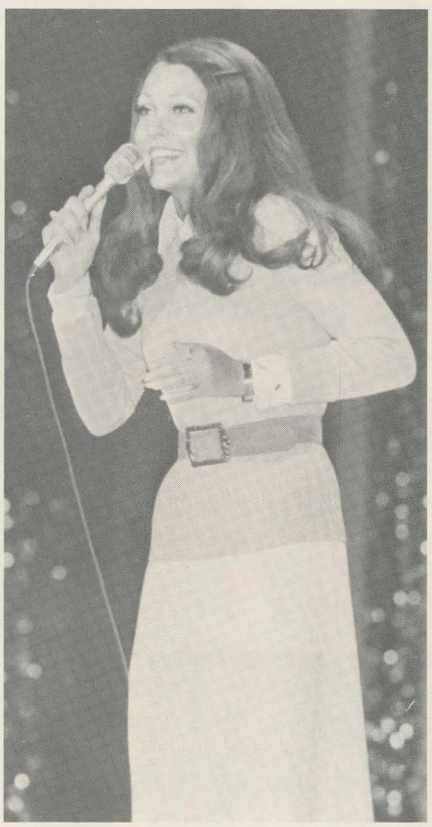

For the first time, the Neat-As-A-Pin Award winner, chosen by the Hostess Committee, received a $250.00 scholarship. Miss Alaska, Linda Ann Hogue, the 1972 winner, clearly shows her delight over this announcement.

Miss America 1973

Terry Anne Meeuwsen

Atlantic City Press Staff Writers said of Terry Anne Meeuwsen, "The new Miss America is a very articulate, sincere and outgoing person. Her friendliness gives forth a genuine warmth which immediately envelopes those who come to know her."

Miss America, Terry Anne Meeuwsen, and her Court of Honor: Miss Pennsylvania, Linda Kay Olson, 2nd Runner-Up, $3,000 Scholarship; Miss North Carolina, Constance Anne Dorn, 1st Runner-Up, $6,000 Scholarship; Miss Texas, Mae Beth Cormany, 3rd Runner-Up, $2,500 Scholarship; and Miss Indiana, Rebecca Sue Graham, 4th Runner-Up, $2,000 Scholarship. Miss America, $10,000 Scholarship.

"Her willingness to work" is an oft repeated phrase when friends, teachers and family talk about Terry Anne Meeuwsen, first born (March 2, 1949) child of Joseph and Beverly Meeuwsen, of DePere, Wisconsin.

Never an attention-seeker, Terry was always involved in numerous extracurricular activities throughout her years of schooling at St. Mary's School, DePere High School, St. Norbert College and Fox Valley Technical Institute. While maintaining good grades, she also found time for her favorite hobbies, sports and singing, for Terry was a girl who sang for the joy of singing.

But Terry was also a girl who, even in the 7th grade was willing to work at her singing. She and sister Judy, now 22, took private voice lessons and Mrs. Meeuwsen recalls the hours Terry devoted to scale practice and breathing exercises to develop the right tone.

Because of her love of singing, Terry was delighted with the opportunity to join a group of young singers who traveled throughout the country and abroad. She still longed, however, for additional training and felt she had embarked on a career too early to accomplish those things she dreamed about. She decided therefore to leave the group, return to school and resume vocal lessons, with the hope of one day being financially able to concentrate on private instructions.

It was the scholarship program of the Miss America Pageant then that interested Terry in entering the Local Pageant sponsored by the Appleton Area Jaycees. Here again Terry was willing to work for the scholarship she hoped to obtain. She concentrated more than ever on her vocal presentation, decided she should lose weight and followed a rigorous program of exercise and diet and generally prepared to the best of her ability for the Local Pageant.

The rest is history. Terry captured the $500.00 scholarship with the Miss Appleton title and went on to Oshkosh to participate in the Miss Wisconsin Pageant, where she was selected Miss Wisconsin and received the $1,000 educational scholarship that goes with that title. As Miss America 1973, Terry was awarded a $10,000 educational scholarship and thus she can indeed realize her ambition of developing herself as a performer and as an individual.

Accompanied by her Mother and Mrs. Dorothy Schwager, Traveling Campanion, Terry Anne Meeuwsen had the honor of being invited to meet President Richard M. Nixon at the White House shortly after her year as Miss America began.

Meet the Campbell Kid from Wisconsin who grew up to be Miss America.

Terry Anne Meeuwsen, the pride of De Pere, Wisconsin, is a Miss America we can all be proud of. Vivacious, talented and beautiful, she is not only a gifted performer, but a warm, involved human being whose concern for others has led her to undertake such activities as volunteer hospital work and the support of a little boy in Thailand. She sang with the New Christy Minstrels for two years and has appeared on numerous network television shows. Her favorite sports are swimming, skiing and snowmobiling. Her favorite Campbell's Soup? Terry says that's a hard choice to make, but if she had to pick her very favorite, it would be Campbell's Cream of Chicken. It's M'm! M'm! Good!

Almost everyone has grown up with Campbell's. Didn't you?

Campbell Soup Company: Campbell's and Chunky Soups, Beans Products, Swanson Canned and Frozen Foods, V-8 Vegetable Juice, Franco-American and Pepperidge Farm Products.

Being Miss America is being many girls in one girl. A symbol of the many moods of the young women in this country. As aware of the world around her . . . politics, ecology . . . as she is of herself. Her own feelings and development. Sometimes carefree, sometimes serene, Terry Anne Meeuwsen is what today's womanhood is all about.

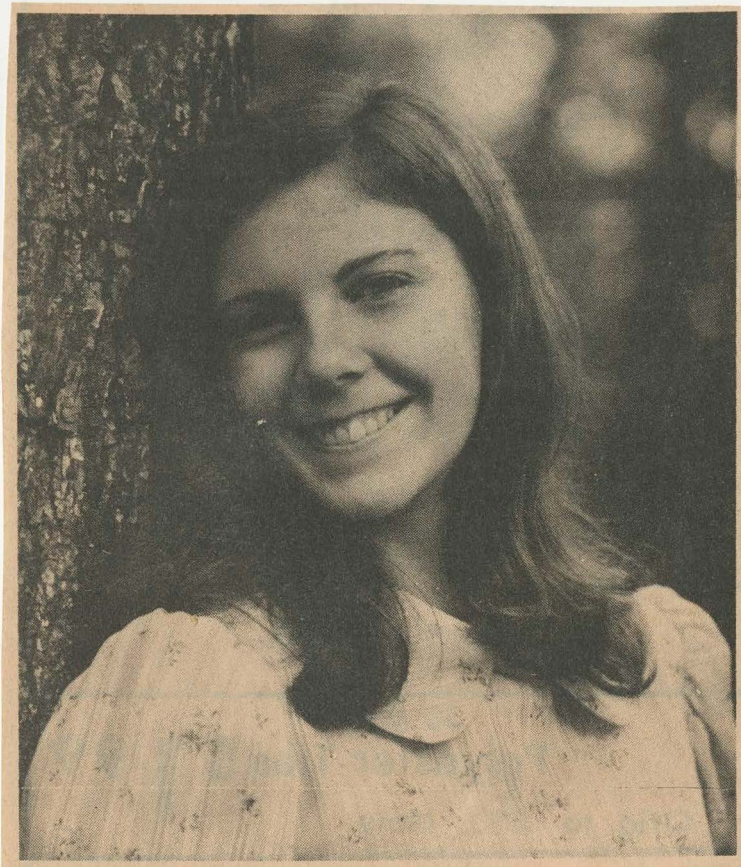

At Toni we are proud to be a part of the self-development and beauty of young womanhood through our products and scholarship programs.
