

September 10, 1996

The Mt. Airy Arts & Crafts Guild met at Mary Lou Bartley's home for the first meeting of the year. There were 12 members present and paid dues for the coming year. Refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

Schedules for the coming year were distributed and adjustments were made. We will have these printed for the next meeting. We will draw names for Christmas at our next meeting.

Officers for this year are:

President: Mary Lou Bartley
Vice Pres.: Mae Turpin
Sec. Treas.: Wilma Travis
Prog. Chair: Joy Snow

Money brought forth:	$20.63
Dues Collected	: 48.00
Total	$68.63

Respectfully submitted
Wilma K. Travis

Sept. 24, 1996

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met today at Christine Beames' home with 12 members present and 3 members absent. Delicious refreshments were served consisting of brownie pie with whipped cream along with coffee and ice water.

We had a short business meeting and drew names for Christmas presents.

Chris introduced Minnie Lofton and her sisters to do our program. They showed us the Lapunto stitch. They had pillow covers and quilts using this stitch which is very attractive and time consuming. They will have a booth at the Autumn Leaves festival with their quilts and pillows for sale.

Treasurer report:

4.00	Sara Lee's dues
68.63	brought over
72.63
- 15.00	Andy Hennis printing
57.63
- 5.00	gifts for today's speaker
52.63

Oct. 8, 1996

The Mount Airy Arts & Guild met at Wilma Travis' home with 10 members present. Wilma made a suggestion that we start a cookbook with the hostess at each meeting submitting the recipe of her dessert to be kept in the scrap book. It was voted on by the 10 members present.

We went down to the basement to work on place mats & napkins. ^{14" x 20"} Chris Beamer gave out instructions for ^{18" square} Trappeto Yarning. This was done at the last meeting by Minnie Loftin and her sisters.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Travis.

Treasurer Report: $2.63

Oct. 22, 1996

The Mount Airy Arts and Guild met Oct. 22, 1996 at Joy Snow's home. with eight (8) members present. A delicious cheese cake (Joy assured us it was calorie free) was served.

Jenny Adams gave us a program on faux painted clay pots and painted floor clothes. She brought three completed floor clothes which were very pretty. She gave the history on the floor clothes which were made from the sails on the ships.

We adjourned to our next meeting on Nov. 5, 1996 with Mary Lynn Haynes.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Davis

1 member absent
15 members present

Nov. 5, 1996

The Mount Airy Arts & Craft Guild met at Wilma's house with Mary Lynn being hostess. Delicious rum cake with whipped cream, grapes, and coffee was served. The top half stayed upstairs to plan the Christmas luncheon to be held at Mary Lou Bartley's home on Dec. 3 at 12:30 PM.

We went to the basement to work on paper bag angles. This was Bruce Malmo's idea. We all had fun even though we had burned fingers from the glue gun. Everyone took one home with them.

Treasury Report	$ 52.63
Joy's supplies	- 3.00
	49.63

Wilma's supplies
(next meeting)

Respectfully
submitted
Wilma K. Travis

Member present - 15
Members absent - 1

Nov. 19, 1996

The Mount Airy Arts and Craft Guild met @ Leolan Hennis's home. Leolana served "non fattening" pear pie along with home made butter mints, and coffee. We had a very short business meeting.

Foy showed us how to make a skirt with Christmas stockings adjoined to it. The skirts were very attractive.

I would like to remind everyone that Chingua - Penn Plantation is opened with their Christmas decorations. The organ has been repaired so hopefully they will be playing music.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Travis

Treasury Report: $
Paid Wilma
for supplies - 6.00
for paper bag
angels 43.63

Members present: 15 Dec. 3, 1996
Members absent: 1

The Mount Airy Arts and Craft Guild met at Mary Lou Bartley's home for our Christmas Luncheon. Mary Lou's home was beautifully decorated. She told us that J. D. got all the credit for decorating the tree. I asked her if I could borrow him next year to do my tree.

The top half of our members were hostess this year. The menu consisted of roast pork loin, green bean almondine, congealed salad, home made yeast rolls, coffee, tea, and ice cream with peppermint topping.

We went to the family room to exchange gifts. There were no duplications. Many beautiful and useful gifts were exchanged.

We adjourned to our next meeting Jan 7, 1997 at Sis Hennis' home for show and tell,

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all.

Respectfully submitted
Wilma K. Davis

Members present: 8 Jan. 7, 1997
Members absent: 7

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met at Sis Dennis' home with 8 members present and 7 members absent. We had delicious refreshments consisting of pecan pie with whipped cream, grapes, nuts and coffee. We had a short business meeting and paid for our Christmas luncheon.

$ 43.63	balance
- 27.24	paid Roselle for meat
16.39
- 11.00	paid Lealon for wine
5.39
- 4.00	pd Sis for ice cream
1.39
+ 4.00	Claire dues for year
5.39
- 1.70	paid Wilma for cards & stamps
$ 3.69

Respectfully submitted
Wilma K. Travis

Jan. 21, 1997

Members present: 11

Members absent: 4

The Mount Kiny Arts and Crafts Guild met at Claire Merritt house with 11 members present and 4 members absent.

We were reminded to keep Bruce and her new grandson in our prayers. We were served refreshments and adjourned to the dining room to make boxes out of greeting cards. Most of us got at least one together to bring home to use as a pattern if we want to make some later.

We were reminded to bring our costume jewelry to the next meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Travis

$ 3.69 in our treasure

Feb. 4, 1997

Members present: 10

Members absent: 5

The Mount Airy Arts and Craft Guild met at Sarah Howerton Feb. 4 1997 with 10 members present. The hostess served delicious "Lois" squares topped with strawberries and whipped cream and a choice of coffee or hot cider.

Mae Surpin presided. Discussion was held about the absentees and the up coming meeting at Sara Lee's. The members then moved into the dining area where Sarah had her beautiful jewelry Christmas trees hung. She explained how to glue the jewelry on the red velvet picture frames. A delightful time was had "baking and icking" over every piece of jewelry and placing it on the red velvet to resemble a Christmas tree.

The meeting was adjourned to meet at Sarah Lee's on Feb. 18.

Respectfully submitted by Chris Beamer for Wilma Davis

Members present 12 Feb. 18, 1997
Members absent 3

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met at Sarah Lee Mc Gee's home on a beautiful sunshiny day. Sarah Lee's money hour working in her yard is reaping benefits. We were served Cherry Delight, grapes, nuts, and coffee were very good.

Sarah Lee introduced our guest speaker, Doris Sessler, who was going to be leaving on a trip in two days. She had some of her oil and water color paintings, braided and hooked rugs. She teaches at SCC and said if we could get 10 people she could teach a class here in Mt. Airy.

Bruce had mentioned about decorating hats for the children at Brenner Hospital. We will discuss this later as we have $3.69 in our treasure.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Travis

Members present: 14

March 4, 1997

Members absent: 1

The Mount Airy Arts and Guild met at Bruce Malone's home today to work on the hats for the children at Banner's Hospital.

Bruce served ice cream floats with cookies which brought back many good memories of going to the drug stores on Main Street after school to be with our friends.

Each person was given two derby hats and two baseball hats to decorate. Bruce got out many ribbons, pom-poms, buttons and other things to use on the hats.

Bruce reminded us to bring the decorated hats to our next meeting.

$48⁰⁰ was collected to pay for the hats ($4⁰⁰ each member.) Bruce, Sarah, Margaret, Lelon, Rosell, Mae, Joy, Marydlyn, Sis, Mary, & Claire. $2⁰⁰ Mary Lou & Chris.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Davis

March 18, 1997

Members present: 11

Members absent: 4

The Mount Airy Arts and Guild met at Mary Rowes' home. Refreshments were enjoyed by all.

We all admired all the hats we had decorated for the children at Brenne's Hospital in Winston Salem. Eleanor Powell-Norman came and made pictures. The picture was in Sunday's paper, March 30.

Mary showed us how to make window stars out of kite paper. These are different than any I had ever seen.

We adjourned to meet at Roselle's next time.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Davis

Wilma and Sarah Lee paid $4⁰⁰ each to Bruce for our hats making a total of $56⁰⁰ paid

Members present: 8 April 1, 1927
Members absent: 7

The Mount Airy Arts and ~~Club~~ met at Rocelle Harts home. We had a short business meeting to change some dates. The next meeting
April 15 will be at Margaret Francisco's home with Joy Snow having the program.

Refreshments consisting of lemon pie was enjoyed by all.

Rocelle introduced our speaker, Lilo Comer, who will give a program on knitting.
She says knitting goes back to 1100 A.D. In Germany young girls are given a six year apprentice. The Swiss had small villages in Germany for the young girls to knit socks, sweaters, caps, and scarves. The first knitting machine was introduced in 1599.

Lilo brought some sweaters that she had made.

She gave us directions for a knitted dish cloth. Respectfully submitted
W. Anna R. Davis

April 15, 1997

Present: 8

Absent: 7

The Mount Airy Arts and Guild met at Margaret Francisco home. A light dessert consisting of lemon sponge cake with whipped cream and strawberries and kiwi with coffee. The members were reminded to write recipes for our scrap book.

I read a note from Rocelle Hart giving her Resignation from the guild due to some changes in her parents illness at this time.

We went over to Wilma's basement. Joy gave a program on clay pots with a trellis with blackberries growing out of the pot. Everyone went home with a completed one to put in their kitchen window.

Treasurer report:
$3.64

Respectfully submitted
Wilma K. Davis

Present: 4

April 29, 1997

Absent:

The Mount Pine Arts and Guild went to Pilot Mountain to see Mrs. [unclear] garden.

Everyone agreed that it was beautiful but required a lot of hard work.

May 13, 1999

Present: 9

Absent: 5

The Mount Airy Arts and Guild met at Sis Hennis house today. Refreshments of Lemon pie was served. It was delicious and full of calories which everyone of us really needed.

We planned the ~~pick~~ picnic to be held at Jorg's in two weeks.

We offered suggestions for next years programs and reminded if we had any ideas this summer to let one of the officers know.

We have $3.69 in our treasury to start of with.

Respectfully submitted,
Wilma K. Travis

May 27, 1997

Present - 9

Absent - 6

Picnic at Joy Snow home.
Lots of food and good company.
This is the last meeting this year. Will resume in Sept.

for a new year.

Have a good summer and get lots of new ideas for projects for next year.

A suggestion was made to change our dues to $5.00

Respectfully,

Wilma K. Lewis

Treasury Report: $3.68

