C

Dear Fellow-members,

The greatness of God is seen no more vividly than in the individuality of creation. Each of us is given life with distinction. No other person is exactly the same. Our appearance and our talents differ. This fact makes life interesting.

It is in knowing and respecting each other as important persons in the family of God that we experience through the Church the deepest joys of human life.

I am so thankful to be sharing with each of you in the fellowship of faith at Central at this point in my own life's journey. The Gospel has a claim on each of us. It is a joy to experience these opportunities together.

Your Council on Ministries designed this pictorial directory for the purpose of nurturing our fellowship as a community of believers. May it serve as a blessing in providing a means of knowing and appreciating each other in the years ahead.

Most sincerely,

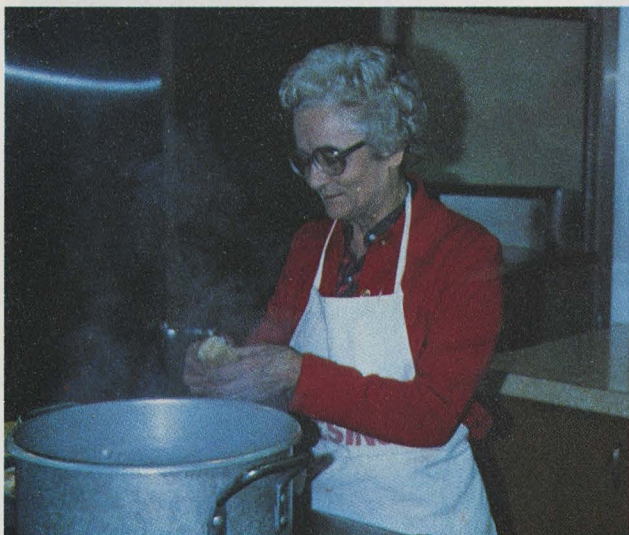

Julian M. Aldridge, Jr.
