

LOUISVILLE AXE & TOOL COMPANY

INCORPORATED

MANUFACTURERS OF

J. C. STEWART, PRESIDENT
J. ALEXANDER STEWART, VICE PRES.
J. D. AUGUSTUS, SECY-TREAS.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY SPECIALTIES

MAIN OFFICE AND FACTORY 4780 CRITTENDEN DRIVE

PHONES {EMERSON 3-3571
{EMERSON 3-3572

LOUISVILLE 9, KY.

March 12, 1962

Mr. Jesse G. Hollingsworth
316 South Main Street
Mount Airy, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Hollingsworth:

Your letter, dated March 8, 1962, addressed to my father, J. Adger Stewart, was received this morning. Father died in 1954. He derived a great deal of pleasure in gathering genealogical data on many branches of the family. A book on the Hollingsworth family was compiled by him, entitled "Descendants of Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr.". It was published in 1925. There are still a few books available, and the price is $7.50 each, postpaid. I think it would answer many of the questions that you wish to know regarding the Harlan connections.

Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr. was born about 1632 at Belleniskcrannel, Ireland - First married Ann Ree, April 7, 1655 (not Catherine Carnish). Ann Ree was born about 1628, died February 1, 1671. - Second marriage was to Ann Calvert, April 12, 1672. She died August 17, 1697. From this marriage their son, Valentine Hollingsworth, Jr.² of Kennett, Pennsylvania, born November 12, 1677, died 1757; married Elizabeth Heald 1713, Ireland. Their son Valentine Hollingsworth, Jr.³ married Elizabeth Harlan 1743, daughter of Aaron and Sarah Harlan. Sarah left a will dated February 5, 1747, which was proven on March 3, 1747. Valentine Hollingsworth⁴ born 1748 married Deborah Harlan.

There are 200 pages in the book and it covers many families as far as it goes. Over 35 years has elapsed since its publication. Father received some help from Mr. William B. Hollingsworth of Baltimore, whom you mention. Father's interest in the family was his grandmother, Julia Ann Hollingsworth, born February 9, 1819 in Laurens County, South Carolina, married John Lewis Stewart. They lived at Conyers, Georgia, and one of their sons, Joseph Alexander, married Carrie Julia Robinson. They lived for a while in Covington, Georgia, moving to Atlanta. However, the family graveyard is at Covington. Father was the second son of this marriage.

I am not trying to sell these books as there are only a comparatively few of them available but if you are interested in genealogy on the Hollingsworth family I think you will find one of these books worthwhile.

Mr. Jesse G. Hollingsworth

-2-

March 12, 1962

I am sorry that I do not have the time to go into the family more as father did for he obtained a great deal of satisfaction in proving certain family lines and ties.

Yours sincerely,

J. Carter Stewart

JCS:CWA

p.s.

I am returning herewith your memorandum which was attached to your letter of March 8th regarding the Hollingsworth family.

J.C.S.

encl.1

Valentine^I Hollingworth 1630?-1710?

married { Catharine Cornish Ann Rec, April, 7, 1655.
Ann Calvert April, 12, 1672

Valentine^{II} son of Valentine^I and Ann Calvert

born — died 1757

married Elizabeth Hald in 1713

sons

James H^{III}

Valentine^{III} H^{III} married Eliz. Harlan daughter of David & Mary Harlan daughter Elizabeth married Samuel Harlan 1746 moved to N.C. 1753

David

" Aaron Harlan moved to N.C. 1763

Valentine^{II} H^{II} born 1748

son of Valentine^{III} married Deborah Harlan relatives about Winchester Va. and in Albemarle and Augusta counties, Virginia (now Amherst County)

William and Joseph Hollingworth^{twins} must have been children of Valentine and Deborah Hollingworth as Joseph Hollingworth came to Stokes County N.C. and married Mary Matthews in 1793.

The 1790 Census for North Carolina, Stokes County, has a Harlan (Holland) listed. Joseph Hollingworth evidently came to his Harlan kindred in Stokes County. William Hollingworth went to Kentucky.

The Hollingworths in Surry County and Stokes Counties are given on pages 134-35. This information is taken from Wm B. Hollingworth's book "Hollingworth Genealogical Memoranda in the United States" from 1682 to 1884. My data on the Hollingworth brings the Joseph Hollingworth line down to the present time with a few gaps.

The gaps. I need information Aguiella died 1837 and Tandy^{born 1800} who went to Kentucky and Daniel born 1804 died 1833. On page 56 in the above mentioned book there is an Aguiella mentioned married Casella, Gibbon. a son Clarence 1874. This Aguiella is evidently the son of the Aguiella I seek information on.