

Floyd accepts call to Indian Grove

The Rev. Tommy C. Floyd has accepted the call to pastor Indian Grove Baptist Church and will be moving into the church parsonage the latter part of October. He will preach his first sermon as pastor of the church on the first Sunday in November.

late Mr. Clay Floyd. He is a brother to the late Dalvin (Peavine) Floyd and is married to the former Miss Barbara Queen, also of Lexington.

The Floyds have two children, Anita, 18, who is a professional beautician, and Tommy Lee, 17, who is a senior in high school.

Rev. Floyd is moving to this area from Moneta, Va., where he has been pastoring Radford Baptist Church for the past 10 years. He grew up in Lexington and is the son of Mrs. Mamie Floyd and the Rev. Floyd received his education at Southmont High School in Lexington and attended Fruitland Bible Institute in Hendersonville. He also served two years in the United States Navy, two years as moderator of the Strawberry Baptist Association in Bedford, Va., and nine years as chaplain at Smith Mountain Lake Correctional Unit.

Being licensed and ordained into the ministry at Mountain View Baptist Church in Lexington, Rev. Floyd served as pastor there for five years.

Indian Grove Baptist has 220 resident members with a Sunday school enrollment of 137. The Rev. David Hill is presently serving the church as supply pastor.

Rev. Tommy Floyd and family

Jurors ... of Oct 29