OUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Mount Airy Public Library had its beginning in 1930 in two small rooms of the building which it occupies completely today. Funds had been raised by subscription, books had been donated, and the rooms had been given by the Mount Airy Woman's Club.

Strengthened by civic pride and unity of purpose, our library grew, until in 1945 it had reached the peak of development. The entire building had been renovated for library use and circulation of books had reached an all time high. The need for more space soon became all too apparent, however, but complacency followed the war years and the need was not met.

In 1956, The Library Foundation was formed of interested citizens who wanted to see a new library building erected in Mount Airy. A small fund collected by this Foundation through solicited contributions and bequests is now deposited at a local bank. There it must remain until renewed civic interest and dedicated cooperation augment it enough to begin constructive planning.

The Mount Airy Junior Woman's Club, always eager to show its concern for the needs of our community, is proud to have been the first civic organization to express its faith in the work begun by the Library Foundation. For the past two years, and again this year, we have pledged the proceeds of our Follies and our untiring efforts for however long it may take for Mount Airy to realize the dream of a Library-Cultural Center.

On behalf of the Mount Airy Junior Woman's Club, thank you for your interest in a new Library Cultural Center through your support of our Follies of '63. Our production, this year and in the past, would not have been possible without your support. We sincerely hope that through the combined efforts of our community, that we will achieve our goal--the Library Cultural Center--in the near future.

We are proud to be able to present to you--"THE FOLLIES OF 1963!"

BETTER THAN GOLD

O for a Booke and a Shadie Nooke
Eyther in-a-doore or out;
With the greene leaves whispering over-hede,
Or the Streete cries all aboute,
Where I maie reade all at my ease,
Bothe of the Newe and Olde,
For a jollie goode Booke whereon to looke,
Is Better to me than Golde.

COLLECT OF THE CLUB WOMEN OF AMERICA

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, and deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put action into our better impulses, straight-forward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all.

And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.
