The Wednesday Afternoon Book Club met on Wednesday, May 31, at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. Hugh Merritt for its annual business meeting.

There were no minutes because the business meeting was not held in 1966. Mrs. Howard Woltz, Jr. announced a bank balance of $20.86, no disbursements having been made for the 1966-67 year.

The By-Laws were read.

After discussion the members voted to change the meeting time from 3:00 to 2:30 in the future.

It was also decided to eliminate a meeting date should it fall on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, and to start the year in late September rather than the middle of October.

A suggestion was made to enforce the By-law which requires that a $1.00 penalty be paid by a member who does not bring her book to regularly scheduled meetings.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Howard Woltz, Jr. President

The Wednesday Afternoon Book Club held its annual business meeting at the home of Mrs. H.O. Woltz, Jr. on May 12 at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Bruce Harrington presiding.

The 1975 minutes were approved as read.

According to a proposal the group agreed to carry as "inactive" those members who find they can extremely rarely or never attend meetings of this Club due to health conditions.

May 1978

The Annual business meeting of the Wednesday afternoon Book Club was held at the home of Mrs. William Waltz, Jr. on May 17, 1978. Mrs. E.T. Moore, President, presided. In the absence of Mrs. Hugh Merritt, Sec. the minutes were taken by Mrs. Robert Savill, Jr.

The minutes for last year were read by Mrs. Tom Southgate. She then read a note from Frank Smith thanking our club for the contribution we made to the Triad Home in memory of Lela.

The Secretary recommended that the dues be raised to one dollar annually. This was unanamously passed & dues were collected for the coming year. The Secretary also suggested that we close out our checking account due to bank charges each month & open a pass books savings account at the Building & Loan.

The President reported the purchase of new table covers & five new double decks of cards and suggested that one more double deck be bought.

The problem of not getting books to the meetings was discussed. Each member was urged to see that her book was sent to the meeting or taken to the next in line.

The members voted to fill Mrs. J. W. Savills' place, making two vacancies for next year. It was suggested her name be left on the list as an inactive Bocash and Mrs. Brodie Winborne were ~~~~ voted into the Club and both accepted our invitation.

The officers for the year 1978-79 will be Mrs. Borden Hooks, President — and Mrs. Robert Sowell, Jr., Sec. + Treas.

Dear Friends:

We open our eyes and suddenly it is the first of July. We hope your summer has been a wonderful one so far.

We would like to welcome Babs (Mrs. Lee) Merritt. Babs will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Julia Jackson.

As a reminder, the yearly dues of $1.00 should be turned into either Karen Fawcett or me if you have not already done so.

Hinkle's Book Store has a list of the books chosen by members for next year's book list. Books chosen so far are:

The Second Lady
The Little Drummer Girl
The Valley of Horses
The Crystal Cave

Please call Hinkle's and let them know of your selection. Books should be turned in to either Karen or me by August 31st. We have taken the liberty of enclosing a list of best sellers if it should help you with your selection.

In order for everyone to receive a book at each meeting we would like to remind members pursuant to Article IX of the By-law, "Books shall be exchanged at each meeting. A fine of $1.00 shall be imposed on any member failing to bring or send a book to the regular meeting." We do realize, however, that there are a few members who do not submit yearly books.

Next year promises to be a good one. Our first meeting will be held October 12, 1983 in the home of Mary Emily Freiberger. We look forward to seeing you then.

Respectfully,

Mary Emily Freiberger
