A WILMOTH FAMILY by WALTER JAMES WILMOTH

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~smith/wilmoth.html>

Children of William Wilmoth are:

- i. Thomas Wilmoth, b. Abt. 1756, MD or NJ; d. 1827, Nelson Co., KY. □
- ii. William Wilmoth, b. March 10, 1759, South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ; d. Hill Co., GA..
- iii. Samuel Wilmoth, b. Abt. 1760, South Amboy, NJ. □ □
- iv. Ezekiel Wilmoth, b. July 01, 1761, South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ; d. July 24, 1842, Surry Co., NC; m. Mary Riggs, Abt. 1783, Wilkes Co., NC ?; b. June 09, 1764, Surry Co., NC; d. February 23, 1813, Surry Co., NC. □
- v. Susanna Wilmoth, b. Abt. 1764, South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ. □
- vi. James Wilmoth, b. Abt. 1766, NC. □ □ □
- vii. Nathaniel Wilmoth, b. Abt. 1775, NC; m. Mercy Snow, Abt. 1795, NC; b. Abt. 1780, NC. □

According this website, the Rev War Veteran named Wm. Wilmouth had a brother named Thomas, b 1756, a brother named Samuel, b abt 1760, and a brother named Ezekiel, b 1761. Their father, William Wilmoth, brought them to NC in the late 1760s, and when the rest of the family moved on, Ezekiel remained in the part of Wilkes County that was ceded back to Surry County.

Zekiel Wilmouth 1 0 3 0 0

one male 21-60 and 3 females of all ages.

I think that this shows Ezekiel with his wife and two daughters who were born before 1787.

He was on a list taken by Jesse Franklin for Hardin, so Ezekiel was in the part of Wilkes County that was ceded back to Surry county in 1792 at the request of Jesse Franklin. See Julie Morrison for a discussion of this boundary change.

See also the FGS for Ezekiel, Ezekiel Wilmoth Family, Judy Stanley Cardwell, on Rockford and Marsh Township Families Surry County, North Carolina

<http://www.fmoran.com/rockford/rockford.html>

Judy's FGS for Ezekiel leads to the following predicted 1787 census.

Ezekiel Wilmoth 1 0 3 ? ?

This simulated census is consistent with the actual census.

1790

Ancestry.com. 1790 United States Federal Census [database on-line]

Wilkes County, North Carolina

Ezekiel Wilmoth - 2 0 5 0

2 males 16-60, no males under 16 or over 60, 5 females of all ages, and no slaves.

This census shows Ezekiel and one other male born before 1784 (who was not listed in this household in 1787), with five females (presumably his wife and daughters -- two of whom were in the household in 1787 and two who appeared in the household between 1787 & 1790. Since the male born before 1784 was not listed in Ezekiel's household in 1787, I think that he was a nearly grown relative, possibly a brother of Ezekiel.

Judy Stanley Cardwell's FGS for Ezekiel leads to the following predicted 1790 census:

Ezekiel Wilmoth 1 0 4 ? .

Thus the census shows an "extra male" and an "extra female" in the household. There are several possible explanations for the pair. They could be one of Ezekiel's brothers and a sister or a spouse who are living with Ezekiel. The "extra male" could be any age between 16 & 60, and there is no information about the age of the "extra female", so they could also be parents of Ezekiel or his wife.

Surry County p 699 name # 12

Wilmoth, Zeakle 2 0 0 1 1 // 2 2 0 1 1 // 0 0

2 males under 10, 1 male 26-45, 1 male over 45// 2 females under 10, 2 females under 16, 1 female 26 - 45, 1 female over 45

Based on the previous census & tax listings for Ezekiel, I would expect to find two males over 26, plus any sons born during the decade (apparently two sons were born). I would also expect Ezekiel's wife, plus 4 females age 11 or older and any daughters born during the decade). There are two adult females, two teenage females, and two females who were under 10. Clearly the "extra adults" who were present in 1790 were both still present and were 45+. They could have been Ezekiel's parents or parents-in-law.

Judy's FGS for Ezekiel leads to the following predicted 1800 census:

Wilmoth, Ezekiel 3 0 0 1 0 // 1 3 0 1 0 //??

Excluding the 45+ couple, the differences are that the FGS has 3 males under 10 (instead of 2 as shown in the census), 1 female under 10 (instead of 2), and 3 females 10 - 16 (instead of 2).

This suggests that there may be incorrect birth years given in the FGS - these differences can be reconciled if William were born after the census date in 1800 rather than before, and Elizabeth were born before the census date in 1790 rather than 1789.

1810

Ancestry.com. 1810 United States Federal Census [database on-line]

Ezekiel Wilmoth 1 1 1 0 1 // 1 1 1 0 1 // 0 0

1 male under 10, 1 male under 16, 1 male under 26, 1 male over 45// 1 female under 10, 1 female under 16, 1 female under 26, 1 female over 45

The 1810 census agrees with the 1800 census except for the absence of a 55+ male, a 55+ female, and two females 16 - 25. I suspect that the 55+ couple were parents or parent-in-law who died during the decade. I also suspect that the female 16 - 25 was married and left home. (She may have been the Sally who married James Hodges and gave birth to Rozena Hodges in 1808.)

The FGS for Ezekiel leads to the following predicted 1810 census:

Wilmoth, Ezekiel 0 2 1 0 1 // 1 1 2 1 1 //??

The FGS differs from the census in that the census has 1 males 10-15 (instead of 0 male under 10 and 2 males 10-15), 1 female 16 - 25 (instead of 2), and 0 females 26 - 44 (instead of 1). The difference for the males can be explained if William was born in late 1800 instead of 1799. The differences for the females can be explained if the two oldest daughters were married and left home (or died).

1812 Surry County Taxlist Underwood's District

Ezekiel Wilmoth 432 acres 1 poll

If born in 1761 as shown in the FGS, Ezekiel should have been 51 and thus exempt from the poll levy. His oldest son, Stephen, should have been too young, at 19, to be levied, so this assessment for a poll may mean that Ezekiel was not yet 50, and thus he was born late in the year 1762 or later. Based on the 1810 census, he was born before 1765. His acreage had increased by 72 acres since 1800.

1820

1 male 10-16, 2 males 18-26, 2 males over 45 // 1 female under 10, 1 female 26 - 45, 2 females over 45, 4 engaged in agriculture is census shows that the makeup of his household was complicated by an influx of adult family members (one male 45+ , two females 45+ and one female child.

Reportedly, Ezekiel's wife Mary died in 1812, Betsy married Thomas Snow in the same year, Stephen married Elizabeth Snow in 1816, and Chloe married Ruel Snow in 1818. These events would be expected to leave a household consisting of Ezekiel 45+, Lott and Wm 16-25, and Tempy 16-25.

FGS for Ezekiel leads to the following predicted 1820 census:

Wilmoth, Ezekiel 00201 // 00100 //??

Ignoring the elderly couple, the FGS has 3 males under 10 (instead of 2), 1 female under 10 (instead of 2), and 3 females 10 - 16 (instead of 2).

WILMOTH

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~smith/wilmoth.html>

I copied parts of this webpage and pasted them below.

A WILMOTH FAMILY by WALTER JAMES WILMOTH

This information has been very kindly furnished to me by a cousin, Walter James Wilmoth. Walter is compiling information so he can write a book on the Wilmoth families descending from this "Unknown" Wilmoth. This is directly from him, showing my line. I haven't personally proven anything other than from my Thomas B. Wilmoth, (generation 10) on down to present. Each name with a * in between first and last names is not proven in descent, but assumed, with documents to lead one to that assumption.

Walter is willing to share what he has. For any information, contact him at wwilmoth@att.net.

7. EZEKIEL *6 WILMOTH (JOHN5, JOHN4, WILLIAM3, WILLIAM2, UNKNOWN1) was born Abt. 1705 in Isle of Wight, VA. ?, and died Abt. 1769 in New Jersey.

Notes for EZEKIEL * WILMOTH:

It is not proven that Ezekiel is in this line. The family was researched and compiled from hundreds of documents and family trees obtained over the years. I have not found one record that would indicate that they are descendants of William (1) of Jamestown. But the search will continue.

Ezekiel might have moved to New Jersey from the James River area, for the records I have found have all been in South Amboy, Middlesex Co., NJ, in Wilkes Co., NC and, around 1790, in Elbert Co., GA. This is where William Wilmoth, Jr. was born in 1759. Later he was found in Wilkes Co., NC. Military records state he was born in NJ and also Ezekiel Wilmoth of Wilkes and Surry Co., NC was born in NJ.

As for the other children listed, I have no records of them or their descendants. I only wanted to trace William back to try and see if records were available to tie him to my William, b. 1603.

Children of EZEKIEL * WILMOTH are:

9. i. WILLIAM *7 WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1735, N. J.; d. GA.
10. ii. EZEKIEL WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1737, NJ ?.
- iii. CALVIN WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1739, NJ ?.
- Notes for CALVIN WILMOTH:
 Calvin is found on the Tax list of 1780 for South Amboy, Middlesex Co., NJ.
- iv. LAZARUS WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1742, NJ ?.
- Notes for LAZARUS WILMOTH:
 Lazarus was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. There are service records for him.  He is found on the Tax Lists from Sept 1782 to 1789 of South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ
- v. PETER WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1745, NJ ?.
- Notes for PETER WILMOTH:  Peter is found on tax lists from 1780-1786 in South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ

GENERATION NO. 7

9. WILLIAM *7 WILMOTH (EZEKIEL *6, JOHN5, JOHN4, WILLIAM3, WILLIAM2, UNKNOWN1) was born Abt. 1735 in N. J., and died in GA.

Notes for WILLIAM * WILMOTH:

William and his children lived in and around Wilkes, Burke and Mecklenburg Counties, NC. Marriages are recorded for his children in Rowan Co., NC. He and those children began to migrate to South Carolina, Georgia and as far south as Louisiana at the turn of the century.

Found on 1800 census, Burke Co., NC. 4 males and 3 females.

Deed: March 30, 1783, Henry Co., VA., p 374. William was to receive money on behalf of his son, Thomas, who sold his land, located along the Irvine River, to David Haley. If David failed to pay, then William was to take the land back from him.

Children of WILLIAM * WILMOTH are:

11. i. THOMAS *8 WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1756, MD or NJ; d. 1827, Nelson Co., KY.
- ii. WILLIAM * WILMOTH, b. March 10, 1759, South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ; d. Hill Co., GA..

Notes for WILLIAM * WILMOTH:  This man was in the Revolutionary War, he and his brother, Thomas enlisted in Wilkes Co., NC.

Records were obtained by John R. Wilmeth of San Antonio, Texas, great grandson of Joseph Brison Wilmeth. William is found on 1800 census for Burke Co., NC roll 29, p 804 and on the Tax List for 1782, Wilkes Co., NC. name spelled Wilmouth.

iii. SAMUEL * WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1760, South Amboy, NJ.  Notes for SAMUEL * WILMOTH:  Found on 1810 Census, Chester District, SC, p 267 and on Tax list for 1793, Wilkes Co., NC, p 267, Turners Distr.

iv. EZEKIEL * WILMOTH, b. July 01, 1761, South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ; d. July 24,

1842, Surry Co., NC; m. MARY RIGGS, Abt. 1783, Wilkes Co., NC ?; b. June 09, 1764, Surry Co., NC; d. February 23, 1813, Surry Co., NC. □ □

Notes for EZEKIEL * WILMOTH: □ Ezekiel bought 60 acres of land near Butlers Creek with a David Austin, p 76.

In the 1800 census of Surry Co., NC, he had 2 males 0-10, 2 males 10-16, 1 male 26-45, 1 male over 45; 2 females 0-10, 1 female 26-45 and 1 over 45. This could be a younger brother and spouse. □

□ Found on 1793 census of Wilkes Co., p 267 □

Deed: march 7, 1787, Wilkes Co., NC 150 acres, Book 72, p 187 □

Deed: Dec 23, 1778, Wilkes Co., NC

Land Entry Book 1778-1781, entry #607 □

Land Grant: May 18, 1789, Ezekiel Wilmoth of Wilkes Co., NC. Grant # 942 and land # 940 in Wake Co., NC.

Deed book ;72, p 187

□ Tax List, 1787, Wilkes Co., NC Capt. Hardins List. □ □

Notes for MARY RIGGS: □ It appears that Mary's father, Samuel Riggs and William Wilmoth migrated from NJ about the same time based on each of their children's birth places and ages. William Wilmoth named one of his children after Samuel and William's son, Ezekiel, named one of his son's Chole and one Lott after Mary's brothers. □ □

v. SUSANNA * WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1764, South Amboy, Middlesex, NJ. □

vi. JAMES * WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1766, NC. □ □ Notes for JAMES * WILMOTH:

□ James is found on 1800 census of York Twp., S.C., Name spelled Wilmott. According to census records he was born in NC, □ □

vii. NATHANIEL * WILMOTH, b. Abt. 1775, NC; m. MERCY SNOW, Abt. 1795, NC; b. Abt. 1780, NC. □ □ Notes for NATHANIEL * WILMOTH: □ I believe that I have found their marriage in Rowan Co., NC. Nathaniel married and ran away with his new bride, going to Mississippi, then on to Louisiana. He raised a family of 3 boys and 4 girls. His son took over the family plantation after his death. □ □

10. EZEKIEL<sup>7</sup> WILMOTH (EZEKIEL *<sup>6</sup>, JOHN<sup>5</sup>, JOHN<sup>4</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>3</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>2</sup>, UNKNOWN<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1737 in NJ ?. He married NANCY Abt. 1759. She was born Abt. 1741.

Notes for EZEKIEL WILMOTH:

Ezekiel died soon after his son, William was born.

Notes for NANCY:

After Ezekiel died, Nancy and the children migrated to NC with her brother-in-law, William. William stayed in NC until the early 1800's, but Nancy and her children went through Randolph, Rowan, Mecklenburg counties, NC and on into Elbert or Wilkes Co., GA. They can be found on the reconstructed 1790 census of GA.

William, her oldest son, was elected Justice of the Peace in Jan. 1791.

Child of EZEKIEL WILMOTH and NANCY is:

i. WILLIAM<sup>8</sup> WILMOTH.

Ezekiel's daughter Temperance Wilmoth White is found in the 1880 census on 42C, Bryan Township, living with her son, Thomas J White.

Her father is noted as born in MD, Mother born in NJ. She is only child of Ezekiel to appear in the 1880 census which included (for the first time) where the parents were born.

The fact that her mother, Mary Riggs, was born in NJ has never been disputed. However, most everyone believes that Ezekiel was also from NJ.

While further research is needed, I believe this is the first evidence of where Ezekiel was actually born.

I am looking for Ezekiel Wilmoth from the 1700s. He and two brothers came over from ??? in the 1700s. I have the patriarchal line figured out down to Ezekiel and his brothers (their names may be Thomas and William) but I can't seem to pin these guys down and find out where they came from. This is a line that includes William Baylor Wilmoth, William Edgar Wilmoth, James Ruffin Wilmoth, Stephen Wilmoth, Lott A. Wilmoth, and down to Ezekiel Wilmoth. I have them moving from New Jersey to North Carolina and then to Virginia. Please email me with information: smilin\_chick@hotmail.com

Notes for Ezekiel WILMOTH

By family tradition Ezekiel Wilmoth was a brother of Thomas Wilmoth who owned land in Wilkes Co., NC, but apparently had no family. Ezekiel Wilmoth's land was on the Mitchell's River, in that part which prior to 1789 was part of Wilkes County. His wife's family lived down the river near where Kapp's Mill is now located.<sup>8</sup>

WILMOTH

KERNERSVILLE — Mrs. Lucille S. Wilmoth, 87, died Wednesday evening, Jan. 22, 2003, at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home in Winston Salem after a long illness. Lucille was born in Surry County on Sept. 17, 1915, to the late Lawrence Stoker and Laura Caudle Stoker. She was retired from Yadkin Valley Meat Processing Co. Prior to her employment there, she was employed at Armour Meat Processing Co. She was a member of Union Hill Regular Baptist Church. Lucille will be missed by all who loved her, and all whose lives she touched. Our loss is heaven's gain. Surviving are her husband, Corbit G. Wilmoth of Britthaven Nursing Home in Kernersville; two daughters and a son-in-law, Joan W. and Ken Meadows of Clemmons, and Sarah Norman of Kernersville; four grandchildren, Ricky Meadows Sr. and his wife Debbie, Tammy Warren and her husband Mickey, Lori Brown and her husband Kerry, and Shannon Walden; five great-grandchildren, Ricky Meadows Jr. and his wife Christie, Joshua Warren, Laura Warren, Kelsey Brown, and Wesley Walden; two great-great-grandchildren, Ricky Meadows IV and Joshua Meadows. She was also survived by several nieces and nephews; and by a special nephew, A.G. Stokes. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by three sisters, Ethel Brantley, Virginia Harris and Callie Piner; and two brothers, Edgar Stokes and Porter Stokes. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 25, 2003, at Davis & Son Funeral Home Chapel with burial in the Union Hill Cemetery. Elder John A. Harold will be conducting the services. The family will receive friends from 10 to 10:45 a.m. before the funeral service at Davis & Son Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home, 101 Hospice Lane, Winston Salem, NC 27103.

High Point, but I do not remember which cemeteries.

Some of Charlie's children live in High Point but I have not had any contact with any of them in a long, long time.

The last time I saw and spoke with any of them was about three years or so ago when I ran into one of the girls in the grocery store. I have no idea about how to tell you you could get in touch with any of them. Part of them live in High Point but none of them are listed in the Telephone book and I do not know where they live. The others live out of state.

I realize this is a long letter but I hope you can use this information and the documents I have enclosed.

Again, it was good talking with you. Please keep me informed as to the progress you make towards getting your book published.

Sincerely,
Frances H. Sink

April 8, 1996

Dear Mr. Coakman,

It was nice talking with you when you called me Saturday 9, 1996 regarding my husband's ancestry. I am sorry I have been so long getting an answer back to you but as I told you when we talked my health is not good and at that time I ~~was~~<sup>was</sup> just starting having to go through a lot of tests and would be in the hospital. I have just now finished all the tests and have at last received written results of those tests so now I am ready to go back to my cardiologist, the point from which I started.

Ernest Lee Sink, my husband's father, was married three times and my husband was by his first wife, Victoria Purdue. I do not know his second wife's name, but they had one son named Johnny, who was killed in I believe Germany, during World War I. His third wife was Nellie Carmichael and they had seven children. When Frank and I were married Mr. Sink and Nellie lived in Malbury, but as I told you my husband, Frank, was raised from age 18 months until he was about seventeen or eighteen years old when he went to work at the Allman Studio of photography where he worked for fifty years and retired from there. Prior to going to work at Allman Studio, though, he told me that at about age 13 or 14 a man and his wife who knew his grandmother, and who ran a sandwich and drink wagon through one of the rotary mills here in High Point took him into their home, fed and clothed him and let him help them with their little business through the rotary mill. Thereupon, he did not get to go to school and got the education he would have liked to have had. But in spite of it all <sup>he was a</sup> very good person, with many friends and very sensitive, and appreciative of his friends, his step-family and a good job. He and I had forty-three years of a good marriage and even to this ried Jacob Matthew Pruitt, Augusta Alice (1860-1953), who married Millard F. Brown, son of John M. and Pheroby (Joines).

The second Ralph Holbrook died April 30, 1883, and was buried in the Old Roaring River Church Cemetery.

On September 21, 1898 Nancy (Spicer) Holbrook dictated her ancestry in America to her son, J.S. Holbrook, who entered it in the family Bible: Richard Bauguess and his first wife, Nancy (McCarty) (whose grave was the first one in the Old Roaring River Church cemetery, marked with a boxwood and a pine knot) were the parents of Jane (Bauguess), who married Joseph Spicer, son of William and Jemima (Haines) Spicer, daughter of Samuel and Abiah (Woodruff) Haines, son of Joseph and Molly (Nall) Haines.

Nancy, at the age of 95, died in January 9, 1910, at the home of her son J.S. Holbrook, and was buried beside Ralph in the Old Roaring River Church cemetery.

RANDOLPH HOLBROOK

Before there was a Wilkes County, when it was still Surry, the Parish of Saint Jude, there were Holbrooks beside the east prong of Roaring River on Holbrook Mountain, a scenic spur off the Blue Ridge between the east and middle prongs of the river.

Randolph (or Randol) Holbrook, his wife and family, accompanied by William Hargas, evidently a close relative, from Goochland County, Virginia, were among the early settlers, early enough for Surry's 1774 list.

Soon after Wilkes was formed and the land grant office opened in 1778, Randolph filed an entry for 250 acres near his brother John's (See Family of John Holbrook, Senior) on which he had made "improvements" on the east fork of Roaring River, on the south side of a mountain.

Other entries included: John Fugit for land "near the Gap of Holdbrooks Mountain"; George Brewer, "at the foot of a mountain called Holdbrooks Mountain"; and William Hargas, "on top of Holdbrooks Mountain."

Peter Greenstreet's entries, had established the name as Greenstreet Mountain.

By 1785 Randolph's acreage had increased to 410, and in 1787 the number in his household seemed to indicate that in addition to his and Mary's children, Sukey, Robert, Colby, Randall and Larkin, others, of perhaps a previous marriage probably to a Hargas, were living there.

On May 1, 1789 Randolph's daughter Susan, called Sukey, was married to Willis Alexander, son of Angus and Woenifred (Fugate) Alexander, early settlers on Longbottom. The fact that Ralph Holbrook was bondsman indicated a close relationship.

Just thirteen years after the date of his grant, Randolph died without a will very early in 1793 and was buried in an unmarked grave on his plantation. His coffin made locally of walnut lumber cost ten shillings. The sale of his estate brought 169 pounds, 11 shillings and 9 pence. The 28 hogsheads and three tight casks indicated that he was a cooper, a maker of barrels and casks. In Virginia he used hogsheads to transport tobacco to market. Here he could send hides and skins to Salem or Salisbury.

Items brought by his family included: the Bible, the razor, one saddle, the grubbing hoe and "basons" by Colby; 18 hogsheads and one horse by Robert; the loom, the table, a cow and a calf and "met" (meat) by Mary; a saddle by a nephew.

Some valuables went to neighbors: the "slay" (sleigh) and harness to Jasper Billings; the woman's saddle (side saddle) to John Hammons, Jr.; a bed, flax wheel, pair of cards and grindstone to William Alexander "chist" and oven to Spencer Adams "reep" (reap) hook and a piggin to Ste Caudle; and the churn to Charles Cate.

Of the five children of Randolph and f only Sukey and Colbert (Colbey) were liv Wilkes in 1850. Willis and Sukey Alex had five sons, and Colbert had three son two daughters.

Robert had moved to Surry County an married Frances Cook in 1803. Randal migrated to eastern Kentucky.

Larkin, born about 1780, had an early near Poll Bridge on the northern end of G street Mountain soon moved to Ashe Alleghany) County. He married Sarah (Sallie) Sheckles, born about 1782. He had before 1860, but Sallie was living in S near a son David, born about 1828, who ried Margaret Crouse and was county cor sioner for three terms, from 1872 to 187 moved to Oregon 1885. Another Washington K., born about 1813, m Mirah Wagoneer and had a general stor harness and saddle shop in Sparta in the Larkin and Sallie's other children were: beth, who married John Passmore; Jes: born September 20, 1809, who marriec Elrod; William T., born April 1, 1813, married Catherine Setzer; and Mary, Polly, who married Hardin Phipps.

RALPH HOLBROOK

The first Ralph Holbrook must have been on the east prong of Roaring River by the time Wilkes County was formed, for it was only two years later, 1780, that he signed a deed of a neighbor, Thomas Walsh. In 1782 he had married Jane, called Jennie, Winfrey, of Surry County, and was listed as head of a household.

According to family traditions, Ralph's brothers were John S. who remained in Virginia and William B., called Buck, who married Rachel Winfrey, a sister to Ralph's wife Jennie, and acquired land east of Elk Spur. Of the three sisters, Elizabeth married first a Wheeler and second Israel Walters in 1798. They acquired a land grant but sold to William Caudle in 1801 and heeded the call to eastern Kentucky. The second sister married Joseph (?) Pruitt, a veteran of the Cherokee expedition and the Revolution. The third married a Caudle.

In 1793 Ralph served as administrator of the estate of William Hargas, acquired his home and lived in a house beside the road — the first road to the county courthouse, which passed from Elk Spur, "crossing the east prong of Roaring River above William Hargas."

On the 340-acre plantation Ralph worked as a cooper with one slave in 1800 and three by 1809.

He and Jennie had five sons: Lewis, who died young; Caleb; Ambrose; Winfrey; and John. In 1809 when Ralph wrote his will they were expecting another. Ralph provided for it: "If it be a daughter . . . I will my Negro Tamer Girl. If it be a son I will that it share equal with the other four sons." (Lewis had already died).

And so it was — another son, and another Ralph, born six months after the first Ralph died and was buried in an unmarked grave on the plantation.

In this inventory of 1808 there were a Bible, a Testament, a hymn book and two spelling books; feather beds, a looking glass, smoothing irons, besides all the paraphernalia for spinning and weaving; ten imported Delft plates, plenty of pewter (15 plates, 20 spoons, "basons" and dishes; glass tumblers, earthen porringers, Dutch ovens and a set of tea ware; two horses, four "slays" (sleighs) and harness and more and better tools than Randolph: a broad axe, cutting and drawing knives, sickels, weeding hoe, ½ bushel measure, a "lanthorne" and a still with four mash tubs.

Two of Ralph and Jane's sons, Ambrose and Winfrey, migrated to eastern Kentucky and married there, Ambrose to Nancy (Elam) and Winfrey to Betty (Walters), a first cousin, daughter of Elizabeth and Israel. Ambrose and Nancy were parents of Dr. Campbell Holbrook, who returned to Wilkes to marry Fannie, his cousin.

Caleb married Mary (Winfrey) and lived at the homeplace. He died in 1839. Their daughter Elizabeth married Austin Yates, a brother of the wives of the Twins. One son Pattison was married to Wadie Pruitt and the other, Winfrey, to Malissa Bauguess.

John married Jennie Bauguess, daughter of Robert and Mary (Sparks) Bauguess. He was a hatter, and made hats from beavers he trapped. Their daughter Sallie was married to Henderson McGrady. She was at the Hugh Stokes school in 1850 when census was taken. Lewis married Letitia Johnson and Elizabeth to Leander Johnson, Jr.

THE SECOND RALPH HOLBROOK

The second Ralph Holbrook, born October 3, 1808, on the east prong of Roaring River, never knew his father, the first Ralph Holbrook of Wilkes, for he had died six months earlier. But his mother, Jennie, lived until 1854.

In 1815, when Ralph was seven years old, school was held at Elk Spur by Washington Walsh, the son of a neighbor, Thomas Walsh.

When Ralph married on February 13, 1834, Nancy (Spicer), born October 13, 1815, to Joseph and Jane (Bauguess) Spicer, their address was Wilkesborough. Their settlement was a "place called Trap Hill," but the post office was not opened until three years later, when a weekly mail service was available as the carrier on foot spent a night in their home on his way from the county seat to Mouth of Wilson, Virginia.

Ralph was one of the first school committeemen, with Jonathan Gentry and Joel Pruitt, in 1841.

His agricultural report for the 1840 census included four slaves, three horses, fifteen cattle, nine sheep, thirty-seven swine but only five poultry; his crop production ranged from 370 bushels of corn, 40 of potatoes, 25 of wheat to small amounts of oats, rye, flax and hemp.

About this time he sold a few acres to the Siamese Twins, who had chosen Trap Hill as their home. They asked Nancy to supervise their slaves as they prepared the "infare" and to welcome the brides.

Ralph and Nancy were consistent, loyal members of the Old Roaring River Baptist Church from the time they joined, he in 1829 and she in 1839. He officiated as a deacon 54 years and served frequently as a messenger to the annual association. On August 26, 1882, he was a trustee of the church when he, his son J.S. and Leander Johnson, contracted with the public school committee of district #25 for the school to use the church house and two acres "as long as needed for school purposes."

Between 1835 and 1860 Ralph and Nancy Holbrook had 10 children and eventually 62 grandchildren and 56 great-grandchildren. Their children were Hardin Spicer (1835-1935), who was married to Nancy Dawson Bryan, daughter of J.Q.A. and Martha (Bryan); James Monroe (1836-1887), who married Elizabeth Spicer, daughter of Hardin and Martha (Johnson); Martha Jane (1839-1932), who married Joshua Spicer, son of Hardin and Martha (Johnson); Joseph Samuel (1842-1920), who married Frances Alexander, daughter of John and Mary (Thompson); Ralph Calloway (1846-1938), who married Sarah Ann Holbrook, daughter of William and Sarah (Sparks); John Winfrey (1849-1938), who married Sarah Jane Caudill, daughter of William and Frances (McGrady); Joshua N. (1851-1892), who married Alice Bryan, daughter of Abraham and Margaret (Carson); Nancy Frances (1854-1948), who married Dr. Campbell Holbrook, son of Ambrose and Nancy (Elam); Elizabeth (1856-1940), who mar-

Prepared 27 Apr 1998 by:

Mary Williams, beloved wife of Thomas Williams, departed this life on Saturday, Sept. 13, 1902, at 9 o'clock p. m. at her home near Plato, Texas Co., Mo. She suffered for one year from effects of typhoid fever. She lay with this fever for weeks, finally got able to be up and walk alone, made a few visits last spring and summer. She was taken worse two weeks before her death; heart failure and general debility were the cause of her death.

Her maiden name was Mary White, born in Georgia May 21, 1829. She was the daughter of Joseph and Temperance White. She moved with her husband from Indiana to Texas county in the year 1868. She and Thomas Williams were married in the year 1848, living together happily for 54 years.

There were born to them 10 children, 4 sons and 6 daughters, 77 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren. Her beloved and aged husband, one son, five daughters, three son-in-laws, one daughter-in-law, pastor and wife were at her bedside when she breathed her last. The names of the children present were as follows: Newt Williams, Martha Henson, Mary Geers, Julia and Laura Hicks and Annie Chrismon. Those five daughters were very faithful and kind to their mother all through her sickness, never tiring, stayed with her night after night for weeks and even months. Her son, Newt, was no less attentive; he has looked after father and mother for years to see that they were cared for.

Four of Mother Williams' children were not present when she died—three sons and one daughter: Louisa Mahafa is in Texas, James, the second son, died 2 years ago, Robert, the third son, lives in North Mo., Joseph in Purlaski county, Mo. He came in time for the funeral.

She was a loving and faithful wife, a kind, good mother and a good, generous neighbor, never wanted any one to go from her house hungry. Not long before she died she told her daughters to cook plenty to feed all the people that were there. She did not want any to go from there to her funeral hungry.

She was a faithful member of Baptist church at Mt. Pisgah. She was baptized Oct., 1883, by Elder J. C. Hicks, who is the present pastor. The church has lost a faithful member. She never failed to fill her seat at her church, except hindered by sickness or otherwise. She said to the writer about 3 months ago, "I haven't been to my church for three months." She grieved more about being absent from the church than any other one thing. I have known her to attend night meetings and go home after church 8 miles. Oh, how faithful to the cause she espoused about 19 years ago.

She never got tired of serving her Lord. She had a strong desire to go to meet her Savior and be at rest. She would say all through her painful illness, "Let me die and go home and be with Jesus." Her last will and desire was for her unconverted children to make necessary preparations to meet her in Heaven, where parting is no more. Mother, daughters all belong to the church. This was a consoling thought,

Her husband was baptized with her and has lived a consistent christian ever since. This too helped her to be happy. She said not long before she died "I shall not be here long and if I knew it was the time now I would clap my old hands for joy. She spoke to her pastor the evening she passed away to preach her funeral.

Not long before the end came, one of her daughters spoke of trying to make her bed better. She said, "never mind, Julia, Jesus can make a hard bed feel soft as down pillows are."

Had song and prayer at the family residence, song, "Why do we mourn departed friends?" She was then taken to Mt. Pisgah church. A large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends followed. The funeral was preached by Rev. J. C. Hicks; text 14th chapter and 12th verse of Rev.: "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." Song, "Thou art dear and justly dear." She was then laid to rest in the Mt. Pisgah cemetery to await the great day of the Lord.

A wreath of evergreens and flowers was presented by kind hands, while many sympathizing friends spoke words of encouragement to those bereaved.

To all those thoughtful friends and to those who rendered such valuable assistance during her sickness, the family desire to extend their most profound gratitude. Our mother and companion is gone; we sorrow for her, but not as those who do not expect to meet in heaven, for

Death shall not claim the immortal mind,

Let earth close o'er its sacred trust,
 Yet goodness dies not in the dust.

A SISTER IN CHRIST.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I have been researching my family's history. Many of my family are from the Surry and Rockingham County Areas. What information do you have that might be of help? Have the County marriage records, birth and death records, or wills been transcribed and published? I am particularly looking for information on the Wilmoth and Norman families.

The Rockingham County Historical Society was kind enough to give me your address. Is there a Surry County Historical Society?

Sincerely,

David E. Wilmoth

RECALLING HOWARD WILMOTH

Howard Wilmoth, who died recently, will be remembered as a strong and caring family man, which extended to the whole clan, as was all of these families in the days of yore.

His ancestor, Ezekiel Wilmoth, came in the very early days of Surry County and settled on Mitchell River. Howard's father, Columbus Jackson Wilmoth, eventually moved out to the Fisher River section to what is now called Salem Fork.

Howard was especially interested in athletics. Both he and his wife, Pearl Hardy, were outstanding athletes at Dobson High School. Howard had an offer to play baseball with the Saint Louis Cardinals, but he turned it down. He loved his home, his farm and the family too much to leave them.

But World War II called and he served in the U.S. Army in the European Theater of Operations. He served in England, France, Germany and Belgium and was in the D-Day event.

Howard lived to see his sons and grandsons become outstanding athletes. 3-19-98

PERSONAL ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE MOUNT AIRY NEWS

Submitted by Teresa Smith

May 27, 1909

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. WILMOTH are visiting their children Mrs. L. Parks and Mrs. L. F. HICKS of Elkin. They will return home today accompanied by their daughter Miss Manye, who has been attending school there.

I had the pleasure of attending a surprise birthday dinner at Mr. Henry BRINDLES on yesterday. His many friends came and brought well filled baskets. There were one hundred and twelve present. Rev. J. D. DRAUGHAN asked a blessing and then all ate and had a good time. I also had the pleasure of meeting Mr. BRINDLES mother who is 82 years old but is still hale and hearty. Uncle Dock SIMPSON was also present and many old people.

SHOALS NEWS – This community was very much shocked last Saturday when the news reached here that Mr. J. W. HILL who lived near Siloam was found on the banks of Mitchells river shot through the head with a revolver.

The Stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Julius OWEN the other night and left them a 14-pound boy.

Short News Items – A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. FAWCETT last Sunday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. JACKSON last Friday.

Mr. W. J. TURNER, of Statesville, is now opening a brand new stock of groceries in the store room next door north of J. D. JENKINS.

A party of young men from this city, W. E. BARKER, W. F. LOVILL, Jay FRANKLIN, G. O. MONDAY and W. J. WATSON left a few days ago to spend a week hunting and fishing on the head waters of Mitchells River. Because of the robbery at Mr. LOVILL'S store he and Mr. MONDAY returned to the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah ARMFIELD of Lowgap is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. F. D. HOLCOMB.

Little Miss Pauline MOOREFIELD of Greensboro is the guest of her aunt Mrs. Rhoten HINES in this city.

Mrs. H. G. WHITAKER has returned to her home in Pilot Mtn. after a visit to her daughters Mesdames SHEPPARD and JONES in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. BARKER of Pinnacle are in the city visiting their son, Superintendent I. W. BARBER.

Mrs. Augustine KEY left Wednesday for her home near Laurel Bluff after spending some time in this city the guest of her daughter Mrs. J. A. SNOW.

Charged with Robbing Store – Last Saturday night the store of W. F. LOVILL in this city was entered and an effort made to open the safe with a drill. The robber secured twenty dollars and evidently left thinking he had secured all the money. But he found the large door of the safe open and a much larger sum of money was in a drawer that he failed to open. In some way suspicion pointed to H. E. BOYLES a young man 20 years old who lives near town. He was seen in the store late Saturday night and it was known that he bought a drill that night from one of the hardware stores. When arrested he had in his possession a pair of shoes and a hat with Mr. LOVILL'S cost mark on them. Also in his trunk several steel drills were found and two of these have a mark on them that tells a tale. A month or more ago Mr. A. C. SCHUMAKER foreman at the Mt. Airy Iron Works, lost some drills and no where could he find them. He will swear that the drills found in BOYLES' trunk are his, and the supposition is that they were stolen from the shop. Two other young men were arrested but no evidence sufficient to bind to court developed. BOYLES is not able to give bond and must stay in jail until November term of court.

Railroad Talk – Interest is again aroused in the now railroad that the people of Statesville are trying to build. Elkin wants it to come that way and of course the people in this section want it to come up this way. A meeting of the leading business men of this town was held last week and delegates will go to Statesville to confer with business men as to the desirability of coming by this town. Meeting to be held May 28th.
