

Jasper and Camilla Cook celebrate 50th anniversary

Jasper and Camilla Welborn Cook of Dobson were entertained with a reception Aug. 12 to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. The celebration was held in the Fellowship Center of Dobson First Baptist Church. They are shown with Marie Thompson, Camilla's high school friend from Sparta.

Hosting the reception were the Cook's daughters, Shari Thomas and Tanya Hall of Dobson and Karen Hott of Bloomery, W.Va., and their spouses.

Jasper, right, welcomes Bob White to the afternoon celebration.

Camilla was delighted to have her Aunt Kathleen come up from Jacksonville, Fla.

Ruth Freeman of Dobson and Margaret Honbarrier arrive for the party.
