Really do come true

COPELAND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
1997 · 1998

Copeland Elementary School

The theme of our year book "Dreams Do Come True" is shown in "Our Dream Building" picture. We waited a long time for this dream to become a reality. We experienced anticipation, excitement, sadness and many emotions as we waited for our dream to come true.

Dedication of New Building

Mr. Lawson gives a warm welcome to all our guests.

Dr. Marsha Bledsoe praises everyone's work and dedication.

Attendance was great at dedication and reception.

Mr. Graham Atkinson delivers a brief history of our school.

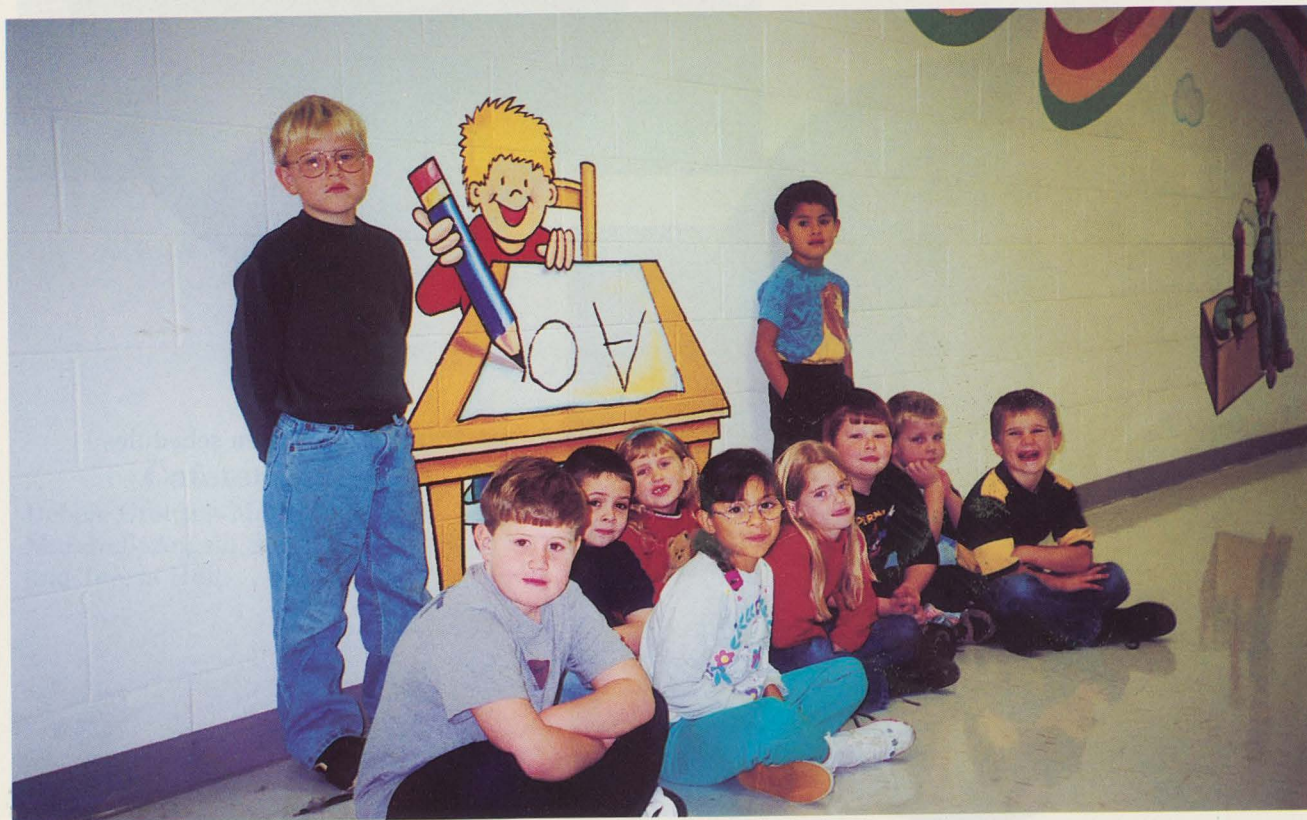

Directions Anybody?

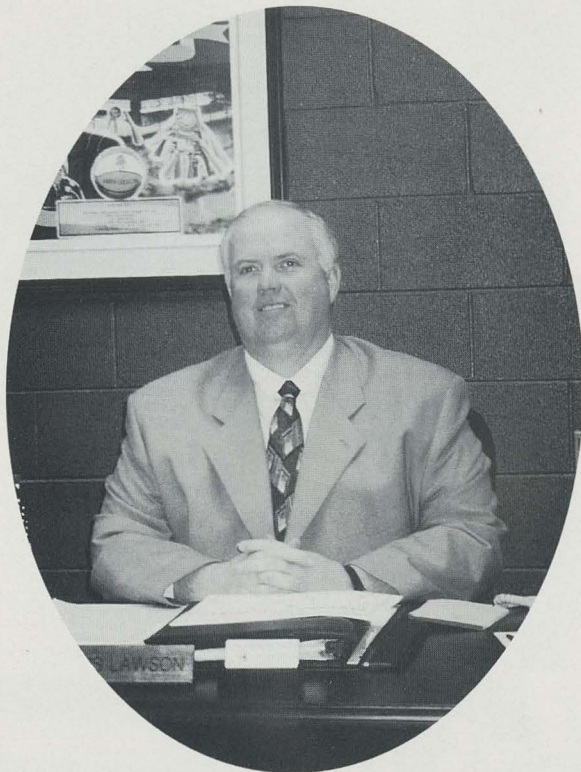

These children know the right direction by looking at one of the beautiful murals in our new building.

The "Write" Direction

These children think writing can be fun. A pleasing environment is very helpful.

Dennis P. Lawson, Principal

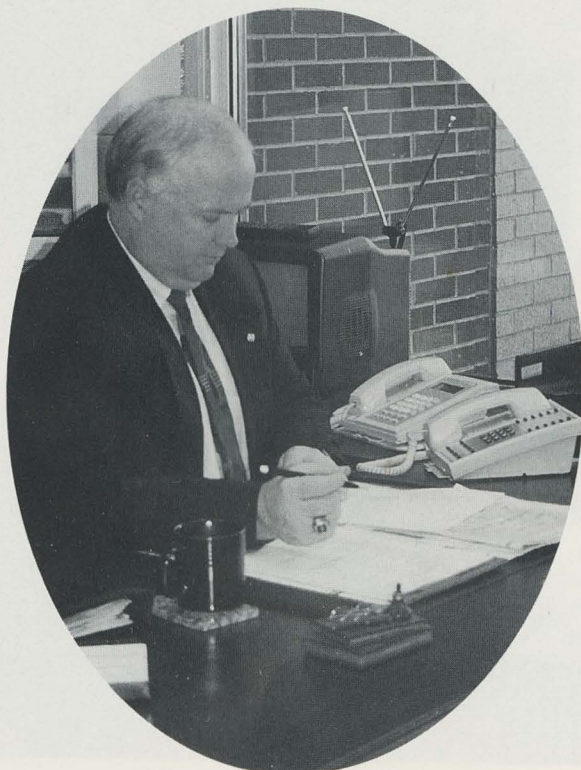

A big thanks for leading us through changing and challenging times.

These students are sharing their thoughts with Mr. Lawson.

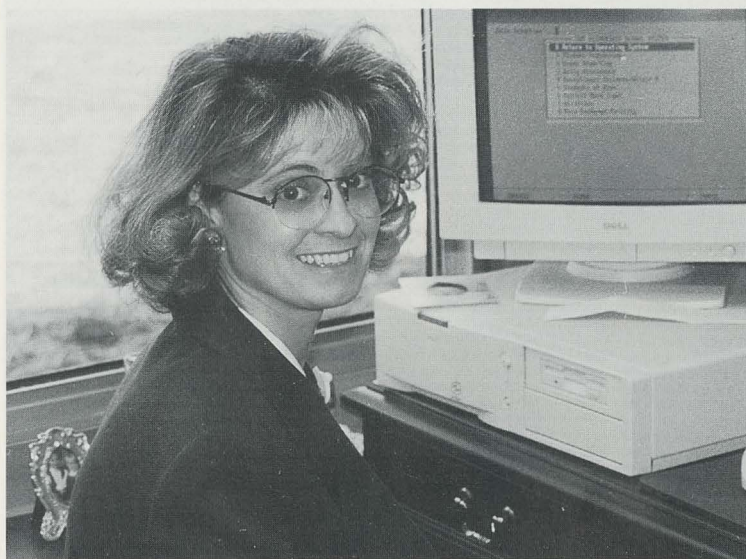

Mr. Lawson diligently works on schedules for everyone.

Thanks for all you do!

Mrs. Barnes - Resource

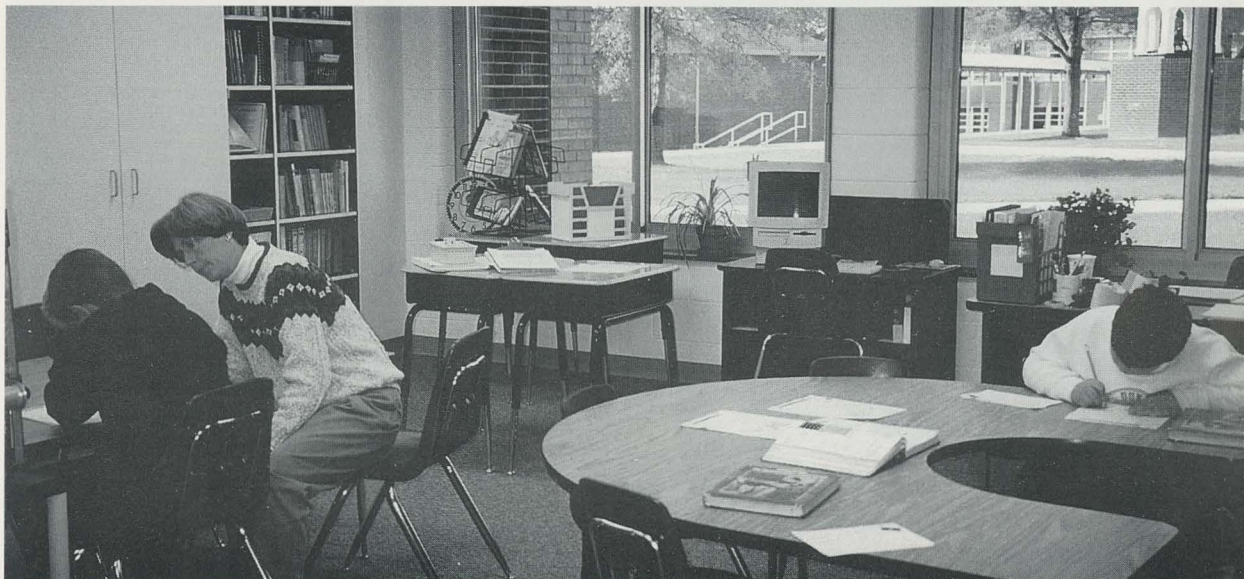

Mrs. Barnes helps several students with their classroom work.

Reading

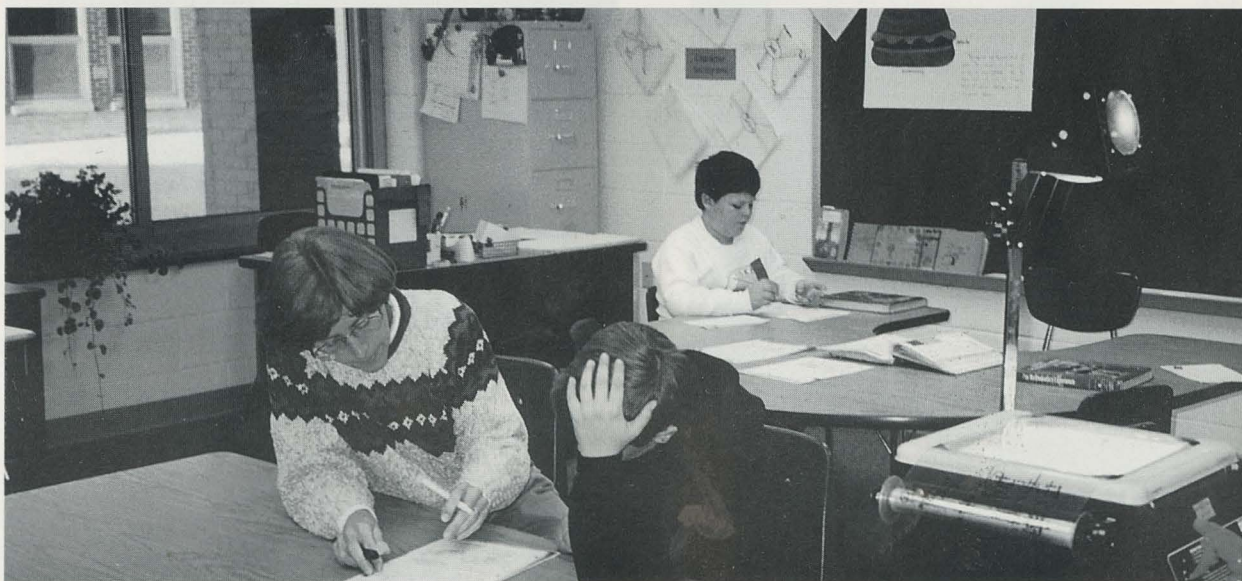

Reading with small groups encourages success.

Mrs. Klamfoth - Resource

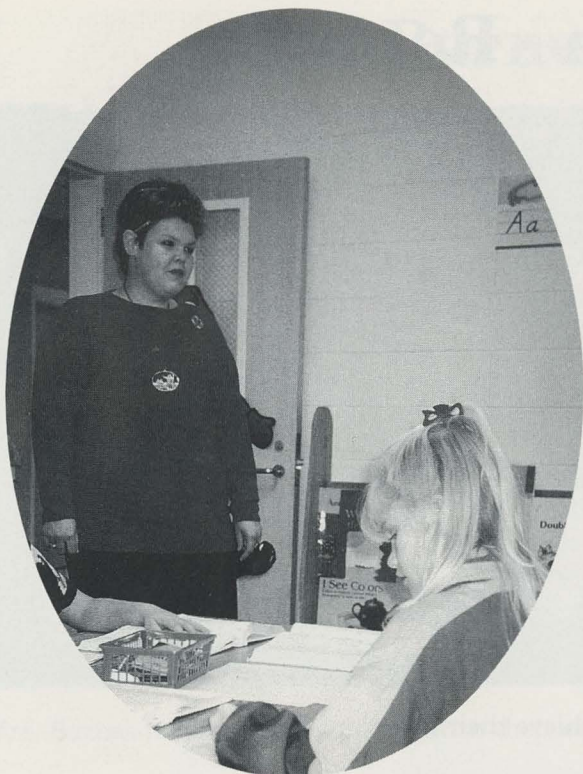

Mrs. Klamfoth works one-on-one to help students achieve their goals.

Math

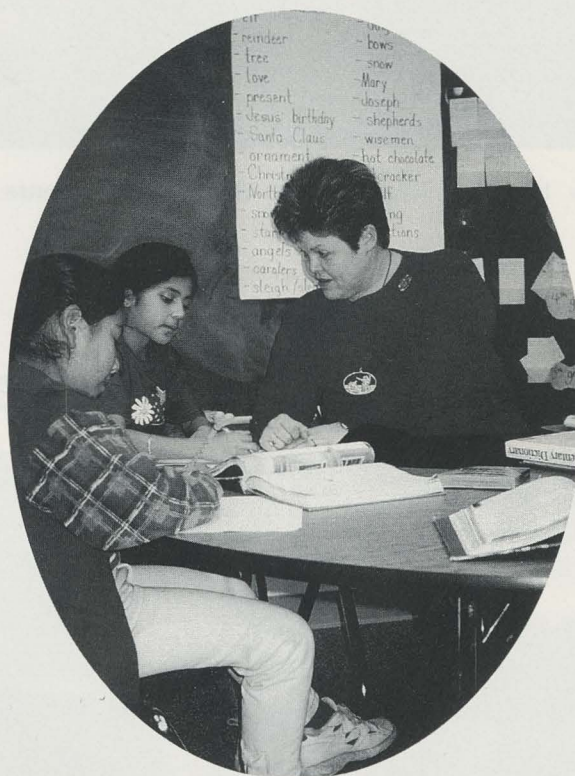

Following steps correctly in math takes patience.

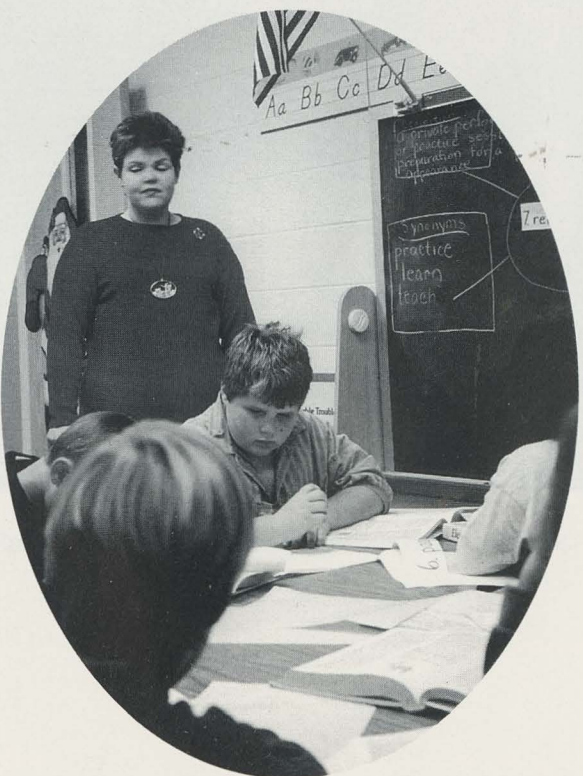

Reading - Mrs. Journey

Mrs. Journey teaches dictionary skills to her students.

Students get a lot of help in reading all year long.

Children are hard at work enriching their vocabulary.

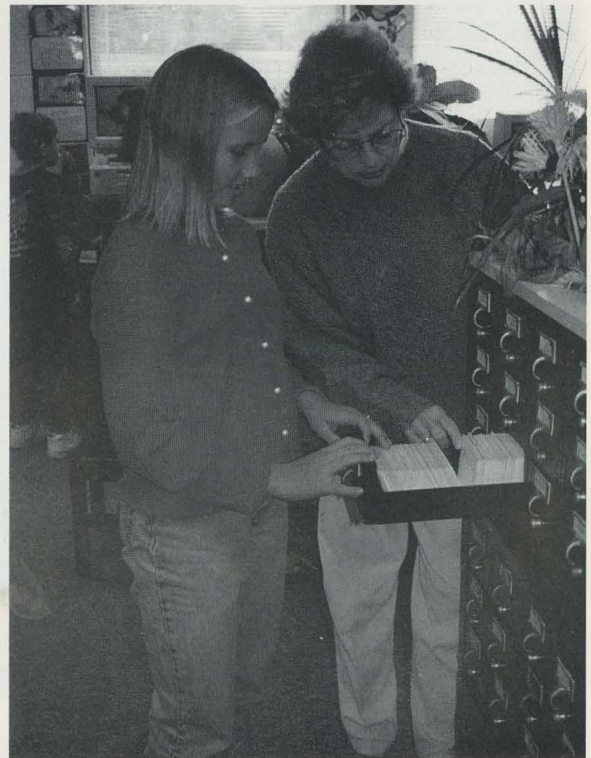

Mrs. High - Media Specialist

Mrs. High works with students individually as needed.

Our students enjoy using computers in the library.

Help is always welcome and appreciated from Mrs. High.

Using Technology

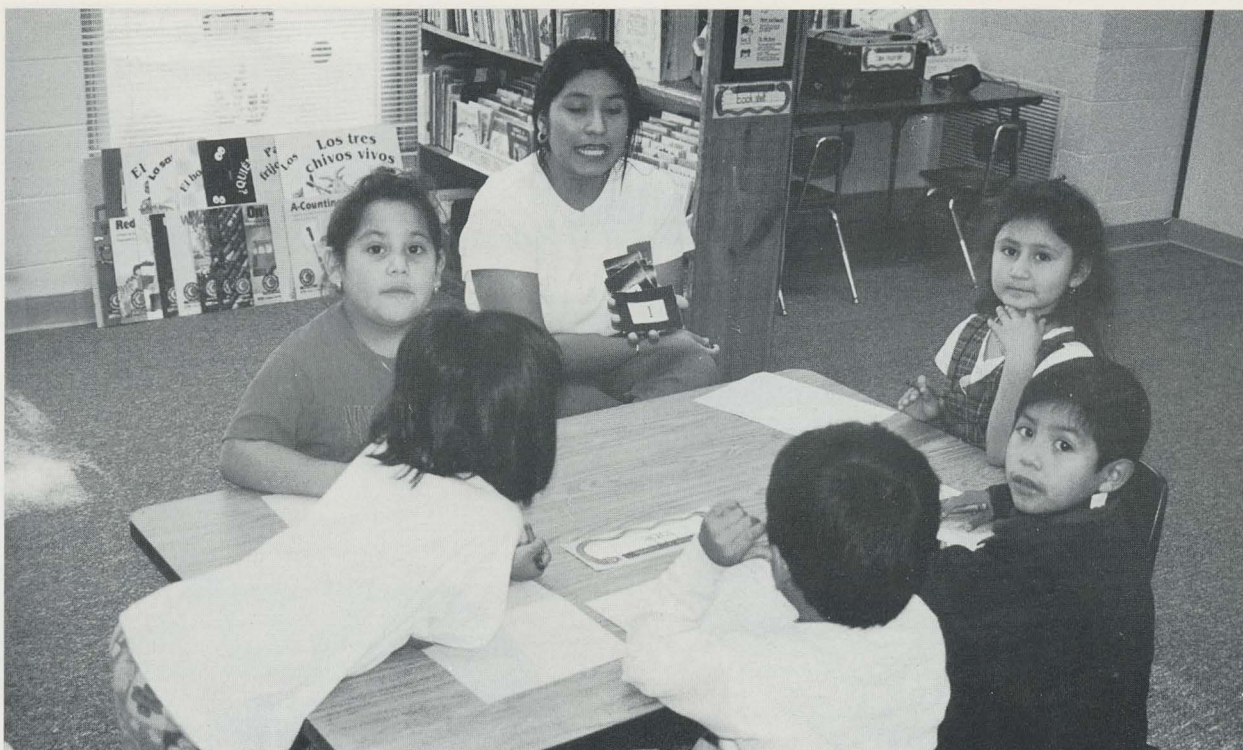

Computer skills are being taught to these second graders. They enjoy our new computer lab.

Working With Windows 95

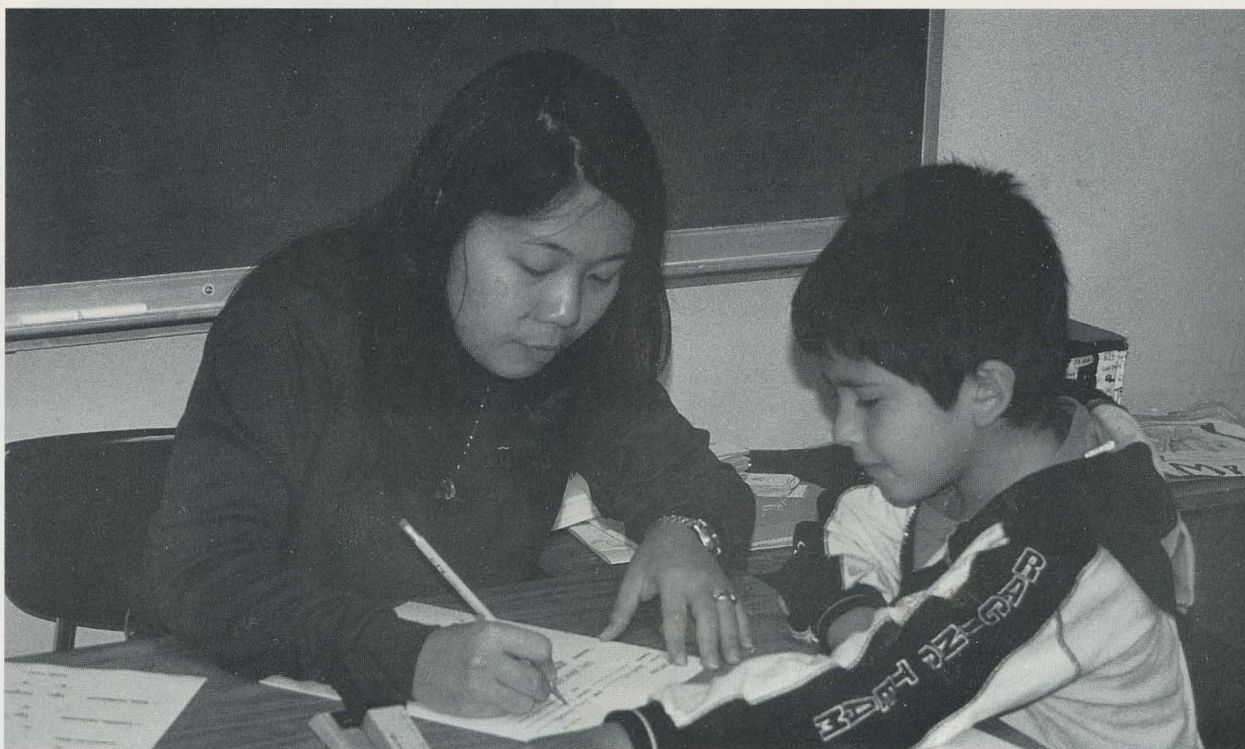

Fourth graders are finishing their Math Skills as Mrs. Lewis instructs them to close out their program.

English - A Second Language

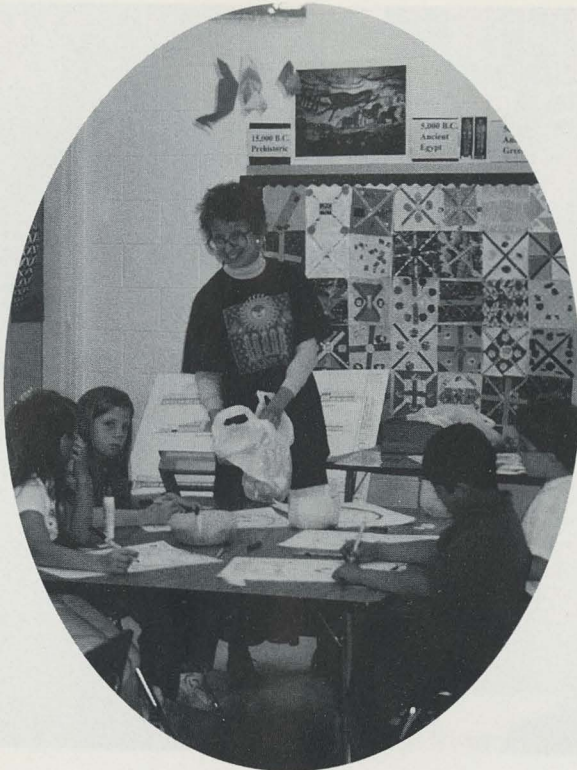

Ms. Bustamante is using flash cards to teach Kindergarten students their numbers in English.

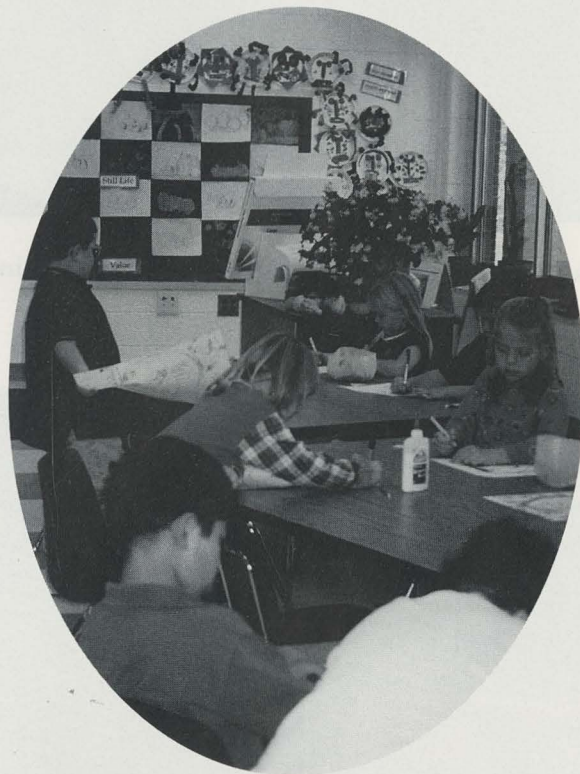

Ms. Fung is getting the necessary information from this student. That's an important part of her daily schedule.

Mrs. Altic - Art

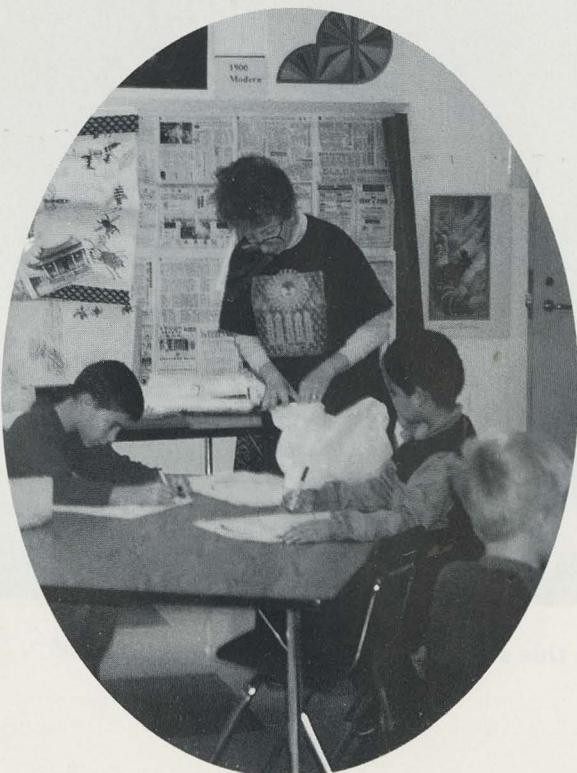

Mrs. Altic passes out supplies to students.

The children are hard at work on their self-portraits.

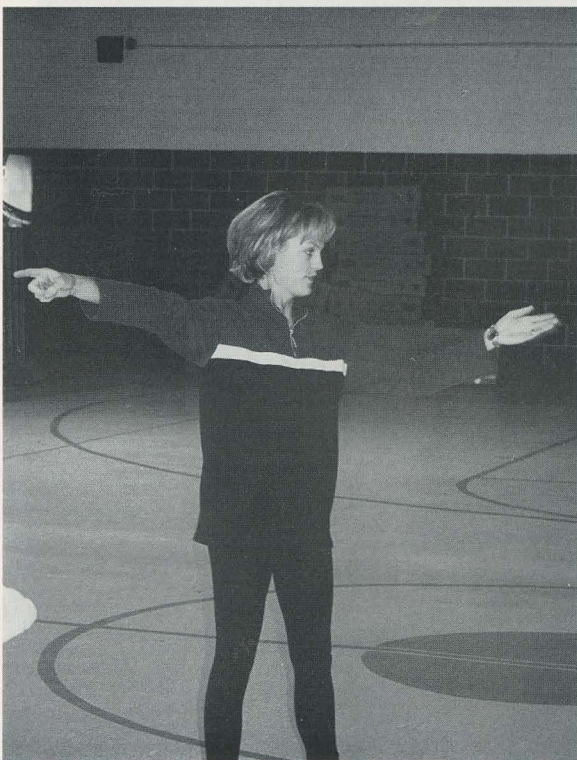

Being creative takes a lot of concentration.

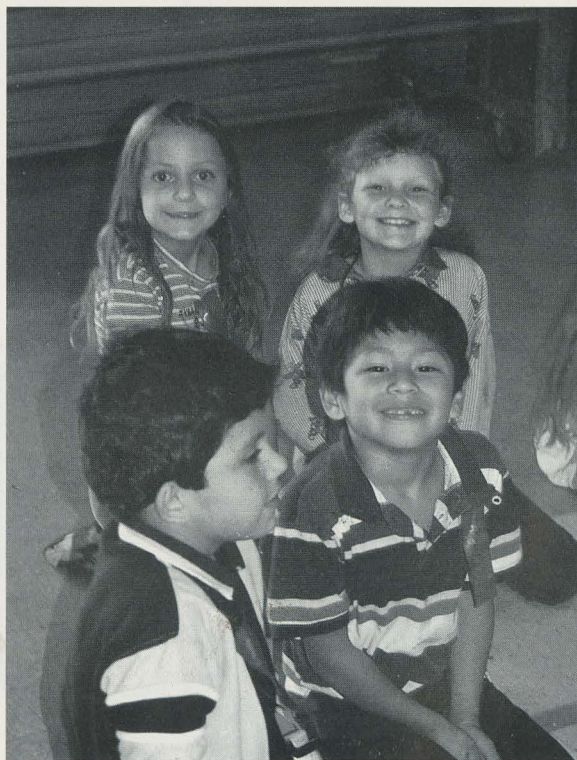

Mrs. Beasley - P.E.

Mrs. Beasley teaches her students many new games, dances and exercises throughout the year.

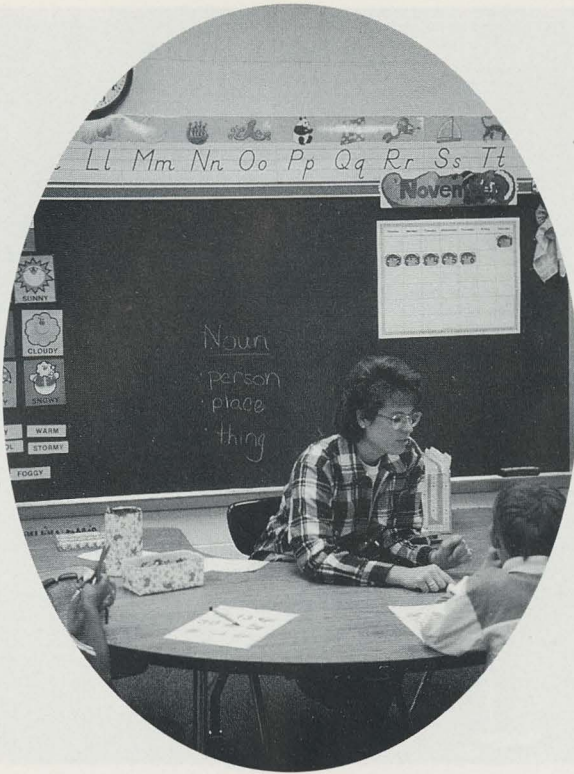

Mrs. Beasley is giving directions for a new activity.

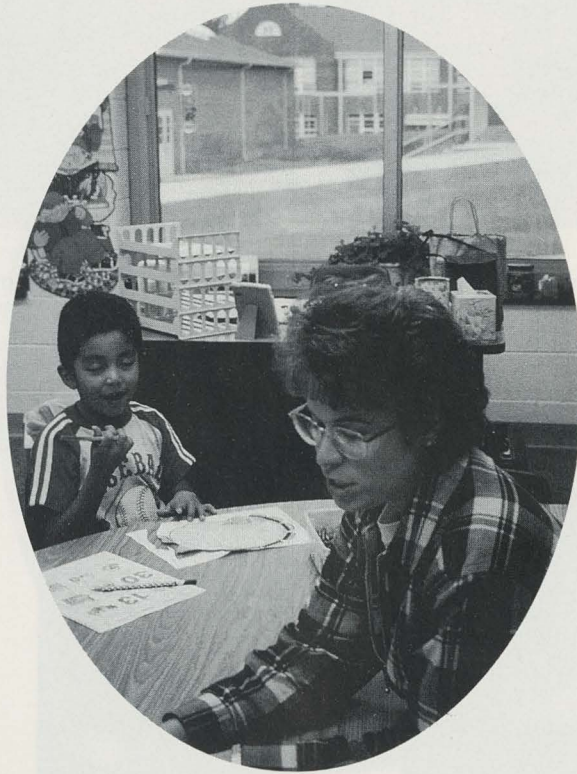

Smiling faces listen carefully as directions are given.

Mrs. Carter - Speech

Mrs. Carter works with students in small groups.

Children do fun activities while improving their speech.

Listening is important to proper pronunciation.

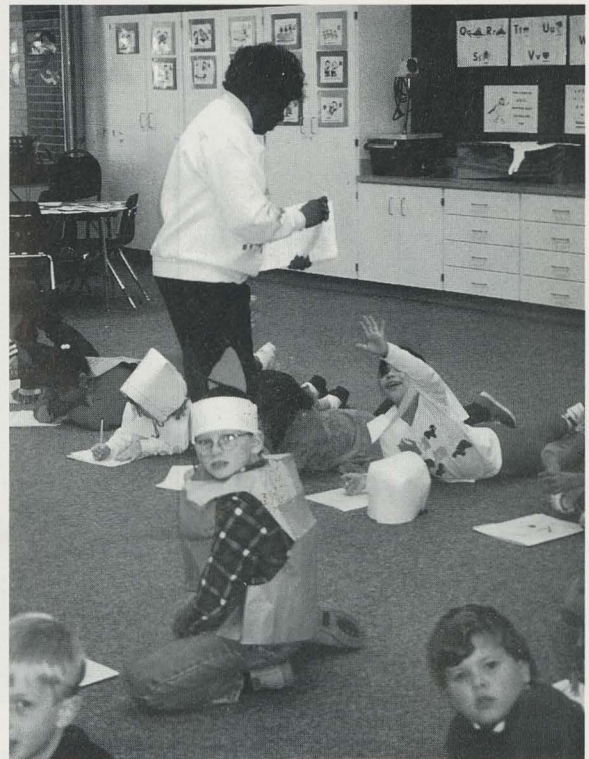

Mrs. McCarther - Music

Music is fun. It makes you feel happy. All the children like to sing together.

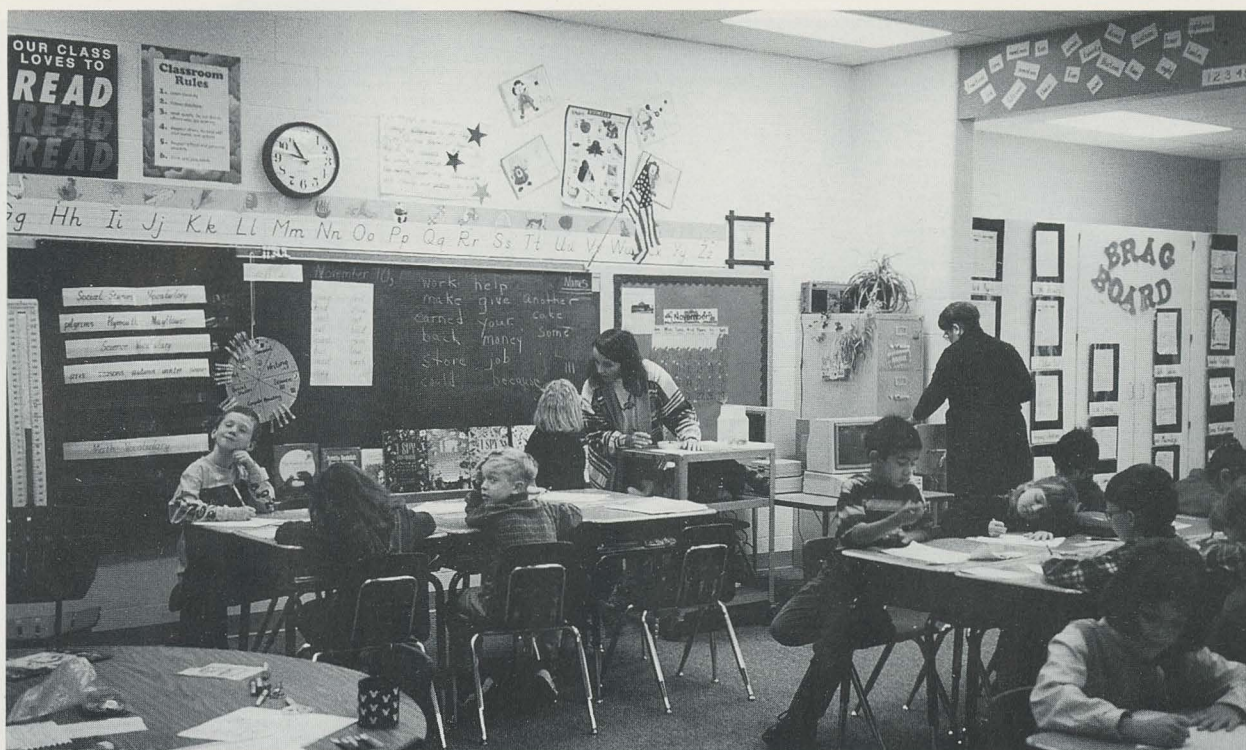

Mrs. McCarther greets the students.

Second graders are working on a Thanksgiving activity.

Ms. Wallace - Guidance

As Ms. Wallace teaches her classes, some students have questions. She always takes time to talk and answer their questions.

In guidance classes, Ms. Wallace uses many innovative methods in getting children to use their critical thinking skills.

Teacher Of The Year

Mrs. Cave teaches one of our fifth grades.

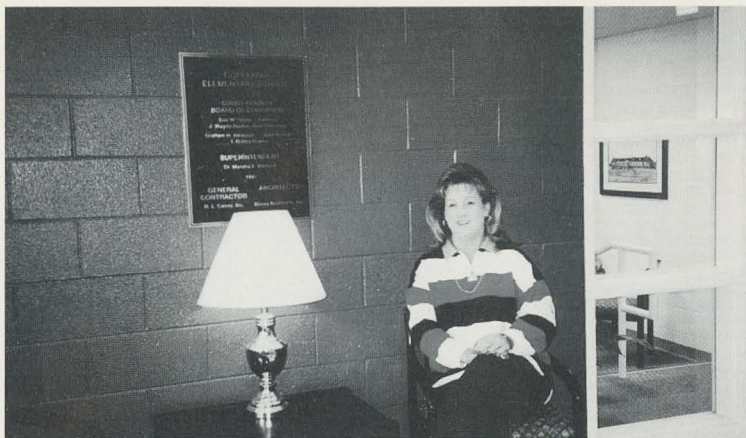

Individual help is given to these students.

Mrs. Cave makes sure that each student understands.

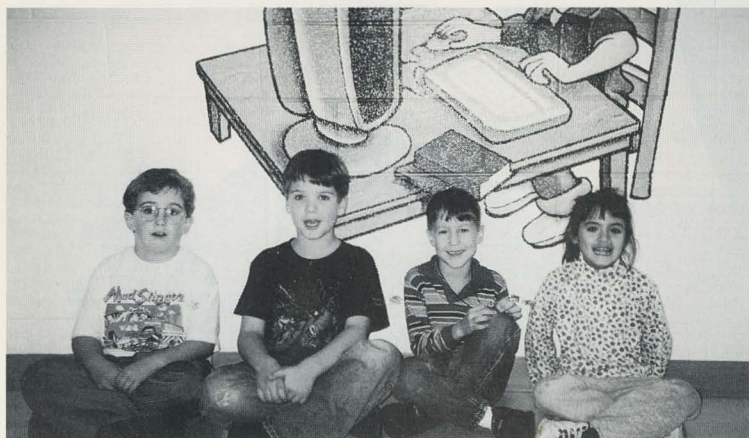

Competition is Fun!

Sandra Johnson won the county Bus Drivers' Rodeo.

Alyson Chrisley - School Speller
Brittany Coe - 5th Grade
Matthew Leftwich - 4th Grade

This group was our PTO Fundraiser winners.

These students worked hard for St. Jude's Math A Thon.

Visitors And Volunteers

Holly Hoosier is one of our many valuable volunteers.

Mrs. Johnson talks with third graders about hatching chickens.

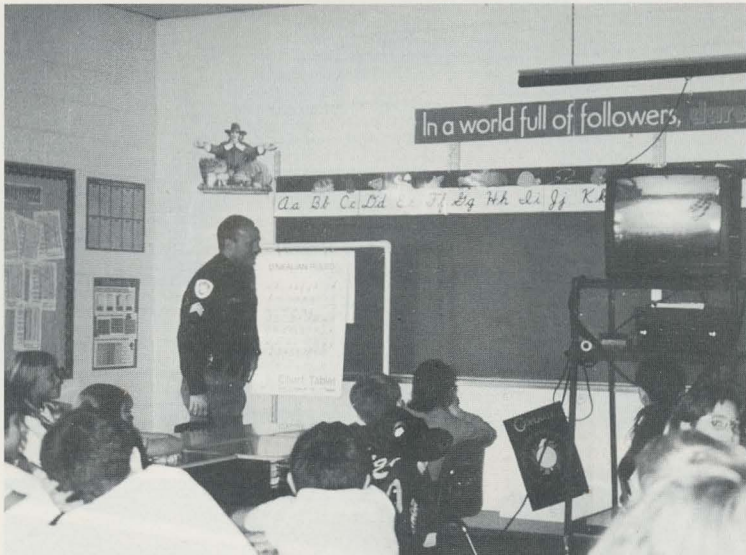

James McLaughlin shares a story with first grade.

Grandparents Day is always a huge success at Copeland.

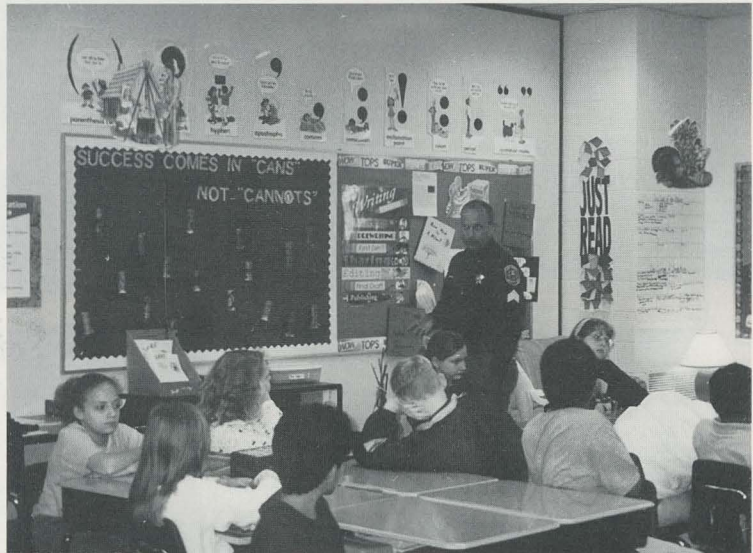

DARE - Just Say No To Drugs

Sgt. Atkinson sometimes utilizes videos in his DARE classes.

Students listen attentively as the DARE officer talks to them.

Officer Atkinson asks for input from the class.

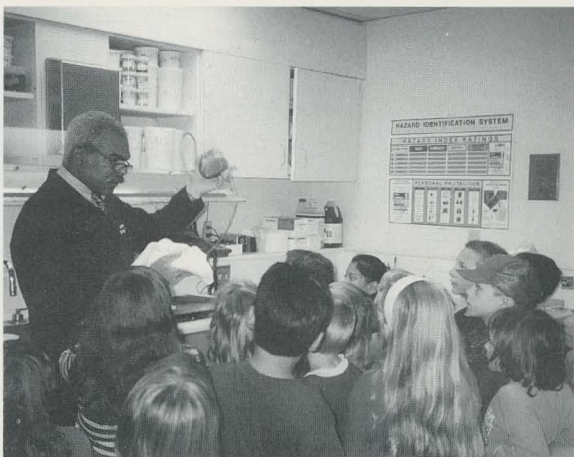

Happenings Around Copeland

Tom Acosta, commercial artist, did a beautiful job on our murals.

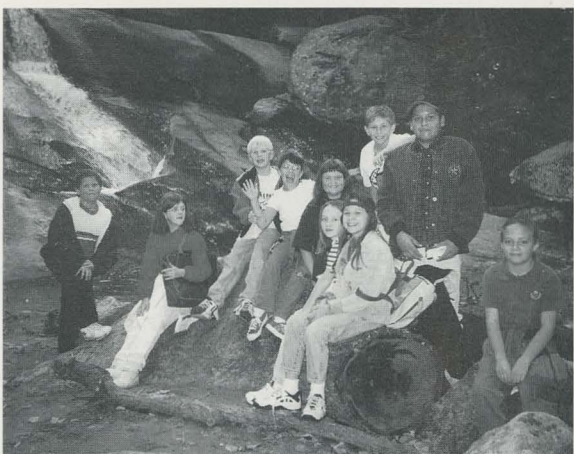

Grandparents of our students were invited to eat lunch.

First Grade enjoys the visit with Mr. Brim at the hospital.

Surry Central R.O.T.C. show the procedure of flag folding.

Fifth Grade enjoy the sights at Stone Mountain.

Mrs. Venable tells this class about the history of our area.

More Happenings!

New replaces old. This water tower served us well.

An old friend is torn down and awaits a new parking lot.

These colleagues are beautifying our lawn in our courtyard.

Lunchtime is a great time for socializing with our friends.

Second grade shares the books they made with first grade.

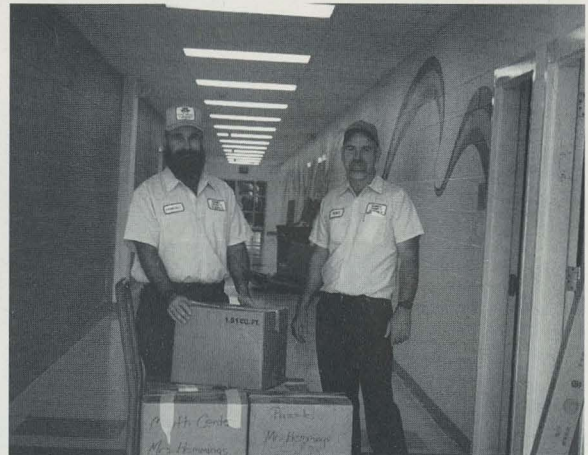

First grade enjoys their annual visit to the fire station.

Moving Day

Mrs. Edmonds empties one of many boxes.

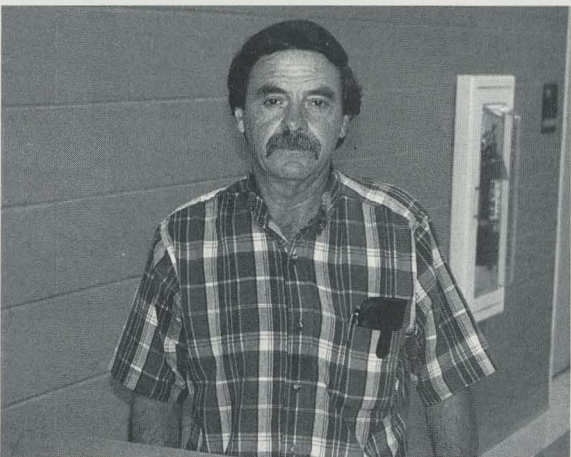

Randall and Mike were cheerful movers.

The cafeteria is being organized.

Mrs. Johnson needs more arms and hands.

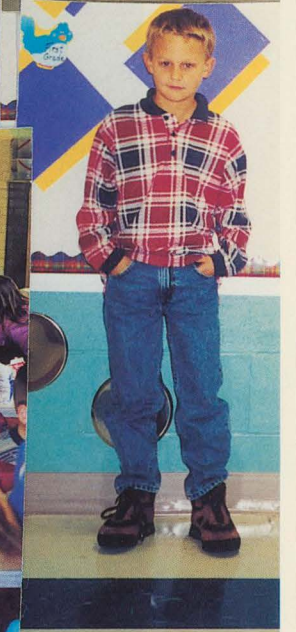

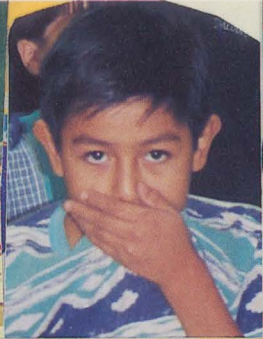

Mr. Shinault hopes there are no more boxes to be moved.

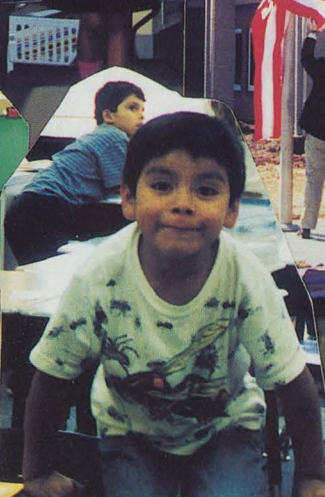

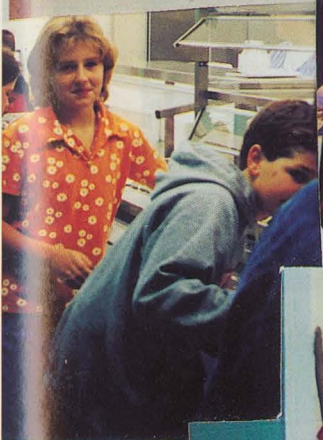

Out custodian cleans as we move.
