

A Centennial Celebration

of

Edward Webb Presbyterian Church
704 Worth Street
Mount Airy, North Carolina 27030

1882 - 1982

A CELEBRATION OF OUR HERITAGE EDWARD WEBB PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH USA

Today we celebrate the church, not as a Gothic Cathedral with expensive stained glass windows, nor a futuristic edifice of modern architecture. Instead, we celebrate the church as people — men, women, children — people with talents, skills and love, joined by a common spirit, to bring about the building of God's Kingdom here on earth.

*"We celebrate the church
Where every child of God is hailed unique and valuable
Where arms are opened to the world's outcasts.
Where the tired, beaten, disillusioned world is invited in and surprised by the life-giving work that in Christ,
God accepts all the children of the world."*

IN APPRECIATION

This is a time to rejoice and give praise. One hundred years have passed, and we still remain a viable instrument in the building of God's kingdom. We give thanks to the many servants who encourage the organization of this church, and who made many sacrifices along the way. We give thanks for those who continue to act with inspiring enthusiasm, and keeping the vision alive.

We are grateful to those who made this effort a success, through your generous contributions of time, interest and financial assistance.

Special Recognition of Historians:

THE CALL TO WORSHIP:

LEADER: O Thou whose glory shone like fire, within the ancient Temple walls, grant us our heart's sincere desire: Thy presence in these sacred halls.

PEOPLE: O THOU WHO, HOMELESS, WANDERED WIDE,
THOUGH FAR JUDEA'S FAVORED LAND, MAKE THIS A HOME FOR MEN, GUIDE THE STEPS OF
ALL WITH THY STRONG HAND.

LEADER: O Thou who, sorrowing in the night, longed for the love of human friend, make here a spring of friendship bright with Thy rich love which knows no end.

PEOPLE: O THOU WHOSE LOVE AND WORDS WERE
ONE, STRONG, AND DIVINE, HERE MAY OUR FELLOWSHIP SHOW HOW ALL MAY LIVE A LIFE
LIKE THINE.

HISTORY

Rev. William Gaston Catus moved to Mount Airy with his family many years ago. His life in the community reflected his interest in the spiritual, educational, business and general welfare of all who came to know him. He owned and operated a store near his home, and taught in the first parochial school organized here. Sunday School was taught in the old Sandy Level School.

By 1882 he was instrumental in organizing the Colored Presbyterian Church. A lot was purchased and deeded to Anthony H. Galbriel Penn and James Sparger. The Church was built near the Parsonage in the location hereafter referred to as Catus Hill.

Because of his commitment of service to others and his humanitarian spirit, many were inspired and encouraged to complete their education and dedicate their lives to Christ.

Following his retirement he moved to his native home in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

In 1885 Rev. A. B. Lawrence came from Winston-Salem and continued the work for the next four years. Rev. T. B. Hargraves and family arrived in 1889 from Laurinburg, North Carolina. His son, Rev. Thomas B. Hargraves, age 88 years, at this printing, recalls the life and work of his father during the next 19 years, as recorded in the following letter:

Rev. T. B. Hargrave, Sr. at home

P. O. Box 278
Portsmouth, Va. 23705
Feb. 20th, 1982

Dear Mrs. Bailey:

I was quite thrilled to receive your letter concerning the Edward Webb Presbyterian Church after all of these years. I will have to rely on my memory as to dates and events, but I am afraid that time has taken its toll there. However I will do what I can to recall some vague facts as I am now 88 years of age.

I will recall that my father, Rev. Thomas B. Hargrave, Sr. was called to serve a Mission Church, succeeding Rev. Catus who had resigned the Pastorate. Rev. Hargrave and wife, Mary and two children Thomas and Mary arrived on the field from Laurinburg, N.C. in the year 1893. Rev. Hargrave had a vision to build a new church on a site near the depot and he organized a young group known as the "Builders Society" as time went on this organization began to develop and Dad asked everyone to gather bricks and pile them up at the church front. The idea caught on and as there was a brick yard not so far away where many of the members or men worked, the pile of bricks became very large. Many little kiddies picked up brick from their own back yard. A Mr. Merritt who owned a hardware store also owned the brick yard and gave his permission to let the kiddies pick up the scattered brick. Some few years passed and finally the work was started. Mr. Merritt furnished paint and nails, Mr. J. R. Patterson (both white) made a goodly donation and the people rallied to the cause. Now the Board of Mission for Freedman had its headquarters in Pittsburg, Pa. They were impressed by the reports coming from Mt. Airy and granted permission to Dad to go to Pennsylvania Synod and canvas for money to build the structure. A Mr. Edward Webb of Oxford, Pa. heard his report and gave a goodly sum of money for the cause. On his return the people became very enthusuastic about the prospect and began to all cooperate. Every child had a card and soon there was a race among the children to see how much they could raise. My Dad and some of the young men painted the new church and Edward Webb Presbyterian Church was dedicated free of debt. I am not sure of the exact date but it was about 1904 or 5. There was a professor at Biddle University at Charlotte, N.C. who was with Dad at Lincoln University during his college days who came and preached the dedicational sermon.

Now about 1907 a goodly number of girls and boys were sent to Scotia Seminary and Biddle. W. P. Walker who became a dentist took a group of boys from the church, Fred Davis, Conse Walker, Tom Hargrave and many more to Scotia Seminary, Nora Banner, two or three Gilmers, Anna Leak and many others including Mary Hargrave. Some of the Elders were Mr. George Hammon, Mr. Scales, Walter Walker, Mart Banner, etc.

Rev. T. B. Hargrave retired in 1908 and with his family of 7 children moved to Cincinnati, Ohio. One child born in Ohio.

Mrs. Bailey, I hope that this bit of history will be of some use. I am sorry that I could not have this type written as I have been on the go and also have a wife who is very ill. I wrote this quickly to get it to you as I will be rushing out of town soon. I appreciate your asking me and I hope that this bit of history will be of service.

If there are any of the older members who remember me, please say to them that I am happy to hear from Mount Airy. I am enclosing a few pictures of the work here in Portsmouth. It all started in 1945 when I came here as a chaplain under the wartime service commission.

Thank you for writing me and please give my love to Edward Webb Members.

Sincerely yours,
Thos. B. Hargrave

Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Liddell Young
Christmas 1945

Historical Facts related to the Ministry of the late Rev. Samuel Liddell Young, during his years of service at Edward Webb Presbyterian Church, Mount Airy, North Carolina.

Rev. Samuel L. Young accepted the call to serve Edward Webb Presbyterian Church in the year 1916. Twelve years later he retired from the church and moved his family to Winston-Salem, NC.

During his ministry the town was small, but its potential for growth and involvement was evident.

Eighteen families provided the membership. These families were loyal to the church and its program and used their influence and interest in service to the community.

The Wednesday night prayer meetings, the Sunday morning services and the Sunday School were sources of spiritual awakening and opportunities for service.

The Ruling Elders of the church were Mr. Henry Davis, Mr. John Whitlock, Mr. W. M. Walker and Elder Massey.

The Presbyterian Parochial School of Webb Memorial Church provided early educational experiences for the young people of the church and community. A desire for higher education for the students was expressed. Some were able to meet all of the requirements. Others received scholarships through the untiring efforts of Rev. Young.

Through his recommendations the following young women were accepted at Scotia Seminary: Nauvata G. Young, Mable Gordon, Thelma Gordon and Nannie B. Walker. They became public school teachers and instructors in business education. Six young men attended and some graduated from Biddle University, now Johnson C. Smith University. Among them were Dr. O'Connor Walker, dentist, Mr. Fred Davis, principal of public school, Mr. Samuel Lawrence Young, Sunday School Missionary of Southern Virginia, Gilmore Franklin, public school teacher.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jessie C. Young, wife of Rev. S. L. Young, the Women's Missionary work was organized and became an essential part of the spiritual growth of the church and reached out to the women of the community. She provided home study for the women, helping them to improve in the fundamentals (of the three R's). This enabled them to understand, interpret and enjoy the Bible Study, and so much of the program of the church, which led to enthusiastic involvement in the work of missions at home and abroad. It improved the family life of the members and their support to the church. A cultural aspect developed in the community and an interest in music was prevalent.

Because of the musical ability of the pastor, many of the young people learned to play the piano and organ. Others enjoyed group singing which increased church attendance and fellowship.

Among the missionary women of the church who served faithfully were: Mrs. Lelia Franklin, Mrs. Margret Kegler, Mrs. Plutine Walker, Mrs. Ana Gordon.

May Edward Webb Presbyterian Church continue its service to God and Humanity.

This historical information concerning the Edward Webb Presbyterian Church submitted by:

Samuel Lawrence Young, Eldest son of Rev. S. L. Young

Louise Young Harris, Daughter of Rev. S. L. Young

Esther Young Hargrave, Daughter of Rev. S. L. Young

During the next 28 years - up to about 1941 - the following persons served the church as Pastors, Moderators, and Student Supply from Johnson C. Smith University: J. H. Clement, H. O. Walker, A. S. Young, W. A. Hawkins, C. Pitchford, O. J. Hawkins and L. B. Washington.

The church was able to call a full-time minister, Rev. L. M. Onque.

Dr. LeGrande M. Onque

Mrs. LeGrande M. Onque

REV. L. M. ONQUE

Rev. Onque came to the pastorate of the church in early 1941 via Princeton, New Jersey. He had just concluded his service with Mocksville Presbyterian Church. Most of his influence in the life of the church was placed on increased membership and the educational pursuit of young people. The highest enrollment in Sunday School Vacation Church School and other youth activities was recorded during his 10 years of service.

His wife, Mrs. B. J. Onque was a dynamic influence in promoting stewardship and Mission with the United Presbyterian Women. Organizing Bazaars, Fellowship Teas, Sponsoring Band Concerts and Harvest Festivals are just a few of the many activities attributed to her success of buying a piano, Restoration and Dedication of Pulpit Bible dated 1877, and the general maintenance and beautification of the church.

We feel the evidence of her presence today. Through the enthusiastic efforts of the members, we now enjoy carpeting in the Sanctuary, new heat/air conditioning system, storm windows, doors, ramp for easy accessibility, and a completed parking area.

We go forward, with dedication, inspiration and determination toward further plans to brick the exterior and purchase new pews. Our main concern is not on the temporal, but on the spirit of touching others with love.

Following the retirement, and election as Pastor Emeritus, of the Rev. Mr. LeGrande M. Onque, the church failed to secure the service of another minister immediately. The needs of the community commanded his continued service which he rendered gladly.

It was during the retirement years of Dr. Onque, the Edward Webb Church found relocation from the Granite Street location necessary. During the interun, meetings were held in the homes of various members. Ministers who were with Moderators, Student Supply, or Pulpit Supply, gave leadership as plans were devised to purchase land for the site of the new church. The site was purchased from Fred and Lora Davis, July 25, 1951. Rev. L. M. Onque, Pastor Emeritus, Mrs. B. J. Onque, Clerk of Session, and Trustee, Deacon Alexander Edwards worked to the completion and dedication of the new structure in 1954. Rev. Robert Pooley, Pastor of Flat Rock Presbyterian Church, U.S. and Lawyer Archie Carter were among the many to encourage and help in the effort.

REV. WARREN CHARLES JONES

Rev. Warren Charles Jones first came to Mt. Airy as a Seminary Student from Johnson C. Smith University in 1926-27.

For the next 30 years he devoted his life to being a mobile minister, emphasizing the self-development program, organizing Sunday Schools and influencing young people to raise their educational level. His effort in securing financial aid through scholarships and other avenues allowed many to complete high school and college.

Rev. Jones returned to Mt. Airy in 1955. He was instrumental in getting Presbytery to approve a loan of $1,500.00 from the Board of National Missions, and a grant of $1,500.00 to complete the present church building. In 1960 he accepted a call elsewhere, and continued to carry on the ministry of mission in action.

In 1972, now retired, he consented to return and offer his service following the death of our Minister, Mr. Grover C. Grimes. This third period of service was culminated in 1981.

His work and interest in Edward Webb has had an impact on the continuing progress of the life in the church.
