ur Dorothy,

It's see if I can straighten out some of the confusion I created yesterday. At, first!! Found the copied Conrad Family material and thought that you might be interested in Margaret Lutes of Boise, Idaho. Also--have copied you 9 Oct. letter listing the Longswamp Church Records in Pa. It is on your letterhead and if you want me to remove it, I will. (The list and/or the letterhead.) See that Lutes does not have as much information as you.

First thing today I went into the Rowan Co. McCubbins Collection. Mrs. McCubbins has headed the first Ballenger page:

I called for Savits Wills and Estates in both Rowan and Lincoln Co. Nothing in either county.

Owed you two hours and gave you the entire day -- not that I found anything near the needed proof. Henry of Rowan to Henry of Lincoln. Sorry I didn't prove much for you. Perhaps having the Quaker material might keep them seperate - then again, perhaps you already have that material.

Find the Oct. 1793 Vol. II Burke Co. Land entry interesting. Apparently some people didn't approve of this land use. Does anything ever really change????

Sincerely,

Betty J. Camin

"THE BOLLINGER FAMILY"

The Bollingers came from Switzerland. There were three brothers. Two came to this country before the Revolutionary war. The two that come to America settled in North Carolina. These two brothers married; one had no children, the other raised ten sons and two daughters. Seven of these sons came to Missouri just after the close of the war with England, and settled in what is now Bollinger county, on the following survey:

John Bollinger at Patton, survey 768; Phillip Bollinger, old Lob place, survey 227; Geo. Frederick Bollinger, Bufordville; Mahias Bollinger, Logan Hart place, survey 228; Daniel Bollinger, Big White Water, survey 2249; David Bowlinger, Baker's Mill, survey 1780; Doval Bollinger settled on Castor

Jospeh Bollinger lived with Henry and never married, Peter Bollinger never left N. Carolina; this accounts for the ten boys, and the girls, I just know that one married a Whitener in Christian Co. Ky. Not true

John Bollinger had four sons and two daughters, John Jr. married a Tinnin, survey 519; Jacob, part survey 768; William married Magdeline Hahn, survey, 774; Henry married Catherine Hahn, survey, 773; one daughter married Daniel Ashabran, survey, 770; the other daughter married William Tinnin.

The above William Bollinger was the father of one called John Billie; and the above Henry was known as Man Henry, and settled on what is known as the old Bih Moore place. Phillip Bollinger raised three sons and three daughters. Henry Lob's father married a Whitener, Daniel married a daughter of David Bollinger and Frederick never married. A girl married Abraham Whitener, one Ben Shell and the other a Miller near Millersville.

George Frederick Bollinger settled at Bufford's Mill and had one child, Sarah.

Mathias Bollinger raised five sons and four daughters: David married a Stattler, Henry married Susie Hahn; Aaron married Sarah Hahn; Moses a Stattler; Joseph married Abraham Hahn's Sarah; Hannah married Adam Seabaugh; Elizabeth married John Hahn; Susan married Joseph Miller; Sarah married Jacob Conrad.

David Bollinger, of Baker's mill, raised three boys and one girl, Andrew married Barbara Seabaugh; Henry settled at Fredericktown; John never married, and was lame. The girl married Daniel, the son of Phillip. This Andrew Bollinger was the father of Miller Henry, who opened the Baker mill before the war, also father of Hen Plunket's daddy, a brother to Henry, Davall settled on Castor, Henry settled in Kentucky, Joseph lived with Henry, and Peter stayed in N. Carolina.

Sketch of Major Geo. E. Bollinger

Major Geo. F. Bollinger was born in Lincoln county, N. Carolina in 1770, died in 1842, being 72 yrs old. He was the fourth son of Henry or not according to the birth record.

Henry B. Bollinger, whose grandfather came to America from Switzerland in the year 1738, landing at Philadelphia the 5th of September of that year, who then went to the county and state aforementioned, where the subject of this sketch was born. Major Geo. F. Bollinger came to this section of Missouri or then northern Louisiana in year 1796 or 1797, and becoming acquainted with Governor Lorimer, the then governor of this section of Louisiana, from whom he got permission to bring a colony of settlers, on condition that each settler was to receive a large tract of land from the Spanish government. He went back to N. Carolina and in 1799 started for this section of Southeast Missouri, (Bollinger county and vicinity) with twenty families, John, Daniel, Mathias, Phillip, Henry and William Bollinger (these 6 were his brothers), Peter Crites, Peter, Adam and Conrad Stattler, Peter and George Grounds, Fredrick Limbaugh, John Hahs, Joseph Niswanger, Frederick Linkard, Leonard Welker, Hundel Barks and William Tinnin. They crossed the Mississippi the 1st day of January, 1800, and came to the northern part of Bollinger county, where each received a Spanish grant of 640 acres. He was commissioned Major Malita by Governor Lorimer. He was a member of the first territorial council which met in St Louis in 1812 or 1813. Was elected two terms to the state senate, and was elector in 1836. He built a mill at the crossing of White-water of the Jackson and Marble Hill roads, which was burned, and when discovered by the negros, they ran to the house holleing "the mills' afire! the mills' afire!" He started to go to the mill, but stopped all of a sudden and returned to the house, thinking it was a plan to rob his house. He rebuilt the mill with stone.

He had one daughter, Sarah, whose mother was a Miss Hunziker. She rode horseback from Jackson to N. Carolina to attend a Moravian school.

She had the honor of having the first piano brought to Missouri. She was married twice, first to a Frisseli, who died, leaving two daughters. She next married a Doughty, from whom she parted, She had by him two sons. Major Geo. F. Bollinger had no sons.

Mr. Krimsuinger said he saw something in the Globe Democst from Mark Pader about Major Bollinger. It is about an 8-day clock, that it represented to have belonged to him. That is a big mistake: the clock Mr. Pabor has or had, was brought by Joseph Miller from Baltimore in 1821, and sold to John Hahn, who married a niece of Major Bollinger, and lived at Hahn's carding mill. It was sold at his sale, and Frederick Bollinger, a grand nephew of Major Bollinger bought it; and at his sale Joshua Martin bought it, and Mr. Pabor bought it from Martin for $12.00, it was originally $50.00 without the case. Major Bollinger's brother John was the oldest brother and died Oct. 15, 1811. Three of his sons got Spanish grants, also his son-in-law Wm. Tinnin. Mr. Krimningers wife as well as myself (Peter R. Conrad) a great grand-daughter and nephew of Mathias Bollinger and greatgrand niece and nephew of Major George F. Bollinger

*these were not Brothers
but nephews sons of John*

Dear Dorothy,

So happy to receive your letter today. Had worked on the Ballinger (BU-BO.) line for most of today and now I do have more information (?) to work from. -- Can hardly wait to look into those supposed deeds tomorrow.

Am sending five pay vouchers for Savits (.ets , otts.). These are proof of service. Two of these are for Militia service and the others appear to be for supplies or some such.

The will of Henry Bollinger -- made in the year 1771. The only place I noted the 1771 date was on the Will index. Guess it doesn't matter when he wrote his will. This is the will for which there is an Estate with the note in the folder about his dying in 1803. (in 1803 or about.)

The 1774 will of Henry B. in Rowan Co. is becoming badly faded. However, I believe that you can read the copy and will not mixx you up by listing heirs etc. Looks to be much like the list from the church in Pa.

Started with Anson Co. Deeds and found that the only listings there for the Ballingers were in the 1900 in Gullede Township. Then got into the Tryon Co. records. Tryon was formed from ~~Misch~~ Mischlenberg which came from Anson. (If you ever want to do a complete check, Meck. Co. should be checked.) The Tryon records are few and far between. It was formed in 1768 and is gone by 1779. There are a few miscellaneous records dated until 1788.

The Tryon Deeds show:

1774 Henry Bullinger, Nicholas Fry, Peter Eigirt, Jno. Shuford, Martin Collier, Fred<sup>k</sup> Clarke, Mich<sup>l</sup> Grindstaff, Wm Deal & John Deal grant deed for 60 acres to Philip Henry, Schoolmaster. (The men are all listed as planters). bjc

(Cannot believe that these are the only deeds available from Lincoln Co. Now with the copies and dates you sent perhaps they will show. Maybe I was looking to early.)

Tomorrow intend looking for Ballinger Estate (Henry) in Rutherford and Burke Counties. Also do marriage bonds and look for Savits Wills and Estates to prove marriages.

Think that the only possible way to prove the Henry of Rowan to Henry of Lincoln relationship would be to collect all the deeds and grants and see if there is a connection. For myself, I am satisfied that they are father - son. Especially when they are the only ones to show in that area.

Owe you two more hours which should cover what I have listed to do in the morning.

Dear Betty,

Enclosed are the births of the Bollinger Children — Henry of Rowan Co.

I'm also enclosing copies of wills and deeds that I have.

I will want proof of all the sons but especially David for these papers that are pending.

My ancestors are Phillip and Mathias.

In the deed dated 15 Dec 1819, it mentions granted by State Grant dated 7 April 1787. Could this be land granted for Rev. service?

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Check enclosed:

Sincerely,

Worothy Krueger
State Registrar, Missouri

Need proof of George Savits as
Rev. patriot.
