THE OBITUARY

Jesus said, suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto me; for of such is the Kingdom of God.

Matthew 19:14

Aden Ina Jacquann Johnson of 150 Loop Avenue, Jonesville, North Carolina. An angel was called home on January 11, 2008 at Wake Forest University Medical Center, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He was born October 19, 2007 to Felix Johnson of Winston-Salem, North Carolina and Brittany Dobson of Jonesville, North Carolina. He leaves to share his love, his twin brother Cion Johnson of the home; paternal grandmother, Karen Smith of Jonesville, North Carolina; step-grandfather, Dereck Welborn of Jonesville, North Carolina and maternal grandmother, Olive Johnson of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; great-grandma, Frances Dobson of Rural Hall, North Carolina; a host of other relatives and friends. His grandfather, Archie Levy Dobson preceded him in death.

Moments

*If there ever were moments more precious
If there ever were moments more true,
If there ever were moments more wonderful
They are the moments I spent caring for you.*

Little Angels

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above, We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with the death of one small child Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold, So He picks a rosebud before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them, and so He takes but a few
To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try,
The saddest word mankind knows will always be "Goodbye."
So when a little child departs, we who are left behind Must realize God loves children, Angels are hard to find.
