

*The Elkin League of Artists
and
The Foothills Arts Council*

Proudly Presents

Works of Art

By

*Polly Patterson Johnson
and*

Rebecca S. Callaway

Reception Sunday, September 10, 1989 - 2-5 p.m.

— 111 Market Street Art Gallery —

Exhibits to run from September 10-September 29, 1989

“A Thing of Beauty”

THE ARTIST

Polly is widely known for her expressionistic style with a romanticist approach, with subjects including landscapes, still lifes, and people.

She has toured Paris, France, Mexico, and other exciting places to expand her experiences in art.

Polly is a charter member of The Mt. Airy Art League, NC Water Color Society, and The Winston-Salem Associated Artists.

Polly was the winner of the first Harold Click water color award in 1987. Her art has been exhibited in North Carolina, Tennessee, and many well known art galleries.

Polly Patterson
Johnson

Rebecca S.
Callaway

THE ARTIST

Rebecca has brought much pleasure to many people with her art. She has won many awards and honorable mentions in her years as an exhibiting artist.

She is a charter member of the Mt. Airy Art League. Her work has been on display at Workmen's Federal, Galax Art Guild, and Andy Griffith Playhouse. She was recognized in 1987 and 1988 for her art in the Elkin Juried Art Shows.

Abbe Rose Cox has inspired her to great heights in her art.