The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

*In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;*

*for part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.*

Grandma

Heaven gained another angel. Grandma you were the one to take care of me when I was growing up and I will always love you but I know you are in a better place now, where there is no pain but at least you and grandpa are together again. R.I.P. grandma Daisy, I love you and see you later.

Deja Mack

Grandma

We want to thank you for being you. You were a strong, beautiful and funny grandmother and let's not forget strict (although you liked to think you weren't). We did not always understand your wisdom, but we quickly learned that it was a valuable resource as we embarked on our own lives. We are honored to be your grandchildren. We will always love and honor your memory. Although were are saddened by the thought of you no longer being with us, we take a great joy in knowing that you are at peace and reunited with your wonderful husband, and two beautiful children. We love you.
