At the Village Super Market "Choice Meat" is the "Name of the Game." In the picture above you see Mark Fulk, left, and Mitchell Davis behind the meat counter. They were preparing a special cut of the choice Grade "A" Beef, that is featured at the popular store, for J. Glenn White, of Pilot Mountain, a loyal patron of the store for more than 20 years. You will like our quality meats and our fast and efficient service, too.

Mitchell and Mark are expert meat cutters and they like to serve you. Also at the Village Super Market you will find every kind of food that you would want, and this includes "Fresh Produce Daily".
