

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION JANUARY 2002 MEETING

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association held their January meeting on January 14 at the North Main Church of Christ building with the president Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, and Marie Williams. One guest, Lara Giesbers, was also in attendance.

The meeting was opened with the pledge to the flag and the Lord's Prayer. The cookbooks are here and will be selling for $14.00 each. Dues for the coming year were collected and secret pals for also chosen.

A thank you letter from the veterans was read thanking the club for the stamps which had been sent to them. The club will also be sending valentines to the Veterans.

Leader's training session will be held in Dobson on January 31. Achievement Day will be March 28 at Piney Grove Baptist Church and Cultural Arts will be held on March 5 at 7:00. Members signed up for refreshments.

Sue asked members to be thinking about some ideas of trips which club members could take. The February meeting will be held at Marie William's house.

The meeting was ended with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
FEBRUARY 2002

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association held their February meeting on February 11, 2002 at the home of Marie Williams, with the President Sue Chandler presiding. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, Debby Sammons, and Marie Williams.

The guest speaker, Bill Holcomb, began the meeting with a very informative program on hummingbirds. He told the members many interesting facts about hummingbirds. He also told members about the best way to attract hummingbirds and about hummingbird feeders.

After Mr. Holcomb's presentation, club members did the pledge to the flag and the Lord's prayer. Gloria Puckett, special projects chairman, reminded members of ongoing projects of the club, such as collecting stamps for veterans and collecting Campbell soup labels. Sue advised the members of several upcoming dates and events. The club will be responsible for the display case at the extension building for November and December and for the extension newsletter in June. Food news editors for several local newspapers will be in attendance on March 6, at a special luncheon where club members will be preparing recipes from the recent cookbook. Two of our club members will need to participate. Cultural Arts meeting will be on Tuesday, March 5, Achievement Day on Thursday, March 21 at 6:30 at Piney Grove Church, and Spring District Day will be in Mebane on Tuesday, March 26. Sue reminded members to keep tally of the number of hours they spend working for the club. She also reported that the recent bake sale was a success with the club making $185.45.

Imogene Moore was chosen as the club sweetheart after which refreshments were served and valentines exchanged. The meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION CLUB MEETING
MARCH 11, 2002
MINUTES

The White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association held their March meeting on March 11, 2002, at the North Main Church of Christ building, with the president, Sue Chandler, presiding. All members were present. The meeting began with the pledge to the flag, and the Lord's prayer followed with a devotion by Sue Chandler. The minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurer report was given. The club has a total of $748.28. The following dates for events and meetings were announced: Achievement Day, March 21; Spring District Day, March 26; and Farm Fest, June 1. Also the club is responsible for the display case at the extension office during November and December, and are also responsible for newsletters in June.

The club members will be taking a tour of Surry County on May 1. The extension van will be used for transportation and members should meet at the North Main Church at 10:00. A possible trip to the North Carolina Transportation Museum at Spencer was also discussed.

Sue read a thank you note from the family of Twelve Oaks Rest Home resident Ina McMillan thanking the club for the walker pack given to her.

Club members should decorate and wear a hat to the April meeting. ~~Sue~~ and Lynn Nordin will present a program on gardening tips and flower arranging.

Kathy Hallford presented the program on how to line a basket. Kathy demonstrated how to measure the material, how to line basket, and also how to make a covered lid for the basket. She also shared ideas on different kinds of gift baskets.

The meeting was concluded with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
MINUTES
APRIL 2002

The April meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Meeting was held on Monday, April 3, 2002, at 1:00 at the home of Becky Hill. The following members were present: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Lynn Nordin, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, Debby Sammons, and Marie Williams. Sue Chandler, president presided. The meeting was opened with the pledge to the flag and the Lord's Prayer. Lynn Nordin presented an informative program on flower arranging. She demonstrated making a centerpiece for a table and also gave everyone a list of garden tips.

Members were encouraged to keep track of the time they spend on club activities. The club voted to donate $50.00 to the Mt. Airy Public Library and also to the Canine Companions. The club is also going to try to do something special for the fourth of July for the Veterans Hospital in Salisbury. Gloria Puckett reported that she had sent 5,000 cut stamps to the Veterans. Sue reminded members of the following dates: Area meeting - April 9; Leadership meeting - April 23; Tour of Surry County - May 1. Elaine Whitaker will be presenting the program for the May meeting.

Becky Hill shared with members a "Care Kit for Everyday". The club is to do the opening ceremony at the County Council Meeting. It was decided to do the Care Kit for the devotional at that time.

Each member was asked to wear a hand decorated hat to the meeting. Voting was done on various categories. The winners were: most unusual - Barbara Peele; most original - Debby Sammons; prettiest - Becky Hill; and just for fun - Marie Williams. Sue Chandler won the centerpiece which Lynn Nordin designed. This was given to Twelve Oaks Rest Home for the residents to enjoy.

The meeting was adjourned with the club collect after which refreshments were served.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
MAY 2002
MINUTES

The May meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association Meeting was held on Monday, May 13, 2002, at 2:00 at the North Main Church of Christ building. The following members were present: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, Debby Sammons, and Marie Williams. Sue Chandler, president, began the meeting with a devotion and the Lord's prayer, after which members said the pledge to the flag.

Elaine Whitaker presented an interesting and informative slide presentation on "Feng Shui", which has to do with the arrangement within your house so your household will experience good luck.

The members of the club decided to make bibs for the local nursing homes and also to sponsor a booth at the Surry County fair. The club will again work to register the permanent flower arrangements at the fair. Volunteers were also requested to work at the county extension office on Thursday, May 16, to help sell and wrap cookbooks.

The club also planned a trip to the Transportation Museum in Spencer sometime in July. The date will be announced later.

The meeting was adjourned with the club collect after which refreshments were served.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
JUNE 2002
MINUTES

The June meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association was held on Monday, June 10, 2002, at the North Main Church of Christ building. The following members were in attendance: Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Gloria Puckett, and Debby Sammons. Sue Chandler, president, began the meeting with a devotion and the Lord's prayer, after which members said the pledge to the flag.

Sue informed the members that the club would be hosting the birthday party at the Colonial Rest Home on July 23. Debby Sammons, Mary Dove Johnson, and Becky Hill volunteered to make cupcakes, and Sue Chandler volunteered to get the drinks. Barbara Peele has volunteered to head the club in the decoration of a booth at the Surry County fair. The theme for the booth will be disaster preparedness.

Members of the club then worked on making patriotic cards to be sent to the Veterans' Hospital in Salisbury. Refreshments were served by Marjorie Brookshire after which the meeting was adjourned with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
JULY 2002
MINUTES

The July meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association was held on Monday, July 8, 2002, at the North Main Church of Christ building. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Imogene Moore, Lynn Nordin, Gloria Puckett, Debby Sammons, and Marie Williams.

Gloria Puckett opened the meeting with a devotion, after which members said the pledge to the flag. Debby Sammons provided refreshments.

Sue Chandler, president, presided. The trip to Spencer to the North Carolina Transportation Museum was discussed and planned. The members will meet at the church building on July 16 at 9:00. The club will provide refreshments to the Colonial Nursing Home on July 23. Plans were also made for the club picnic to be held on Monday, August 12, at the home of Mary Dove Johnson. Members volunteered to bring the following: Gloria Puckett-chili & buns; Imogene Moore-dessert & pickles; Marie Williams-plates & cups; Sue Chandler-lemonade, dessert, & pickles; Debby Sammons-potato salad; Barbara Peele-chips & dip; Marjorie Brookshire-fruit or watermelon; Becky Hill-slaw, onions, & tea; Mary Dove Johnson-hot dogs & trimmings.

Sue Chandler presented an informative program on growing herbs and how to use them. The meeting was dismissed with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
AUGUST 2002
MINUTES

The August meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association was held on August 12 at the home of Mary Dove Johnson. This was the club's annual picnic. Those present were Marjorie Brookshire, Sue Chandler, Mary Dove Johnson, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, Debby Sammons, and Marie Williams. Husbands attending were Wade Chandler, Raymond Johnson, Robert Hill, and Glenn Puckett. Food and fellowship was enjoyed by all.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
SEPTEMBER 2002
MINUTES

The September meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association was held on Monday, September 9, 2002, at the North Main Church of Christ building. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Becky Hill, Mary Dove Johnson, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, Debby Sammons, and Marie Williams.

Sue Chandler opened the meeting with a devotion, after which members said the pledge to the flag.

Sue Chandler, president, presided over the meeting. Members signed up to work at the Surry County fair on Monday, September 16. A letter was read which had been received from the Veterans thanking the club for the stamps. The club will be responsible for the display case at the extension office during the months of November and December. The club voted to help with the newsletters in February. The Christmas bazaar will be held on Friday, November 1. Cultural Arts will be held on March 4. Members voted to fill shoe boxes for the Good Samaritan ministries, one for a boy and a girl, ages 5-7, and one for a boy and a girl, ages 9-12. Sue reminded members that new officers would be elected at the October meeting.

Barbara Peele and Debby Sammons presented to the members their plans for the disaster awareness booth the club is entering in the county fair.

Refreshments were served by Gloria Puckett. The meeting was dismissed with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
OCTOBER 2002
MINUTES

The October meeting of the White Sulphur Springs Extension and Community Association met on Monday, October 14, at 1:00, at the North Main Church of Christ building. The following members were in attendance: Sue Chandler, Kathy Hallford, Becky Hill, Imogene Moore, Barbara Peele, Gloria Puckett, and Debby Sammons.

Gloria Puckett opened the meeting with a devotion, after which members said the pledge to the flag.

Sue Chandler, president, presided over the meeting. Sue announced that the club had received $100.00 for the second prize for the booth at the fair. A thank you note has been received for the eye covers and a ~~one~~ ^{two} and one half gallon container of pull tabs have been sent to the Environmental Center.

The club will have two tables available at the Christmas Bazaar to be held in Dobson on November 1. The members voted to make and sell fried apples pies at the bazaar. Six shoe boxes were filled to be sent to the Good Samaritan Ministries.

New officers were elected. They were as follows: President - Becky Hill; Vice President - Sue Chandler; Secretary - Gloria Puckett; Treasurer - Marie Williams.

Kathy Hallford presented a demonstration on etching on glass. Members after the demonstration etched their initial on a glass bowl. Refreshments were served and the meeting ended with the club collect.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS EXTENSION AND COMMUNITY
ASSOCIATION MEETING
DECEMBER 2002
MINUTES

The White Sulpher Springs Extension and Community Association Club met on Monday December 8, at the North Main Church of Christ building for their Christmas meal and fellowship. Sue Chandler, president, presided. The members and their guests enjoyed a covered dish meal after which everyone enjoyed playing "Snatch It". Special guests were Robert and Lara Geisbers and son Jerrick.

Gifts of appreciation were given to the officers of the club for their work during the past year.