

"PINAFORE" REHEARSALS

Moody Funeral Home--approximately three weeks
Methodist Church--approximately two weeks
North Main Street School--two nights
Rockford Street Auditorium--the rest

The initial rehearsal of "Pinafore" combined with a party . went off with a bang in the ball room of the Blue Ridge Hotel. The crowd was large, interest high. Practice, a council meeting (upstairs--object, time of performance and sponsorship of the Guilford Choir), and a dance took up the night.

Other rehearsals were as usual. Men were somewhat elusive, interest dragged and then revived, absentees caused a lot of wasted time; but, all in all, things worked out all right. Rehearsals were called twice a week for about six weeks; then, as the time of performance drew near, were called about every night.
