

Sparta
Oct. 15. /56

To day I start to Spencer
We have a new landlord here. Mr. Mitchell is leaving and I am going to Mr. Minniver in a few weeks. I have the "blues" most awfully as I have heard nothing for a long while. I conclude my letters never reach you - I therefore try a new

them - on the side of the road, on a great big log.

We dined on N. Carolina peas & fat meat. Miss

Sallie presiding, her presence made it all

delicious - I went to McMinnville the next day expecting to catch train but I was about

1 hour too late to see them. I felt very much like going to Texas.

Frank, or Fran W.

plan by sending this big thing (Book) that can't be misplaced.

I did not go to Nashville
as I anticipated.

I came very near being thrown into obstacles last week by seeing on the street Mr. Franklin's family on their way to Texas. They could not wait long in town so I got in the wagon with Charlie and went three miles and took dinner with

1935
1848
87

1935
1856
79 yrs

NAME OF BOOK

Life of Henry Bidleman Bascom D.D., LL.D.

Later Bishop of M.E. Church South
By Rev M.M. Henkee, D.D.

1854

203742	8645	155.00	170.76	121.90	138.53	89.39	48.37	214.78	136.40	212.42	274.25	153.96	224.25	167.85	41.10
--------	------	--------	--------	--------	--------	-------	-------	--------	--------	--------	--------	--------	--------	--------	-------