Sandra, how did you know Gilbert Patterson, Jr. died in Surry Co. 9-24-1796? I can't find Gilbert Patterson anywhere except the marriage record in 1807. There is no Gilbert Patterson listed in Surry County in the 1790 or 1800 Census. There is no Gilbert Patterson listed in North Carolina in the 1784-1787 or <sup>1800</sup>1810 Census. I've checked all the will abstract books and no Gilbert Patterson listed anywhere as son of or otherwise from 1771-1901. Gilbert Patterson that married Mary McBride must have left NC after marrying or he lived with his parents or her parents from then through 1810 census time. I can still check the deeds and tax records when I go to the courthouse and look in our research room. This may be end of this week or next week. I'm not sure when I'll get to go but I will check for info there and see if I come up with anything in the surrounding areas. Wilma

Dear Wilma, Thank you for your help; I am aware that some of the information from Roots Web and Family Search informatin on the web is not always accurate, but is a good place to start.

Gilbert Patterson, Jr. information was from a Family Group Record in www.familysearch.org (AFN:ZTGG-64)
b. @1740 Buies Creek Area, Cumberland, NC
d. 9-24-1796 surry, NC m. @ 1760 14 children are listed.

Mary McBride was listed as Gilbert Patterson, Jr.'s wife on www.familytreemaker.com under the Descendants of Thomas Pattison; Generation No. 4 Generation No. 4 lists Gilbert Patterson III (Gilbert (3), Gilbert Pattison (2) Thomas Pattison (1)
Gilbert Patterson III was born in 1724 in Anne Arundle Co., MD, and died in August 24, 1796 in Chatham Co., NC. He married Nancy Sarah McIver, daughter of John McIver.

Gilbert Patterson, Jr. is listed as their third child.

In worldconnect.rootsweb.com under Patterson, Medley/Hutchins/Cox/Watkins Family Ahnentafel, Generation No. 3 Questions may be directed to Robert C. Haefner rhaefner@telecomresource.net
Gilbert Patterson b. 1724 in Ann Arundel Co.MD, and died 9-24-1796
m. Sarah or Celia Sympson who died after 1820 in Moore Co., NC

****Three records listed the date of death on August 24, 1796; two are in different counties and one did not list a place of death???
This is quite a puzzle!!!

Thanks Judy! Appreciate your reply.

Along these same lines, while I've joined SCGA this past year, I was wondering if there is any way to know if any of the members have historical roots with my PATTERSON lines in Surry? I've heard there is an extensive genealogy section at SCCC, but I haven't had the time to take off work to come up and browse the collections.

Also, do you happen to have a mailing list of the members, or at least the address (E-mail or USPS) for a Mr. Kellam that wrote the indexes of grave sites of Surry County? I'd love to get a copy of all of them.

One of the things I like to do, for my ancestors for now, is to take pictures of their grave markers. Have over 500 so far and have scanned them into my PC. Even found the grave of Abram WHITAKER and his wife Lydia WHITAKER (1st cousins) out in the middle of a forested area just southwest of the Mountain. What a treat!

Again, thanks for the reply and information on the book.

Last thing, but is the History of Surry County, by J. G. Hollingsworth, radically different that the Heritage of Surry County? I've got that on my "to buy" list and was just wondering.

Mount Airy.—Edward L. Patterson, 81, died in a Greensboro hospital at 9:30 p.m. Monday night after a long illness. For the past few months he had been living in Greensboro with a son, E. Maurice Patterson, 1907 Walker Avenue.

Mr. Patterson was born in Surry County, son of Marcus Lafayette and Minerva Jessup Patterson. Thanks Wilma!!! Wonder if you are related to me via the HYATT and WHITAKER lineage?

The PATTERSON lines I'm looking into are my mother's people. Her father was Escar Floyd PATTERSON of Pilot Mtn, and he descended from Samuel Martin PATTERSON, then William Henry Harrison PATTERSON, then William C. PATTERSON. We can't seem to find anything out on William C. or his siblings or where he came from. We know he married (1) Cynthia NAYLOR on January 13, 1832, and then (2) Caroline MAINARD on February 17, 1833. This is who had his children that led to us. :-)
While I'm not sure, I think Cynthia's father may have been named Irvin NAYLOR from some census information I was looking at.

Anyway, I appreciate your replying to me. I'm going to order the History book you mention just to ensure I have it for my children. Having the Heritage volume #2 book, I hope that they will publish volume #1 again too. I'll also contact Lessie BRINDLE on the cemetery books. They were a real treat when I was at the Mt. Airy library looking at them. Very informative.

BTW, if you or others need a copy of any of my pictures of grave sites, let me know. I'm not into this for money or publishing rights or anything, just to find information and share with others. But... if I end up sending pictures to people who later publish them, I'd be somewhat upset. :-)

Thanks again for replying to me. Let me know if you have WHITAKER lines with your HYATT or HIATT.

Bob, Judy Cardwell forwarded your e-mail to me regarding your Patterson family. I don't know which family you are researching but we do have some researchers on Joseph and Sarah Pattison, Benjamin, George, and Littlebury Patterson, and David and Mecca Holder Patterson as well as others that are listed that research the Patterson surname. Since you were a member of SCGA during 2000, look in the Winter 2000 journal for a listing of members and their address. Wallace Kellam that published 30 cemetery books died several years ago. You might e-mail Lessie Brindle at jbrindle@surry.net and ask her. She did some indexing for the books and will know if they are still available. You have a great collection of photos of grave markers of your ancestors. You also ask about the history book of Surry by Hollingsworth. This book is nothing like the Surry heritage books. I think you will enjoy it. If we can help with anything else, please let us know. Wilma Hiatt, Research Committee. >>

Dear Mrs Hill,

11 Sept 85

Enclose your Schuyler's m. bond for your files.

Green's estate is 10 pages in all & I paid Carole $3 for copy, so from what you advised, hope it covered the cost. I can print & mail it to you at a cost to me of $2.06, so I'll wait to hear if you find you already have it. (Otherwise, it makes my record quite expensive if you don't need it, to copy it extra times.)

Wm's accounts Feb 12, 1801 shows cash pd to let May term <sup>(seems)</sup> May 1800?

- ① 10 Jul 1801 Jno Wm's bill due from Green of May 10, 1800.
- ② 3 Feb 1802 Jno Colvard bill due from Green of Jan 7, 1800.
- ③ 21 Oct 1801 Wm Patterson amt due from Green of June 5, 1798 work at Mill
- ④ Inv. of the Sales made 16 & 17 Apr 1801
- ⑤ Can show amt of value advanced by dad to them - dated May 11, 1801
- ⑥ Feb Term 1801 let Orders Comm to let off to Rebecca 1 year's support.

I don't pretend to know about estates, but my impression is Green d. during 1800, possibly around May somewhere?

I expect Wm's bond as Adm in Raleigh was made in 1800, & there's clue of May Term 1800; leaves Aug Term & Nov Term if he wasn't in May. <sup>* see above.</sup> The Surry Minutes of May Term 1800 & thereafter might tell of Wm. too.

As to Wm C. Patterson. When did Surry & Yadkin start Death Certificates? Several Ch. d. into 1900's & don't see anyone looking at their d. Cert, which could be on file. I don't know if WPA cover N.C. records, but they indexed some Indiana in 1880's. (Deaths, Births, Marriages).

I'm trying to help Beth Flynt on Wm C. Also, newspaper files (in Ky & here 1830 obits, etc) possibly N.C. papers are somewhere too?

In 1870 Wm C. in Eldora Twp P.O. Stanes Ck. <sup>(p. 127)</sup>
Chambers C. Patterson m. 1819 Cynthia Haigues + Chambers C. has m. in 1830 fits Wm C. Then Wm C. gone 1840 in + Chambers gone 1840 too from Surry!

Chambers looks interesting in any case?

Enough for this time. Your opinion & advice is most appreciated. Enjoyed our short visit. Regards, Doris Bohannon

THE MAX A. PARKER FAMILY 768

Parker was born to Mr. Samuel D. Parker and Mrs. Hessie O. Parker on August 31, 1932. Max was the third child out of five. He was born at Dobson in Surry County. His family later moved to Boonville and then to the Courtney Community.

Max Parker's wife, Coleen Y. Cook Parker, was born to Robert Lee and Vertie Viola Anderson Cook on July 2, 1937, in Iredell County. Coleen was the youngest of fourteen children.

Max and Coleen were married on August 20, 1955, by Charles Dunn in York, South Carolina. Then they lived in Courtney. Then on October 4, 1956 in the Davie County Hospital, Coleen and Max had their first child who was a girl and they named her Sheila Jelane Parker. On June 26, 1977, Sheila married Brian Dezern Mosteller from Boonville. At this time they have no children.

Max and Coleen had another daughter on November 1, 1960, also at Davie County Hospital. They named her Robin Yvonne Parker. On June 16, 1979, Robin married Christopher Logan Brown. Robin and Chris have no children either.

On February 20, 1967, Max and Coleen had their last daughter who was named Melissa Dawn Parker. Melissa attended Courtney Elementary and will attend Forbush High. The family belongs to the Courtney Baptist Church.

THE PATTERSONS

Some family tradition indicates that the Pattersons came down to Surry County from Virginia, possibly from around Natural Bridge. Other family members seemed to believe that the Pattersons of this area were descended from Gilbert Patterson who settled first in the eastern part of North Carolina.

According to the Colonial Records of North Carolina, Vol. 4, page 453, Gilbert Pattison (Patterson) was granted 640 acres in Bladen County at a council held at Wilmington on the fourth day of June, 1740. Bladen County, at that time, extended westwardly across the United States, its western boundary was undetermined. Another tradition is that they came from "Patterson Springs" which is in present-day Gaston County.

This Gilbert Patterson is believed to have been the father of Greenberry Patterson I. Greenberry Patterson I obtained land on "Mill Creek" in what is now Yadkin County, North Carolina, on April 3, 1780. He built a mill on North Deep Creek in 1791. Greenberry was probably born about 1740/50 and died in 1798 in Surry (Yadkin) County. He is shown on the 1790 Surry County census with four males over 16, and four males under 16. The 1784-1787 tax lists of Surry County show Greenberry Patterson with 1 male over 16, 5 under, and 4 females. His wife's name was Rebecca.

It is believed that Greenberry Patterson I had at least 12 children. Later census records indicate that some of those children were born in Virginia. The children were: Greenberry, John, Joel, Rebecca, James, Benjamin, Mary (Polly), Gilbert, Keziah, Isaac, Jesse, and Joshua.

(1) Greenberry Patterson, born September 15, 1775, in Virginia, died December 19, 1852, in Yadkin County. He is buried in an old cemetery between Boonville and Yadkinville near one of his father's early land purchases, and which property later belonged to Dr. Thad Shore. The name of his first wife is unknown and the names of his children by her. He married on August 24, 1822, in Surry County, Catherine Creson. She died after 1853 for in that year she was allotted the dower lands of her deceased husband, Greenberry Patterson II.

Possibly William, born in 1811, who married Caroline Maynard on February 17, 1833, in Surry County, is a son of Greenberry's. William had children: Samuel (1834); Mary A. (1836); Harrison (1839) who married on January 3, 1867 in Yadkin County, Sarah E. Whitaker; Saluda (1838); William (1840) who was living in the household of Greenberry II in the 1850 census; John (1843); and Greenberry III (1846).

Jane Patterson who married Hugh Bryant on December 26, 1837, in Surry County, may well be a daughter of Greenberry II, as well as Caroline who married John Bryant, Jemima who married Charles Bryant on February 2, 1845, and Mary Pauline who married George D. Brindle. This relationship has not been proven, however.

(2) John Patterson, believed to be a son of Greenberry Patterson I married on November 14, 1797, in Surry County, North Carolina, Edy Johnston.

(3) Joel Patterson, son of Greenberry Patterson I, married on August 5, 1801, in Surry County, Sarah Harding, born in 1783 in Virginia, the daughter of William and Obedience Hutchens Harding (see article on the William Harding Family). Joel and Sarah removed to Jackson County, Missouri. The names of their children are unknown.

(4) Rebecca Patterson, born September 15, 1777, died October 24, 1837, and buried in the Patterson-Bryant Cemetery previously mentioned, married first on September 9,

1803, in Surry County, Renne Harding, born August 15, 1774, in Virginia, son of William and Obedience Hutchens Harding (see article on Renne Harding Family). Rebecca married second, in 1814 after the death of Renne Harding, Joshua Creson.

(5) James Patterson, date of birth unknown, died in 1833, married Elizabeth "Betsey" Speer. His children were Lewis W., Joel (married Sarah Patterson, daughter of Jesse), Kezia, Nancy, James, Greenberry, Rebecca, Aaron B., and Sarah (who married William Carr or Kerr). Aaron and Sarah Patterson Carr moved to Davidson County, Tennessee. They signed a power of attorney to Aquilla Speer in connection with the sale of land belonging to their father's estate.

(6) Benjamin Patterson married on February 12, 1817, in Surry County, North Carolina, Mary Jackson. I do not know the names of his children.

(7) Mary (Polly) Patterson was a daughter of Greenberry Patterson's, but nothing further is known about her.

(8) Gilbert Patterson married on April 25, 1807, in Surry County, Mary McBride. They removed to Davis County, Indiana. The names of his children are not known to this writer. Gilbert was probably named after his grandfather. Gilbert was still living in 1855 when he signed a power-of-attorney to William Harding to sell land he had inherited from his father, Greenberry I.

(9) Kezia(h) Patterson married William Patterson, Jr., son of William Patterson. Their marriage bond had no date in the register of marriages found at Dobson, North Carolina.

(10) Isaac Patterson died sometime after 1860. He appears in the Yadkin County census for that year.

(11) Jesse Patterson, born in 1781, died after 1850, is believed to have been married three times (but possibly there was another Jesse Patterson). He married Nancy Brown on January 13, 1811, Surry County, North Carolina; he married Mary Creson on July 28, 1818; and he married Nancy Bohanon on May 30, 1824. Jesse had at least three children: Keziah who married Thomas H. Brown and removed to Jackson County, Missouri; Amos C. Patterson, born in 1825; and Nancy M. Patterson, born in 1830 (according to the 1850 Surry/Yadkin Census).

(12) Joshua Patterson, son of Greenberry I, married on December 20, 1819, in Surry County, Mary "Polly" Williams. Joshua died after 1874 because on November 16, 1874, he deeded land to his daughter, Elizabeth M. Lakey (see Deed Book D, Page 570, records of Yadkin County, North Carolina).

The children of Joshua and Mary Williams Patterson were:

A daughter who died at eight years of age; Elizabeth Mahala, married on April 2, 1869, in Yadkin County, J.L. Lakey;

REVEREND HENRY PATTILLO

The name Pattillo was originally spelled "Pattulloch" meaning in Scotch "The Foot of the Lake." There are at least 18 variations: Pettelleaw, Pettillok, Pittilloh, Pettullo, Pettelly, Pattulloch, Patillo, Pattillo, Pattullo, Pittillo, Pittulo, as well as shortened versions:

Tulloch, Tullo, Tullios, and Tulloss (see Dundee, Scotland, Parish Register 1682-1740, Christenings).

The family name originated either from one of two place names, Pittelloch, near Freuchie, Fife or Glenfarg, Perthshire.

Adam de Pettillok is mentioned in a memo of 1295, and is probably the Adam de Pethilloch who appears as assizer at Perth in 1305.

William de Pettillok held a charter of lands of Gibblistoun in Fife from Robert I.

John de Pytlyllok held a toft in Portynrag in 1433.

A history of this family by M.J. Miller, Beaumont, Texas, states, "The Pittillo family is an ancient family residing at Balumbic near Dundee in Scotland. During the reign of Louis VI of France, he came over into Scotland, and Robert Pattillo, with several other men joined the King's Archer Guards and so distinguished himself in an insurrection in Gascony that the King promoted him with an appointment of Governor of one of his provinces. From this circumstance the Pattillo coat-of-arms was established, which is an unbent bow resting on a shield; the crest, a mailed glove with a rose in hand. The motto 'Et decerpta dabunt odorem' (and plucked, they will give forth an odour)."

Robert Pattullo is called a "great captain" in Chambers History of Charles VII, page 178. He went in 1424 to France.

The family may originally descend from the nan legate Pettellus who came to Britain in 323 A.D.

The Pattullos of Fife and Perth were a sept or dependent of Clan Macgregor. The Wigtonshire Pittullichs were members of Clan Donald of Keppoch (see Clans, Septs, Regiments of the Scottish Highlands, by Frank Adam, p. 3).

Henry Pattillo, the subject of this article, was born in Scotland in 1726. He made frequent reference to his parents, but only his mother's name, Jane, has been handed down. He had a brother named George, and together they emigrated to Virginia in 1740. George settled in Charlotte County, Virginia, and raised a large family.

As a youth, Henry was placed with a merchant to learn the art of trade, but he soon had enough, and began to teach. He then turned to the ministry.

In Virginia, Henry became acquainted with Samuel Davies (1723-1760) and was invited to return to the Davies home in Hanover County, Virginia to live and to study. Henry began a journal on August 10, 1754, about this period of his life.

Henry met and fell in love with Mary Anderson of Hanover County. According to his journal, the newly-wed couple lived in a house 16 x 12, which was later struck by lightning and burned.

Henry Pattillo delivered his "trail" sermon in April, 1756 in Hanover County. On September 28, he opened the Presbytery held at Cub Creek in Charlotte County, and was granted a license to preach. In September of 1758, he accepted calls from congregations at Willis, Byrd, and Buck Island.

In 1765 he was at the Presbytery at Hyco, in Caswell County (then Orange) and was invited to supply central North Carolina churches including Hawfields, Eno, and Little River. He and his family then moved to North Carolina.

Reverend Pattillo was opposed to the Regulators Movement and preached against it (Colonial Records of North Carolina, Vol. 7, pp. 814-815, 835.).

But he became involved in the American Revolution by being elected a delegate to the North Carolina Provincial Convention which met August 1775, as a representative of Bertie County. He also served on the Committee of Safety. He, with others, signed the petition to the King of England stating that the English Parliament had no right to tax the colonies.

He was chosen Chairman of that convention.

In 1780, Henry Pattillo went to Granville County, North Carolina, to serve Grassy Creek and other congregations. He also supervised Granville Hall, a classical academy at Williamsboro, and taught for several years.

During an illness in 1782, he composed a will (which is deposited in the archives at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia).

He wrote several manuscripts and compiled a public school geography, Geographic Catechism.

In 1784, the Grassy Creek and Nutbush (Williamsboro) congregations deeded him 300 acres on Spewmarrow Creek in Granville County, on the condition that he continue for life as minister to these two congregations. His home was located about two miles southeast of "Abrams Plains" and about a mile and one-half north of Stovall.

On April 25, 1797, Reverend Pattillo was awarded an honorary A.M. degree by Hampden-Sydney College. Reverend Davies had wanted him to obtain a formal college education, but Pattillo had never done so.

Reverend Pattillo refined some of his more noteworthy sermons and published them in a volume entitled Sermons, printed by James Adams at Wilmington, New Jersey, in 1788. He also published a funeral sermon on General George Washington.

In 1801, Reverend Pattillo was invited to a special meeting in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, and died there in August (see Raleigh Register, August 24, 1801). His place of burial is unknown, but it may be on property owned by one of his two sons, Dr. Henry Pattillo, Jr., or Dr. William J. Pattillo, both of whom were living in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, at that time.

Reverend Pattillo, so we are told, was of large frame and had a plain face, but he was filled with wit and had the ability to make listeners laugh. He is described well in W.H. Foote's North Carolina Sketches, published in 1846, pp. 213-226. See also Orange County, North Carolina, edited by Hugh Lefler and Paul Wager, and North Carolina Review, Vol. XLIV, No. 4, pp. 373-391.

The Reverend's home in North Carolina, called "Glebe" has been continuously occupied and is still in an excellent state of preservation. It is now owned by C. Julian Wilson, a descendant of Dr. Goodrich Wilson.

The children of Rev. Henry and Mary (Milly) Anderson Pattillo were:

(1) Henry Pattillo, Jr., born in 1756, Hanover County, Virginia, became a doctor. In 1791 he owned property in Surry (now Yadkin) County, North Carolina, near the Haynes Ironworks in the Shacketown community.

(2) Ann Pattillo, born February 2, 1757, died August 24, 1809, married first Major Richard Harrison. She married Thomas Farrow second.

(3) Jane Pattillo, born May 30, 1760, died January 8, 1826, married Col. Robert Lanier first. She married Capt. Francis Poindexter second. (See article entitled "Jane Pittillo Lanier Poindexter.")

(4) Anderson Pattillo married Catherine Harper.

(5) Mary Pittillo married Samuel Griffin.

(6) William Johnstone Pattillo married first Diana Minor Harper; second, Martha Jones.

(7) John Franklin Pattillo married Ann Webb first, and Hargette Pattillo Hyde second.

(8) Mildred (Milly) Pattillo married Orman Kimbrough.

(See also Pattilo, Pattillo, Pattullo and Pittillo Families, by Melba C. Crosse, Ft. Worth, Texas, 1972, from which much of this information was derived.

Jane Pattillo was born May 30, 1760, and died January 8, 1826, the daughter of Rev. Henry and Mary Anderson Pattillo (see separate article on Reverend Henry Pattillo). She is buried across the Yadkin River in present-day Forsyth County in the Lanier-Clingman Cemetery, between her two husbands (Col. Robert Lanier and Capt. Francis Poindexter).

Jane married in Bute County, North Carolina, on June 12, 1775, Robert Lanier. After his death, she married Capt. Francis Poindexter in Granville County, May 26, 1786. (see Warren County, North Carolina Records, Vol. 1, p. 70, automobile accident and is buried in the cemetery at Mt. Pleasant Church. Several years after Carl's death, Zena married Robert E. McCormick, Jr. They have one son, Robert Dale.

THE MAX A. PARKER FAMILY

Max Parker was born to Mr. Samuel D. Parker and Mrs. Hessie O. Parker on August 7, 1932. Max was the third child out of five. He was born at Dobson in Surry County. His family later moved to Boonville and then to the Courtney Community.

Max Parker's wife, Coleen Y. Cook Parker, was born to Robert Lee and Vertie Viola Anderson Cook on July 2, 1937, in Iredell County. Coleen was the youngest of fourteen children.

Max and Coleen were married on August 20, 1955, by Charles Dunn in York, South Carolina. Then they lived in Courtney. Then on October 4, 1956 in the Davie County Hospital, Coleen and Max had their first child who was a girl and they named her Sheila Jelane Parker. On June 26, 1977, Sheila married Brian Dezern Mosteller from Boonville. At this time they have no children.

Max and Coleen had another daughter on November 1, 1960, also at Davie County Hospital. They named her Robin Yvonne Parker. On June 16, 1979, Robin married Christopher Logan Brown. Robin and Chris have no children either.

On February 20, 1967, Max and Coleen had their last daughter who was named Melissa Dawn Parker. Melissa attended Courtney Elementary and will attend Forbush High. The family belongs to the Courtney Baptist Church.

Some family tradition indicates that the Pattersons came down to Surry County from Virginia, possibly from around Natural Bridge. Other family members seemed to believe that the Pattersons of this area were descended from Gilbert Patterson who settled first in the eastern part of North Carolina.

According to the Colonial Records of North Carolina, Vol. 4, page 453, Gilbert Pattison (Patterson) was granted 640 acres in Bladen County at a council held at Wilmington on the fourth day of June, 1740. Bladen County, at that time, extended westwardly across the United States, its western boundary was undetermined. Another tradition is that they came from "Patterson Springs" which is in present-day Gaston County.

This Gilbert Patterson is believed to have been the father of Greenberry Patterson I. Greenberry Patterson I obtained land on "Mill Creek" in what is now Yadkin County, North Carolina, on April 3, 1780. He built a mill on North Deep Creek in 1791. Greenberry was probably born about 1740/50 and died in 1798 in Surry (Yadkin) County. He is shown on the 1790 Surry County census with four males over 16, and four males under 16. The 1784-1787 tax lists of Surry County show Greenberry Patterson with 1 male over 16, 5 under, and 4 females. His wife's name was Rebecca.

It is believed that Greenberry Patterson I had at least 12 children. Later census records indicate that some of those children were born in Virginia. The children were: Greenberry, John, Joel, Rebecca, James, Benjamin, Mary (Polly), Gilbert, Keziah, Isaac, Jesse, and Joshua.

(1) Greenberry Patterson, born September 15, 1775, in Virginia, died December 19, 1852, in Yadkin County. He is buried in an old cemetery between Boonville and Yadkinville near one of his father's early land purchases, and which property later belonged to Dr. Thad Shore. The name of his first wife is unknown and the names of his children by her. He married on August 24, 1822, in Surry County, Catherine Creson. She died after 1853 for in that year she was allotted the dower lands of her deceased husband, Greenberry Patterson II.

Possibly William, born in 1811, who married Caroline Maynard on February 17, 1833, in Surry County, is a son of Greenberry's. William had children: Samuel (1834); Mary A. (1836); Harrison (1839) who married on January 3, 1867 in Yadkin County, Sarah E. Whitaker; Saluda (1838); William (1840) who was living in the household of Greenberry II in the 1850 census; John (1843); and Greenberry III (1846).

Jane Patterson who married Hugh Bryant on December 26, 1837, in Surry County, may well be a daughter of Greenberry II, as well as Caroline who married John Bryant, Jemima who married Charles Bryant on February 2, 1845, and Mary Pauline who married George D. Brindle. This relationship has not been proven, however.

(2) John Patterson, believed to be a son of Greenberry Patterson I married on November 14, 1797, in Surry County, North Carolina, Edy Johnston.

(3) Joel Patterson, son of Greenberry Patterson I, married on August 5, 1801, in Surry County, Sarah Harding, born in 1783 in Virginia, the daughter of William and Obedience Hutchens Harding (see article on the William Harding Family). Joel and Sarah removed to Jackson County, Missouri. The names of their children are unknown.

(4) Rebecca Patterson, born September 15, 1777, died October 24, 1837, and buried in the Patterson-Bryant Cemetery previously mentioned, married first on September 9,

1803, in Surry County, Renne Harding, born August 15, 1774, in Virginia, son of William and Obedience Hutchens Harding (see article on Renne Harding Family). Rebecca married second, in 1814 after the death of Renne Harding, Joshua Creson.

(5) James Patterson, date of birth unknown, died in 1833, married Elizabeth "Bessy" Speer. His children were Lewis W., Joe (married Sarah Patterson, daughter of Jesse Kezia, Nancy, James, Greenberry, Rebecca, Aaron B., and Sarah (who married William Carr or Kerr). Aaron and Sarah Patterson Carr moved to Davidson County, Tennessee. They signed a power of attorney to Aquilla Speer in connection with the sale of land belonging to their father's estate.

(6) Benjamin Patterson married on February 12, 1817, in Surry County, North Carolina, Mary Jackson. I do not know the names of his children.

(7) Mary (Polly) Patterson was a daughter of Greenberry Patterson's, but nothing further is known about her.

(8) Gilbert Patterson married on April 25, 1807, in Surry County, Mary McBride. They removed to Davis County, Indiana. The names of his children are not known to this writer. Gilbert was probably named after his grandfather. Gilbert was still living in 1855 when he signed a power-of-attorney to William Harding to sell land he had inherited from his father, Greenberry I.

(9) Kezia(h) Patterson married William Patterson, Jr., son of William Patterson. Their marriage bond had no date in the register of marriages found at Dobson, North Carolina.

(10) Isaac Patterson died sometime after 1860. He appears in the Yadkin County census for that year.

(11) Jesse Patterson, born in 1781, died after 1850, is believed to have been married three times (but possibly there was another Jesse Patterson). He married Nancy Brown on January 13, 1811, Surry County, North Carolina; he married Mary Creson on July 2, 1818; and he married Nancy Bohanon on May 30, 1824. Jesse had at least three children: Keziah who married Thomas H. Brown and removed to Jackson County, Missouri; Amos C. Patterson, born in 1825; and Nancy M. Patterson, born in 1830 (according to the 1850 Surry/Yadkin Census).

(12) Joshua Patterson, son of Greenberry, married on December 20, 1819, in Surry County, Mary "Polly" Williams. Joshua died after 1874 because on November 16, 1874, he deeded land to his daughter, Elizabeth M. Lakey (see Deed Book D, Page 570, records of Yadkin County, North Carolina).

The children of Joshua and Mary Williams Patterson were:

A daughter who died at eight years of age, Elizabeth Mahala, married on April 2, 1869 in Yadkin County, J. L. Lakey;

William Williams Patterson, born in 1824, married on April 6, 1844, in Surry County, Rebecca Davis;
