Saturday night -

Darling -

If I could talk to you now, I could make you understand my feelings, but as I can't see you, I just can't go to sleep until I have emptied my heart to you.

Spec, sweetest, I know you and C.B. both think I was a "CAD" tonight. You have good rights to think so. Gosh, I have never in my life been put in as hard a place. I wouldn't have let you go like you did but I thought that when I explained to you that you would understand, while I let him go, I would never get the chance to explain.

Tonight after the banquet, some of the boys went to Jim and told him a big mess and also said that C.B. had gone home with his girl. They didn't mention you being along. He brought my rings to me and handed them to me and said that he had tried to play fair with me and he couldn't understand why I couldn't do likewise. He tried to leave but I tried to get him to explain. I don't know what part of the conversation you heard, I don't know what all I might have said, but what ever it was, if you didn't like it please
