THE OBITUARY

Mr. William Samuel (W.S.) Duncan of 5082 Highway 89 West, Westfield, North Carolina passed away on Friday evening at Forsyth Medical Center, Winston-Salem, NC. He was born July 15, 1929 to the late Pink Duncan and Etta Conner Duncan in Ararat, VA. W.S. retired from the Department of Transportation in Danbury, NC. He was a big man in statue but the most humble person you would ever want to meet. Brother W.S. Duncan was a member of the Simmons Chapel Primitive Baptist Church, Westfield, NC.

He is survived by his loving wife Lillie Duncan of the home; two sons, Mickey Duncan and Melvin Duncan both of Westfield, NC; one step-son, Joe Lewis Hughes of Westfield, NC; five grandchildren, Quentin Duncan, Jason Duncan, Ryan Hughes, Khadejh Hughes, and Mercede Hughes; two great-grandchildren, Jeaylen Duncan and Zaynah Galloway; seven sisters, Tilda Etta Ziglar, Delsie Simmons, Stacey (Grady) France, Emily Duncan, Elsie Taylor, Myrtle Simmons all of Westfield, NC and Nellie Ceaser of Mount Airy, NC; a special niece and caregiver, Barbara Ann Smith of Westfield, NC; a host of other relatives and friends. One step-son preceded him in death, Samuel Hughes; two sisters, Margaret Hughes and Grace Duncan; and one brother, John Duncan.

PEOPLE LIKED HIM

People liked him, not because
He was rich or known to fame;
He had never won applause
As a star in any game.
His was not a brilliant style,
His was not a forceful way,
But he had a gentle smile
And a kindly word to say.
Never arrogant or proud,
On he went with manner mild;
Never quarrelsome or loud,
Just as simple as a child!
Never rose to wealth or fame,
Simply lived, and simply died,
But the passing of his name
Left a sorrow, far and wide.
Not for glory he had attained,
Not for what he had of self,

Thank You

The flowers that you sent that day,
The card you mailed along the way,
The service you stopped by to render,
The gift you brought with thought so tender,
The prayers you said which played a part,
In easing the pain that was in our hearts,
Each helped us to find that strength to bear,
The loss of the one we held so dear.
It was to us a great comfort indeed,
To see you in time of sorrow and need,
So from our hearts which you tried to help mend,
We thank you sincerely again and again
For being such wonderful friends.
