Two elderly brothers are killed in wreck

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT October 6, 1999

EAST BEND — Two Jonesville brothers died and two other people were injured yesterday when a garbage truck overturned on a pickup at the intersection of Prides Road and N.C. 67 near East Bend, authorities said.

Vertle Vestal, 76, of 5708 Armstrong Road and his brother, Colonel Martin Vestal, 73, of 3205 Swam Creek Road, died at the scene after being crushed inside their pickup, said Trooper C.D. Holbrook of the N.C. Highway Patrol.

Terry W. Key, 45, 268 Old Highway 60, the driver of the garbage truck, and his passenger had minor injuries and were treated at Hugh Chatham Hospital in Elkin, Holbrook said.

The accident happened about 10 a.m. as the garbage truck, which is owned by Yadkin County, was traveling west on N.C. 67. Key tried to stop to avoid hitting a car that had stopped to make a left turn onto Prides Road, Holbrook said.

The garbage truck skidded across the road and overturned on the pickup that had stopped in the eastbound lane, Holbrook said.

No charges have been filed.

ELLEN PAMELIA POINDEXTER AND JONATHAN GATES HUFF

Ellen Pamelia Poindexter (Feb. 5, 1856 — Oct 22, 1942) was born in East Bend, the daughter of Robert C. and Martha Ward Poindexter and lived most of her life here. In 1872 Jonathan Gates Huff (Dec. 8, 1852 — July 3, 1921) came to East Bend from Waughtown in Forsyth County with twenty-five cents in cash, a change of clothing, a banjo and boundless energy and entered East Bend Academy, headed by Rev. Moses Baldwin.

He rented a room, doing his own housekeeping, going to school in the daytime and working evenings and Saturdays at anything he could get to do to pay his way. A natural mechanic, he found no trouble getting work, and by the time the term of school was out he had laid the foundation of his future business — the manufacture of buggies, carriages, wagons and carts. He rented a small shop and during vacation made his first buggy. He opened his first buggy factory in 1873.

While going to school he fell in love with Ellen Poindexter, and they were married on November 18, 1875. Soon after they were married they visited her brother Dalt in their new home on Fifth Street in Winston-Salem, and Ellen liked it so much that "Mr. John" had one built from the same plans in East Bend and their ten children were born there. The house still stands in East Bend and remains in the Huff family. (The Dalt Poindexter house was recently moved from its Fifth Street location to West End Boulevard in Winston-Salem.)

His business soon outgrew the little shop, so he built a new factory. At that time it was the largest building in this area and the largest buggy factory in the South. He employed good workmen in every department for the manufacture of his famous buggies and carriages and Huff's plant furnished buggies over a territory of six or eight counties "until Henry Ford took over".

Huff Buggy Works closed in 1920. J.G. Huff also was in the construction business and had the town's first undertaking business. He had a sawmill and kiln under the same roof with the factory. Here he made coffins, manufactured hearses and funeral hacks, both for his own use and for sale to other undertaking establishments.

The Huffs were one of the pioneer families of the county and contributed much to its development. J.G. Huff was one of the original stockholders of Yadkin Valley Bank in East Bend. After he retired from active management of the undertaking establishment, which he turned over to his son, Charlie, he became involved in bridge and power dam contracting. It was while he was building bridges and power dams in Eastern North Carolina that he became ill and died in 1921.

He had built a home in Sanford, where his daughter Ruth and her husband lived, and planned to move his family there, to be closer to his work. After his death, Ellen Huff moved to Sanford and lived there, with Laura and Gates, the remainder of her years. She returned to East Bend frequently and the children and grandchildren were always happy when Grandma Huff came to visit.

Mrs. Huff celebrated every birthday for the last 54 years of her life with Guy Horn, who was born in East Bend within sight of her house. Every year they would get together with family and friends either at his home, at her home in Sanford, or at the home of her son, Charlie (her old home) in East Bend. She was 86 and Guy Horn was 54, and they both died before their next birthday. Mrs. Huff was jolly and happy as she took part in the celebration.

She was very active for her age and could get a meal on the table with the speed and efficiency that would rival the achievements of a much younger person. She loved to talk about her young days and vividly recalled some of her most happy times. She remembered when she was a girl of late teen age, taking part in many of the old time square dances that were the high spot of the social life during the 1870 and 1880s and farther back. She had ridden horseback to many of these old-fashioned "Plays" as they were often called.

She also remembered the Civil War, although she was a girl of only about six years old. She particularly recalled the time that the family heard that they would come and carry off everything in the house, so she loaded up everything in the way of food and most of the small items of furniture and carried them away into the bluffs overlooking the Yadkin River. The Yankees never came, and soon the things were brought back to the home.

On another occasion when they thought the Yankees were coming, the mother hid all of their meat supply by taking up the floor and putting the meat underneath. On top of this she packed cotton bats she bought at the store especially for that purpose. After the enemy passed on, the floor was again removed and the cotton and meat hauled out. To the dismay of the family, the meat and cotton had rotted so badly that it couldn't be used.

Also vivid in her memory was the Confederate training ground just back of where she and J.G. Huff built their home, which now stands. She says she stood many a day on the upstairs porch of her childhood home, which was just across the street from the home which she and her husband built and watched the soldiers muster, as they made preparations for joining one of the various Confederate troops. Several old soldiers of this section in gray, tattered and torn uniforms, fought with General Lee down to his surrender at Appomattox.

Mrs. Huff was visiting her daughter, Ethel, in East Bend at the time of her death at age 86. Mr. and Mrs. Huff were members of Macedonia Church until the Methodist Church was built at East Bend and their membership was moved there. Mr. Huff was architect and builder of the East Bend Methodist Church and they were charter members. They are both buried at Macedonia Cemetery.

The children of Jonathan Gates Huff and Ellen Pamelia Poindexter were:

Laura Olivia Huff, Ruth Huff, Bertha Vey Huff, Brewster Barnard Huff, Mattie Blanche Huff, Charlie Burton Huff, William Miller Huff, Lillian Hermone Huff, Ethel Ernestine Huff, and John Gates Huff, Jr.

See separate articles on these children, except William Miller Huff who was born November 16, 1890, and died September 7, 1895, of an accidental gunshot wound just prior to his fifth birthday.

LAURA OLIVIA HUFF

Laura Olivia Huff was born in East Bend on August 23, 1876. She attended school in East Bend, Salem Academy and College, Greensboro Female College, where she studied art, and taught in private and public schools. She was appointed postmistress in East Bend in 1914 during Woodrow Wilson's Administration.

Being the oldest of ten children, she helped to care for the younger ones, sewing for the family and also helping with the discipline. Through the years it has been told many times, and we have laughed with "Sister Laura", about the time Ethel, the youngest daughter, went for a Sunday afternoon ride with Edgar Martin (whom she later married) in his buggy with a fine bay horse.

It was almost dark when Sister Laura missed her and asked, "Where's Ethel?" When she learned that she had not returned home, she exclaimed, "Out with Edgar Martin — in the dark — without a light?".

She was a member of East Bend Methodist Church and very active, serving as superintendent for a number of years. After moving with her mother to Sanford in 1924, she continued her work in the church and taught in the Children's Department of Steele Street Methodist Church for many years until her health failed.

After her mother's death in 1942, she continued to live in Sanford with her brother, Gates.

They always loved East Bend and never missed a chance to come back for a visit. She died on October 18, 1961, and is buried at Macedonia Cemetery.

RUTH HUFF
568

Ruth Huff, was born in East Bend on April 4, 1878. She attended school in East Bend and in 1897 married Martin Luther Matthews (born 1874, died 1943), the son of Dr. Joe Matthews of East Bend. Three of their five children were born in East Bend. Luther attended college after they were married and graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1903.

Family feels the void when two die in wreck

By Valerie Bauerlein
JOURNAL REPORTER

ELKIN

Vertle and Bob Vestal grew up on their family homestead in the foothills of the Brushy Mountains near Vestal Lake, where the skies are high and starry at night and where, even now, a tractor and a truck on the road make for heavy traffic.

They were country boys, but they liked to visit town. They commuted to work — Vertle to Winston-Salem, Bob just up the road to Elkin — but they came home every evening to their father's land at Swan Creek, to houses they had built with their own hands when they got back from World War II.

They each married girls from town — sisters, both hairdressers. The Laffoon girls moved to Swan Creek from Elkin. They adjusted bit by bit to country life and learned how to shell a peck of beans and fix chicken fresh from the yard.

The couples lived a half-mile apart. Their children were like sisters and brothers to one another, as intermingled as the vines on a fencepost.

It was like having two moms and two dads, their children say.

In their retirement, Vertle and Bob spent some part of every day together.

A big treat was their annual trip to the Dixie Classic Fair.

"They were country boys," said Bobby Vestal, Vertle's wife. "The fair, the racing pigs, they thought that was the best thing ever."

They left for the fair at 8:30 Tuesday morning in Bob's pickup.

". . . (That) morning, they were excited as two children," said Jo Vestal, Bob's wife.

The brothers stopped for breakfast at Bojangles' in Jonesville, then headed out N.C. 67 toward Winston-Salem. As they rode along about 9:50 a.m., a Yadkin County garbage truck coming toward them in the opposite lane tried to stop for a car making a left turn. The garbage truck couldn't stop, went out of control and overturned on the pickup. The N.C. Highway Patrol told the family that the men died instantly.

Vertle Jones Vestal was 76. Colonel Martin "Bob" Vestal was 73.

They leave behind a large, loving family, and a close community. They will be remembered today in a joint funeral service at Bethel Baptist Church. Both will be buried with full military honors in the church cemetery.

They also leave two widows, who say they always have been each other's sister, best friend and favorite sister-in-law. Now they are each other's support.

"If we could've just kept one of them," Jo Vestal said at her home Wednesday night, gripping her sister's hand as they reflected on their lives together. "If we'd have just had one left for us. . . . I always thought if I lost my Bob, then Vertle would've been there for me, and the same if she lost him. . . . Now they're both gone."

Close-knit community

The family lives in western Yadkin County in Swan Creek, a community in the old-fashioned sense of the word. They say it's a tough place to walk if you mean to get exercise. You end up stopping every 25 yards to talk with a cousin or a neighbor.

And forget about going to town if you wanted a quick trip.

"You'd go to town with Daddy and it'd be an all-day affair," said Janice Shields, one of Vertle's daughters. "He knew everybody. The same with Bob."

The boys were the youngest of nine children — eight boys and one girl, spread out over 15 years. They grew up on the family farm. The boys would milk the cows and sit out on the porch with their mother while she churned butter.

The dining-room table was so large that it had to be built inside the house. The boys' mother cooked for so many that she made her cobblers in aluminum dish pans.

When the boys were older, they went off to war. In 1945, the family was the subject of a story in the local paper, then called the Chatham Blanketeer, about how all eight sons were in the service.

The government said that Bob did not have to serve, on account of all of his brothers already being in the military. He served anyway.

The war showed Vertle and Bob a vast and strange world.

"Their life in World War II was a big event," Jo said. "They'd grown up on this farm and never been anywhere. That was a big adventure for them."

The work was hard, but no harder than they were used to at home. They chuckled at the city boys who struggled at getting up early.

"Vertle said when he went in, 'I was used to hard work.' Basic training was a breeze to him," Bobby said.

The Vestals all came home safely from the war.

Soon after, Bob met Jo through a time-honored tradition.

"I know you've heard about 'cruisin' ' in Elkin," Jo said. "I was in high school, and he had just come home from the military. He was cruising Elkin in a '39 Chevrolet."

Bob and Jo married in 1947.

Vertle met Bobby for the first time at the movies. They saw each other occasionally after that and eventually took a shine to one another. They married in 1951.

The girls' father tried to play down his elation after the second of his daughters said she was marrying a Vestal boy.

"Our father said, 'I don't know if I can take another Vestal in the family,' " Bobby said. "Then he said, 'Is there another one?' "

Early on, the couples cut lumber together and helped each other build their houses.

The sisters went to work at the Mayflower Beauty Shop in Elkin.

Vertle worked at Hanes Dye and Finishing in Winston-Salem, riding into the city with six coworkers.

Bob heard a call to the Baptist ministry and became a full-time pastor for a while. Later he worked at Brendle's in Elkin but still served as a deacon in Bethel Baptist Church, where the family attended.

After they retired, the brothers spent more and more time with each other. They did not bicker, as some brothers are wont to do. Their wives described them as tender-hearted.

"I've never seen a child that wouldn't go to either of them," Bobby said.

Even into their 70s, they did not think of themselves as old. At a church picnic a few weeks ago, Bob rode a bicycle — backward. He sat on the handlebars facing backwards and pedaled away.

They read the newspaper every day. They would probably have been puzzled at one news report about the accident that referred to them as "two elderly gentlemen."

"I know they're looking down and frowning on that 'elderly gentlemen.' They're saying: 'Who's that? That's not us,' " Bobby said.

They were in good health. They volunteered time caring for the sick, ferrying people back and forth to doctors. When Bobby spent six weeks this summer in the hospital in Winston-Salem, fighting off pneumonia and other illnesses, her husband spent every night with her.

Both men were fine Christians who "walked the walk," said the Rev. Flake Mason, the Vestals' neighbor, friend and former pastor.

Mason was one of the last people to see them alive. He and his wife ran into the brothers at Bojangles on Tuesday. The Vestals were jolly, joking about how they would get into the fair for free because it was Senior Citizens' Day.

"I said, 'I might have known it was free if you were going,' " Mason said. "We talked like that with each other."

They chatted about people they knew, including a friend who had died early that morning, and about Bobby and her lingering illness.

"We were talking about the uncertainty of death," Mason said. "I think I said to them, 'You never know, it might be one of us instead of them.'

"And less than an hour later, they were dead."

Mason will be one of three people presiding over the brothers' funeral. He said he would tell everyone not to dwell on why good people die unexpectedly. We should trust that God has a plan, and we must remember that we are all going to die, whether from cancer, old age, a car wreck or some other reason, he said.

"Their last thoughts, their personality was, they were confident and trusting in God," Mason said. "Bob said, 'It doesn't matter when, as long as you're ready.' They were ready."

The sisters say that more than 100 people have come to visit them since the wreck, everyone from county commissioners to childhood friends. The visits have been comforting, but they know they have tough times ahead.

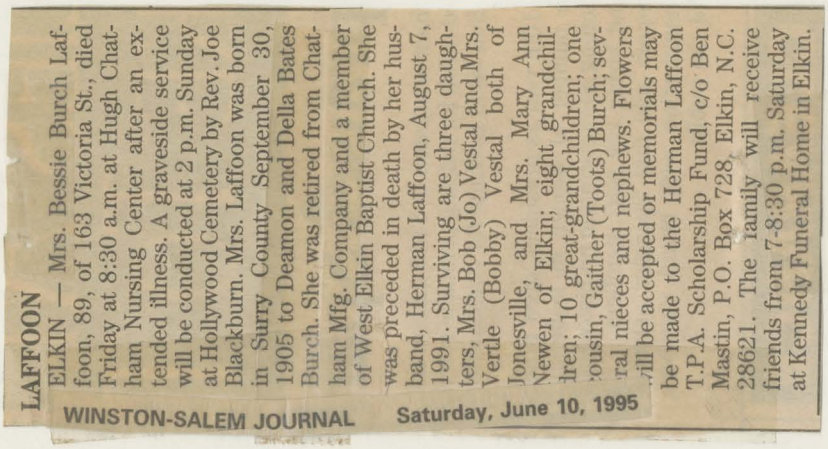

"We've been happy, we've had a good life," Jo said. "But when you've lived with somebody as long as we have, it's like half of us is gone. I feel like half of me is gone."

Bobby started to cry. "That's how I feel, too."

It was good to hear from you again regarding the Burch family. We are sending you some information from the tax records and cemetery books.

Unfortunately, we did not find a listing for your four ancestors in the 30 cemetery books in our research room. No doubt they are buried in a family cemetery somewhere in the Burch Station/Little Richmond area of Surry Co. which is near Elkin, NC and probably in unmarked graves or the old family cemetery may have been completely destroyed.

About the only way to find the location would be to find someone in the community that remembers where these old family grave plots were or if it was handed down through family members. We just need to find the right person that has the Burch family research on your William and John Burch.

Did you get copies of all the deeds on your trips to the courthouse in Surry Co.? We have many tax books that have been done with many Burches listed. These books are for sale by our members so we cannot send you copies from all of these books.

You might be interested in writing Doris Michael, 136 Martin Road, Elkin, NC 28621 who grew up in the Burch Station/Little Richmond area and lives there today. She is in her 80s and her son has just published a book by Doris about her life. It is a delightful and informative book about the area in which she lived. The book is called "Life Behind A Potted Plant" and can be ordered for $15 from Gabbard Publications, 1829 Grubb Road, Lenoir City, TN 37771.

Burch Station was named for Vance Burch when the railroad was built. This is mentioned in our heritage book in the Burch family history.

We did not find Deamond Burch and Della Bates Burch listed at Union Cross in the cemetery books. Do you know if they have markers for their graves? Perhaps we overlooked it. Did you buy a copy of the Hughes historical map of Surry Co. while you were at the courthouse? We wish we had all the answers for you. Don't give up. Send a query for our journal. They are also posted on our web site.

BURCH

We know Burch families were in Surry County as early as 1778. From the 1778-1781 period, Surry County was home to Benjamin, Henry, John, Thomas and William Burch.

Benjamin Burch entered 200 acres on March 8, 1779 and 150 acres in the fork of Fishers River and the Yadkin. However the entry was withdrawn and money returned. Benjamin also entered 200 acres on the waters of Deep Creek but withdrew entry.

On December 8, 1778 Henry Burch entered 200 acres on Bull Run including his plantation where William Southard lived.

John Burch entered 300 acres on the north side of the Yadkin River.

Thomas Burch entered 300 acres on the waters of the north fork of Deep Creek on November 11, 1778.

William Burch entered 150 acres on the waters of Fisher River but entry was withdrawn June 2, 1779. William also entered 100 acres on the south side of Mitchells River on February 6, 1779 and 200 acres on Forkners Creek.

(1) On 3 Nov 1784 Thomas Bowles received a grant of 300 acres on Mitchell's River. This from the state of North Carolina (Deed Book C, page 214). He is also mentioned in the will of his brother Benjamin Bowles, of Hanover County, VA, as receiving 500 acres in Kentucky (Surry Will Book I, page 140). At the time of his death he owned nine slaves, which, in 1793, were divided between his daughters Nancy Winfrey and Mary Bowles, and his widow, then married to John Shores.

(2) This date is from the Bible of Pleasant B. Roberts under "Miss Shores." According to Carmel Mounce and Bertha (Mounce) Cockerham Gilley, who grew up on this farm, a "Miss Shores" is buried in the edge of the woods above the house. The farm, which is on Snow Creek, was at one-time owned by Pleasant Roberts.

(3) According to family legend there are these three daughters, but in the division of slaves in 1793, only Nancy Winfrey and Mary Bowles are mentioned.

Son Robert was a Primitive Baptist minister [Elder] said to have visited relatives in "the west." He also help constitute the Fisher River PRimitive Baptist Association, Surry County, circa 1824, and Rock Spring Primitive Baptist Church, circa 1840 to circa 1902. Susannah is wither buried in the Phillips-Greenwood Cemetery or in the Welborn Cemetery.

(3) The Bulgar Cemetery is in Mena (near Potter), Polk County, AR.

(4) One source has Ambrose Jones Roberts dying in 1867. However, he and his family appear on the 1870 census ih Bellefonte, Boone County, AR.

(5) Ambrose Jones Roberts's marriages were as follows:
Sarah ("Sallie") Johnson =
Phebe [sic] Ann Phillips = 17 Dec 1853, Wilkes County, NC

(6) John R. Roberts and Nancy Caroline Spencer were married in Wilkes County, NC.

(7) The Parks Family Cemetery is in the Shola Branch Community, Wilkes County, NC.

(8) The question arises that if Ambrose Jones Roberts did not die in 1867 [see note 4], perhaps it was John R. Roberts who did. After the 1860 census he is lost. One descendant of John R. Roberts--Emily H. Southard, Route 1, Elkin, NC--states that in 1853 he fathered a child out of wedlock with Altha Tilley. The name or sex of the child is unknown, but he did pay fines to the Wilkes County, NC, courts. It was then "taken up" by Cool Springs Baptist Church, in Wilkes County, where he was a member, and he was dismissed as a member.

Clerk of Surry County
County Seat of Surry County
Dobson, N. C.

Dear Clerk,

Have become interested in genealogy and looked at a map of North Carolina, Surry County, specifically and found a spot on the map named, Burch. The spot named Burch with no population listed is very fascinating. I hope it has some significance. I have found it in several Atlases. What can you tell me about that particular place?

My maiden name was Burch and have traced ancestors back to Surry County, North Carolina. William Burch, Sr. was married in Surry County approximately 1763. His wife was Mary Ann Lawrence, born at Haw River, Surry Co., North Carolina. Their 13 children were born in Surry Co. According to the meager information I have both William and Mary Ann died and are buried in Surry County. William died around 1817 and Mary Ann after June 19, 1785; presumably after the birth of her 13th child, Sarah.

Son, George, was married October 13, 1798 in Surry County. If you have any information on any of these events I would appreciate copies and please send me a bill, or let me know how much the information will cost and I will send a check before you send the information.

If you have any information about their period in history, I would like to hear about it; also if you have something that shows what that part of North Carolina looks like, I'd like that too. I have seen very little of the country East of the Mississippi, but my neighbor who is from Georgia, tells me the Northwest section of North Carolina is very beautiful.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lorraine M. Savage

Dear Mrs. Savage:

Enclosed are a few "grantee" deeds for William Burch. The copies are not very good, but we are not allowed to copy from the old deed books as their condition is so fragile. I'm also sending a few pages from tax lists, which might give an idea as to where he lived. As you know, documents from that time period are very scarce. I think I mentioned in previous correspondence that NC did not begin keeping birth/death records until 1913.

I checked in the Clerk of Court office for an estate record, and there was an entry for Wm. M. Burch, dated 1800 and Wm. Burch heirs, dated 1838. These records are not available in the Clerk's office (only the index), but there are microfilm copies available for SCGA and researchers at Surry Community College Library. I'll mention this to one of SCGA's research committee members.

Do you have a Hugh's Historical Map of Surry County. This has early landowners and those who received grants. There was a listing for John Burch, but not one for William. This map may help in your research if you do not have a copy. The map costs $5.00 and includes mailing. You may order from the Register of Deeds office, if interested.

I hope SCGA may be able to help you. There is a community called "Burch Station" on Hwy 268 near Elkin, but we don't know if it was named for the Railroad or a family name. Maybe at the next meeting, this subject can be brought up.

I am returning $5.00 from the $10.00 check you sent. (We charge 25¢ per copy.) If we can be of further assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Ann B. Stewart

Dear Researcher,

I received a letter from Ann Stewart, deputy in the office of Surry County Register of Deeds. She told me to contact you with the information regarding my quest for information about: William Burch born around 1744 in Caroline County, Virginia, married in Surry County, N.C. about 1763 to Mary Ann Lawrence, who was born in 1740 in Haw River, Surry County, N.C.

no will William died before 1817 in Surry County, N.C. Mary Ann died on or shortly after June 19, 1785 following the birth of their 13th child, all born in Surry County. If death certificates or some confirmation of dates of deaths are available, I would like copies.

I would appreciate a copy of marriage record of William Burch and Mary Ann Lawrence married about 1763 (must have been Rowan County then--my meager records say Surry County).

If there are any land records--I'd like copies. Especially a copy of birth certificate or proof of birth for George Burch (son of William and Mary Ann Burch) born 17 October 1776, in Surry County.

Most of the thirteen children moved to Greene or Monroe County, Indiana after William and Mary Ann's death.

My check for $10.00 is enclosed. If this is not sufficient, I will be happy to send whatever is necessary. I have sent this same information to Ann Stewart, as I presume she is the one to make the copies.

Also please send me the flier listing books available for the Surry County area. I am enclosing a SASE.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Lorraine M Savage

Lorraine M. Savage

Thank you for your letter dated June 19, 1999 regarding William Burch and wife Mary Ann Lawrence. We have checked our genealogy files hoping to find some information for you but were unable to do so. Apparently, there were several generations of William Burches in Surry Co. Since we were unable to find much of anything to benefit you, we are returning your check for $10.

The Burch family history in our book "The Heritage of Surry County, NC," Volume I, covers John Burch Sr. born in VA and died in 1793 in Surry Co. Three children born in Cumberland Co., VA are listed (John Jr., Elizabeth, and William W. Burch). This William W. Burch was born ca. 1755 and d. in 1844. So this appears to be another Burch family in Surry Co. These histories printed are not verified or proven by our association. They are submitted for publication by individuals that have researched or have knowledge of the family.

Birth certificates of William and Mary Ann and son George are unavailable as NC did not keep birth and death records until 1913. We have no bible records of births and deaths on this family. Neither can we find a marriage record in Surry Co. for them. If they married in 1763 it would be Rowan Co. rather than Surry Co. We suggest you write the NC Archives requesting a copy of the marriage record. Since there was no will in Surry Co. for this William, you might ask the Archives for the estate records. There was an entry for a Wm. M. Burch dated 1800 and Wm. Burch heirs dated 1838 listed but this is probably not your William Burch. There is a will for John Burch (dated 1801) that list a son William. Write the Department of Cultural Resources, Archives and Records Section, 109 E. Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27601-2807. They will advise you of the cost.

We have enclosed a flier on our books that are available for sale per your request.

We were not able to find information on the community of Burch in Surry County. It was not mentioned in local histories of Surry and the Elkin area where Burch is located. At one time the train depot was called Burch Station. According to information in the Paul and Ennice Burch family history in our book, "The Heritage of Surry County, NC," Volume I, Paul Burch's (born in 1896) father, Vance Burch, ran a general store and had a shipping line of wagons and mule teams to transport tobacco and local produce to Winston-Salem before the railroad was built. When the railroad was built, Burch's Station was named for his father. His father also had a roller mill on Snow Creek in the early 1900s which was washed away by a flood. "The North Carolina Gazetteer" states that Burch is a community in s Surry Co. Alt. 881. A former post office here was named Rusk. (Records show that several Burch families were born in Rusk.) There were probably many Burch families in this area, thus, the place was named Burch. It was in the Marsh Township of Surry County. Vance Burch's father was Jessie Burch.

There is some research that has been on the Burch families of Surry County. You might wish to write Sue Kottwitz, Rt. 1, Box 50, Falcon, MO 65470-9734 (Geo. Burch); Robert Burch, 3805 South 100th E. Avenue, Tulsa, OK 74146-2432 (Wm. & Geo. Burch); and William Burch, P. O. Box 12, Glouster, OH 45732-0012 (Wm. Burch). Our association has heard from these individuals inquiring about the family. Perhaps you can help each other.

We are sending you a short history of Surry County that was printed in the book "The Surry County Book." Perhaps this will tell you a bit about Surry and how it was some time ago. We have also included a couple of maps that show the location of Burch.

You might benefit from becoming a member of our association. Ann Stewart probably told you our yearly dues are $15 and you receive four quarterly journals. The journals are well worth our membership fee. You might also want to send a query for our journal and surname cards for our file. Information is enclosed.

We hope we have been able to help you some with your research. If you feel we can help you further, please write again.

Lorraine,

I have just purchased a book by a local person that, believe it or not, grew up in the Burch Station/Little Richmond area of Surry County. I have read about half of the book and it is a delightful little book. (At least I think so. Maybe it's because I recognize all the places and names.) The very first page starts out about a man named Burch taking the ferry up the Yadkin River in Surry Co. The book recalls the life and times of the author who was a teacher. I think you will find it very interesting. The title is "Life Behind the Potted Plant" by Miz M (who is Doris Michael). She is now 80 years old.

There is a sketch of the Burch Station, hotel, store and stable ca. 1910 and a map showing Burch in the book.

The publisher is her son, Alex Gabbard. Write Gabbard Publications, 1829 Grubb Road, Lenoir City, TN 37771 (434-988-0080). The cost of the book was $15 but I don't know if they charge shipping. The book has 236 pages with pictures.

I thought I would tell you about the book. I think it will tell you about the community and how it was when the railroad first came to this area and the Burch Station.

If you decide to buy the book, I hope you enjoy it.

Winston Salem College, and of his brother William going to the university at Chapel Hill, of another sister who had an elaborate wedding. They also told of their grandfather William Burch living at Mt. Airy, Surry Co., between the estates of the Siamese Twins and of his being a large slave holder.

A History of Albemarle County, Va. by Woods states that in 1763 Thomas Burch of Caroline, Co., Va. bought land in Albemarle, Co. and there died in 1775 leaving fourteen children and wife Sarah. The children were Mary, Cheadle, John, Benjamin, Keziah, William, Sarah, Ann, Frances, Samuel, Joseph, Richard, Jean, Thomas. Some of the sons moved to Wake County, N.C., and others to Fleming County, Ky. It is thought that William, the Revolutionary soldier was the son of this Thomas.

AUSTIN FAMILY

Mary Jane Austin, my great grandmother, was born and grew up in Rowan County, North Carolina. Her parents, Elkannah Davis Austin and Susanna Trevillian were married December 1, 1812 in Albermarle County, Va. Apparently they were people of some wealth. Rowan Co. Book 23, shows a deed of purchase in 1814. The 1840 census records him owning ten slaves, seven in agriculture. They had two sons and two daughters. An abstract of the will of Elkahah Davis Austin, recorded in Davie Co. Wills, Book 2, page 13 reads: "I, Elkanah Davis Austin. . .weak, but of sound mind . . . To Lueco M. Gillespie and Almina E. Posten (the latter under 21) $300 each. . . If there be anything left, divide that into four equal parts and give one part to my son Davis N. Austin, and one part to my daughter Mary Jane Burch, and one part to my Son Samuel W. Austin, and the other part to my daughter Caroline's two children Lueco M. Gillespie and Almina E. Posten. . .
I state that I hold a note against D.N. Austin for $7775 and $6175 of the principle is cancelled. I also hold a note of W.W. Burch for $6175, the whole of the principle is cancelled and is not to be counted as part of my Estate.
I also hold a note on Samuel W. Austin for $2000, the whole cancelled. I also hold a note against H.R. Austin, my brother, the collection of which must not be pressed, if he can pay, well; if not it must remain unpaid.
$100 to my sister Anna M. Austin.
Brother H.R. Austin to be Executor.
Dated 24 Feb. 1866 Witnesses: William A. Meroney and C.P. Meroney. Probate Judge H.R. Austin, 26 June 1871, Will proved, Davie Co. Probate Court.

Following her marriage to William W. Burch, they soon moved to north west Georgia and spent the rest of their lives there. Mary Jane must have been a good mistress as I remember an incident her daughter Eloise, my grandmother, told. For some reason Mary Jane was away from home. There came a severe storm. In the middle of the night following the worst of the weather there came a knock at the door of the house where Mary Jane was visiting. It was slave Larkin. He said "Misses, I rode to tell you everything is all right at home." My Grandmother also said the family refugeed during the Civil War to the southern part of the state, around Dawson, I think. Mary Jane and William ran a school for awhile, but most of their time was taken up with agriculture. After the death of her husband, Mary Jane lived for awhile at Oostanaula. Later she sold the place and moved to Rome to live with my grandparents. She is buried beside her husband in Myrtle Hill Cemetery.

BURCH FAMILY

The Burch (Birch) name is probably Scandinavian in origin with a Teutronic background. The people migrated to Normandy where the name added the "de", becoming De Burghor, DeBurgo. The family has been traced back to Charlemagne, king of the Franks, 768-814 A.D. John deBurgh was the ancestor of all the Birches (Burches) who settled in Great Britian and America. His parents were Baldwin II of Flanders and Lady Ethelwida, daughter of Alfred the Great of England, who was of Saxon ancestry. The ancestry of John de Burgh has been traced to 90 B.C. The two sons of John de Burgh, Eustace and Harlowen, went into England with William the Conquorer. Chester, Lancaster, and Durham Counties were all early residencies of the family. The Burch chapel in Lancaster County is still standing.

Mrs. Smallwood, page 132, Vol. I, quotes a Bulletin by Media Research Bureau of Washington, D.C. "The first of name (Burch, Birch) in America are thought to have been Simon Burch of the Massachusetts Colony in 1635; John Burch of Charles River County, Va. in 1637, and George Birch of Charles City County, Va. in 1638. The book, "Persons of Quality Coming to the American Plantation" by John Camden Hotten, pages XXIX, XXX records "Those coming over in the "Anne and James" in 1620 were Edward Burcher and Bridget Fuller (probably the wife of Samuel Fuller, physician")

William W. Burch, my grandmother's father, was considerably older than his wife. He was her professor at the academy she attended. It must have been the Clemmonsville Academy, as the following announcement was printed in the Southern Citizen, January 4, 1837

> "The Trustees take this method of informing the public that the exercises of this Institution were resumed the 2nd of this instant. It is still under the direction of Mr. W.W. Burch and Miss E. J.W. Baker. Efforts are constantly making to render it more worthy of patronage, and we feel much pleasure in saying no previous session has commenced with brighter prospects." signed: The Trustees."

The alumni records of Chapel Hill University show that William W. Burch of Surry Co. was a student in 1831-32. He was also a local Methodist preacher. Family members say that he was a Greek scholar and that his diploma was written in Greek. He accumulated a fairly large personal library. I do not know the date of the marriage with Mary Jane Austin, but it was before 1840. He and John W. Lewis signed the marriage bond on 27th December, 1838 for "five hundred pounds, current money of the State."

William W. Burch was the son of William Burch and his wife Judith Winfrey of Surry County, N.C. William Burch served in the Revolution. In applying for a pension, Judith Burch made the following declaration: "that she is the widow of the late William Burch, deceased, that lived in Surry County, N.C. at the time of the Revolutionary War, and was a soldier and served in the North Carolina Militia about twelve months or more; that she is under the impression he was a corporal. Her deceased husband said frequently in his lifetime that he was entitled to a pension but he could live without it. That she was married to William Burch at her father Isaac Winfrey's house in Surry County in 1781, that after their marriage he was drafted for three months tour of duty which he served southward on horseback. That she had a family record which showed the births of her children, but said record had been destroyed. That the oldest child, Mary Burch was born Feb. 17, 1782; and that her husband, the said William Burch, died Jan. 2, 1844."

Surrey County Deed Book 4, page 436, dated May, 1846, shows that William W. Burch gave William J. Witcher Power of Attorney to sell his share of William Burch's property.

Judith Burch must have moved to Georgia following the death of her husband as the Floyd County, Ga.'s records for 1856 record the following"

State of Georgia, Floyd County, October term 1856. Samuel Woodruff and Jesse W. Burch have made application for letters of Administration on the estate of Judith Burch, deceased, late of the State of N.C."

Nov. 5, 1856 Jesse Lambuth, Clerk of the Court, Floyd County, Ga. "doth certify that satisfactory proof was procured in open court showing that Mary East (formerly Mary Burch), wife of John East; Sarah Andrews (formerly Sarah Burch) wife of Nathan Andrews, Jesse W. Burch, Thomas Burch, William W. Burch and Charity Jones (formerly Keziah B. Burch) now the wife of Samuel Woodruff are the only surviving children of William and Judith Burch, deceased; and that the said William Burch died on the 2nd day of January, 1844 and the said Judith Burch died on the 28th day of September 1848." Another son, Joseph, died suddenly in March 1836, when his youngest daughter was only two weeks old. His wife was Mary Ann Brown. Two of their older children often spoke of having lived in Surry County and being nearly grown when they moved to Palmetto, Ga., after the death of their father Joseph. They spoke of their father's sister Julia attending school at

Burch.
