"This check is undoubtedly all right," said Garnett Fawcett politely, "But have you anything about you by which you could be identified?"

The pretty young thing faltered: "I have a mole on my left knee."

Grover Lovill telephoned his girl: "May I come over to see you this afternoon,—I am not working today—gotta sore arm.

"Then why bother to come over?" She asked sweetly.

Beverly Bivens:—"Mother, did daddy's name used to be Pullman?"

Mrs. Bivens:—"Why no daughter; why do you ask?

Beverly:—"Well I just wondered. I see that name on most of his towels."

A Friend to Miss Earp:—"Miss Earp are you going to make any New Year's resolutions?"

Miss Earp:—"No, Bob Deyerle broke the one I made Leap Year."

Porter Graves:—"John, you know they have invented a machine that can tell when you are lying?"

John Folger:—"Huh! I married one of them."

Hurst:—"How did you like the book on insanity I gave you to read?"

Uncle Buck:—"No good—too personal."

We have a Bachelors Quartett: Grover Lovill, Bob Deyerle, John Ashby, Fred Blevens.

A Martin is a kindofa bird—so is Moir.

Hugh Holcomb and Oscar Merritt both have Mouth Organs.

Charlie Fulton has a Ford.

We have a Cooke—but Kiwanian Charlie Andrews prepared this lunch.
