LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of Strangeman Hutchins

Surry County, North Carolina—Will book three, page 5.

I, Strangeman Hutchins, of Surry County, and State of North Carolina, being desirous to settle my outward estate while in my sound senses and memory, and to prevent disputes after my death, do make this my last will and testament in the manner following;

First, I give to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Hutchins, all my personal estate, not here after given to any of my children or grand children, hereafter named, to dispose of as she may think proper, amongst my children and grand children.

Secondly, It is my will and desire, that John Standly shall have the tract of land he now lives on, containing seventy-five acres, being in the county above said, for his own property, provided he pay me or my executor the sum of twenty-five pounds Virginia money, by or before the twenty-fifth day of December, Anno Domino 1792, agreeable to a verbal contract made between him, the said John Standly and myself. If the money is not paid by that time, then it is my desire that my son, Benjamin Hutchins, shall have the seventy-five acres of land by settling and paying some demands that are against me in Virginia, and paying the balance of the above mentioned sum of twenty five pounds Virginia money to his mother.

Thirdly, I lend to my daughter, Mary Brooks, a tract of land containing fifty five acres, lying in Goochland County in Virginia, it being the land whereon my said daughter, Mary, now lives, during her natural life, provided she lives separate and apart from her husband, Samuel Robert Brooks. It is not my intent the said Brooks should live on my land, or have any part of my estate whatever, and after the death of my said daughter, Mary, then I give the said fifty five acres of land to my grand daughter, Elizabeth Stanley, daughter of my said daughter, Mary Brooks, to her and her heirs forever.

Fourthly, I lend to my daughter, Edith Standly, one feather bed, which she now has in her possession, during her natural life and then I give the said bed to my grand son, John Hutchins Stanley.

Fifthly, It is my will and desire that what ever I have already given to my sons and daughters hereafter named, the same shall remain in their possession forever: (to wit) John, Nicholas, Thomas and Benjamin Hutchins, Mary Brooks, Edith Stanley, Obedience Harding, and Jane Barnett.

And last, I appoint my son, Benjamin Hutchins, executor to this, my last will and testament, revoking all wills heretofore made by me. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this ye 23rd day of ye 11th month, 1791.

Signed, sealed, published and declared to be the last will and testament of Strangeman Hutchins, in the presence of Jonas Reynolds.

FIRST GENERATION

NICHOLAS HUTCHINS is the earliest member of the Hutchins family of whom we have positive proof. He was a Quaker living in Henrico County, Virginia in 1699. He belonged to the Henrico Monthly Meeting at Curles (established 1690--see map) and later to the White Oak Swamp Meeting (established 1702). Before the building of the meeting house, services were held at the homes of members, often at the home of William Porter and sometimes at the home of Nicholas Hutchins.

Jamestown had been settled in 1607, and Henrico only a short time later, in 1611. This "Cradle of the Republic", as it has been called, along the James River in Virginia, was settled many years before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. The counties of Hanover and Goochland, formed later, are also of interest to us in our Hutchins search.

The history of the Quakers in Virginia is told very well in Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. 6, (1950) ed. by William Wade Hinshaw. The activities of the Henrico Monthly Meeting, pp 145-150, and the Cedar Creek Monthly Meeting to which Strangeman later belonged, pp 223-226, are described in a most interesting manner by Douglas Summers Brown. Because of lack of space, this information will not be repeated here; but it would be of great interest to each descendant to read these accounts.

There are many genealogies and family records which give the birthplace of Nicholas Hutchins as England or Wales; but there is nothing to substantiate these claims. Similarly, the father of Nicholas has been given as Isaac, Robert, or another Nicholas Hutchins. From the Court Records of Henrico County it is possible to disprove either Isaac or Robert as the father of Nicholas:

April Court, 1714, Henrico County, Virginia--"In the Ejectione Firmae depending between Richard Saywell Plaintiff and Christopher Branch and Anne his wife admitted Defendants for £100 & damages etc...Jurymen--Edward Tanner, WILLIAM COCKE, John Steward, Gofrey Ragsdale, Henry Hatcher, Edward Osborn, Walter Scot, John Watson, WILLIAM COX, John Pride, Henry Turpin and Seth Ward...We the jurors...do find for the Plt Imprintis That ISAAC HUTCHINS died Seized in fee of the land in Question. Secondly we find the last will of the aforesd Issac dated the 23rd of Feb. 1656 hereunto affixed. Thirdly we find that the aforesd Isaac left only one Son named Robert who dyed under age and without issue. Fourthly we find that CICELY the Widow of the aforesaid Isaac was possessed of the lands in question. Fifthly we find that the aforesaid Cicely left one daughter named ELIZABETH who is now the lawful wife of Henry Gee one of the Plts. We find a Verdict of the General Court of this Colony given in an Ejectment there depending between Richard Saywell & these Defts. for the lands now in question. For the Defendants wee find that one HENRY SHERMAN had issue by his wife CICELY the Defedt Anne which said Anne did intermarry with John Crowley and is now the wife of the Defendt Christopher Branch. Wee find a Deed from the said CICELY SHERMAN to the said Anne their daughter dated the 29th Dec. 1685 hereto annexed, etc..." (125/I-279)

Much caution is necessary in suggesting the parentage of Nicholas, because of the lack of records for Virginia in this period. However, from the facts available for each Hutchins (or variant spelling) in Virginia in the 1600s, it is possible to surmise that several generations of this Hutchins family may already have been in Virginia before Nicholas. For example: -- The Cicely mentioned in the Court Records above, wife of Isaac Hutchins, later married Henry Sherman. - Cicely and Henry were the parents of Elizabeth Sherman who married Henry Trent and later married Henry Gee. -Henry Trent and wife Elizabeth were the parents of Mary Trent, who married Richard Cox. -Richard Cox and Mary Trent were the parents of Elizabeth Cox, who married Strangeman Hutchins. (See Addenda)

Because people lived and married within their own small group of neighbors, it does not seem unlikely that Strangeman and Elizabeth came from families who had known each other for a long time; and it is even possible that they were related in one way or another. (In the following chapters we shall see how often their descendants married each other.)

The birth of Nicholas Hutchins is often given as 1645, but there is no proof for this. It was a supposition on the part of E. C. Crider, as shown in this excerpt from a letter he wrote to Louis Payne (date unknown, but ca 1935-1937):

"On a guess I would put Nich.'s birth as abt. 1640-1645. I have a feeling that he was old when he md. Mary Watkins, say 50 at least. His son John married when 54 and had about 8 more children. I rather think that Nicholas must have been a Quaker when he married by priest, otherwise what right would the Quakers have had to have entered complaint? If his age was near 50, it would have been possible or even probable that the marriage to Mary Watkins was his third..."

1699-7mo-8 NICHOLAS HUTCHINS did condemn his marriage by priest to the satisfaction of the Friends. (Original Henrico MM Records of the Friends; also H:6:184) Another excerpt from E. C. Crider's letter to Louis Payne (date unknown, but ca 1935-1937):

"The Quakers had a rule that a member must marry another member. They observed this rule to the letter. If a member married a non-member, first a complaint was made and a committee appointed to visit the offending member. Unless the member acted to set himself right, he was disowned, and a record made to that effect. The usual way to get right was to condemn the marriage, usually in writing. Then the records would be made as 'Nicholas did condemn his marriage by priest to the satisfaction of Friends'. In that case, 'priest' meant by a minister of the Church of England. This was the state religion of Virginia..."

1699-12mo-9 NICHOLAS HUTCHINS contributed 40 lbs. of tobacco towards the building of a new Meeting House at Curles. (Henrico MM, H:6:184)

1701-6mo-8 NICHOLAS HUTCHINS and MARY WATKINS, daughter of HENRY, proposed intentions of marriage; "At a meeting held at William Porter's Jr., the 8th day of ye 6th month, 1701, Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins did at this meeting propose their intentions of marriage the first time. Henry Watkins, the father of the young woman consenting thereto and saying he would not be their hindrance. This meeting therefore ordered that William Lead (Ladd) and Benjamin Woodson do inquire into the clearness and conversation of the said Nicholas Hutchins and make return the next month meeting." (Original Henrico MM Record, 1699-1756, p 11).

1701-7mo-12 "At a meeting held at William Porter Jrs., the 12 day of ye 7th month of 1701 the parties appointed to inquire into the clearness and conversation of Nicholas Hutchins, report that they have found nothing to the contrary but that he is clear in each respect. They were therefore sufered to proceed in their intentions and publish themselves the second time, according to the order of Friends." (Original Henrico MM Record, 1699-1756, p 11, and H:6:184).

1701-8mo-9 NICHOLAS HUTCHINS, Henrico Co.; m in Friends Meeting House at a public mtg of the Friends, MARY WATKINS, dt Henry, Henrico Co. (H:6:184, Henrico MM Record)
From the original Henrico MM record, 1699-1756, p 12:

"Here followeth a copy of Nicholas Hutchins' marriage Certificate;

WHEREAS Nicholas Hutchins, of the County of Henrico and Mary Watkins, daughter of Henry Watkins, of the Same County, have proposed their intentions of marriage before two several meetings of the people, in scorn called Quakers, which after the due inquiry of their clearness, and it appearing that the relations of the said Mary were consenting to their marriage, did give consent that the said parties might accomplish their said intentions.

We therefore, whose names are underwritten do certify all whom it may concern, that the said Nicholas Hutchins and the said Mary Watkins did at the meeting house of the aforesaid people in the county aforesaid, the 9th day of the 8th month, 1701, then and there take each other for wife and husband. He, the said Nicholas Hutchins, taking said Mary by the hand and declaring that in the presence of the Lord and before this congregation, 'I take Mary Watkins to be my lawful wife, promising to be to her a true and loving husband till death.'

And then the said Mary Watkins, then and there declaring 'that I take Nicholas Hutchins to be my husband, promising to be a true and loving husband (meaning wife) till death.'

And for confirmation thereof the said Nicholas and Mary did set their hands.

Nicholas Hutchins,
Mary Hutchins.

E. C. Crider noted, "We have never been able to find proof as to whether Mary who m Nicholas was the dau of Henry Watkins Sr. or of Henry Watkins Jr." (See Addenda)

It is also of interest to note that no relative named Hutchins signed the marriage certificate. Was it because Nicholas had no living relatives, or because his relatives were not Quaker? Or perhaps it was even because he had emigrated from New England or England. The most we can do is speculate. (See Addenda for transportations into the colony.)

1702-4mo-25 NICHOLAS HUTCHINS received a grant of 230 acres along "ye north bank of James River and on ye west side of ye Four Mile Creek." This is about three miles below Dutch Gap.

State of Virginia: County of Henrico: Land Grant Office, State Capitol, Richmond, Virginia. The Nicholas Hutchins Land Grant:

"To all and whosoever, now know ye that I ye said Francis Nicholson, Esq., Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council of State, accordingly, give and grant unto NICHOLAS HUTCHINS, a tract of land containing two hundred and thirty acres, lying and being in ye County of Henrico and on ye North side of James River and on Four Mile Creek and runneth thence North-west by West twenty six poles to Henry Pew's corner black oak, thence on his line North half West 188 poles to a corner pine and North-west by West 174 poles to a black oak, thence on ye line of Mr. John Woodson, East 146 poles to his corner gum standing on 4 mile creek, thence down the creek as it trendeth to yee place it begun, including the aforesaid 230 acres of land, the said land being due unto said Hutchins by and for the transportation of 5 persons into this colony, whose names are to be in the records mentioned under this patent, to have and to hold, etc, yielding and paying, etc., provided etc, given under my hand and the seal of the colony, this 25th day of April A.D., 1702."

(Patent Book #9, p 436)

The following description of the Nicholas Hutchins Land Grant is copied from a letter written by E. C. Crider 22 Oct 1937 to a person not named:

"While we were in Richmond, Va., we took a half-day to see if we could find the Nicholas Hutchins Land Grant of 1702. We drove down the James River 12 miles, all hard surface road, to Four Mile Creek. Four Mile Creek is in the vicinity of Farrar Island, on the north side of the James. The grant was on the James at what is known as Deep Bottom, the river being 60 to 90 feet deep...The James makes several large loops. One loop encloses what is known as Jones Neck. Deep Bottom is on the down stream top of the loop, and Four Mile Creek empties into the James at top of this loop.

Nicholas Hutchins seems to have had a river frontage of 26 rods, the grant extending irregularly to the northwest, but all on the west side of the creek. Am sending you a kodak of the frontage. This photo probably shows all or nearly all of the frontage. You can drive down to the river. Our car was probably less than 100 feet from the water. At one time there was a small park there. In the photo in center there are two trees shading a building. This is a dance pavilion. To the right of this is a building for refreshments. Further to the left, between the two trees, is what looks like a small white building. That is masonry work on the creek. It is a wonderfully beautiful location, and Nicholas most probably used this frontage for his buildings. Deep Bottom is good fishing. While we were there, a truck brought a boat to the river.

The frontage of the Nicholas Hutchins Land Grant on the James River, VA. (Taken by the Criders in 1937.)

A negro owns most of the land now. His house is a couple hundred steps from the river. A brick house. He has fenced in most of the park, that part containing the pavilion. He does not like for people to trespass, so we did not go down to the mouth of the creek. The ownership is in dispute.

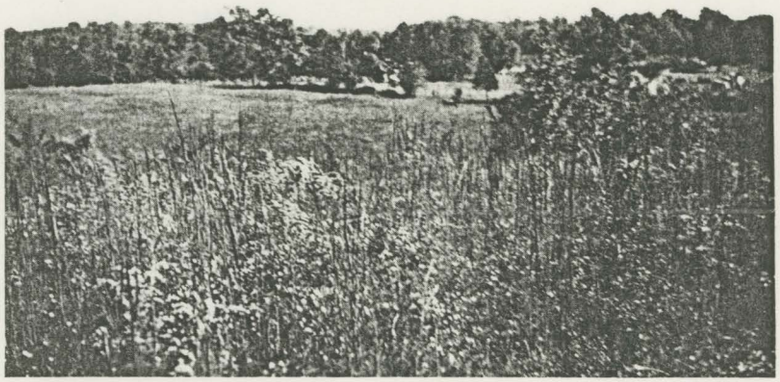

Back an eighth of a mile or less is a hill ridge about 30 or 40 feet high. This would make a splendid place for buildings and is so used. Up the creek about 5 squares is an old graveyard-- no stones with inscriptions.

Nicholas first belonged to the Curles church. That was in the next loop, in the part called Curles. He probably dropped down the river in a boat to the church. The later part of his life he seemed to belong to White Oak Swamp Mtg. which was located north of the river some miles. We asked about the location of White Oak Mtg. but could not locate it.

Leaving Deep Bottom, we went into Curles Neck. Nicholas had good neighbors. Curles Neck was patented in 1617. It was the home of Nathaniel Bacon in 1676. In 1698, William Randolph, of the famous Randolph family, obtained the estate.

Leaving there, we went to Malvern Hills, where Henry Watkins was born. From there, northwest to Richmond, along White Oak Swamp. I expect we passed near the location of the old church. We inquired at a store about the church, but no one knew, but back a couple of miles was a place they called Quakers' Corner.

This region was a battlefield in the Civil War. Grant speaks of Deep Bottom in his report..."

A view of the Land Grant from the hill back from the river. There is a glimpse of the river. The row of trees on the left marks Four Mile Creek. Photo taken by the Criders in 1937.

In a list of ships which cleared from the upper district of the James River from 22 Sep 1703 to 22 May 1704 (English Duplicates of Lost Virginia Records, p 307, by Louis des Cognets, Jr.) is shown the Exeter, Merchant of Exon, a square-stern built in New England in 1694, 250 tons. The Master was John Wilcox, and the owners were Micajah Perry, Richard Perry, Ann Lyle, Thomas Lane, NICHOLAS HUTCHINS and Stephen Derick.

If this was our same Nicholas Hutchins, we have a clue that he may have been a mariner, or that he did have shipping interests. Since he had received his land grant for transporting five persons into the colony, there is further reason for this supposition.

Apr 1704-1705 NICHOLAS HUTCHINS was listed in the "Rent Rolls" of Henrico County (English Duplicates of Lost Virginia Records, p 218). He was listed as owning 240 acres, so he may have acquired ten acres more after his land grant.

1708-1mo-2 Nicholas Hutchins was a witness to the will of Jane Pleasants.
1709-June Nicholas proved the above will at the June Term of Court.

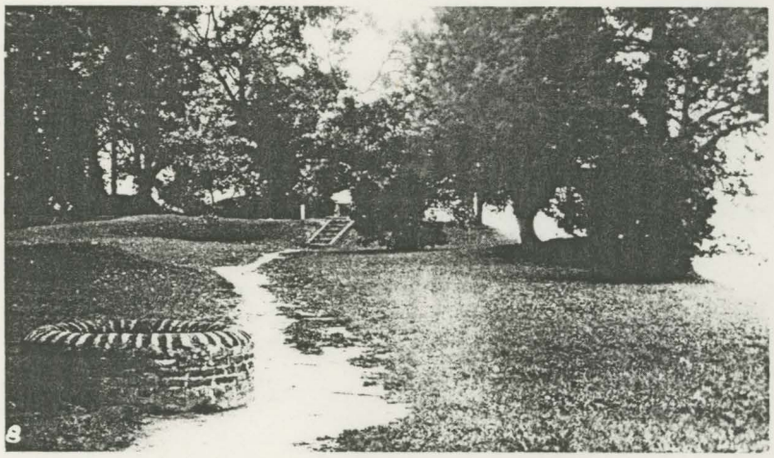

1710-4mo-17 Nicholas was on a committee to consider a marriage (Quaker). He reported that he thought first cousins should not marry. (Despite his belief, many of his descendants did marry first cousins, and many of them were disowned by the Quakers as a result.) Valentine Papers, p 2045, by Edward Pleasants Valentine. [106]

1711, 12 Oct Nicholas was one of several who were paid for working on the Battery at Jamestown. From The Valentine Papers, Vol 3, p 1983: [106]

"The several claims of Tarleton Woodson, Charles Porey, John Woodson, Edward Enroughty, William Savage, Edward Clerke, John Felps, Philemon Childers, Wm. Hobson, Wm. Porter, Joseph Woodson, Wm Ogal, John Robinson, Thomas Matthews, Philip Thomas, Ephriam Garthwright, John Darnner, Thomas Conaway, William Ferris, Joseph Pleasants, Joseph Woodson, and NICHOLAS HUTCHINS for work done at the Battery at James Towne were presented to this Court & ordered to be certified to the next Assembly for allowance. Court held Oct 1711."

Many of the Quakers refused to work on the breastworks at Jamestown in 1711 and 1712; but Nicholas, for reasons unknown to us, did work on them.

Ancient Well, Jamestown Island, VA. This well picture shows some of the ancient fortification or breastwork.

1714-11mo-7 Nicholas was chosen overseer for Curles Meeting (Henrico MM record, H:6:184). Joseph Pleasants and Nicholas Hutchins chosen as representatives from Curles to the Weekly Mtg composed of Curles, New Kent and Wainoak (Weyanoke). (From Valentine Papers, p 896.)

1718-3mo-3 Nicholas was appointed to inquire about a marriage at White Oak Swamp Meeting. (Some references, such as this and the above reference of 1710, cannot be found in Hinshaw, Vol. 6.) Valentine Papers, by Edward Pleasants, p 1187. [106]

1719-4mo-6 Meeting was held at the home of NICHOLAS HUTCHINS. Nicholas resigned as overseer of Curles Preparatory Meeting (Henrico MM, H:6:184). (He must have been getting well up in age by this time.)

1724-2mo-7 Nicholas signed the marriage record of William More and Martha Odum.

1728-2mo-6 JAMES STANLEY, son of Thomas of Hanover County, and CATHERINE HUTCHINS, dau of Nicholas of Henrico County, declared their intention to marry.

1728-3mo-5 Catherine Hutchins, dau of Nicholas of Henrico Co, m James Stanley (Henrico MM, H:6:184). Afterward, 1728-4mo-1, it was reported to the MM that they were married.

1729-9mo-1 DANIEL HARRIS, son of John of Hanover County, and MARY HUTCHINS, dau of Nicholas, deceased, declared their intention to marry (Henrico MM, H:6:184). From this record and the above record when Nicholas was still living, it is possible to place the date of his death at 1728-1729.

1729-10mo-6 Daniel and Mary declared their intentions a second time.

1729-10mo-14 DANIEL HARRIS, son of John, Hanover Co., m in public mtg. MARY HUTCHINGS, dau Nich. deceased, Henrico Co. (H:6:179, 184). The name STREINGMEN HUTCHINS first appeared when he signed the certificate of marriage, which was held in Cedar Creek Mtg. House. The first three witnesses to sign the marriage certificate were MARY HOLMES, CATHERINE STANLEY and STREINGMEN HUTCHINS. Others were John Stanley, John Saynders, Will Lead (Ladd), Thomas Stanley, John Harris, James Stanley, and George Harris.

1730-2mo-3 Daniel Harris and Mary Hutchins were reported to the MM as having been married (H:6:179, 184).

1729-11mo-3 STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS sold and deeded the land grant made to NICHOLAS HUTCHINS, and fortunately in the deed said that Nicholas was his father. (See Chapter 2) This is our only proof that Strangeman was the son of Nicholas.

1733-- Daniel Harris, member of Cedar Creek Preparatory Meeting, Hanover Co., suffered the seizure of a horse for refusing to bear arms or pay tithes.

1735-- Daniel Harris lost another horse in the same manner. (H:6:179, Henrico MM)

1736-8mo-2 Charles Woodson, Tarleton Woodson and Stephen ---- were among the subscribers for the relief of MARY HOLMES, mother-in-law of James Stanley. James Stanley was aided "he being at great charge in keeping his wife's mother, Mary Holme, who has been helpless for some time". This would indicate a second marriage for MARY WATKINS HUTCHINS. (H:6:181, 213, Henrico MM)

1743-10mo-11 MARTHY HUTCHINGS, Hanover County, married JOHN STANLEY, son of Thomas. (James Stanley, above, and John Stanley were brothers. Catherine and Martha Hutchins are presumed sisters. Martha was the second wife of John Stanley.) (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:250)

1743/1744-11mo-14 Martha Hutchings reported married to John Stanley (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:250).

Nicholas Hutchins had two known daughters (probably three), and one son, Strangeman. Only the descendants of Strangeman will be followed in this book. Strangeman had eleven children, of whom four were sons. The families of Strangeman, his four sons, and many of the daughters removed to Surry County, NC. For this reason it is possible to keep this Hutchins line separate from the many other Southern Hutchins/Hutchens/Hutchings lines of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and points west.

In his book Jacob Hutchins of Athol, Revolutionary Soldier, Jack Randolph Hutchins (23 Orchard Way South, Rockville, MD, 20854) has included a section dealing with the many Hutchins lines in the United States. This book would be very helpful to anyone trying to untangle a lost Hutchins line.

"To weave together the fading dates of old manuscripts with the traditions that have survived sleeping generations, until the joy and tears, the quaint speech and early piety, stand out upon the tapestry in the semblance of a pattern --this gives a pleasure which only he who has stood at the loom can feel and understand."

STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS, son of Nicholas, was born in Virginia in 1707 and died in Surry County (in the part which became Yadkin County in 1850), North Carolina, 10 Feb 1792. He probably lived in Henrico County, VA, until his marriage about 1731 to Elizabeth Cox, daughter of Richard and Mary Cox (see Addenda).

Elizabeth Cox was born in 1713 in Virginia, and died, according to the records of Thomas W. Barnett (a great-grandson of hers through both his paternal and maternal lines), in NC at the age of 103.

Some time after their marriage, Strangeman and Elizabeth moved up the James River to Goochland County, along Genito Creek, about twenty miles upriver from Richmond. Here he bought and occasionally sold land. In 1782 to 1785, when he was preparing to move to North Carolina, Strangeman disposed of land showing that he owned about 750 acres, of which his son John had an interest in 250 acres.

Strangeman was a prominent member of the Society of Friends. His name is first found on the Cedar Creek records in 1741. From that time until 1786, when he removed to North Carolina, his name was continually on the records as a witness, on committees, as representative, as overseer, as clerk, as elder, and as minister.

He suffered seizure of property for church rates, as did many other Quakers. The Church of England required payment of such fees, even though they were Quakers; and there were great hardships suffered because of this law, which the Quakers consistently refused to obey.

In 1762 Strangeman was ordered to secure land for the Genito Creek Monthly House in Goochland County. (However, his principal activity was at the great central Monthly Meeting at Cedar Creek.)

Strangeman had visited North Carolina in 1756 and again in 1764 (as a minister?), as had others in his family. The increasing difficulties with the government, the Revolutionary War, and the added incentive of land in North Carolina were probably the reasons that a man of 79 years of age would make such a long, arduous move away from the land where he had always lived. By that time, though, many of his relatives and friends were also moving away from the area along the James River, following the much-travelled Western Road, a migration trail which led to northwestern North Carolina (see map).

As part of the plantation system of farming in the south, the Quakers had held slaves up until the time of the Revolutionary War. But gradually some Quakers had come forward to proclaim that slavery was against the will of God; and Quakers were urged to free their slaves. In this belief, Quakers were far ahead of the rest of the country. Today it is hard for us to realize what this decision meant to people who knew that they could not continue to farm on a scale which would support their families, in competition with neighbors who had many slaves.

In 1782, by a deed of Manumission Strangeman Hutchins freed his twelve slaves before he removed to North Carolina. Later, however, several members of the family again owned slaves in their new state. Even Strangeman himself had two slaves in the 1790 census.

All of Strangeman's children were born in Virginia; and the marriages of all are recorded in Quaker records of that state. Strangeman's youngest son Benjamin left a Bible record written about 1795 containing valuable information on Strangeman's family. The Criders used this information in compiling their booklet in 1935, but a copy of the actual Bible record is not available to the present editor.

"As you read between the lines of the record of Strangeman Hutchins," wrote the Criders, "you realize that Strangeman was a man of amazing vitality and of remarkable ability."

1729-10mo-14 Streingman Hutchins; name first appeared when he signed a certificate of a marriage held at Cedar Creek Meeting House. (This was probably the marriage of his sister Mary, who was married that day in that meeting.) (H:6:184, Henrico Monthly Meeting, VA)

1729-11mo-3 Strangeman Hutchins sold & deeded to Learner Bradshaw the land grant made to Nicholas Hutchins; and fortunately, in the deed, Strangeman said that Nicholas was his father. Abbreviated words are written out for the sake of clarity. "Livery of seizin or seisin" means delivery of possession of lands and tenements of freehold; "enfeoff" means to transfer land.

1741-5mo-10 Strangeman Hutchason paid £4 bounty to the Church of England with other

Friends here in Caroline and Hanover (Counties) at the request of Friends in London. (H:6:250, Cedar Creek MM record)

1743-4mo-11 Strangeman Hutchings is mentioned as "of Hanover Co, VA"; Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co, VA (H:6:250).

1745-25 Nov John Oliver deeded to Straneman Hutchens, both of Goochland, in consideration of £80, 200 acres on the north side of the James River, adjoining the said Hutchens' own property, John Farrar/Collier Bersdell, Joseph Farrar, and Rene LaForce (see further about Rene LaForce under 3-6). Oliver had bought the land from Joel Watkins. Witnessed by Giles Letcher, Susannah Letcher and Thomas Hughes, Jr. (Goochland County Deed Bk 5, pp 106-7)

1747-5mo-4 Strangeman Hutchins was a representative from Caroline MM (which was the same as Cedar Creek MM) to the Quarterly Meeting held at White Oak Swamp in this Monthly Meeting. (Henrico MM, H:6:184)

1747-6mo-10 Strangeman had slaves named Peter, Moll and Dilsay. (Goochland Co, VA, Titheables)

1748-6mo-13 Strangeman Hutchins signed the minute book as a token that he "and his" were friends and members of this meeting. (Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co)

1748-16 July Strangeman Hutchens deeded to William Whitlow, both of Goochland County, for consideration of £60, 150 acres on the north side of the James River beginning at a corner white oak on Collier Barsdell's line (formerly John Farrar's line) on a branch of Tuckahoe Creek, southeast along a line of trees to a corner red oak on William Harding's line (formerly LaForce's line), to John Bibb's line (formerly Thomas Farrar's line, said property having been sold by his son Joseph to Bibb), to a corner white oak at the head of the said branch of Tuckahoe Creek and along the branch to the start. Witnessed by Bowker Smith, John Woodson, and Giles Letcher. Strangeman's wife Elizabeth relinquished her right of dower. (Goochland County Deed Book 5, pp 377-79)

1749-50. 9 Mar James Wade of Blislin Parish, James City County, to Strangman Hutchins of St. James Parish, Goochland County, in consideration of £30, deeded 105 acres on a fork of the Tuckahoe Creek adjoining Leonard Henly, Jr., John Barnes, Jr., Giles Letcher, and Henry Wade (part of a 200-acre tract bought from Richard Wade). Witnessed by Benjamin Hancocke, Benoni Bootwright and Giles Letcher. (Goochland County Deed Book 6, p 60)

1749-6mo-12 Strangeman Hutchings, Hanover Co, reported as having his property seized for "Church rates". Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co. No description of the property.

1754 By this date Strangeman was listed as "of Goochland Co", VA. He was a member of Genito Preparative Mtg under the jurisdiction of Cedar Creek MM.

1755-10mo-11 Mary and Jane Hutchings signed the women's MM book as a token they were members. (Mary, Strangeman's daughter, would have been ca 22; but his dau Jane would have been only 7½.) Was this another family, possibly that of John who is mentioned in a deed of 26 Dec 1743 in Goochland County (see addenda)? A John is also mentioned in Surry Co, NC, too early for John, son of Strangeman (see 3-3). If these were Strangeman's daughters Mary and Jane, why did his other daughters Elizabeth, 13, and Obedience, 11, not sign also? (H:6:250, Cedar Creek MM)

1756-9mo-11 Strangeman Hutchens granted a certificate to the MM in the Province of NC. (Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co; from the original records)

1756-12mo-11 Strangeman Hugings reported he had suffered this year (Cedar Creek MM). In a letter from William Wade Hinshaw to my mother, he noted, "Cause not stated, but property obviously seized".

1760-7 Jan William Stamps to Strangman Hutchings, both of Goochland County, a deed in consideration of £45, 50 acres (land Stamps bought from Edward Carter) beginning at a small white oak near my mill pond across the pond to Towle's line (bought from Rene LaForce) to said Hutchings' own line. Witnessed by Rene LaForce, Willoughby Brent and John Smithhust.

1760-4mo-11 John Sanders and Bejamin Harris complained against William Standley and Zachariah Standley "for reproachful and infamous expressions against Strangeman Hutchens and his ministry". (Cedar Creek MM; H:6:251 and from a letter of William Wade Hinshaw to my mother.) Strangeman seems to have been a Quaker minister for some period of time.

1762-12mo-11 Strangeman Huchings ordered to secure land for a meeting house at Genito in Goochland Co, VA (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:251).

1764 Strangeman Hutchins was appointed Clerk of Cedar Creek MM, Hanover County (from letter of William Wade Hinshaw to my mother).

1764-2mo-11 In the South River MM minutes, H:6:320, appears a sample of Strangeman's writing as Clerk of Cedar Creek Monthly Meeting:

"From our MM held at Cedar Creek in the 11th of the 2nd mo 1764 to the MM of South River, VA.

'Dear Frs: Whereas Benjamin Johnson being rem from under the care of our mtg & now settled within the verge of your mtg he hath rq of us a few lines by way of recommendation unto you, after the needful care taken we do not find but what he has settled his outward affairs to the Satisfaction we farther certify on his behalf that his manner of life & conversation hath always been such among us as rendered him held in unity by us & as such we recommend him to you.'

STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS, Clerk"

1764-8mo-11 Strangeman Hugings requested certificate to travel into some parts of NC; granted. (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:251)

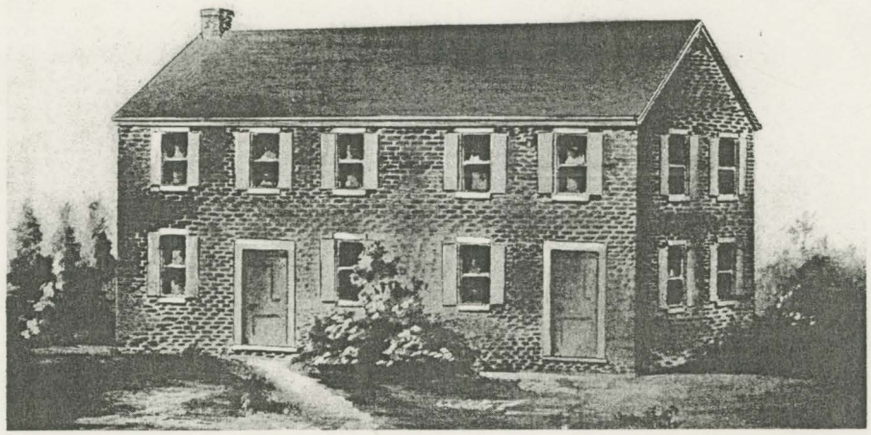

1764-16 Oct Bartholomew Turner to Strangeman Hutchins and Benjamin Watkins, all of Goochland County, a deed in consideration of one shilling, one acre on Geneto (Genito) Creek on which the Quaker Meeting House stands. Witnessed by John Harris, Cornelius Harris and Will Webber. (Goochland Co Deed Book 8, pp 453-4.) A memorandum of 19 Feb 1765 stated that John and Cornelius Harris were Quakers.

1765-6mo-8 Strangeman Hutchens and Thomas Pleasants have the care of Genito Preparatory Mtg (chosen as overseers). (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:251)

1766-5mo-10 Strangeman Hutchens listed among those having suffered this year (cause not given). (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:251)

1768-3mo-12 Strangeman Hutchens released as overseer of Genito Mtg and John Barnett chosen overseer in his place. (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:251) See 3-5 for further about John Barnett, who married Strangeman's daughter Elizabeth.

1770 A new Meeting House was erected at Cedar Creek, where the old one had stood.

Cedar Creek Meeting-House, Hanover County, VA. -Erected 1770

1770-1 May Strangeman Hutchins to Richard Johnson, both of Goochland County, in consideration of £32, 10 shillings, 60 acres on Tuckahoe Creek (from the description, the land was basically that which Strangeman bought from William Stamps). Elizabeth Hutchins, wife of Strangeman, relinquished her right of dower 21 May 1770. (Goochland County Deed Book 10, pp 41-2)

Revolutionary War--Strangeman Hutchins and son John "furnished wheat" for the War, probably under duress. Strangeman is listed on p 20, Public Service Claims, Goochland County Court Booklet. Strangeman was much too old for military service, and as a Quaker he would have refused to serve anyhow. The only known member of the Quaker Hutchins family to serve in the Revolutionary War was Jonathan, oldest son of John and grandson of Strangeman.

1780-20 Aug Strangemand and Elizabeth Hutchins to Anderson Peers, all of Goochland Co, a deed for consideration of £50, 50 acres on Tuckaho(e) Creek. Witnessed by Stockley Towles, John Hutchins, and A. Eastin.

1781 The last major battle of the war was fought on Virginia soil less than 100 miles from Strangeman's home--the Battle of Yorktown. Jonathan Hutchins was in this battle when Cornwallis surrendered. Although the British surrendered at this battle, the war did not end until 1783.

1782-19 Mar Claim allowed to Strangeman Hutchins by the Board of Justices of Goochland Co, VA, for services rendered during the War. Photostatic copy of the claim, difficult to read, is in DAR records, Washington, DC.

1782-21 Oct Strangeman Hutchins freed his twelve slaves in Goochland Co by a Deed of Manumission:

Goochland County, VA

DEED OF MANUMISSION OF SLAVES

"I, Strangeman Hutchins, being fully persuaded that freedom is the rightful state of all mankind, and that it is my duty to do unto others as I would desire to be done by, in the like situation, and having under my care seven negroes, whom I have heretofore held as slaves, of the following names and ages, viz: Nan Scott, 38; Jennie Scott, 36; Joe Scott, 34; Hannah Scott, 32; Lusy Scott, 28; Tab Pryor, 23; Judith Scott, 18; I hereby emancipate and set free, all and everyone of the above named slaves and I do for myself, heirs, executors and administrators, relinquish all my right, title, interest, claim and pretention of claim whatsoever, either to their persons or to any estate that they may hereafter acquire, and having also five negroes now in their minority, of the following names and ages, viz: George Scott, 17; Isham Scott, 15; King Scott, 14; Stephen Scott 12; Bob Scott 9; whom I likewise emancipate and set free after they shall attain to lawful age, the males at 21 and the females at 18 years.

The fact that Strangeman signed by his mark does not mean that he could not write. He obviously could write very well, as is evident in the South River Minutes quoted on the previous page, when he was clerk of the Cedar Creek Meeting.

1783-14 Feb Strangman and Elizabeth Hutchins deeded to Hezekiah Puryear, of Goochland County, in consideration of £420, 316 acres. John and Alice Hutchins were also parties in granting land.

1783 The first of Strangeman's family began the exodus into North Carolina when his sons John and Nicholas removed with their families to Surry County.

1786-1mo-14 Strangeman Hutchins, his wife, granddaughter Elizabeth Hutchins, daughter of Thomas; Thomas Hutchins, his wife and children; Benjamin Hutchins and family were granted certificates to Deep River MM, NC; the certificate was returned in the 10th month, but was delayed by failure of the committee to report. (Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co, VA; H:6:251)

1786-8mo-7 Strangeman Hutchings and family were received on certificate from Cedar Creek MM, VA, dated 1mo-14-1786. Strangeman Hutchins presented a certificate for himself, his wife and granddaughter Elizabeth, dau of Thomas.

DESCENDANTS OF STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS

[NOTE: When the Hutchins families moved to North Carolina and settled in Surry County on Forbush Creek and Deep Creek, they placed their membership at Deep River, thirty miles away in Guilford County. Deep River had the records for the Deep Creek area until a meeting was "set up" in Surry County. A note from William Wade Hinshaw to my mother explained, "When Deep Creek Monthly Meeting, NC, was set off from Deep River MM, all members of Deep River living 'within the verge' of Deep Creek MM were automatically transferred without certificates to Deep Creek. The Hutchins family records in Deep River MM are continued in Deep Creek MM. The last item in Deep River is dated 1794-5mo-5, and the first item in Deep Creek is dated 1796-11mo-17."

By 1793 a meeting was established at Deep Creek. Services had been held as early as 1786. Deep Creek is still a strong, prosperous meeting. Charles Hutchins, a descendant of Strangeman, was its minister at one time (see Rev. Charles Henry Hutchins).]

1786 Strangeman Hutchins was exempt from paying poll tax after the year 1786 (too old). (Minutes of the Surry Co, NC, Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessiions, 1771-1790)

1788 Virginia became a state after Strangeman and most of his descendants had left the state.

1789 North Carolina became a state after most of the Hutchins family had settled in the Surry County area.

1790 census, Surry Co, Salisbury District: Strangeman Huchins, one male over 16, no males under 15, 2 females, 2 slaves (again). Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and granddaughter of Strangeman, may still have been living with them.

1791-11mo-23 LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS

Surry County, NC
Will Book 3, p 5

"I, Strangeman Hutchins, of Surry County, and State of North Carolina, being desirous to settle my outward estate while in my sound senses and memory, and to prevent disputes after my death, do make this my last will and testament in the manner following:

First, I give to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Hutchins, all my personal estate, not here after given to any of my children or grand children, hereafter named, to dispose of as she may think proper, amongst my children and grand children.

Secondly, It is my will and desire, that John Standly shall have the tract of land he now lives on, containing seventy-five acres, being in the county above said, for his own property, provided he pay me or my executor the sum of twenty-five pounds Virginia money, by or before the twenty-fifth day of December, Anno Domino 1792, agreeable to a verbal contract made between him, the said John Standly and myself. If the money is not paid by that time, then it is my desire that my son, Benjamin Hutchins, shall have the seventy-five acres of land by settling and paying some demands that are against me in Virginia, and paying the balance of the above mentioned sum of twenty five pounds Virginia money to his mother.

Thirdly, I lend to my daughter, Mary Brooks, a tract of land containing fifty five acres, lying in Goochland County in Virginia, it being the land whereon my said daughter, Mary, now lives, during her natural life, provided she lives separate and apart from her husband, Samuel Robert Brooks. It is not my intent the said Brooks should live on my land, or have any part of my estate whatever, and after the death of my said daughter, Mary, then I give the said fifty five acres of land to my grand daughter, Elizabeth Stanley, daughter of my said daughter, Mary Brooks, to her and her heirs forever.

Fourthly, I lend to my daughter, Edith Standly, one feather bed, which she now has in her possession, during her natural life and then I give the said bed to my grand son, John Hutchins Stanley.

Fifthly, It is my will and desire that what ever I have already given to my sons and daughters hereafter named, the same shall remain in their possession forever: (to wit) John, Nicholas, Thomas and Benjamin Hutchins, Mary Brooks, Edith Stanley, Obedience Harding, and Jane Barnett.

And last, I appoint my son, Benjamin Hutchins, executor to this, my last will and testament, revoking all wills heretofore made by me. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this ye 23rd day of ye 11th month, 1791.

Signed, sealed, published and declared to be the last will and testament of Strangeman Hutchins, in the presence of Daughters Elizabeth Barnett, Milly Matthews, and Lydia Johnson were already dead (or possibly Milly was still living, but disowned). John Standly (Stanley), mentioned in the will, was the husband of Strangeman's daughter Edith.

1792-2mo-10 Strangeman Hutchens, Deep Creek, died in his 85th year. (Deep River record, H:1:785)

The following "Dying Sayings" of Strangeman Hutchins were in the possession of Mrs. Ella Whisler, Wabash, IN. The paper was yellow with age, and broken. Dashes indicate that words are missing. These sayings, as first printed by the Criders in their booklet: [16]

DYING SAYING OF STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS

"Some sentences expressed by our ancient worthy Friend, Strangeman Hutchins, which was taken ill about ye middle of ye tenth month, 1791, and continued poorly until the ninth of ye second month following; great part of which time he seemed gradually to decline, in the course of which he uttered many weighty expressions, which not then being taken down can not be remembered; often praying to ye Almighty that he might bear his affliction with patience, and at times he desired to be dissolved if it might be the will of the Lord, saying that he thought his stay long here.

He was heard to say that he had been afraid that he had displeased his Creator, that was the cause He continued him here so long in affliction.

It seemed to be returned in answer to him, that His Beloved Son who never disobeyed had suffered much more.

And that night before he departed this life, I took down his sentences as he uttered them as near as I could collect them which was as follows--

> 'O Heaven bless me, O Lord, the Heavens cannot contain thy love. O Lord, have mercy upon me, and look down with thy penetrating eye and deliver me from all evil. O Lord, deliver me from every motion of sin; let me die that I may sing Thy praise for ever more.'

He often times petitioned ye Lord for favor and mercy, and to deliver him from every evil motion while he was here in this prepared body.

> 'O that I could but die, it would be best for me so that I was out of this troublesome world. Lord bless me, Lord help me, O Heavens above preserve me ---- ---- in fear of his Creator, so that He may bring honor and glory to His ever worthy name, who is worthy to be honored and adored for ever more.'

> 'O that we might all be prepared so that when we come to lie upon a dying bed and a rolling pillow, we may have nothing to do but die.'

> 'O Lord, let me die away, I humbly pray, O Lord, what shall I do, shall I go.'

So he often complained and supplicated, 'Lord receive me out of evil and out of all abomination.' About this time his tongue began to falter much so he could be scarcely understood, but still seemed in a praying disposition, and often times prayed to be delivered ---- ---- heart within.

And several times he spoke about ye living water and about ye true water in a broken manner, although afterward he spoke intelligibly and said --'O Holy, Holy Lord God Almighty, I am in an awful frame of mind and stand resigned to the Lord's will both soul and body.' And almost every breath till the last seemed to supplicate or return thanks, and he grew so weak that he departed in the morning the 10th of the second month, A.D. 1792. And I hope he has gone from works to reward."

[The above was recorded by Sylvanus Hadley.]

1800 census Elizabeth, wife of Strangeman, was in the household of son Benjamin.

1810 census Elizabeth was in the household of Josiah, son of Benjamin (Benjamin's family having removed to Ohio) and she probably died there.

Surry County, November Term of Court, 1800.
The execution of within Deed was duly proven in open court by the oath of Renney Harding and ordered to be registered.

Test. -Jo. Williams, Clerk.

The first settlements of the Hutchins family in Surry County, North Carolina, can be approximately located northeast of Yadkinville on the branches of Forbush Creek and Deep Creek, in what is now Yadkin County (taken from Surry County in 1850). Deep Creek Friends Meeting House is four and a half miles north of Yadkinville. Of course the Hutchins families soon scattered throughout the county and the whole region, as they are today.

North Carolina was not entirely new to the Hutchins family when they removed. In 1764 Catherine Stanley, sister of Strangeman Hutchins, had removed to Guilford County with her husband and children. Some of her family were there in 1758. John and Nicholas, sons of Strangeman, explored the country and made land entries in Surry County in 1779, although they did not remove until 1783-4 according to Quaker records. Their sister Lydia and her husband John Johnson also removed at that time.

Strangeman, age 79, and his wife Elizabeth, removed in 1786 with the families of sons Thomas and Benjamin. Edith Stanley's family (daughter of Strangeman) followed in 1787; but it was 1796 before the families of Obedience Harding and Jane Barnett arrived in North Carolina.

Only Mary Brooks and Elizabeth Barnett (and possibly Milly Matthews) remained in Virginia. Since only one child is known for Mary, and one for Elizabeth, and nothing is known of Milly, nearly all of Strangeman's grandchildren were soon to be found in Surry County, North Carolina. (See genealogy by Daniel Hutchins, pp 321-322.)

3-5. ELIZABETH HUTCHINS (Strangeman[2], Nicholas[1]) b 12mo-13-1742 VA; d prob in VA; m 9mo-12-1767 to JOHN BARNETT, b ca 1712-1714 VA, d ca 1797-1800 Amherst Co, VA. John had m/1 ca 1745 Ann ----, b ca 1718 in England. John and his 1/w Ann had five children, among whom were Arthanacious who married Jane Hutchins (see 3-8), sister of Elizabeth; Ann, who married John Epperson; and Martha, who married Frank Epperson. (From the records of Elizabeth Barnett Mendenhall, 4-53)

Thomas W. Barnett, grandson of Arthanacious and Jane (see 4-50) left a diary, excellent records, and a short history of the old Barnett and Hutchins families, written in 1857. In this history he said,[11]

"John Barnett, my great, great grandfather, was born 1680 in the vicinity of Jamestown, VA, and died there 1765. My great grandfather was named John also. He was born 1712, and died 1797. He was born, lived and died in the land of his fathers. Each of them was the only son in his family."

The only known child of John and Elizabeth: [1]

4-33. i. Obedience Barnett, reported 4mo-1786 married out of unity. Husband's name not given.

1757-10mo-8 John Barnett's name first appeared when he served on a committee.

1760-5mo-10 John Barnart reported he had suffered for church rates this year. (No indication as to his hardships or what property might have been taken from him.)

1761-11mo-13 John Barnett, Camp Creek, reported as having suffered so heavily for priest's demands that it is feared his family will be in need; Monthly Meeting aids him. (For further explanation of the demands of the Church of England on the Quakers, see Strangeman Hutchins 2-1.)

1767-5mo-9 Arthantoush, Anna & Martha Barnett received (into the Society of Friends) on request of their father, John.

1767-10mo-10 John Barnett reported married to Elizabeth Hutchins. (Two months later Elizabeth's sister Jane married John's son Arthanacious; see 3-8). This record is also in H:6:251.

1768-8mo-13 John Barnett & wife Elizabeth under care of this Monthly Meeting; complained of for having given birth to a child seven months after marriage; they are cleared later. (Copied from a letter written by William Wade Hinshaw to Nancy Esther Hutchins Hineman.)[49]

1768-3mo-12 Strangeman Hutchens released as overseer of Genito Mtg & John Barnett chosen overseer in his place. (H:6:251)

1770-4mo-14 John Barnett requests to be released as overseer of Genito Mtg. (Might Elizabeth have died about this time?)

1778-4mo-11 John Barnett requests membership; refused. (No indication as to why John was no longer a member or why he would be seeking membership again and be refused.)

1786-4mo--- Obedience Barnett, daughter of John, disowned. (Married out of unity.)

1786-7mo-8 John Barnett, Genito Mtg, disowned; married contrary to discipline. (If this was the same John, he was once again a member for a time, and his wife Elizabeth was dead by 1786.)

(All but one of the items above are from Cedar Creek Monthly Minutes, Hanover Co, VA, H:6:228.)

3-6. OBEDIENCE HUTCHINS (Strangeman[2], Nicholas[1]) b 12mo-3-1744 VA; d aft 1807? * 4-34. i. Renne Harding b 15 Aug 1774 VA; m Rebecca Patterson

4-35. ii. Jesse Harding b 15 Sep 1775 VA; no information about him. Perhaps he died young since he was not in William's estate settlement.

4-37. iv. Thomas Harding b 28 Aug 1781 VA; m 14 Dec 1801 Surry Co, NC, Elizabeth Cave; bondsman Joel Patterson; m/2 25 Dec 1803 Surry Co, Kurza Cook; bondsman John Williams. He signed deeds in the estate settlement of his father in 1803 and 1807. 4-38. v. Sarah Harding ("Sally") b 1783 VA; m 5 Aug 1801 Surry Co, NC, Joel Patterson; bondsman Renne Harding. In the Surry Co census, 1810, Joel and Sarah are shown with two sons and two daughters under the age of ten. Joel sold land in 1813. They removed to Jackson Co, Mississippi, and nothing further is known of them.

* 4-39. vi. Jean ("Jane") Harding b 10 Sep 1784 VA; m Eli Shugart

William Harding's lineage traces back to George Harding of London, England, whose son Thomas settled in Virginia in 1650. The descendants of Thomas made fortunate marriages, owned large tracts of land, and were prominent in their localities. William Harding who married "Biddy" Hutchins was a son of a William Harding b 1720 who had m/2 Sarah LaForce, daughter of Renné LaForce, a Huguenot. Renné was one of the first Justices of Goochland Co, VA. (This information, found by the Criders, needs further checking. See bibliography for books covering this line.[8])

The Douglas Register [115], p 14, has this marriage record for Goochland Co, VA:

1773-4 Oct William HARDIN and Biddy HOUCHINS
(Obedience married out of the Society of Friends, and there is no indication that William Harding or his children ever belonged to the Society.)

1776-3mo-9 Obediance Harding received by request (Cedar Creek MM, H:6:244, Hanover Co, VA)
"The Friends appointed to meet Obedience Harding, have not had an opportunity with her, but one of them rendered an account to the meeting which he had received from a Friend at the particular meeting to which she belonged- 'Of her orderly life, &c. It appears satisfactory.' " (Original record)

1782-8 July William and Obedience, of Hanover Co, VA, sold two tracts of land in Goochland Co, VA:
149 acres to Thomas Harding for £200;
38 acres to Anderson Peers for £500. (Goochland Deed Record 13)

1795-5mo-9 Obedience Hardin granted a certificate to Deep Creek MM, Surry Co, NC (Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co, VA, H:6:244).

1796-2mo-6 Obedience Harding received on certificate from Cedar Creek MM, Hanover Co, VA, dated 5mo-9-1795. (Deep Creek MM, H:1:986)

1796-28 Dec William Harding gave a Bill of Sale for the sale of a negro girl Agga for £52, 10 shillings. The witnesses to the sale were Renne Harding and Strangeman Johnson. Recorded in Surry Co, NC.

Some time in the next few months William died without a will; and the Court of Surry County appointed a commission to divide the estate.

1797-May Term of Court---Renne Harding, one of the administrators of the estate of William Harding, filed an inventory. There were three sales of personal property, each reported to the Court, each signed by Obedience and her son Renne, Administrators:

1797-Aug Term of Court, amount of sale, £164, 0 shillings, 0 pence
1797-1 Sep £ 61, 11 shillings, 6 pence
1797-27 Mar £100, 15 shillings, 0 pence

* 5-171. viii. Rebecca Hutchins b 5 Aug 1828; m Daniel Mackie
Perhaps another child?

1810 census Surry Co, NC; Benjamin and Rebecca had one child in their household.

1810-8mo-4 Benjamin Hutchens condemned his marrying out of unity. (Deep Creek H:1: 989)

1814-6mo-4 Joel and Nicholas Hutchens received on request of their father, Benjamin. (H:1:989)

1820 census Surry Co: A Benjamin Hutchens is shown with six children. If it was this Benjamin, one child had died in later years and is not known.

1830 census Surry Co: After Benjamin's death, Rebecca is shown with nine children in her household. This lends more credence to the belief that there was another child.

1834-2mo-1 Rebecca Hutchens, a widow, reported married to John Davis. (Deep Creek, H:1:989)

4-32. SARAH HUTCHINS (Nicholas[3], Strangeman[2]) b 8mo-3-1782 VA; d 1806? George and Hannah had a son Stephen who married three times and had thirteen children, a number of them marrying into the Hutchins family. See Cane Creek and Deep Creek (NC) Quaker records."*

Renné, or Renny (as his name was more commonly spelled, and as it will now be spelled in this book) and Rebecca signed a Marriage Bond on 7 Sep 1803, two days before they were married. The bondsman was John Williams.

Rebecca Patterson was the dau of Greenberry Patterson and Rebecca ----; and after the death of Renny, she m/2 27 June 1814 Joshua Creson in Surry Co.

"Renny Harding, a native of Virginia, was born in 1774, and as a child was brought by his parents to Surry County, North Carolina. 6-868. viii. Levi Shugart ("Lee") b ca 1864 TX

The following account of Levi Shugart was sent by Randolph N. Smith, Burkesville, KY. [10] It is from Blanco County Families for One Hundred Years by John Stribling Moursand, and was submitted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Neil, Fort Worth, Texas: [10]

LEVI SHUGART, SR.

Levi Shugart, Sr., was a brother of Thomas Hardin Shugart. He was born about 1816 in Kentucky. According to the US census of 1880, his parents were born in North Carolina. He came from Cumberland County, Kentucky, in a wagon train in 1854 with his wife, Elizabeth, and four children. They settled in the Coal Creek/Comanche Creek vicinity of the northwestern part of present Blanco County [TX]. At the time of settlement, this vicinity was in Gillespie County.

The wagon train from Kentucky included the Shugart family, the Shelley family, the Hardin brother, A. Davis, and James Riddle or Riddell, who settled in the same vicinity. For a number of years, much of this vicinity in the northwestern part of what came to be Blanco County in 1858 was included, by error, within the limits of Llano County. [TX]

Levi Shugart appears for the first time on the Gillespie County [TX] tax assessment rolls in 1855. He is shown as having no land at that time, but two horses, valued at $100.00. He paid a poll tax of fifty cents. He was living at that time in what came to be the northwestern part of Blanco County.

In 1856 Levi Shugart appears again on the Gillespie County tax rolls, but rendered no land. He had two horses, valued at $150.00, and ten cattle, $70.00. His total property value was $220.00 and he paid a poll tax of fifty cents.

[He] appears on the Gillespie County tax rolls with no land listed in 1857, but he paid a poll tax. In 1858, [he] appears on the Llano County tax rolls with no land listed, but three horses, $300.00.

In 1859 he appears again on Llano County tax rolls with no land listed but four horses, valued at $200.00; 25 cattle, $150.00; and one stallion, $200.00. His total property value was $500.00, and he paid a poll tax of fifty cents.

In 1860 he appears on the Blanco County tax rolls with no land listed, but five horses, valued at $500.00; fifty cattle, $300.00. His total property value was $800.00, and he paid a poll tax of fifty cents.

He appears in 1861 on Blanco County tax rolls with no land listed, but six horses, $600.00; sixty cattle, $360.00; and miscellaneous property, $80.00. His total property value was $1,040.00, and he paid his fifty cent poll tax.

Levi Shugart is on the Blanco County tax rolls for 1862 with no land, but personal property included five horses, $500.00; seventy-five cattle, $450.00, and miscellaneous property, $100.00. His total property value was $1,050.00 and he paid $1.00 poll tax.

In 1863, he appears on the tax roll of Blano County with a total property value of $1.015.00. He paid a poll tax of $1.00. His property in 1864, including Confederate notes, amounted to $300.00, and other personal property, $1,400.00, for a total of $1,700.00 and he paid his $1.00 poll tax.

As of 18 May 1865, Levi Shugart had personal property, including livestock, which was valued at $945.00. He paid a poll tax of $1.00. The revised tax rolls of Blanco County, as of 14 December 1865, was reflecting Levi Shugart with two horses, valued at $100.00; 125 cattle, $750.00; and miscellaneous property, $120.00.

By 1867 Levi must have purchased land, since he appears on the tax assessment rolls of Blanco County in 1868 with the ownership of 160 acres of the J. A. Pierce land grant, valued at $600.00. In 1869 he is shown with 160 acres of a tract of land which was not patented at that time.

In 1870 he appears with 160 acres of L. Shugart land grant, valued at $600.00; three horses, $100.00; 45 cattle, $185.00; and miscellaneous property, $137.00, total property value, $1,022.00.

By 1871 Levi Shugart is shown on the tax roll of Blanco County with 106 acres of K. L. Anderson land grant, valued at $600.00. In 1875 he owned 116 acres of K. L. Anderson land grant. On the 1880 tax rolls, he is shown as the owner of 116 acres of John A. Pierce land grant.

6-869. i. William B. Shugart b ca 1856 TX
6-870. ii. Oliver T. Shugart b ca 1858 TX

The following account of Thomas Hardin Shugart was also sent by Mr. Smith. It, too, was taken from Blanco County [TX] Families for One Hundred Years by Moursand, and was summitted by Mr. and Mrs. Neil: [10]

THOMAS H. (HARDIN) SHUGART

T. H. Shugart, a younger brother of Levi Shugart, Sr., was born in Kentucky about 1819. He must have settled in the vicinity of what is now the northwestern part of Blanco County [TX], probably prior to the time that his brother Levi Shugart came, since he arrived in December 1854.

T. H. Shugart appears for the first time on the supplement of the Gillespie County [TX] tax assessment rolls for the year of 1854 with 640 acres of the Temple land grant, survey 240, on Coal Creek/Comanche Creek area in the early part of 1854.

He appears on the regular tax roll of Gillespie in 1855 with 1,476 acres of the J. Quirk land grant, valued at $600.00 (further identified as a Class 1 grant, survey 189, on Sandy Creek), 640 acres of the Temple land grant, survey 240, on Coal Creek. It is believed that the residence of T. H. Shugart was on the John Quirk land grant, survey 189. which was a first class grant and located in the northwestern corner of present Blanco County, on Comanche Creek.

In 1859 he appears on the Llano County [TX] tax rolls with 1,476 acres of the John Quirk land grant, valued at $369.00, and 320 acres of Mato Casslis (Mateo Cassillas) grant, valued at $200.00.

It should be noted that although he is listed on the Llano County tax rolls, he was actually located in Blanco County since 1858. He appears on the Llano County tax rolls for 1860 with the same land, and he is listed on the census of 1860 Llano County as follows: Sugart (Shugart), Thomas H., 41 years, born about 1819 in Kentucky, farmer; wife Sarah Am., 31, born in Tennessee; Wm. B., 4, born in TX; Oliver T., 2, born in TX.

Comanche Spring is listed as the post office of Thomas H. Shugart on the 1860 Llano County US census. The residence of Thomas H. Shugart must have remained near Comanche Spring in what was actually Blanco territory until about 1869 when he moved into Burnet County. Through error, his name continues to be listed in the Llano County tax rolls in the 1860s and part of the 1870s.

An interesting letter written by Thomas H. Shugart has been contributed by Randolph N. Smith of Burkesville, KY: [10]

Shovel Mount, Burnet Co. Texas
June 20, 1878

E. J. Shugert,

I received yours of 22 of May 15 inst. Your letter did not reach me Atlanta, Ga. until after I left for my home in Texas it was forwarded to me. I hasten to reply. I have no doubt we are relatives My grandfather Shugert moved from Pennsylvania to Surry Co., North Carolina Settled on the Yadkin River where he raised a large family. My father's name was Eli. He married Jane Harding and moved to Kentucky in 1803 where he raised a family of ten children to be grown 4 boys and 6 girls. I am the youngest of the 4 boys. My father's brothers were named George, Linard, and John Uncle George Shugert moved to Indiana where he died at an advanced age. Uncle Linard died in No. Carolina at about 80 years old. Uncle John Shugert died in Clinton Co. Ky, without children. My other uncles all raised large families. We are of dutch decent. [Deutsch, ie German; see 4-39.] Grand father Shugart spoke very broken English. My father Eli Shugart died in Cumberland Co. Ky at the age of 52 years he died in Sept. 1835. I was then about 15 years old. I stayed with my mother until I was 25 years old then I went to Knoxville, Tenn where I remained until 1853 when I came to Texas, went back to Knoxville in 54 wound up my business and on 9th of November was married by Rev. W. G. Brownlaw to Sarah Ann Obim, -came to Texas. I will say here at that time I was a great Brownlaw man. He is dead & give suffice to say that I was very much opposed to his course in his later life. I have met with several men of our name and never met one that spelled their name like we do but what was related tho some of them distant. My brothers names are William, Zachariah and Levi, the two oldest are dead about 30 years ago while I was living at Knoxville, Tenn. I received a letter from a pension agent in Illinois stating that there was a large estate in the hands of the government at Washington coming to the heirs of Lieut Martin B. Shugart who served in the Maryland line in the Revolution. I wrote to several of the oldest ones of our name that I knew anything of and among others to Claborn Shugert of Virginia to see if they knew anything of Lieut. Martin B. Shugert and go[t] no information. I then handed the letter to a pension agent of Tenn. He went to Washington examined the records and informed me that there was a large estate due Lieut Martin B. Shugart and if I could prove the relationship that I could get it, but not being able to get any information paid no further attention to it. Excuse my not writing as I am so nervous that I can hardly write at all. If I live until 27 of October next I will be 60 years old. My place of residence is in Burnet County 40 miles from Austin the capital of our state. I live 3 miles from the Colorado River. I am sorry your letter did not reach me before I left the general conference. Write me on receipt of this

Yours truly
THOS H. SHUGERT.

Dying Sayings of Strangeman Hutchins

Some sentences expressed by our ancient worthy Friend, Strangeman Hutchins, which was taken ill about ye middle of ye tenth month, 1791, and continued poorly until the ninth of ye second month following; great part of which time he seemed gradually to decline, in the course of which he uttered many weighty expressions, which not then being taken down can not be remembered; often praying to ye Almighty that he might bear his affliction with patience, and at times he desired to be dissolved if it might be the will of the Lord, saying that he thought his stay long here.

He was heard to say that he had been afraid that he had displeased his Creator, that was the cause He continued him here so long in affliction.

It seemed to be returned in answer to him, that His Beloved Son who never disobeyed had suffered much more.

And that night before he departed this life, I took down his sentences as he uttered them as near as I could collect them which was as follows—

"O Heaven bless me, O Lord, the Heavens cannot contain thy love. O Lord, have mercy upon me, and look down with thy penetrating eye and deliver me from all evil. O Lord, deliver me from every motion of sin; let me die that I may sing Thy praise for ever more."

He often times petitioned ye Lord for favor and mercy, and to deliver him from every evil motion while he was here in this prepared body.

"O that I could but die, it would be best for me so that I was out of this troublesome world. Lord bless me, Lord help me, O Heavens above preserve me ———— in fear of his Creator, so that He may bring honor and glory to His ever worthy name, who is worthy to be honored and adored for ever more."

"O that we might all be prepared so that when we come to lie upon a dying bed and a rolling pillow, we may have nothing to do but die."

"O Lord, let me die away, I humbly pray, O Lord, what shall I do, shall I go."

So he often complained and supplicated, "Lord receive me out of evil and out of all abomination." About this time his tongue began to falter much so he could be scarcely understood, but still seemed in a praying disposition, and often times prayed to be delivered ———— heart within.

And several times he spoke about ye living water and about ye true water in a broken manner, although afterward he spoke intelligibly and said—"O Holy, Holy Lord God Almighty, I am in an awful frame of mind and stand resigned to the Lord's will both soul and body." And almost every breath till the last seemed to supplicate or return thanks, and he grew so weak that he departed in the morning the 10th of the second month, A. D. 1792.

And I hope he has gone from works to reward.

The above was recorded by Sylvanus Hadley.

These sayings were in the possession of Mrs. Ella Whisler, Wabash, Ind. The paper was yellow with age and broken. Dashes indicate that words are missing.

Dear Ms. Johnson,

Recently I sent membership fees to join the society. Last week I received a package with three journals in it from this year. Also inclosed was the letter I am returning to you. Evidently it was placed in there by mistake.

I have enclosed a sheet of my husbands great-great-great grandfather. As you see the spelling of the last name has changed. This was done around 1914 by his grandfather. Enclosed also is two surname cards and a self-addressed stamped envelope to obtain copies of anyone you have with this name. Is it possible to order copies of old journals?

Thank you for you assistance.

Jeri Hutchins

To the Hutchins

We are presenting this booklet showing what is known to us of the first four generations of the family of Strangeman Hutchins.

You will find many gaps, that can be filled, and probably errors that can be corrected if each one helps. We hope we may be able in a couple of years to print a more complete record of these generations.

This data is selected from a vast amount of material secured by intensive research and thousands of miles of travel during the past few years.

This lineage now containing over five thousand names, together with what we may find, will be placed in a permanent record, and finally placed in the D. A. R. Library at Washington, D. C.

As far as we have positive proof, Nicholas Hutchins is the forbear of this family. There are several traditions concerning the family, most of them based on the peculiar name, Strangeman. The most pleasing one is that some Hutchins previous to Nicholas married a Polly Strangeman.

Tradition gives the birth of Nicholas as 1645.

Nicholas was married twice. We do not know the name of the first wife, or if there were any children by this marriage.

There were Hutchins early in Massachusetts, in Pennsylvania, in Maryland, in the Bermudas, in Norfolk County, Virginia. Our Hutchins were along the James River. These Hutchins of the various locations, may have had a common ancestry back some time in the British Isles, but no relationship is known among them in the colonies.

Nicholas Hutchins land grant was located about twelve miles by paved road down the James from the present site of Richmond.

It was about three miles below Dutch Gap.

Strangeman Hutchins lived in Goochland County, on Genito Creek about twenty miles up the James from Richmond.

A distance of fifty miles along the James, with Richmond as center, would approximately locate the family the fiirst hundred years in the Colony.

Nicholas Hutchins had one son and four grand sons. These five moved to Surry County, N. C. This move together with the Quaker records makes it possible to keep our Hutchins line separate from the others.

When you remember that Strangeman Hutchins was born two hundred and twenty-eight years ago, you will not be surprised that much we would like to know, can not be found.

We thank those who have helped, to mention a few who have assisted beyond their immediate families.

Mrs. James T. Johnson, Colorado, Texas.
Mrs. John W. Waymire, San Diego, Calif.
Mrs. Emma Sullivan and Mrs. Ella Whisler, Wabash, Ind.
Mrs. Helen P. Schmidt, West Milton, Ohio.
Mrs. Mary Ann Holmes, Sheridan, Ind., who had an old, old Hutchins Bible with most valuable data written one hundred and forty years ago by Benjamin Hutchins, Sen.
Gurney Hutchins, East Bend, N. C.
Dr. Wm. M. Reser, Lafayette, Ind.

We hope this booklet will be an incentive to help. Please send in your family records. A good record always has dates of births, marriages and deaths. But names without dates are acceptable.

The Hutchins Family

Nicholas Hutchins was the forbear of this Hutchins family. He was a Quaker living in Henrico County, Virginia, and belonging to the Henrico Monthly Meeting at Curles, and later to the White Oak Swamp Meeting. There are few items known concerning him.

In the records of the Henrico Meetings, 1699 to 1756, page one, we find this first item.

7- 8-1699—Nicholas Hutchins did condemn his marriage by priest to the satisfaction of the Friends.

12- 9-1699—Nicholas donated 40 pounds of tobacco for building a church at Curles.

6- 8-1701—Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins, daughter of Henry, propose intentions of marriage. The usual committee was appointed. Henry Watkins, father of the young woman, consenting thereunto, saying he would not be their hindrance.

8- 9-1701—Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins were married at a public meeting of the Friends, in Henrico County, Va.

4- 2-1702—Nicholas received a grant of 230 acres along ye north bank of James River and on ye west side of ye Four Mile Creek. This is near Dutch Gap.

4-17-1710—Nicholas was on committee to consider a marriage. Nicholas reported that he thought first cousins should not marry.

Oct. 1711—Nicholas, one of several who were paid for working on the Battery at Jamestown.

11- 7-1714—Nicholas was chosen representative.

3- 3-1718—Nicholas was chosen to inquire about a marriage, at White Oak Swamp Meeting.

4- 6-1719—Meeting held at the home of Nicholas Hutchins.

2- 7-1724—Nicholas signed the marriage record of William More and Martha Odum.

2- 6-1728—James Stanley, son of Thomas of Hanover County, and Catherine Hutchins, daughters of Nicholas of Henrico County, declare their intentions to marry.

3- 5-1728—James Stanley and Catherine Hutchins married.

10-14-1729—Daniel Harris, son of John of Hanover County, and Mary Hutchins, daughter of Nicholas, declare their intentions to marry. This announcement said Nicholas, deceased.

11- 3-1729—Strangeman Hutchins sold and deeded the above grant made to Nicholas, and fortunately in the deed said that Nicholas was his father.

4- 5-1730—Daniel Harris and Mary Hutchins married.

10-11-1743—Martha Hutchins, married John Stanley, son of Thomas. James Stanley and John Stanley were brothers, and as far as we are able to judge, Catherine and Martha were sisters.
Martha was the second wife of John Stanley.

8- 2-1736—There is mention of Mary Holmes, mother-in-law of James Stanley. Indicating a second marriage for Mary Watkins Hutchins.

We consider this summary the most important data we have found. In the past two years, we have sent this to many with whom we have been in correspondence. We are glad to make it available now to all.

The Spelling of the Name

The Quaker Records of Virginia spelled the name, Hutchins. Many of the later families spell the name, Hutchens. Either is correct.

The Watkins Family

Mary Watkins, who married Nicholas Hutchins, was the daughters of Henry Watkins. But on the Quaker Records of that time are found Henry Watkins, Sen., and Henry Watkins, Jun., father and son.

The following is mostly quotation from various sources.

One of the most interesting families of Virginia is the distinguished Watkins Family, whose earliest positive indentified family is Henry Watkins, born 1637, at Malvern Hills. There were earlier Watkins.

In the General Court Records, a Henry Watkins is mentioned 1623, 1624, 1627 as overseer of the plantation of Lady Dale, not far distant from Malvern Hills.

In 1634, a deed mentions a Henry Watkins owning land in such position that we have a Henry Watkins living in 1634, not more than ten miles from Malvern Hills, where Henry Watkins was born 1637. It has been impossible so far to connect Henry Watkins, 1637, to the other Watkins of that time.

This family distinguished socially and politically has been an object of research for many years.

The great Statesman, Henry Clay, was a descendant of this family.

Henry Watkins, senior, who died 1717, did not leave a will. He had previously deeded his land to his sons, William, Joseph, Edward, Henry, and Thomas. Court records show that he had a daughter, Elizabeth.

Henry Watkins, junior, born 1660, in his will 1714, left his small estate to his wife, Mary, and his sons, John, Benjamin, Joseph, Henry, and Stephen.

The most we can say is that Mary Watkins Hutchins was a daughter or a grand daughter of Henry Watkins, 1637.

Strangeman Hutchins

Strangeman Hutchins, son of Nicholas, was born in Virginia, 1707, and died in Surry County, (now Yadkin County), North Carolina, Feb. 10, 1792. Strangeman probably lived in Henrico County until his marriage about 1731 to Elizabeth Cox, daughter of Richard and Mary Cox.

Elizabeth Cox was born Feb. 25, 1713 in Virginia, and died, according to Thomas W. Barnett, in North Carolina at the age of 103 years.

Some time after his marriage, Strangeman moved up the James River to Goochland County, along Genito Creek. Here he bought and occasionally sold land. In 1782 to 1785, when preparing to move to North Carolina, Strangeman disposed of land showing that he owned about 750 acres of which his son, John, had an interest in 250 acres.

Strangeman was a very prominent member of the Friends Church. There was a small meeting at Genito Creek, but his principal activity was at the great central meeting at Cedar Creek, in Hanover County. His name is first found on the Cedar Creek records in 1741. From that time until 1786, when he moved to North Carolina, his name is continually on the records as witness, on committees, as representative, as overseer, as clerk, as elder.

In 1782, Strangeman freed twelve slaves by a deed of Manumission.

As you read between the lines of the record, you realize that Strangeman was a man of amazing vitality, and of remarkable ability.

Strangeman had eleven children, Mary Brooks, Edith Stanley, John Hutchins, Nicholas Hutchins, Elizabeth Barnett, Obedience Harding, Thomas Hutchins, Jane Barnett, Milla Hutchins, Lydia Johnson and Benjamin Hutchins.

The family of each, so far as is known, is given on the following pages.

1. MARY HUTCHINS

b. 10-17-1733, Va. d. 1804, Va. m. 5-8-1762, at Cedar Creek Meeting, Samuel Robert Brooks.

1. Elizabeth Brooks _____ 1. Jackson Stanley.
   b. 3-5-1763, Va. 2. Gulielma Stanley.
   d. 3. Mary Stanley.
   m. 7-4-1786, Va. 4. Elizabeth Stanley.
   Isaac Stanley.

Mary Brooks' will was made March 21, 1804, and probated in Goochland County, Va., June 18, 1804. The grand children are named in the will. Samuel Robert Brooks was disowned, 1-26-1766, by Cedar Creek Meeting for following the corrupt ways of the world.

2. EDITH HUTCHINS

b. 11-15-1736, Va. d. 6-22-1796, N. C. m. 10-16-1754, John Stanley, d. 1795, N. C.

The records of this family are very meager. There were four children, but we do not have dates of births and deaths. What we know is from the Quaker records.

1. John Hutchins Stanley---At Deep Creek Meeting, 5-4-1796, complaint against Hutchins Stanley for going out in marriage. This meeting therefore disowns him to be a member of this society. married 7-13-1795, Ann Hoppis.
2. Mary Stanley _____ married 12-6-1787, at Deep Creek Meeting, Jesse Stanley, son of Archelaus. Deep River record.
3. Elizabeth Stanley _____ Deep River Record, 9-1-1788. Complaint against Elizabeth McCollum, formerly Stanley, for marrying contrary to the discipline.
4. Milicent Stanley _____ Deep River Record, 9-6-1790. Complaint against Milla Airs, formerly Stanley, married out by Justice of Peace.

John Stanley's will made 2-24-1793, was probated May Term of Court, 1795. It mentions his daughters, Mary Stanley and Millicent Airs. His son, John Hutchins Stanley, is to receive his plantation, but his mother, Edith Stanley, and his grand mother, Elizabeth Hutchins, are to have a life interest in he land.

THE QUAKER CHURCH

The members of the Nicholas Hutchins family were birth right Quakers. To understand their lives and affairs, one should study the Friends Church of that early period.

To the Quakers, religion was a serious matter to be taken into their daily lives. Church rules and discipline were strictly maintained. To them marriage was a church affair. No hasty marriages for them.

The parties must declare their Intentions at a monthly meeting. A committee was appointed to investigate the clearness of the parties and report to the next monthly meeting. If a Quaker married a non-member, he was said to have "Married Out of Unity", for which he or she was disowned unless the fault was condemned.

Complaint was made against members for unseemly conduct, dressing too gaily, swearing, lying, frivolous talk, military service, gambling, drinking, not paying debts, holding slaves, absence from church, fighting, and for more serious offenses. And for any of these might be disowned. A member was not allowed to go to Law, without the consent of the meeting.

But always the church appointed a committee to visit the erring member, to help him see the error of his way.

A disowned member ceased to exist as far as the church was concerned. Often parents did not allow a disowned heir to inherit.

The older Hutchins belonged to four meetings. In Henrico County, Virginia, several meetings were grouped under the name Henrico Meetings.

In upper Hanover County, near Montpelier, was located Cedar Creek Meeting, one of the most prominent in Virginia. A number of small meetings were located in its territory. It was a Monthly Meeting, a Quarterly Meeting and a Yearly Meeting.

When the Hutchins moved to Surry County, North Carolina, and settled on the branches of Forbush Creek, they placed their membership at Deep River Meeting, about thirty miles away. Soon services were held near at Deep Creek. In 1793, Deep Creek became a separate meeting, with the Hutchins leading members.

Cedar Creek Meeting was abandoned long years ago. Deep Creek is still a strong, prosperous meeting. And recently, 1933, Charles Hutchins was its minister.

Ancestral Lines

Besides the Hutchins, who possibly came to the Virginia Colony as early as 1625, there are several Immigrant Ancestral Lines in allied families, the Watkins, the Cox, the Stanley, the Barnett, the McGehee, the Harding, the Harris and the Trent families.

The Cox Family

Elizabeth Cox, who married Strangeman Hutchins, was a daughter of Richard Cox and his wife, Mary. Richard Cox made his will in Henrico County, Va., July 13, 1734. In this he names his heirs, John Cox, Henry Cox, Mary Ford, Elizabeth Hutchins, Richard Cox, Obedience Perkins, Edith Whitloe, a grand son, Hickerson Cox, and his wife Mary. A deed made previous to the will shows that he had a daughter, Martha Ferguson.

Mary Cox, wife of Richard, was before her marriage Mary Trent, daughter of Henry Trent and his wife, Elizabeth. Henry Trent in his will made in Henrico County, Jan. 8, 1700, named as his heirs, Alexander Trent, Henry Trent, John Trent, William Trent, Mary Cox, wife of Richard Cox, Rebecca Trent, Susanna Trent, and his wife, Elizabeth.

Elizabeth Trent, born about 1657, wife of Henry Trent, was before her marriage Elizabeth Sherman, daughter of Henry and Cisly Sherman. And Cisly Sherman before her marriage to Henry Sherman, was the wife of Isaac Hutchins, whose will made in Henrico County, Feb. 23, 1656, named as his heirs, his minor son, Robert Hutchins, and his wife, Sisely.

John Cox was the father of Richard Cox. His will made in Henrico County, Feb. 10, 1691, named as his heirs his six sons, John Cox, William Cox, Bartholomew Cox, Richard Cox, Henry Cox, George Cox, and wife, Mary.

William Cox was the father of John Cox. Virginia descendants of the family, people of education and high standing concur in that statement. Mrs. Ella Foy O'-Gorman, Washington, D. C., a descendant of Richard Cox through his son, Henry Cox, after years of patient investigation, says that Wililam Cox was the Immigrant Ancestor. As does Judge Edwin P. Cox, South Richmond, Va., a student for years of the family records, a descendant of John Cox through his son, George Cox.

William Cox, born 1598, died previous to 1656, came from England to Virginia, 1610—in the ship, "Godspeed".

1628—Sept. 20, had a grant of 100 acres in Elizabeth City County.

1636—Nov. 29, had a grant of 150 acres in Henrico County, on the James, two and one-half miles above Harroe Addocks.
Wife, Elizabeth.

1642—Sept. 1, bought 250 acres in partnership with Isaac Hutchins at the mouth of Falling Creek, along the James.

1665—Aug. 5, Thomas Cox, son and heir of William Cox, sold half of this 250 acres.

1685—Apr. 1, John Cox, Sen. of Harroe Addocks, made a deed of land to his son, William Cox.

Harroe Addocks, or Arrohateck, was five or six miles above Dutch Gap. The William Cox grant, 1636, was possibly not far from the Mouth of Falling Creek.

b. 12-13-1742, Va. d. _____ m. 9-12-1767, John Barnett, b. 1712, Va. d. 1797, Va.

We have been unable to find this family. The marriage is recorded in the Cedar Creek Meeting records. These records, fourth month, 1786, show that they had a daughter, Obedience.

THE BARNETT FAMILY

Thomas W. Barnett, who lived in Fulton County, Ind., and who is named in the family of Jane Barnett, wrote a short history of the family in 1857.

He says—"John Barnett, my great, great grandfather, was born 1680 in the vicinity of James town, Va., and died there 1765. My great grandfather was named John also. He was born 1712, and died 1797. He was born, lived and died in the land of his fathers. Each of them was the only son in his family."

Thomas W. Barnett's mother was Elizabeth Hutchins. Of this family he says: "My great grandfather's name was Strangeman Hutchins. Why that singular name was given him, I know not, unless it was because his parents thought it strange that a man child should be born unto them, for I believe he was their only son. He was a minister of the Friends Faith. His word was law among his children, and they obeyed him to the letter. His wife lived to the advanced age of 103 and died in N. Carolina."

Elizabeth Barnett Mendenhall, aunt of Thomas W., left the record that John Barnett, 1712, had for wife, Ann. His children were Arthanacious, who married Jane Hutchins; Ann, who married John Epperson; and Martha, who married Frank Epperson. There were two other children whose names were not known.

DATES

The dates given have been taken from the Quaker Records, from Grave Stones, from the Census Records, from Bible Records, from Marriage Bonds, from County Records.

It is not always possible to get the exact date of marriage from the Quaker Records. The Intentions were declared at church. But often the marriage took place at home and was reported to the next monthly meeting as accomplished. We have often used the date of the intentions as the nearest we could find.

When a Quaker married contrary to the discipline, often the only date of record was the date complaint was made. which might be months after the marriage.

The date on a marriage bond might precede the marriage by days.

The Stanley Family

The Stanley Family and the Hutchins Family were closely inter-married. Thomas Stanley, from England, came to the Virginia Colony about 1700, with his three sons, James, Thomas, and John. They settled in Hanover County. James Stanley married Catherine Hutchins, daughter of Nicholas. They had a family of eight, viz., William, James, Mary, Martha, Micajah, Agnes, Strangeman and Elijah. This family moved to Guilford County, North Carolina, 1764, and are ancestors of a vast number.

Thomas Stanley, Junior, married twice, and had a family of eleven.

John Stanley married as his second wife, Martha Hutchins, daughter of Nicholas. They had a family of five, Ursula, Milly, Joshua, Thomas, and Agatha. The Alice Stanley, whom John Hutchins married, 1757, was a daughter of this John Stanley by his first wife.

The descendants of these Stanley families are extremely numerous.

The Stanleys were of the Friends Faith. Cedar Creek Meeting House was on Stanley land, and the Stanleys were the first overseers.

The Daughters of the American Revolution

Strangeman Hutchins was sixty eight years old when the Revolution began, and seventy one by the time the War reached Virginia. He was too old to take part in the War even if his Friends Faith had not forbidden. But he could perform Patriotic Service.

A record of such Patriotic Service was found in Goochland County, and Mrs. Gussie Waymire Crider made application to the D. A. R. and proved the service. With her application was filed a photostat copy of the record of the Service, and also a copy of the Will of Strangeman Hutchins. A copy of this Booklet will also be on file.

Any member of the family desiring to join the D. A. R., will need but refer to the application of Mrs. Crider for proof of Service.

Remark

Marrying Out of Unity meant that the parties married acording to the Law of the State instead of the Decree of the Church. The Quaker Church long ago rescinded its rule as to marriage.

James Hutchens, a historian in Forbush

James Hutchens and his wife, Thelma, visit the 19th-century home of her grandfather on Baltimore Road.

Grabbing at Ghosts

Man delves into community's history, legends

EAST BEND — Back in the 1790s, county court officials approved the building of a circuitous road from Rockford to Shallowford Road in what is now the Forbush community in northeast Yadkin County.

They bowed to the wishes of the rich and powerful Speers family, who asked that the road pass the Speer Plantation and cross South Deep Creek.

About 200 years later, the Speer plantation house is gone. Only the creek and Speer Bridge Road remain.

This tale of past times illustrates the frustrations a man such as James Hutchens faces in his quest to uncover the past.

Hutchens has spent most of his life ferreting out tales of the Forbush community, which is east of Yadkinville.

Mary Giunca

"We've spent hours and hours in the courthouse going through old deeds and documents," said Hutchens' wife, Thelma, who helps him with research.

He recently published the results of his years of research in: Forbush Baptist Church & Community 1876-1976.

Much of the area's history lives on only in tantalizing tidbits. Even George Forbush, the man who is generally credited for the community's name, has left few traces.

Forbush came to the area in the 1740s from the Shenandoah Valley. Hutchens hasn't been able to find Forbush's grave or house site.

Other people say that Forbush is a corruption of the original name, which was Forbes.

A talking history

As a youngster growing up in Forbush, Hutchens listened to old-timers spin stories at Conrad's Store.

He earned bachelor's and master's degrees in history at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

While teaching social science at Surry Community College, Hutchens earned a reputation for making a dull subject come to life. He taught there 21 years.

Now Hutchens roams the back roads with the eyes of a 19th-century settler.

He navigates by creeks, ridges and bottoms, rather than by modern highways and subdivisions.

The people of early Forbush were a pretty straightforward lot. They grew corn, tobacco, cotton and sugar cane.

But like most country folks, they had an ear for good tale. And if it was on the peculiar side, so much the better.

Take the story of Mary Ina Douglas, a 9-year-old who was killed by lightning Aug. 8, 1927.

Mary was sleeping in a bed between a sister and cousin during a storm.

Lightning struck a walnut tree outside the bedroom, traveled across an old telephone wire and somehow killed Douglas. Her sister and cousin weren't harmed.

The house where Hutchens grew up, the William Spillman House, contains another piece of lore: A crack that runs a couple feet up the bottom of the chimney.

"They say the Charleston earthquake caused it," Hutchens said. The earthquake happened in 1886.

The old house, like many in the area, has been left to decay, with only the black snakes and bumblebees to witness its slow destruction. Letters in the brick chimney date the building to June 22, 1831.

Little hope for salvage

When Hutchens was growing up there in the 1930s and 40s, the place might have been restored. No one thought about doing that, he said.

Now restoration would take more than he and his family can afford.

"I think the impression a lot of people have is that nothing important happened here," he said.

"So much of the local history and heritage has been lost through neglect and indifference."

That makes the little that is left of old Forbush that much more precious. If you ride the back roads and hack through enough weed-choked fields, the landscape starts to speak to you, even if its voice is rather rough.

There are no nattering tour guides or brightly lit exhibits that someone else has interpreted.

There is just the eloquence of weathered timber, crumbling chimneys and your imagination — that and one man who believes in the importance of grabbing at ghosts that seem to dance just behind his reach.
