HAPPY CRAFTING !

Bylaws of the Arts and Crafts Guild of Mount Airy, N. C.

The Arts and Crafts Guild is a local organization being changed from the Arts and Crafts Guild of America, to the Arts and Crafts Guild of Mount Airy.

Article 1

The object of the Arts and Crafts Guild is to keep alive and stimulate interest in local handicrafts.

Article 2

While the Guild is not a secret organization, all business transactions therein shall not be repeated outside without the consent of all the members. Visitors shall not be present during voting or other important business transactions.

Article 3 - Officers

A. The officers of the Guild shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer and Program Chairman.

B. Members shall serve alphabetically as officers, with the privilege of exchanging offices among themselves.

C. Officers shall be announced at the last meeting in May to assume office the first meeting in September. Any unforeseen business arising during the summer or vacation months shall be the responsibility of the old officers.

D. Guild meetings shall be suspended between the last meeting in May and the first meeting in September.

Article 4

A. The guild shall not consist of over twenty members.

B. In case of a vacancy, new members shall be nominated at one meeting and voted on at a later meeting.

C. The nominee having the highest number of votes shall be voted on again, and must receive three-fourths of the votes of the entire membership. If the nominee does not receive three-fourths of these votes, she shall be eliminated from the list of nominees. The remaining list of nominees shall then be voted on in the manner described herein until the vacancy is filled. In the case of more than one vacancy this same process holds true.

D. The new members shall be called immediately and notified of their election.

E. The initiation fee for new members shall be $2.00.

F. Every member of the Guild shall vote, either in person or by proxy.

G. New members shall be actively interested in handicrafts.

Article 5 Meetings

A. The Guild shall meet every other Tuesday, beginning with the second Tuesday in September and running through May.

B. The members shall serve as hostesses in alphabetical order.

C. If a member cannot entertain when it is her turn she shall be responsible for finding someone with whom to exchange meetings.

D. Meetings shall start at 2:30 P.M. The hostess is requested to have finished serving refreshments by 3:30 P.M. The business meeting shall follow immediately.

E. The program shall follow the business session.

F. A program shall be presented once each month under the direction and responsibility of the program chairman.

G. A fine of fifty cents ($.50) shall be imposed upon any member who neglects to notify the hostess of her impending absence.

H. The hostess shall be responsible for notifying the secretary of such delinquency.

Article 6 - Dues

A. Each member shall pay dues of $4.00 per year.

B. Any member neglecting to pay dues by December 31st shall automatically forfeit membership after due notification by the secretary.

Article 7

Any member of the Guild who moves away from Mount Airy but returns later to live here again may be reinstated as a member if she so desires and was in good standing with all dues paid at the time that she moved away. This renewed membership shall automatically fill any vacancy which might occur.

Article 8

A member of the Guild may ask for a designated leave of absence due to illness or for any other reason satisfactory to the membership.

Article 9

Expression of Sympathy

A. The Guild shall send cards to a member who is sick in the hospital or at home with a nurse in attendance. Cost of cards and postage shall be paid by the Treasurer.

B. The Guild shall send flowers or give a memorial donation when a member dies.

C. The Guild shall send a note or card of sympathy to any member who has a death in her immediate family, living in Mount Airy.

Article 10

Cancellation of Meeting

A. Guild meetings shall be canceled: until the meeting

1. When the Guild meeting falls between the time of the death through the day of the funeral of a Guild member.

2. When the Guild meeting falls on the afternoon of a funeral of a member of the immediate family of any Guild member, when such funeral is being held in Mount Airy.

3. When weather conditions do not permit travel.
