Dear Judy:

In the QUERIES in the Fall JOURNAL there is a request for information on the NOAH-COBLE-ARRINGTON-MEARS from Nancy Cox. I am sending you the information I have on Cobler-Arrington. My husband, Bobby Nance, is the great grandson of James K. Poke Cobler. Yancy Cobler has visited our home when he came to visit his sister, Ida Cobler Anderson. Bob enjoyed his visits and they even rabbit hunted together on some of these visits.

Since I do not have Nancy Cox' address, I would appreciate you forwarding this to her. I hope she will find it helpful and informative.

Sincerely,

Wanda Nance

LILLIAN GWYN CLICK

155

Lillian Gwyn Click was born August 14, 1887 in Rockingham County to Joseph Pinkney and Sarah Elizabeth Gwyn.

Lillian had been active in the community since she came there in 1909 as a teacher in the city schools.

ler. Grandpa Cobler was named for President James K. Polk and was called "Poke".

Grandpa was born in Rockingham County, N.C., April 3, 1845 to Frederick Cobler and Matilda Grogan Cobler. His ancestors came from Germany and settled in Culpepper County, Virginia before moving to Rockingham County, N.C.

The name Cobler is also spelled Kobler.

Grandpa Poke came to Surry County and settled in the Westfield section where he farmed and raised cattle. He had right much land and he used it well.

James K. Polk married Blanch A. Arrington, 1849-1927, and to them were born twelve children. Their names were Violet, Cora, Dora, Frances, Edmund, Sammy Green, Murford, Yancey, Louetta, Ida, Ellen and Sarah.

Sammy Green and Murford died young. Violet married Jim Collins. Cora married John Law. Dora married Jim Cook. Frances married Andrew Cook. Edmund married Maggie Howell. Yancey married Laura Noah. Louetta married Joe Sam Brim. Ida married Keller Anderson. Ellen married Babe Cook. Sarah married Robert Cook.

Grandpa and Grandma also raised a girl named Daisy Smart.

We always had a good time at Grandpa's because he would tell us stories and jokes. There was always a lot of food there. Grandma had a tall stemmed preserve dish that always had the best peach preserves in it.

Their first house was one with the kitchen set apart from the big house. Grandpa built a new one and it is still standing.

Grandpa raised cattle. The neighbors said he was a good cow man, but Grandma was the best cow-trader they had ever seen.

Grandma Cobler died in 1927. Grandpa died ten years later. He died on August 14, 1937 at age 92 years, 4 months, and 10 days. He had 72 grandchildren, 167 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren. Grandpa and Grandma are buried at the Cobler Cemetery at
