The Knob Whispers

The Senior Class of 1957 . . .

presents . . .

Pilot Mountain

on Parade!

Dedication

Since you first taught us in the seventh grade, you have come to be a treasured friend, a second mother to each member of this class.

To you we have brought our joys and received congratulations; our sorrows and problems and received consolation, help, and encouragement.

All through the years of our high school life we have received guidance and love from you.

As our junior home-room sponsor you made our junior year in high school one of the best ever. The main event of the year...our junior-senior banquet and dance...was a huge success, thanks to you.

Now, our "cup runneth over" because you are our senior home-room sponsor. You have given hours of work to make our senior year the best one ever spent.

So, as a means of saying "thanks for everything...we'll remember you always," we, the senior class of 1957, humbly dedicate the KNOB WHISPERS to you...our teacher, counselor, and friend...Mrs. Melba Y. Simmons.

SONNET TO THE CLASS OF FIFTY-SEVEN

The bugle note of education sounded its clear call
To sixty-odd bright, eager girls and boys;
That happy year of forty-five, with all its cares and joys,
A tantalizing vista showed through Alma Mater's hall.

We advanced in wisdom; each grew straight and tall...
Stern Learning taught us that which never cloys,
As do pleasures gained from lesser, vainer toys,
And exacted dedication to her tasks from each and all.

Twelve years have passed, with their chance of rain and sun.
The questing ones who from the foothills faced the dare
Now number fewer than when they first began the climb...
But each unfolding mind that Alma Mater won
To her unfaltering gratitude and loyalty doth bear
And shall cherish her memory ever green until the end of time.
