FORM D

EXPENSE AND (OR) INCOME

The intent of this insurance is to indemnify the insured against loss by rainfall and, in the event of One-tenth(1/10) of an inch or more of rainfall, at the specific location hereinafter provided for ascertaining the measure thereof, on any one day hereinafter provided for, during the period of time provided for such day hereinafter under schedule, this Company shall be liable for the full amount of insurance provided hereinafter under schedule for said day, which amount for the purpose of this insurance is warranted by the insured not to exceed the expenses incident to the Merchant Sales to be held at Mt. Airy, N.C., and/or anticipated income, subject to loss by reason of such rainfall on such day.

The insured shall make arrangements with S.R. Pruitt for obtaining a rainfall reading, with a rain gauge
at Mt. Airy, N.C.,

during the period of time hereinbefore provided, in which the measure of rainfall shall be determined, and shall, on demand of this Company, furnish a certified record of same, which record shall be conclusive as to time and amount of rainfall.

This policy being a special and limited time contract shall be void unless the premium provided for herein shall be received by this Company, or a duly authorized representative of this Company, on or before the 22nd day of October 19 23.

This policy is made and accepted subject to the foregoing stipulations and conditions, and to the stipulations and conditions printed on the back hereof, which are hereby made a part of this policy, together with such other provisions, stipulations, and conditions as may be endorsed hereon or added hereto as herein provided.

PROVISIONS REQUIRED BY LAW TO BE STATED IN THIS POLICY: This policy is in a stock corporation.

In Witness Whereof, this company has executed and attested these presents; but this policy shall not be valid until countersigned by the duly authorized agent of the company at Mt. Airy, N. C.

Policy void unless premium paid.

This entire policy shall be void unless the premium provided for herein shall be received by this company or a duly authorized representative of this company prior to the date of the beginning of the term hereof.

Fraud, misrepresentation, etc.

This entire policy shall be void if the insured has concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof; or if the interest of the insured in the subject of insurance be not truly stated herein; or in case of any fraud or false swearing by the insured touching any matter relating to this insurance or the subject thereof, whether before or after a loss.

Policy void unless endorsed.

This entire policy shall be void, unless otherwise provided by agreement in writing added hereto, if the insured now has or shall hereafter make or procure any other contract of insurance against loss by rain, whether valid or not, on the subject of insurance covered in whole or in part by this policy; or if any change other than by the death of an insured take place in the interest, title, or possession of the subject of insurance; or if this policy be assigned before a loss.

Not liable.

This company shall not be liable for loss from any cause except the hazards insured against.

Added clauses.

The extent of the application of insurance under this policy, and the contribution to be made by this company in case of loss, and any other agreement not inconsistent with or a waiver of any of the conditions or provisions of this policy, may be provided for by agreement in writing added thereto.

Waiver.

No one shall have power to waive any provision or condition of this policy, except such as by the terms of this policy may be the subject of agreement added thereto; nor shall any such provision or condition be held to be waived unless such waiver shall be in writing added hereto; nor shall any provision or condition of this policy, or any forfeiture, be held to be waived by any requirement, act or proceeding on the part of this company relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for; nor shall any privilege or permission affecting the insurance hereunder exist or be claimed by the insured unless granted herein or by rider added hereto.

Non-cancelable.

This policy shall not be canceled by either party hereto, unless otherwise provided by agreement in writing added thereto.

Pro rata liability.

This company shall not be liable under this policy for a greater proportion of any loss than the amount hereby insured shall bear to the whole insurance covering the subject of insurance in whole or in part against loss by rain, whether valid or not, and whether collectible or not.

Time of day.

The time of day hereunder means the standard time of the day at the place of loss; at localities where Daylight Saving Time is in use, the words "Standard Time" shall be construed as Daylight Saving Time.

Requirements in case of loss.

The insured shall give immediate notice in writing to this company of any loss, and shall furnish in detail a complete statement of the value of the subject of insurance and the amount of loss claimed; and within thirty days after the loss, unless such time is extended in writing by this company, render to this company a proof of loss, signed and sworn to by the insured, stating the knowledge and belief of the insured as to the time and origin of the loss; the interest of the insured and all others in the subject of insurance; the value of each item thereof and the amount of loss thereto; all other contracts of insurance against loss by rain, whether valid or not, covering in any manner the subject of insurance; a copy of all the descriptions and schedules in all policies; and any change in interest, title or possession of the subject of insurance since the issuing of this policy.

The insured shall exhibit to any person designated by this company such evidence of loss as may be reasonably required, and submit to examination, under oath, by any person named by this company, and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be reasonably required, shall produce for examination all books of account, bills, invoices and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof, if originals be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be designated by this company or its representative, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made.

Appraisal.

In case the insured and this company shall fail to agree as to the amount of loss, each shall, on the written demand of either, select a competent and disinterested appraiser. The appraisers shall first select a competent and disinterested umpire, and, failing for fifteen days to agree upon such umpire, then, on request of the insured or this company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of the court of record in the county in which the loss occurred. The appraisers shall then appraise the loss, stating separately the value and loss, and failing to agree, shall submit their differences only to the umpire. An award in writing of any two, when filed with this company, shall determine the amount of value and loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting him, and the expenses of appraisal and umpire shall be paid by the parties equally.

When loss payable.

The amount of loss for which this company may be liable shall be payable thirty days after proof of loss as herein provided is received by this company, and ascertainment of the loss is made, either by agreement between the insured and this company expressed in writing or by the filing with this company of an award as herein provided.

Suit.

No suit or action on this policy, for the recovery of any claim, shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless all the requirements of this policy shall have been complied with, nor unless commenced within twelve months next after the loss; provided that where such limitation of time is prohibited by law, no suit or action on this policy shall be sustainable unless commenced within the limitation of time permitted by such law.
